The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

BILL ZWICK HAS A homing pigeon that he thinks should be home. The bird has a band on his leg and Bill thinks it is too important to go into the makings of a pot pie. And besides, he said, there's not enough meat on the pigeon. He swears he did not take the bird in trade.

THERE'S NO PLACE like home and folks in the village of No Place, England, all 259 of them, think, too, there's no place like No Place.

TUESDAY WAS A BIG DAY in hundreds of lives when the kids all returned to school again. Many were buzzing around by 6 a.m. and ready to go to school by 7 a.m. But this will soon die down to a walk after the initial excitement wears off. Incidentally, the Lining wishes every student and teacher a wonderful and full year of educational experiences.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Trouble with the average man is that he seldom rises above the average."

CLOSE FRIENDS OF HUGH WALTERS are calling him "Carp" when they meet him.

W. G. WALDRON dropped off two weekly papers. One is from Ontonagon, Mich., and the other is from Staples, Minn. The Minnnesota paper, strictly from a journalistic standpoint, is the better one. We appreciated very much seeing how other papers are doing.

ANOTHER LITTLE PAPER we get at the office regularly is the "Hill Top News", written, printed and published by the boys at the Ionia Reformatory. I know well a boy in one of the five paper's departments. At one time he served as high school sports reporter on a paper I edited. He was a popular, crew-cut athlete and one never suspected that he would get mixed up in a deal that would send him to Ionia. But he did; and he shocked everybody. He was part of a gang that gained more than $13,000 from breaking into a number of schools in Michigan and Ohio. A judge in central Michigan "threw the book at him" and he received seven years to "pay his debt to society." Every time the paper from the reformatory comes I think of the boy and what a good reporter he was and wonder what happened some where along the line that helped to "squirrel" him up. But, now, he's doing a wonderful job again in journalism and maybe somehow he will make the grade yet.

IT MAY COME AS A SURPRISE to Michigan land lubbers to learn that whales once cavorted in the Great Lakes!

Russell C. Hussey, professor of geology at The University of Michigan, points out that whale skeletons have been found in the Lower Peninsula.

And in case you think this is just a tall tale about "the big one that got away," several finds have been made, one right here. "One whale skeleton was found near the town of Oscoda where an excavation was being made for a new high school; another was near Flint, and still another near Tecumseh. A portion of a fourth skeleton was found in a swamp south of Ann Arbor," the professor says.

"These bones were in place. They showed no evidence of having been brought in by the ice of prehistoric glaciers and there was no possibility that they had been carried by human beings," he continues.

Whales are marine animals today and can not live long in fresh water. The question immediately arises, how did they get from the ocean to Michigan, for this is exactly what they managed to do.

According to the University geologist, the problem may not be so difficult, after all.

"When the ice started to melt, great quantities of water poured out from the ice front, and collected in depressions on the land surface, eventually forming a great system of glacial lakes. This water covered portions of Michigan and drained into the Atlantic ocean by a variety of channels that formed at different times.

"There was, then, after the Ice Age, a fairly direct water way between this state and the ocean, and the big sea-rangers followed up one of these old water connections and eventually reached Michigan where they perished of starvation," he concludes.

LAVON SCHOONOVER whose family won the Thunderbird, Jr., at Butler's was an excited young man. The eight-year-old, it seemed, was ready to drive to Britton in the tiny car.

WALTER E. NORRIS of Staten Island, N.Y., here visiting his nephew Art Eaton, dropped in to renew his subscription and chatted for a while. He left town 55 years ago. He once wrote articles for the HERALD about the Spanish-American War.

Council Orders Fluoride Dumping

Councilmen Tuesday night ordered Ed Nelson, city manager, to dispose of all sodium fluoride now stored in the city garage.

The city manager, before he left for Mackinac Island after the council meeting, instructed John Kopka, superintendent of the water department, to dispose of two drums holding the sodium fluoride which were left over from the city's program of putting the chemical into the water supply.

Councilmen instructed that Mr. Earl Bryan, chairman of the anti-fluoridation committee, be a witness to the dumping, as well as one or more councilmen and the editor of the HERALD.

As the HERALD went to press at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, the dumping of the sodium fluoride had not been undertaken; but Mr. Kopka planned to dispose of the chemical some time Wednesday.

Mayor and Manager Attend Municipal League Meet

H. H. Hanna, mayor, and Ed Nelson, city manager, will attend the 57th annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League at Mackinac Island beginning today (Thursday).

Delegates to the convention, which ends Saturday, will hear discussions concerning problems currently facing city and village governments.

Manager Nelson will take part in a panel on municipal management.

Nearly 1,000 municipal officials and their wives will listen to Mayor Allen C. Thompson of Jackson, Mississippi — president of the American Municipal Association, the national organization of cities and villages—at the annual banquet Friday evening. Mayor Bruce D. Garbutt of Ferndale, president of the Municipal League, will present honorary life memberships and special awards of merit to selected municipal officials at the banquet.

Highlighting the opening day will be the address of Governor G. Mennen Williams at a luncheon session. Senator Charles E. Potter will be the principal speaker at the closing luncheon Saturday.

The principal theme running through the entire program is the establishment of municipal policy on important problems deserving of legislative attention at either the state or federal level. Particular attention will be devoted to the need for an expanded highway program and revision of the state highway laws to better meet city and village street problems.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit will speak Saturday on financing highway improvements, considering both bonding and "pay-as-you-go" plans.

Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler will talk on State Highway Department plans for implementing the federal aid highway act in municipalities.

Delegates will give consideration to stimulating the civil defense and disaster control program at the opening session Thursday morning. Featured will be W. B. Pettigrew of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, and C. F. Van Blankensteyn, Director of the Michigan Office of Civil Defense.

State organizations of municipal administrative officials affiliated with the Municipal League will meet concurrently during the three-day conference. The Michigan Association of Municipal Attorneys; Michigan Association of Municipal Judges; Municipal Assessors' Association of Michigan; Michigan Chapter, International City Managers' Association; Michigan Chapter, Municipal Finance Officers' Association; Municipal Clerks' Association of Michigan; and Engineers and Public Works Officials will hold separate sessions on Thursday afternoon and Friday morning.

The Michigan Municipal League is an organization of cities and villages of the state with headquarters in Ann Arbor. It is devoted to the advancement of home rule and the improvement of municipal government in Michigan.

Swim Pool Closes for the Season

The Joyce Andrews Memorial swimming pool closed Wednesday, Aug. 31, for the season.

Normally the pool would have been left open until Labor Day but the automatic shut-off on the boiler caused the boiler to become over-heated and the water became too hot.

As a result the heat also caused a failure in the filtering of the water for the pool.

Carl Hale, pool manager, said the filtering plant probably could have been put back in proper use but the time that the pool would have been opened before closing Labor Day did not merit a hurried-up job.

Councilmen Tuesday night authorized Ed Nelson, city manager, to contact the Krieghoff construction company and the architect to see when the boiler can be repaired.

Meanwhile, manager Hale requests that swimmers who accidentally took keys to pool lockers home return the keys.

He said they could be returned to him at Central school or to James Howard at the high school.

Clare Camburn again will direct the all-county band festival.

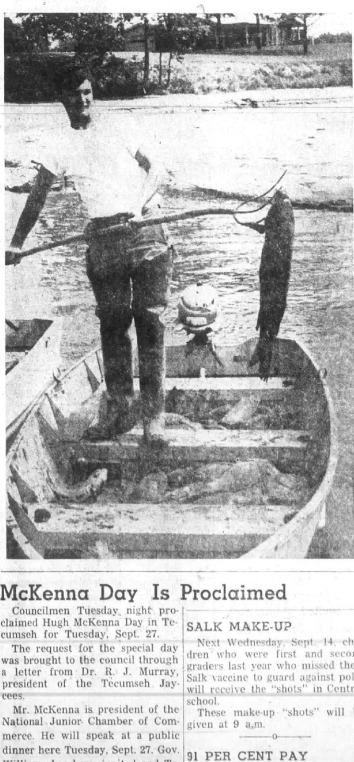
Red Pond Yields Six Tons of Carp

HARVESTING CARP—In the picture below Cal Simonson of Pinckney forks up a grandpa carp from the mud on the bottom of Red Pond. After he had a boat load of carp he rowed and pulled his catch to the conveyor above which loaded them on to the waiting truck. Look closely and you will see two carp about to drop into the truck. The truck load of carp (and there were many) were taken to Al Tonneberger's to be used as fertilizer for his fields.



Six tons of carp have been killed and taken from Red Pond in an effort by the Michigan Conservation Department and owners of property on the pond to give more desirable game fish a place to live and to multiply.

The pond will be re-stocked with blue gills, bass and other pan fish.

Men of the department's lake and stream improvement, division of fisheries, under the direction of Wayne Tody, with Hugh T. Walters as local contact man, have been doing the work.

First the water in the pond was lowered with only the original river channel flowing to get the fish into a more "concentrated area."

The water area then was sprayed with the liquid chemical rotenone.

The fish were placed in concentration to save on the use of the chemical which takes oxygen out of the water.

In other words, the fish actually suffocate from lack of oxygen. The chemical will not phase turtles which are not gill-breathing.

The rotenone, however, does not poison and it has no effect on fish as a food. In fact, several of the large fish, some three feet long, were carted off for food by some folks.

Other carp were buried in rose bushes and shrubs as fertilizer.

Most of the 12,000 pounds, though, were trucked out to Al Tonneberger's farm on Newburg road and plowed under for fertilizer.

The operations here brought folks from miles around and several lads with bows and arrows shot at the carp after they were dead and lying in the mud along the banks of the pond.

At least 99 per cent of the harvest in Red Pond was carp. Some bullheads and suckers, as well as very small rock bass, also were killed.

The program here is part of the conservation department's southern Michigan drive to reverse the carp "landslide."

The carp is a vegetarian that keeps water too roiled and muddied for other game fish to live and to propagate.

Pictures of the operations here were taken and they will be used to show at conservation clubs and on television at some future date.

Rena R. Rebottaro and David Vanderpool Wed

The altar of the Tecumseh Baptist church was banked with palms, hampers of white gladioli and tiered candelabra of lighted cathedral candles Saturday morning, when at 11 o'clock Rena R. Rebottaro became the bride of David L. Vanderpool.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro of Route 1, Tecumseh and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vanderpool of west Brown street. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. O. Bashore.

Miss Carole Mitche of Blissfield sang "Always," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" before and during the ceremony and was accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Dillon at the organ. Mrs. Dillon played other traditional music.

Attendants of the bride were Mrs. Malcolm Bater, who was matron of honor and Miss Carole Harper, Miss Virginia Gregory, Mrs. Janet Tate and Miss Joyce McCarbery, the four bridesmaids.

Alroy Vanderpool was his brother's best man while John Ladd, Donald Maves, Dean Pilbeam and LeRoy Bater were ushers. The flower girl was little Linda Easton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easton, while Michael Vanderpool, son of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Miss Rebottaro chose hand-clipped Chantilly lace over satin for her bridal gown whose full, hooped skirt swept into a chapel train. Its fitted bodice had long sleeves and a Queen Ann collar. Her finger-tip veil fell from a crown of lace which was embroidered with pearls and sequins and she wore earrings and a single strand of pearls which were the bridegroom's gift. Her flowers were white carnations in a cascade bouquet combined with white tulle and tiny white velvet leaves.

The costumes of the attendants were of identical style in a theme of red and white. That of Mrs. Bater was waltz length of white tulle under a redingote of red nylon lace and she carried red and white candy-striped carnations with velvet leaves. Strapless gowns of lipstick red tulle with white lace redingotes were worn by the bridesmaids and their bouquets were red carnations with red velvet leaves and bows of white velvet. A red velvet sash and a miniature bouquet like that of the bridesmaids accented the ruffled, white tulle dress of the flower girl.

Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro wore a blue faille dress with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of tiny pink rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a red velvet dinner dress with jacket, her accessories were light blue and her shoulder corsage of red rosettes with velvet leaves of matching blue.

A wedding dinner for 40 guests followed the ceremony at the Legion Hall at 2 p.m. and a reception was held at the same place at 7:30 that evening which was attended by 300. The serving table had a centerpiece of pink roses and white pompoms in a crystal bowl, while the five-tiered wedding cake was served from a table flounced in white organdy. A bridal wreath of pink roses and white poms encircled the base of the cake.

It was cut by Mrs. Lavern Frederick assisted by Mrs. Tom Rice, and Mrs. Louis Rebottaro served the coffee. The guest book was in charge of Miss Ann Rebottaro.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderpool left for a week's trip through the western states, the bride wearing a spun silk dress of pink trimmed in black velvet, which had a matching coat. Her accessories were also pink and black.

Mrs. Vanderpool is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and is a secretary at the Tecumseh Products Company. Mr. Vanderpool, who also graduated from Tecumseh high, is a painter. They will reside at 212 south Union street.

Friday evening before the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vanderpool entertained the wedding party at a six o'clock rehearsal dinner at the Legion Club.

ASTONISHING PERFORMANCE!
And that's only half the Chevrolet story
Drive with care . . . EVERYWHERE!

Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices.

A lightning-quick power punch that makes your driving safer! That's one of the reasons for Chevrolet's winning stock car record—but it's not the only one. Not by a long shot!

Astonishing performance—the sizzling acceleration of Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8"—it takes that to win stock car races.

But it takes a lot more besides. Cornering and handling qualities really count on the NASCAR* Short Track circuit where Chevrolet's king—just as they count for safer and more pleasant highway driving. And even the high-priced cars don't slice through a tight turn as neatly—or handle as sweetly—as this beauty. The record proves it!

Come on in and sample all the things that give Chevrolet its winning ways. We're keeping a key ready for you!

VA Clarifies GI Loans

Veterans Administration today answered several questions concerning credit controls on GI home loans.

The credit control order of July 30, 1955, requiring a two per cent down payment and limiting the maturity of such loans to 25 years was not retroactive, VA stressed.

Exempted from credit controls are those new and existing homes for which VA received requests for certificates of reasonable value (appraisal) prior to July 30. VA said the appraisal request is the first step in the GI home loan procedure.

Extensions of certificates of reasonable value on properties exempt from credit controls will not subject the units to down payment and maturity requirements.

However, veterans will be required to pay closing costs in cash on any exempt property for which a certificate of reasonable value was extended.

In multi-home projects, substitution of houses on lots selected by veterans will not subject the property to credit controls if both the house and lot are covered by appraisal requests received by VA prior to July 30.

The new credit controls will not apply to GI loans made solely for the replacement or reconstruction of residential property that has been destroyed or substantially damaged by flood, fire, or similar disasters.

The new requirements do not apply to repair, alterations or improvement loans.

VA said it could not grant exceptions where a veteran signed a contract prior to July 30, 1955, but no request for appraisal was received prior to that date.

The two per cent down payment requirement must be met in every case by a payment of cash. An equity in land is not acceptable.

Federal Housing Administration commitments will not be recognized by VA unless the request for VA appraisal was received prior to July 30.

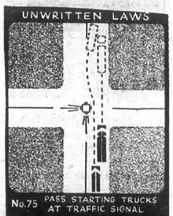
UNWRITTEN LAWS



No.75 PASS STARTING TRUCKS AT TRAFFIC SIGNAL

Sometimes trucks are hard to pass, or it just seems that way. You follow one and when it is moving at highway speed there is frequently oncoming traffic so you can't pass.

One of the smart things to do is to catch the truck just after it has stopped at a traffic signal. When it starts up it will pick up speed slowly. You can accelerate rapidly. So this is frequently your best chance to pass a truck safely.

Another opportunity is when trucks have slowed down for a 25 or 35 speed limit. Overtake them before they reach higher speed limit areas. The bigger they are the slower they start. But, remember the slogan, "SLOW DOWN AND LIVE".

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

There have been times in all our lives when music brought to us the very Word of God, for he often speaks through emotion as clearly as through reason. We are more than logicians, we are spirits, mortal humans who cry and laugh, moan and rejoice, hate and love.

We are what we think, but also we are what we feel. Through passion we destroy, and through passion we bestow blessings. How we feel is decisive, how. Therefore the stimulus and nurture of right feeling offer hope of high destiny. With Adelaide A. Proctor, reflect upon this possibility:

Seated one day at the Organ,
I was weary and ill at ease,
And my fingers wandered idly
Over the noisy keys.
I know not what I was playing,
Or what I was dreaming then;
But I struck one chord of music,
Like the sound of a great
Amen.
It flooded the crimson twilight,
like the close of an angel's Psalm,
And it lay on my fevered spirit
With a touch of infinite calm.
It quieted pain and sorrow,
Like love overcoming strife;
It seemed the harmonious echo
From our discordant life.
It linked all perplexed meaning
Into one perfect peace,
And trembled away into silence,
As if it were loath to cease.
I have sought, but I seek it vainly,
That one lost chord divine,
That came from the soul of the Organ
And entered into mine.
It may be that Death's bright angel
Will speak in that chord again,
It may be that only in Heaven
I shall hear that grand Amen.

Legion Wins Welfare Award

Underwood-Orr Post No. 34, American Legion, at last Thursday's regular meeting was presented with the Herbert R. McKenna trophy for outstanding achievement in child welfare in the state during the past year.

Louis S. Schneider presented the trophy to Vern Manwaring, post commander.

Eddie Hodges and Ray Puffer who represented the American Legion at Boys' State reported on their camp activities.

In other action the post membership made preliminary plans for a dinner for the Legion junior baseball team with fathers of players as guests and plans for the Oct. meeting were discussed.

The post hopes to have the Breckinridge, Mich., state championship drill team here for the Oct. meeting which will include a pancake dinner.

George Gould, county commander, was a guest at the Aug. meeting.

BAPTIST WOMEN FEED FAIR GOERS

Next week the annual invasion of the Lenawee county fairgrounds will begin. Women of the Tecumseh Baptist church have been storing ammunition all summer for the assault on the appetites of fair goers and soon will move in in force.

Equipment will be placed under the direction of an experienced group made up of the M. F. Barritts, the Mills Swicks, the Roscoe Hewletts and Dow Bilbys.

Mrs. Vern Manwaring and John Surratt will enlist volunteers for active duty on the food firing line and the efficient, smooth working operation will get under way with the first dinner Sunday, Sept. 18.

Studies by the Indiana State Police show that a passenger involved in a highway accident has a 2 to 1 better chance of escaping fatal injuries if he remains inside the protective shell of the vehicle.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all the friends and relatives who remembered me with cards, flowers and gifts on my 80th birthday. Mrs. Vena Mohr.

—o—

The family of Jennings Frayer wishes to express its heartfelt thanks for the many acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from kind friends and neighbors during the recent illness and loss of our loved one. We especially thank the doctors and nurses at Herrick Memorial hospital, the Rev. O. E. Priest for his comforting words and other ministers who have called. Also the Niblack Funeral Home, the Masons, the Eastern Star, the Grange, 4-H and many others who have been so very kind and helpful.

—o—

IN MEMORY OF JENNINGS FRAYER

The golden sun for him has set,
'Twould seem 't were hardly noon;
We wonder why this change should come
To one like him, —so soon.

No answer shall we ever find,—
No reason can we give,
But this we know that he had learned
The way men ought to live.

No one department of his life
Took all his thought and time;
His mind enjoyed his daily work
Or soared to thoughts sublime.

Poems he loved and often read,—
The words of other men
And too, he loved the poems
Where God had held the pen.

The sky above the towering trees,—
The streams and lakes below
Bespoke a kind of poetry
That he had learned to know.

He lived so much that he'll be missed
In many, many ways;
He showed us life's not measured
In years or months or days.

80TH BIRTHDAY

The 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Vena Mohr, which was held Sunday at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Titley was a very happy event. One hundred and sixteen friends and relatives called during the hours of two to five in the afternoon and although she had requested no gifts, Mrs. Mohr received many cards, flowers and gifts. Friends came from all nearby points and from Wauseon, Ohio, Lansing, Jackson, Farmington, Oak Park and Keego Harbor.

W.S.C.S. Plans for Anniversary Program Sept. 14

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will hold its first fall meeting Sept. 14 at 8 o'clock at the church. The 15th anniversary of the founding of the W.S.C.S. will be observed.

The origin of this world-wide Methodist organization goes back to 1940 when the three branches of Methodism, Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant, and Methodist South were united. The women's organizations of these three branches were merged into the present society.

Plans are under way to honor the charter members and past presidents of the local society. The program "The Spread of the Kingdom in Perilous Times" is in charge of Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

At a recent executive board meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robert Bonner, plans were formulated for the coming year. Events scheduled for fall are the bazaar to be held Nov. 17 with Mrs. Elmer Bryan as general chairman and the annual Christmas Tree Lane tea will be held Dec. 3.

Recently organized circles will meet soon. The Mabel Lawrence Circle will meet Sept. 15 with Mrs. David Dick. The Mary Foster Circle will hold its first fall meeting Sept. 15 at the church. The Naomi Irene Circle plans to meet with Mrs. Bonner, Sept. 21.

A study class will be held early in the fall with Mrs. Ellsworth Collins. The general themes of study are "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World" and "Indian Americans." These will become familiar phrases in churches throughout the United States and Canada during 1955-56 as they are the mission study themes of 28 major denominations.

Patricia Ann Book Is Bride of Douglas Monagin

In a simple ceremony attended by only the immediate family and a few friends, Miss Patricia Ann Book, formerly of Jefferson, Iowa, and Douglas E. Monagin of Britton were married at 6:30 Friday afternoon at the Methodist church of Macon.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Vaughn Whited and the couple was attended by Carol Harper and John Ladd, both of Tecumseh.

The bride wore a tailored suit in light blue with a corsage of red roses, while Miss Harper's two piece suit dress was aqua and her corsage was of yellow carnations.

The wedding party and the Rev. and Mrs. Whited went to Clinton immediately after the ceremony, where a wedding supper was served at the Clinton hotel after which Mr. and Mrs. Monagin left for a weekend trip into Canada.

Mrs. Monagin, who is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Wier of Jefferson, Iowa, has been a resident of Tecumseh for the past three months. She is a graduate of Jefferson high school and is employed at Eggleston's Jewelry. Mr. Monagin graduated from Tecumseh high school and is an employee of Wilson Motor Sales. They are at home at 123 S. Ottawa street.

CONNIE MACK, Charlie Dressen, Casey Stengel and other baseball experts believe that pitching is 75 per cent of the game, but even though I'm a broken-down, old pitcher myself, I don't believe it is quite that important.

What with the still-livelier ball and the shrinking of the strike zone so that a pitch only a little above the belt line is called a ball, power hitting plays a greater part in winning a pennant.

Consider the Chicago White Sox. Despite a first-rate pitching staff the past few seasons, they couldn't take the flag because of weakness at the plate. This year they have more power hitters and thus remain in the thick of the spine-tingling fight for the title.

Nevertheless, pitching remains by far the most important factor in baseball. If the Tigers had just a little better pitching, we'd be right up there with the rest of them. We've lost some two dozen games by one measly run.

Predict Repeat Title

Ol' Diz believes that the pitching staff that withstands the great pressure of the last weeks—among Chicago, New York, Cleveland and Boston—will win the pennant.

Al Lopez thinks so, too, and that's why he is predicting a repeat title for his Cleveland ball club. He claims his pitching staff has proved it can stand up under pressure, and in Ray Narleski and Don Mossi he has the two best "stoppers" or relief hurlers, in the American League. We'll see.

What makes a good pitcher? Well, he must possess a around today. Most hurlers a strong physique, power of concentration, fielding ability and desire to win.

That's a large order, of course, and that's why there aren't too many good pitchers around today. Most hurlers have one or more shortcomings.

A live arm means one that responds a few days after use and is ready for another nine innings. As pitchers age, their arms fail to respond for longer periods.

Fielding Important

A strong physique is necessary to stand up under the punishment of a full game of pitching. Concentration is mind over muscle, which helps make control, and also keeps the pitcher from becoming rattled in tense situations.

A pitcher's fielding is more important than most fans realize. He must be able to hustle on a bunt, throw well to second base to start a double play (the ball must be timed to reach the onrushing fielder just as he hits the bag) and cover first on a ball hit to the second or first baseman.

Control means getting ahead of the batters. If you can't get strikes across the

How to score yourself: Mark your choices 1-2-3-4. You get ten points for a correct first pick, five for a second, three for a third and one point for a correct fourth choice. Twenty is average; thirty, good; forty, very good, and fifty is perfect.

Advertising pays off — and the Kansas City Athletics are one of the biggest boosters for the printed word.

The recent ad in The Sporting News, in which the A's invited boys to attend their try-out camps, brought out 1,500 applicants and 31 of the boys were signed to contracts.

You can't beat that for results. And it's results that pay off on the ball field. We'll try you on a few in The Sporting News Sports Quiz:

1. That Jackie Robinson is a good base-runner, no one will deny. He's a threat on the paths. But can you name the number of times Jackie had stolen home in his major league career up to Aug. 29?

( ) 15 ( ) 18 ( ) 21 ( ) 24

2. With the season moving into the final weeks, Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies and another National League pitcher had the unenviable record of tossing the most home run balls in the majors, each with 34. Can you name the other pitcher?

( ) Hacker ( ) Newcombe
( ) Arroyo ( ) Erskine

3. The Sporting News Quiz introduction said that it's results that count—and here is one in reverse: Can you name the active major league pitcher who topped both leagues in games lost during his playing career up to Sept. 1 of this year.

( ) Bob Feller ( ) Early Wynn
( ) Ellis Kinder ( ) Ed Lopat

The first flight was won by Clyde Gunder who defeated Roger Linger, 8-7.

In the second flight Buck Miller defeated Elmer Krueger, 4-3.

Pauline Moore won her fifth woman's club championship in six years by defeating Millie Butler, 7-5 in the finals.

Restrooms and Cleanliness

Two statements made by visitors to Tecumseh during the past week need to be passed on and commented on so here they are:

One of the comments, made by an elderly person, said that Tecumseh sorely needs a public toilet. He said he has never seen a town worth its salt that does not have a public toilet.

The toilet, or restroom if you prefer, could be placed in the city offices, in the park or elsewhere.

Of course there would be an expense: first for the building; then for the maintenance.

But the project certainly does have merit and it might be worthy of the efforts of some service club, some church group or of the city itself. Or perhaps joint cooperation might be the answer. Anybody have any ideas on it?

The other comment was made by a lady who felt that "Tecumseh is a dirty town." She asked: "Don't you ever clean your streets?

She does have a point. The streets in the downtown area could be kept cleaner. And this can only be done through the joint efforts of the business places and the city.

These two comments again show what others think of us. Of course, there are those who just don't give a darn what others say or how others may feel.

But it is our guess that those who do care far outnumber those who do not.

And, after all, what others say is not as important as how all of us personally feel about keeping the town clean.

This is just like the classic personal comments made when the house is cleaned at home. The kids invariably ask: "Who's coming?" They are told "Nobody is coming; we just want the house clean for ourselves."

What Others Are Saying

Why, in 1952-53, did Michigan maintain 4,532 school districts when 90 per cent of the children received their education in 17 per cent of the districts?

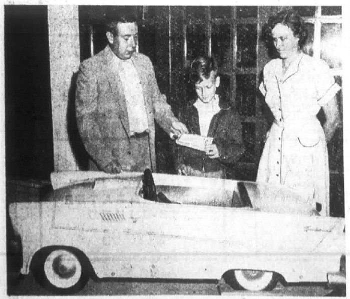
Was it necessary to have this large number of districts when all the children would eventually receive their high school education in 560 districts operating high schools?

Is it sensible to maintain 4,532 school districts when from 1950-51 to 1952-53, enrollments in larger districts have increased 108,615 as the smaller districts showed a decline of 2,406 pupils?—Citizens Research Council of Michigan

"A strengthened demand for farm products and lower production costs will place agriculture in a stronger economic position."

—Dr. Daniel Stuart
Michigan State Uuniversity

"Driver training will continue to gain in popularity among high school youths and adults, too, because part of it is life itself."



WINS THUNDERBIRD, JR.—Mrs. Perry Schoonover of Tecumseh won the Thunderbird, Jr., in the Aug. car promotion campaign at Butler's Motor Sales.

Shown handing her the service policy on the tiny life-like car is Jim Spooner of Butler's while her son LaVon, 8½, looks on.

Other winners in the campaign were L. T. Brown of Tecumseh and Donald Cilley of Adrian who won 10 free lubrication contracts.

"I've never listed a property before," the young man said nervously. "But Dad told me to look you up. Tell me, though, is there any charge for signing up a listing?"

"No," I said with a grin. "You are merely authorizing us to go to work on your property and agreeing to pay us a commission if we do sell it within a certain time period at a price acceptable to you."

The young man relaxed. "You don't charge unles you do succeed in selling my place. Is that the idea?"

"Exactly," I replied. "We are paid only for RESULTS. All we wind up with is the overhead, lost time and experience if we're unsuccessful."

"By golly," the young fellow said, "I don't think I'd like your business. But as long as you do, I'll sign the listing. Frankly, I hope you do get paid, because that means I'll be sold out. And you see it's results I want too."

I smiled. "I believe we can get along with you. We'll promote your property and try to produce a sale for the benefit of all concerned."

May we SELL your property too? Remember, there's no charge unless we get RESULTS!

Hot Summer Doesn't Mean Cold Winter

Old wives' tales to the contrary, you just can't predict a cold-cold winter coming up because of our hot-hot summer, says a University of Michigan meteorologist.

In fact, meterologists aren't even sure yet that this will measure up statistically to be an exceptionally hot summer—the sweltering man in the street notwithstanding!

So says A. Nelson Dingle, research associate in the University of Michigan's Engineering Research Institute, who looks on summer and winter as separate entities significantly separated by the fall season during which anything can happen atmospherically, and usually does.

He explains this by pointing out that although there may be some continuity in weather pattern during the summer, a time of relatively few storms, changes in air temperature and other atmospheric gyrations make fall a turbulent period, disrupting what little order there might have been in the pattern.

Spring is the same kind of unpredictable season with a rapidly warming atmosphere making its weather changeable, he says.

IT'S NOT SIMPLE

"For some strange reason people expect the atmosphere to be a simple thing producing weather that follows logically day after day," Dingle states, "but it is actually highly complex, huge, and influenced by many forces—some of which we don't even know about."

Weather prediction beyond a few days is a pretty risky business, he declares, since "weather persistence," as it is called, can't be counted on as a guide for longer than this period.

"The weather seems to remember what it was doing yesterday and be guided by this, but only for a couple of days," he states.

THEORIES CITED

A popular topic for speculation when the mercury sits above 90 is the general warming trend evidenced all over the world in the past centuries. There are several possible reasons advanced for continuance of this, Dingle declares, and cites two theories.

One is based on the increasing amount of carbon dioxide in the air caused by man's burning of fossil fuels like oil and coal, and the other rests on the idea that as the glacial areas in the northern hemisphere decrease there is less of a source for cold air, and refrigerating capacities decrease.

But, he says, these are only theories and some meteorologists have already begun predicting a reversal of this trend.

Speaking of Michigan's weather and warming trend, Dingle says that if the pattern continues this area may find itself inclining toward the tropical. But, he concludes, there's no need for anyone around now to worry about it — it'll take years, hundreds of them.

Those Days Were Rugged

Grandpa isn't just spinning yarns when he talks about "my rugged days in school." Fact is, according to Michigan Department of Health records, young folks can thank their lucky charms that it's 1955, not 1900.

You see, back a half century ago, about one death out of every three was someone 15 years of age or younger. Last year, only one out of every 10 Michigan deaths was in that age group.

Diseases going around at the turn of the century often meant much more than a few days out of class. Diphtheria, for one example, hit 2,706 Michigan people in 1900, compared with only 57 new cases reported in the state last year.

Measles and whooping cough, combined, killed 550 in 1900, but took only 34 Michigan lives in 1954. And scarlet fever, which caused 123 deaths 50 years ago, only killed three times in Michigan last year.

Sanitation, immunization and modern treatment methods are given credit for cornering the ails, "but no communicable disease can be counted completely out," the health department cautions.

Most of the diseases, the department goes on to say, may be merely marking time, waiting for the pressure to let up. Like measles, whooping cough and scarlet fever, which caused few deaths last year, but piled up a combined total of 51,487 new cases in Michigan.

As the health department sees the situation now—with schools re-opening—one of the worst hazards is complacency. The rugged days of grandpa's youth may never return. But if the one-time communicable disease killers should slip back to power, they could make rough going for generations now in Michigan classrooms.

Napoleon Still Shapes Furniture

Empire furniture is still a popular traditional form, although it has been scaled down to fit into the smaller living rooms.

Today it still carries the formality of the days of Napoleon, says Mary Shipley, instructor in textiles, clothing and related arts at Michigan State University. In fact, Empire furniture came about because of the little Corsican. Designers of the outstanding Empire pieces styled their furniture to glorify him and fit his likes and dislikes.

Chairs, for example, were small in contrast to the size of the other pieces. Because Napoleon was a short man, he persuaded designers to create smaller chairs with short legs.

The style itself, explains Miss Shipley, was an adaption of the classic Roman, ornamented with swords, shields, arrows and laurel wreaths. Most of the decoration was on armrests, legs and drawer fronts.

Bright, stamped brass designs were popular, contrasting the deep, red mahogany of the day. Most Empire colors were jewel-like. White and gold were popular as were deep red, yellow, brown, dark blue and olive green. Fabrics were satin, damask and brocade.

Charles Percier and Pierre Francois Fontaine, noted designers of the time, were architects and this influence was seen in their massive designs, points out Miss Shipley. Empire beds and sofas were lavish, shaped like sleighs, higher at one end than the other and draped with yards of material. Desks and buffets of the period have Roman-like columns on the front corners.

Napoleon's influence on period furniture, and thus today's furniture, was one way of showing his strength and power to the world, adds Miss Shipley.

All the Milk You Can Drink for 10 Cents

All the milk you can drink for ten cents.

That's the offer of the Michigan dairy industry at its giant 40 foot long dairy bar which will be set up in the Agriculture Building of the Michigan State Fair, that continues through Sept. 11.

And you can have a choice between milk or buttermilk, according to Charles Stone, chairman of the Michigan State Fair Dairy Committee which has arranged the mammoth dairy exhibit in gala colors which runs 103 feet along the south and east walls of the Agriculture Building.

Serving the milk will be young ladies who are members of the Junior Farm Bureau of Michigan. They'll be attired in yellow pinafores and sunbonnets.

"It'll be a big treat for every member of the family at a real bargain," Stone comments. "Remember, adults need to drink at least three glasses of milk every day—four glasses for children. You never outgrow your need for milk."

The entire Michigan Dairy industry is footing the bill for this grand State Fair bargain.

You don't need a "BUNDLE" to wrap up this BONUS-BARGAIN

Sometimes, a bargain is measured by how little you pay.

Sometimes, it's measured by how much you get.

But here's one that's a whopping bargain by both measures.

Because right now—for the leastest money of the year—you can buy the mostest Buick in history.

That, Mister, is because we're adding a profit-sharing bonus allowance on top of the long trade-in allowances we've been making all year.

And when we say the "mostest" Buick, we mean the most-wanted Buick ever built—the one that has broken every record in the book—outselling by far all other cars except the two most widely known smaller ones.

We mean the Buick that brings you the most for your money in terms of mighty V8 Power—of real family-size room—of bold fresh styling. The one that gives you the most buoyant ride ever born of all-coil springing.

And we mean the only car blessed by the smooth magic of Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—world's first transmission built on the switch-pitch principle of the modern plane's propeller.

Come on in. We're ready and waiting to make you the deal of your life on the most thrilling Buick ever.

Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.*

What do these famous products have to do with Tecumseh

...besides provide good breakfasts—quick?

MANY folks here in this community work for the Quaker Oats Company. It's known far and wide for lots of famous products, including Quaker Oats and Mother's Oats.

You can't help noticing a feeling of pride in people who work for the Company. Not only in what they help produce, but in all Quaker products. It's a family pride. They like the idea of living up to past tradition and moving ahead with the times, too. (A good formula for any business, wouldn't you say?)

New Quaker oatmeal is smoother than ever. There's an extra creaminess that especially appeals to children. And the high-protein content supplies needed strength and energy for busy days at school. Good news for mother—cooking time has been cut to a quick minute.

As you enjoy these cereals, you'll share some of the pride your neighbors have in all Quaker Oats Company products.

THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY SERVES YOU WITH ALL THESE FINE PRODUCTS

QUAKER AND MOTHER'S OATS • QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT • PUFFED RICE • PACK-O-TEN ASSORTED CEREALS • MUFFETS SHREDDED WHEAT AUNT JEMIMA PANCAKE AND BUCKWHEAT MIX • QUAKER AND AUNT JEMIMA CORN MEAL • QUAKER MACARONI • KEN-L-RATION AND PUSS 'N BOOTS PET FOODS • FUL-O-PEP FEEDS • Q O FURAN CHEMICALS

One of the "Quakers" in Tecumseh, Adelia Packard, says: "Teamwork means a lot to us here at Quaker Oats. By making quality products as efficiently as possible we not only give our customers better foods at a lower cost, but it also means money in our pockets. The Quaker profit sharing plan pays us extra income out of company profits."

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

THE SUTTON PLACE

Those New Englanders who made Tecumseh did not all live within the village limits. The town and country were interdependent and grew up simultaneously so the farming area was dotted with houses as impressive as those built inside the village itself.

Three of these — without being too whimsical about it — may be said to be related by marriage. And certainly they were connected by religion. There is the dignified old farm house, which now stands in the middle of "Tecumseh Acres" and which was built in 1839 by Quaker Samuel Satterthwaite; the four square house on the nearby corner (now the home of Paul Wolf) which was built by the equally Quaker Aaron Comfort and the "Sutton Place," the brick house which has been standing for more than 100 years near the spot where the railroad crosses Sutton road, three miles south of the city limits.

This was built in 1853 by Asa Sutton whose Quaker family had come to Michigan from Croton Valley, N. Y. As to the tangled family relationships (in one generation three Comforts married three Satterthwaites) we will concern ourselves only with the fact that Mrs. Asa Sutton was a daughter of Samuel Satterthwaite. However, the family connection with the Comforts (and the Comfort brickyards) probably accounted for the fact that the house was constructed of brick rather than wood like the other earlier two.

Several factors must have influenced the location of the farm and house on what now seems a rather isolated spot. A river was of importance at that time; the road on which the house faces led west to the "Valley," the local Quaker settlement, and the roalroad, after a precarious beginning was then well established and increasingly valuable to the economy of the countryside.

In fact, the railroad—and Sutton's Crossing—made the house a landmark for years. Many of the regular trains stopped at the little station house, with its sign, "Sutton," and it was a flag stop where any train might be boarded. Sacks of mail for that community were unloaded there and a small room in the house itself was the local post office before the days of R.F.D.

When the Hugh Browne family purchased the farm nine years ago and began the task of restoring and modernizing the century old house, they (in true "city folks" style) began to cast about for just the right name for their new home. But everywhere they went local people said, "Oh, yes, the Sutton place." So the "Sutton Place" it became, with the name painted on the reverse side of the old station sign and hung on the barn.

Like all the farm houses of the period, Sutton Place was built to serve a way of life that has vanished like the Indian. They were both lavishly expansive and — from the modern viewpoint — uncomfortably primitive. And they are at once the joy and the despair of the remodeler who wishes, like the Brownes, to retain atmosphere while gaining comfort.

Probably no other house of that period, either rural or urban, had one of the features of Sutton Place. In a day when water pumped into a tank by a windmill was the height of luxury, the Suttons had running water. A "ram" installed in a riverside spring forced fresh water by underground pipes to a huge tank in the attic from which a system of pipes carried its continuous flow to kitchen, milk house and bath room. Richard Mead, a Sutton grandson, remembers that one of the early bathtubs was a huge hollowed log, polished and oiled to a satin finish and a source of wonder to a small boy.

The architecture of the house is characteristic of those with a classical New England background. There is a pillared porch, with the original sandstone steps and sidelighted door, and a central hall leading to the rear wing, which incidentally may have been built earlier than the main structure. There was the parlor (closed except on state occasions), two parlor bedrooms, sitting room, dining room and the kitchen where much of the life of the home went on. This room had a brick oven but there were no fireplaces in the house — this was the era of the Franklin stove.

Another unusual feature opened from the kitchen — an attached ice house. The Brownes found this partly filled with sawdust, where ice was stored with shelves above for food. There were the inevitable pantries, a great, two story wood house, and a deep, many-roomed basement.

Three stairways led to the second story, with rooms enough for a regiment (or a big family with lots of "hired help") and another climbed steeply to the third floor attic under whose lofty roof a modern "one bedroom home" could be stored without crowding. Perhaps, in this attic slept the fugitives of the underground railway and certainly under this roof were housed many "colored friends" who lived and worked in the vicinity.

Features of the house, its setting and stories of its history are endless — but unfortunately our space is not.

plate, you have to come in with a fat pitch to avoid walking the batter, and then watch out.

The two types of control pitchers are spot pitchers and strike pitchers. The former tries to catch the corners, the latter seeks to get the ball anywhere over the plate with a lot of stuff on it.

Ed Lopat and Ned Garver are spot pitchers, Steve Gromek and Harry Dorrish strike pitchers. Ol' Diz was a strike pitcher until I started to lose some of my stuff, and then this Hickory and Horsehide reporter became a control pitcher in a hurry.

First flight winner was Katherine Champanois who defeated Marge Purcell, 7-6.

The second flight was won by June Macbeth who defeated Esther Clauda, 3-2.

This is the first year golfing for both Katherine and June.

Membership of the local country club will take part in an inter-club match at the Hillsdale Country Club Sunday, Sept. 11.

And on Sunday, Sept. 18, the fourth annual husband and wife tournament will be held on the local course with a steak dinner following the play.

Frank and Marge Purcell are the defending champions.

Mr. Bishop also announced that Val Spangler has been selected as a candidate for one of the Evans scholarships. These scholarships are for caddies in the Western Golf Association (Tecumseh Country Club is a member) and they are good for four years at a college of the winner's choice. Val will be eligible next spring.

Mr. Bishop cited the work of the caddies in general. He said "There are no better caddies anywhere."

Autumn Begins Sept. 23

The sun will reach the autumnal equinox Friday, Sept. 23, at 2:42 p.m., crossing the equator on its way south. This is the day autumn begins.

University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh points out, however, that the day when darkness and light are of equal length will not come until Sept. 26. She explains this by saying that on the 23rd, although the sun will be above and below the horizon for equal lengths of time, it will appear to be above the horizon for about 10 minutes longer.

"Atmosphereic refraction, the bending of the sun's rays by the earth's atmosphere, permits us to see the sun before it actually comes up over the horizon and for the same reason delays its setting," she says.

By the 26th the decrease in length of the sun's hours above the horizon will balance this atmospheric effect and day and night will be equal. From then on the day will grow shorter.

Outstanding among the Sept. constellations will be the Great Square of Pegasus, according to Professor Losh. It will rise almost directly in the east in the early evening.

And another point of interest will be the famous Andromeda nebula known since the 10th century. To the unaided eye it looks like a small luminous cloud or misty star but binoculars or telescope reveal it as an elliptical spot about two degrees in length, above the second star from the corner of the Pegasus square.

"Only on photographs with large telescopes does its true character appear—it's really made of billions of stars and bright and dark gasses. It's believed to be a universe or galaxy like ours about one and one-half millions of light years away," Professor Losh explains.

This is the most distant object the human eye can distinguish unaided, she adds.

Methodists List Special Services

Sunday, Sept. 11, the Tecumseh Methodist church will return to the regular time schedule with Sunday School meeting at 10 a.m. and the church service at 11 a.m. Next Sunday is being designated as "Loyalty Sunday" and the Rev. Horace James is asking all members to make a special effort to be at church. Special guests for the day will be the young people of the church who will be attending college this fall.

Sunday, Sept. 18, the district superintendent, the Rev. Laverne Finch will be guest preacher; and Sunday, Sept. 25 "Rally Day" will be observed with combined service for church and Sunday School at 10:30 a.m.

This week, the Rev. James will attend the annual Methodist Pastor's School at Albion College. This school is for Methodist ministers from all over the state.

Christian Science Services Listed

The vital importance of understanding God as the source of all true substance will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance" will include the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (335:12): "Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial."

The indestructible nature of spiritual substance is also stressed in selections to be read from the Bible, including the following: "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it" (Eccl. 3:14 to 2d:).

The Golden Text is from John (6:27): "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed."

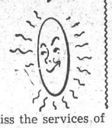
The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears



CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

TECUMSEH HIGH SCHOOL will miss the services of a potential tackle this year. Joe Hayden, 15-year-old big sophomore son of Mrs. Perry Hayden, will attend the Hampden Du Bose Academy in Zellwood, Florida. Good luck, Joe, and we hope you make the team there.

THAT HOMING PIGEON found by Bill Zwick cashed in its chips. Its death may have been due to being heart-broken and lonely. At any rate, Bill says it pined away almost to a skeleton.

THE LINING AGAIN HAS two season tickets to the International Dairy Show in Chicago which will be held from Oct. 8 to 15. The tickets are free to anyone who wants them.

AREN'T THESE DELICIOUS days? It would be an excellent time of year for a vacation and it wouldn't be at all crowded.

A LONG STANDING record was broken this week at the Gloccamora Dairy Bar in the Irish Hills. A Coldwater truck driver dropped in and ate six huge double banana splits. The previous record of five of the large sundaes that have made the dairy bar famous for miles around was held by Dave VanWinkle of Tecumseh. Wonder if Dave can go for seven.

A SALUTE TO THE LADIES of the Methodist church. They were without a kitchen for many weeks while the kitchen area was enlarged but they never let up in their serving of excellent and tasty meals at Rotary. They even had to carry the water for cooking from the parsonage. The cooking was done in a portable electric oven and Rotarians claimed they have never tasted better food, even at home. This is indeed a fine compliment and the ladies, bless their culinary abilities, deserve it.

THIS LITTLE STORY is not original but it is cute:

The little boy dashed in and breathlessly informed his father that he had just sold their mongrel dog for $50,000.

"For cash?" inquired the father.

"Well, practically," was the proud reply. "I swapped him for two $25,000 kittens."

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE hirsute adornment on the upper lip of Justice Bob French?

CONGRATULATIONS TO all the young folks who won awards at the state 4-H show in East Lansing.

A SMALL LAD, JUST a trifle higher than the paint bucket, some how got smeared with wet sticky paint in the new home of Rog Linger's market. As his dad tried to clean off the gooey stuff, the lad piped: "Sure was lucky I didn't get my head in it."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Jumping at conclusions is not half as good exercise as digging for facts."

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY kids have discovered their library. Have you? These 120 young readers this summer read 2081 books. Then you still hear reports that there's no culture in Tecumseh. There's culture in the local library if you want to dig for it. And there's an excellent staff that will help you in your digging. Mrs. Fosbender, Miss Harding and their assistants are capable and courteous.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK:

"We do not need more law; we need more religion.

We do not need more government; we need more culture.

We do not need more knowledge; we need more chaccacter.

We do not need more intellectual power; we need more moral power.

We do not need more material development; we need more spiritual development.

We do not need more of the things that are seen; we need more of the things that are unseen."

—Calvin Coolidge

X-Rays Planned

Hospital Auxiliary Hears of X-Ray Chest Therapy

Dr. J. W. Boyd, who is in charge of the X-ray department of Herrick Memorial hospital, was the speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting which opened the new year of the Hospital Auxiliary.

His topic was "X-ray and Therapy of the Chest" and his listeners found it both interesting and informative. His talk was very timely as, during the business meeting, announcement was made of plans for the mobile X-ray unit which will visit Tecumseh from Sept. 22 to 29.

Mrs. Frederick Dickinson is chairman of arrangements and the unit will be stationed at the Methodist church with members of the Auxiliary and the Future Nurses' Club assisting.

The auxiliary president, Mrs. Charles Mensing introduced Mr. Orrie Gilbert, the new superintendent of the hospital who spoke briefly in appreciation of the work the auxiliary has done and is doing.

She also introduced members of the Future Nurses' Club who were present; their president, Julie Crawford and Sharon Claxton, Mary Pat McCann, Sharon Reis, Brenda Heeman, Nancy Lampson and Barb Crowell.

Mrs. Victor Peterson was welcomed as a new member and the resignation of Mrs. Richard Hammel as corresponding secretary

This year the fair offers $13,600 in purses. Racing will be on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Girl Scout Assoc. Plans for Year

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association met at the Scout Cabin in Elliottt Park last Wednesday morning with the new president, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, presiding.

There were 22 members present and roll call was given with a hint on good scouting. The resignation of Mrs. Wellington Wotring as recording secretary was accepted with regrets.

Officers who will serve with Mrs. Truesdale for the ensuing year are Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, vice president; Mrs. John Cameron, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Julius Vincze, custodian; Mrs. Gerald Griffin, secretary of supplies, and Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, registrar.

All troops with leaders are resuming meetings after the summer recess. Other troops will meet as soon as leaders are secured. Organization of new Brownie troops will begin soon. Troops will have Girl Scout calendars for sale again this year.

All members present at the association meeting were provided with a schedule of special events of the year which had been prepared by the calendar committee with Mrs. Ralph Helzerman as chairman assisted by Mrs. Victor Lawson and Mrs. Victor Peterson.

The annual Vesper Service is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, Oct. 2.

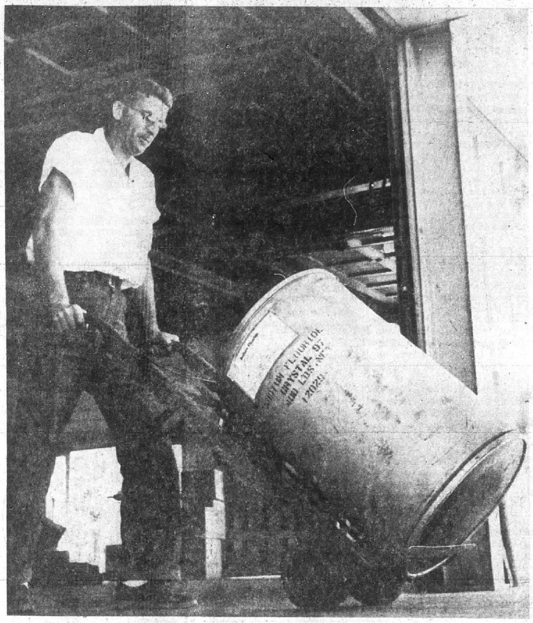
Sodium Fluoride Takes Trip



Vic Spaur, driver for the Rumpf Truck Line, wheels one of the two drums of sodium fluoride into a truck for a trip back to the chemical company in Joliet, Ill.

Two drums of sodium fluoride totalling about 900 pounds were returned to the chemical company Wednesday, Sept. 7.

A contingent of councilmen, city employees and members of the anti-fluoridation committee, with George Kilbourn, chief of police, were on hand when the chemical was transferred from the city garage on south Wyandotte street to the Rumpf Truck Line.

Plans for disposing of the sodium fluoride which was left over from the city's water fluoridation program were made at the council meeting Tuesday, Sept. 6.

At this time Ed Nelson, city manager, was told by councilmen to dispose of the chemical. Specific plans for the disposition were not made.

Imediately after the meeting Mayor Hanna and the city manager left for Mackinac Island to attend the convention of the Michigan Municipal League.

Before they left, the city manager instructed John Kopka, water department superintendent, to invite the chairman and members of the anti-fluoride committee to the disposition rites. The city manager said the anti-fluoridation committee could select the means of disposition.

The following morning Mr. Kopka invited Earl Bryan, chairman of the committee, and committee members to watch the disposition which, he said, would take place at the city dump.

Meeting at the city garage about 1 p.m. that day were Mr. Bryan, C. C. Richard, Mel Mathews and Charlie Morris of the anti-fluoridation committee.

Seitz Search Continues

Police officers and sheriff deputies are still alerted to be on the look-out for Charles Seitz Jr., who walked away from the Cassidy Lake training camp, a unit of Southern Michigan Prison Tuesday, Sept. 5.

He was serving a 15 to 30-year term for second degree murder. He shot his wife Donna to death Christmas night, 1951.

A large man hunt near Cement City Friday failed to produce any trace of a man witnessses claimed was Seitz.

Residents west of the small town claimed they saw Seitz duck into the brush in a heavily wooded area. Others claimed they saw him on top of a box car.

Six Lenawee County Sheriff's cars, two state police cars and six prison guards combed the area. Outlying roads were patrolled and a plane flew over the area.

Because of the heavy brush, the man hunt was called off before dark.

She showed some excellent pictures and displayed articles which she had brought back with her. The interest of her audience was evidenced by the many questions asked at the close of her talk.

Kroger Offers Top Value Stamps

Tecumseh homemakers now will receive a bonus with their food purchases.

Kroger stores in this area began offering Top Value premium trading stamps Monday, it was announced today by Carl S. Fuller, Toledo branch manager for the retail food firm.

New to Tecumseh, premium stamps have been widely accepted in many parts of the country. Homemakers seem to agree that shopping can be a lot more fun when grocery purchases are adding up to a new lamp, a doll for sis, or do-it-yourself tools for pop, according to Mr. Fuller.

Here's how the stamp plan works:

One stamp will be given with each ten-cent purchase, to be inserted in a book supplied for that purpose. When a book is filled, it can be redeemed for various merchandise items ranging from a can-opener to a bike to a silver tea service.

To launch the plan, Kroger is mailing to Tecumseh homemakers a gift certificate worth 30 free stamps, Mr. Fuller said.

Today's average American's food supply is eight per cent lower in calories than in 1909. Only half as many potatoes and sweet potatoes and half as much flour and corn meal are eaten today as compared to 1909.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

ADVICE TO YOUTH — FASHION OF 1801

"R—Reason at first the pleasing dress designed
O—Of nature's softest charms for womankind.
X—Xantippe proved a blemish to her race
A—And you seem made to wipe out her disgrace.
N—Nature forgets the madness of the shrew
A—And smiles to see her charms restored by you."

Wouldn't you like to have known a Roxana whose grandfather wrote an acrostic like that about her in the year 1801? For that matter wouldn't you like to have known the grandfather?

All that their descendant, John Snow of Tecumseh, knows about either is that the girl was Roxana Troop, that her grandfather was Josiah Troop and that the words were penned in 1801. The term "penned" is used advisedly for the three, literary specimens written by Josiah Troop for his obviously adored granddaughter, are all in spidery pen printing, probably done with a quill and all with the "long s" which is so difficult for modern eyes. There is the acrostic (it has a second verse spelling T-r-o-o-p), an intricately folded valentine and a sort of sampler, depicting the four stages of the life of man. All are beautifully embellished with pen drawings, borders and illumined capitals, done in either faintly colored inks or pale water colors, and all are on a heavy quality of the rag paper that was characteristic of the period and which age and handling have given an almost suede texture.

They have been cherished family possessions for the intervening 150 years and are obviously the work of a scholar. In a day when many worthy citizens had to "make their mark," a man who could write as Josiah did, with his command of words and talent for versification must have been on a par with the school master or the minister. The valentine has a "worldly" tone but there is a New England austerity about the "Four Stages of Life" which was a Christmas gift, Dec. 25, 1801. It ends with these sage words of counsel—

"I've tried the different scenes of human life
In joy and sorrow, quietude and strife,
Malice of foes and falsehood of a friend
And come to this conclusion in the end;
Not age or death have one in-venomed dart
Like children's impudence to wound a parent's heart.
Consider this, Roxanna, as you read;
Your Grandfather has made this
for your creed:
Honor your parents, conscienci-
ously,
You need not blush to live or fear to die"

If Roxana was Mr. Snow's grandmother or more probably his great-grandmother we trust she followed this rather lugubrious advice. But as the children of 1800 were brought up on such precepts it probably had as much effect as most advice. Perfect or not she was evidently the apple of her Grandfather's eye and Mr. Snow wishes now he had listened to family lore in his own boyhood so that he knew more about Roxana and Josiah Troop.

The fact that understanding the allness of God, Spirit, frees man from the idolatry of materialism will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (475:3): "To infinite Spirit there is no matter, — all is Spirit, divine Principle and its idea."

Scriptural selections will include the following from Isaiah (42:5, 8): "Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: . . . I am the Lord: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

NOTHING IN ITS FIELD CAN MATCH CHEVROLET FOR ACCELERATION!
Drive with care... EVERYWHERE!
Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices
When you need a quick sprint for safer passing, this V8 delivers! It's pure dynamite, and you have to go way, way up the price ladder before you ever find its equal.
Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" packs a Sunday punch for safer passing that no car in Chevrolet's field can match!
The proof was burned into the sands of Daytona Beach at the NASCAR* trials earlier this year. In acceleration tests, Chevrolet simply walked away from everything else in its field. Plus—and get this—all the high-priced cars except one!
Surprising? Not when you consider that this beauty's been cleaning up on all comers in short track stock car events this season. That's where acceleration really pays off, as well as handling ease and cornering ability—things that mean safer, happier highway driving. Come on in and let a new Chevrolet show you what we mean.

Maves-Hintz Vows Spoken in Grace Lutheran Church

Peggy Ann Hintz and Douglas Maves were married Saturday evening in Grace Lutheran church in Tecumseh. Theirs was the first marriage since the dedication of the new addition and through lighting effects the wedding party and the altar presented a very beautiful effect. White pompoms filled the altar vases and two large hampers of white gladioli and chrysanthemums with palms formed the setting for the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hintz of Britton and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maves of Newburg road, Tecumseh. The Rev. A. Jeschke, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony and Mr. Hintz gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Hintz was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wilma Griewahn as matron-of-honor and her little niece Rita Griewahn as junior bridesmaid. All three wore white and carried red roses.

The bride's gown was of net and lace, made with fitted lace bodice and full net skirt with panels of embroidered nylon tulle. The bodice had long sleeves and a Queen Ann collar and the skirt was waltz length. She wore a pearl choker, the gift of the groom and a fingertip length veil which fell from a pearl trimmed head band.

Mrs. Griewahn's dress was ballerina length of net and lace with jacket and matching mitts, while her daughter was in net and lace with a waltz length skirt with scalloped panels. Red roses formed the cascade bouquets of the bride and matron of honor while the junior bridesmaid's minature bouquet was of red rosettes.

Both mothers wore navy blue with navy accessories and corsages of pink rosettes.

An organ concert of nuptial music was played by Richard Lower of Memphis, Mich. Donald Maves assisted his brother as best man and Robert Billow and David Murphy were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Maves were hosts for the reception for 200 guests in the church basement where Miss Rosella Vallie was in charge of the guest book, and gifts were cared for by Delores Lindster and Barbara Seidel. The three tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Carl Hintz and others who served were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Judd, Mrs. Barbara Billow and Mrs. Judy Murphy. Open house for all friends and relatives was held later at the home of the groom's parents.

Mrs. Maves has been secretary at the Britton-Macon Agricultural school since her graduation. The groom, who is a graduate of Tecumseh high school, is employed at Butler Motor Sales. They will reside at Paul's Trailer Park.

FLUORIDE

Also attending were Mr. Kopka and his department employees and councilmen John Hamilton, Don Purkey and William Powell.

Mr. Richards, speaking for the committee, said the sodium should be dumped.

But councilman Hamilton resisted.

"Speaking as a taxpayer first and a councilman secondly I don't see the sense of throwing this away."

He said it would be foolish to waste city money in this manner. He then suggested that the chemical be shipped back to the company so the city could receive credit for it.

At 17 cents per pound, the sodium fluoride was worth about $153.

Wednesday night, after the sodium was taken to Rumpf Truck Line, it was sent back to the Blockson Chemical Co. in Joliet, Ill.

City officials have received a letter from the company stating that after the shipment is inspected an adjustment will be made.

was accepted and Mrs. Earl Baldwin appointed in her place.

Following the report of the kitchen equipment committee it was voted to devote the sum of $250 for the purchase of a disposal.

Devotions, given by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, opened the meeting and following the program the hostesses, Mrs. John Tomorsky, Mrs. H. L. Spencer, Mrs. J. E. Layton, Mrs. Paul Clauda and Mrs. C. W. Hanna served refreshments.

Baptist Woman's Society Meets

Thirty members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met in the Youth House Monday evening for the initial meeting of the year.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Fred Sheldon. Mrs. Clifford Curran presided and reminded the ladies of the 75th anniversary of the Misionary Training School in Chicago. It is requested that each member contribute a penny for each year of the organization at the Oct. meeting.

Announcement was also made of the Women's Fall Rally at Fairfield, Oct. 3 and all members were asked to work as many days as possible at the food tent at the fair and to obtain pie tins at the Youth House for the pies they will make. Mrs. Eddie Kirkland is chairman of that project.

The year's White Cross quota was presented by Mrs. Floyd Bryan, the chairman. The largest share of this year's quota will be devoted to the work among migrant workers, especially Mexican speaking people. This is under the direction of Miss Florence Latter.

The evening's program consisted of a playlette, "The Fruit of the Spirit," which is the theme of the year's work. The actors were Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. C. O. Bailey, Mrs. John Surratt and Mrs. B. O. Bashore. At the close of the play refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Kempf, Mrs. Ernest Harris, Mrs. Charles Williamson, Mrs. Lillian Owen, Mrs. L. Sisson and Mrs. Curran. Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Owen presided at the lace covered refreshment table.

Mrs. Delmar Finch will review the book by Dr. Laubach, "We Too Can Read" at the Oct. 10 meeting. Mrs. Byran will conduct devotions and Mrs. Earl Wood will be in charge of the program.

New Lincoln To Be Shown This Friday

George Underwood, Jr., will show the new Lincoln Friday in his Clinton showrooms.

He invites the public to the showing.

Mr. Underwood says this about the new 1956 Lincoln:

"It is completely new and completely beautiful. Unmistakably, it is the finest car in the fine car field.

"Nobody will want to miss seeing the new Lincoln."

PAST PRESIDENTS PREPARE PROGRAM

Past presidents of the Tecumseh Monday Club will hold the first rehearsal of their program, "Through the Years" in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church this (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock.

This program of narration, drama, and music will be presented at the opening luncheon of the club Monday, Sept. 26 with Mrs. Herbert Murphy, president, presiding.

Year books have been mailed to members with a personal letter from the president giving instructions for luncheon reservations.

FLORENCE WELD GUILD

Florence Weld Mission Guild of the Presbyterian church was hostess to the members of the Westminster League, Monday evening for a bountiful supper served at the Fellowship Center. Mrs. Lynn Harris conducted a brief business meeting and Mrs. George Kidman conducted a candlelighting memorial service for Mrs. Moiles and Mrs. Koernig, two members who had died during the year.

The program leader, Mrs. Harold Wilson then led the group in a series of games. The prize, a very nice dish pan, was donated to the church kitchen. Miss Mary Whitelock will be hostess for the Oct. meeting.

When it comes to Protection ..it pays to have the BEST

Rugged, dependable equipment is something you want before the game starts. It does no good to find you need it after the play gets rough.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST — and buy it today.

Area Football Teams Begin Season Friday

Bowling

Bowling team standings again are wanted for the sports page. Each league secretary is asked to have the standings into the HERALD office every Monday.

Britton Tories Tangle with Waldron There

Britton-Macon Tories will begin their 1955 football season Friday in a non-league game with Waldron there.

Mario Marchisio, new Tory coach, has 24 boys out practicing daily for the opening of the Little Six campaign.

Experienced players are Larry Patterson, Ken Bortel, Bob Faust, Ron Crowell, Harold Rhora and Gerald Grady, all seniors; and John Korican, Dick Cox, Carl Kimerer and Jack McClue, all juniors.

Last year the Tories had an overall 3-1-4 record with three victories in Little Six League play.

Coach Marchisio is a graduate of the University of Illnois where he won letters in football. He has coached at Monroe.

He will use a mixture of T and single wing plays.

The complete schedule is as follows:

Sept. 16—Waldron—There
Sept. 30—Adrian CC—There*
Oct. 7—Sand Creek—Home*
Oct. 21—Onsted—There*
Oct. 28—Adrian Reserves—Home
Nov. 4—Ida—Home*
Nov. 11—North Adams

All home games will begin at 3:30 p.m.; away games at 8 p.m.

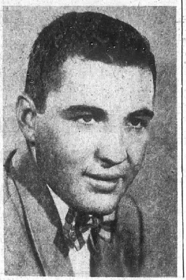
Tecumseh Faces Addison

The Tecumseh High School Indian grid team will have new coaches and a new style of play when it opens the 1955 season in a non-league game at Addison Friday night.

The new coaches are Robert Breniff who learned his college football at Michigan State University, head football coach, and Jack Trudeau, also a Michigan State University graduate, backfield coach.



Coach Bob Breniff

The new offense is naturally patterned after MSU's multiple offense style of play, meaning that the Indians should be a colorful team that will rely on mixed running and passing plays.

Last year the Indians won their first football game in two years when they defeated Addison 26-0.

Coach Breniff this year will build his team around a nucleus of seven returning lettermen. They are Bob Benham and Bill Browne, guards; Bob Manley, end; Gary Marsh and Allen Dickinson, backs; and Jim Jackson and Ray Larned, centers.

He also will expect help from reserves Dean Andrews, Carl Bailey, Dave Elliott, Gary Hanna, backs; Ed Covell, tackle; and Tony Scutt, guard.

He has a large squad to choose from. He currently has 75 out for practice.

Coach Breniff, being new to the league this year, said he has no comment on how the Indians will do against Southeastern league opponents. Last year the Indians failed to win a league game. But they lost to Monroe Catholic Central by one touchdown and to Hillsdale by four points. They posted wins over Addison in the opener and against Taylor Center.

The Indians again will face league opponents Monroe Catholic Central, Hillsdale, Bedford and Airport Community. They also will play, in addition to Addison, nonleague Hudson, Blissfield and Milan.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 16—Addison—There

It's Horse Pulling Time

The 1955 national horse pulling contests, sponsored by the Michigan Dynamometer Association, will be held at Michigan fairs for the fourth consecutive year.

The heavyweight national held at the Saginaw County Fair, Saginaw, Tuesday, had an entry of top teams weighing up to 5000 pounds per pair.

Included in the entries were the 1954 national heavyweight champions owned by Fowler Brothers, Reading, Mich.

The lightweight national which will be held at the St. Joseph County Fair, Centerville, Tuesday, Sept. 20, has an entry of 35 lightweight teams. Included are the 1954 national champions owned by Charles Roehl and Sons, Smith Creek, Mich.

Outstanding teams from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri and Wisconsin are entered in these nationals.

The nationals will bring together the greatest pulling teams in the nation.

Boysville Hosts Deerfield

The Fighting Knights of Boysville will play host to Deerfield high school in the first game of the season for both schools Friday at 3:30 p.m.

Coach Leo Janendo has lettermen for almost every position. They are Ralph Baird at center, Pete Ettawageshik, Tom Somma and Jerry Spears at tackle; Dave Harvey and Dick Temerowski at guard in the line.

He also has five lettermen back to man the Knights' backfield. They are Joe Murray at right half, John Murray at left half, Paul Carry at quarterback and left half and Vern Tourangeau at fullback.

Carry and Tourangeau are juniors; the rest of the lettermen are seniors.

Coach Janendo also has some pretty good boys in these reserves: Paul Wegrzyn, Cary Irving, Vern Young, Jim Farr, Tony Mata in the backfield and Jim Pringle, Bob Thomas, Bill Milroy, Arnold Roberts and Jose Velasquez in the line.

Coach Janendo will use a T system. His quarterback directing the T probably will be sophomore Tony Mata.

He currently has 60 boys out for practice.

Last year the Knights won four, tied one and lost four.

The Knights are members of the League of Lakes league.

This is the complete schedule:

AFTER SEVERAL lean years, the famine is nearing an end. Next season for sure, the Tigers will return to the first division.

This is based on expected help in large measure from our fertile farm system. A lot of highly promising young ball players are coming up, according to those in the know in the Tiger organization.

"It really looks good," declares perceptive Jack Tighe, now a Tiger coach and formerly a scout for three years and a manager at Buffalo, Toledo, Williamsport and Muskegon.

If anyone should know about the future Tigers, it is the squire of Spring Lake (a Muskegon suburb), for he scouted, signed and managed many of the youngsters who will soon wear Tiger livery and he still keeps close track of them. Jack speaking:

"Our farm system is strong at every position except second base, and even there we've signed a young fellow named Shep Fraser off the University of Alabama campus whom we think will someday be a great player.

Lots of Catchers

"We're especially strong in catching. Take Jay Porter, who has been recalled from Buffalo. He started hitting the ball once the first base experiment was abandoned and he was allowed to return behind the plate, where his heart really was. His average rose from .225 to .264 just a few weeks after he started catching again.

"Our regular backstop someday will be Charlie Lau, from Romulus, Mich., who hit .295 and got 16 home runs at Buffalo. This was his second year in organized ball, his first season being 1952 and the two years in between being military service.

"Bonus pitcher Bob Miller, who's also been recalled to the Tigers, did nicely at Augusta, winning 7 and losing 2, including taking a seven-inning no-hitter, and he may very well stay up with us.

Top Prospect

"A youngster to keep an eye on is Gene Neff. Now in his second year at Durham after military service, this powerful right-hand hitter is going to run somebody right out of the Tiger outfield soon. He hit .300 with Jamestown his first year in baseball.

"Other names to remember are Emil Karlik, who hit .326 at Augusta; Tom Sarna, a big, strong third baseman who hit .317 with the same club, including 17 home runs and 91 runs batted in, and Steve Demeter, 19-year-old infielder, who hit .281 and got 17 homers and 78 RBI's at Buffalo.

"Then there are Max Simmons, who won 17 games in relief at Durham, a phenomenal record even in a Class B league; Bob Shaw, who pitched well at Augusta, and his teammate, left-hand hitting Larry Osborne, who drove in 98 runs while batting .275."

Senior Achievement

A family friend who once taught education and psychology at Hillsdale College has formed a Chicago company that will hire only men and women over 60.

Called Senior Achievement, Inc., it is patterned after Junior Achievement, Inc., the program that gives teen-agers a chance to run their own businesses.

Dr. David Sonquist, executive director, hopes it will provide a practical answer to the problem of retired persons who are considered too old to get jobs in regular industry, yet who are too young and capable to be "put on a shelf."

The Chicago program has a board of trustees and an advisory council made up of business, industrial and professional leaders.

Large industries and the Wieboldt Foundation have made grants to the program.

So far 650 persons are signed up and two products have been made. One is a bacon rack; the other is a tie rack. And negotiations are under way with large mail order houses for Senior Achievement to make several small items.

During the war older men and women replacing younger persons did a tremendous job in manning factories and offices. If we could but work out a program all over where the services of these oldsters could be utilized in peace time as well, the economic and social gains would be far-reaching.

They could supplement their pension incomes, but more importantly, as Senior Achievement is striving to do, the older folks would have the psychological satisfaction of knowing they still could do useful and productive work.

It is sincerely hoped that Senior Achievement catches on in Chicago and that it spreads all over the United States.

Checking on Litterbugs

Litterbugs — those who think public highways are the places to dump their garbage and trash — are being dealt with by Michigan State Police.

Just last week a fellow near Blissfield was traced when police found in the refuse some receipt blanks issued to the dumper.

This is not to point out to litterbugs that they first should check their refuse so their names are not attached before strewing public highways with their unsightly messes.

But the point is to let them know that state police are checking this low form of behavior and that fines and possible jail sentences may result.

After a day of house hunting, Mr. and Mrs. Joplin fell in love with an appealing three bedroom home in a nice neighborhood.

That evening they brought a couple of friends around to look over the home of their choice.

"How do you like it?" Mr. Joplin asked them.

"Fine," was the reply.

Mr. Joplin quickly mentioned me into another room.

"Tell me," Kohler," he said, "is this house worth the money?"

"Sure," I answered. "Figure it out. What other home in this price range has all the features you wanted?"

"None," he conceded. "Compared with the others we've seen, it is certainly worth the price. We like the features this home offer. Has it been appraised?"

"So far, only by our office," I replied. "We've stamped our O.K. on the price which means we think it is a fair value. However, F.H.A. or conventional financing is available. We would be glad to make any contract contingent on getting the necessary loan."

That's a fair proposition," Mr. Joplin remarked. "You've made a deal. We'll take it."

Less Calories, More Produce Eaten Today

Today's average American eats about the same amount of food, measured in pounds, as an average American ate 50 years ago. But the kind of food he eats is the big change.

According to research done by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, there were increases in dariy products (except butter), eggs, meats, fish, poultry, citrus fruits, tomatoes ,vegetables (leafy, green and yellow) and sugars and syrups. In contrast, only half as many potatoes and sweet potatoes and half as much flour and corn meal are eaten now as compared to 1909.

Increases in the eating of fresh fruits and vegetables is probably due to the advances in transportation, refrigeration, merchandising and geography of production. Fifty years ago available food changed with the seasons because perishables had to come from near by due to slow transportation.

It seems today's average American has replaced the high calorie counts of potatoes with those of fats. Although the food supply today is eight per cent lower in calories, a large portion of the calories comes from the use of fats and oils in salads and cooking and from the so-called invisible fats in whole-milk dairy products, meat, poultry and fish.

More of the carbohydrate supply comes from sugars and less from potatoes and grain foods.

And, the report continues, many of the diet changes are shifts from the lower priced to the higher priced foods. Some of these higher prices result from increased processing of many foods. Even though they are more costly, they save the homemaker many long hours in the kitchen.

Elaine Kimerer Is Bride of Cloyce L. Lidster

A lighted cross and tiered candelabra of lighted tapers flanking a basket of white gladioli and chrysanthemums decked the altar of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene Friday evening when at 8 p.m. Elaine Ellyn Kimerer and Cloyce L. Lidster repeated their marriage vows.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kimerer of Rt. 2, Tecumseh was given in marriage by her father and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. A. Bearinger of the Nazarene Church. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arland Lidster of Rt. 3, Blissfield.

The church was further decorated by white satin bows centered with red roses at each of the family pews. Mrs. Loren Avery at the organ played a program of appropriate music and accompanied Mrs. Lee Spohr when she sang "Because" and "Always" and a marimba solo "I Love You Truly" was played by Mrs. William Bearinger.

The bride's ballerina length gown was strapless and had a torso bodice of nylon tulle over which she wore a jacket of hand clipped rose point lace made with long pointed sleeves. Similar lace in full flounces formed the tiered skirt. Her veil was finger-tip in length with a lace edge and was held by a scalloped, bead embroidered head band. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and red roses.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. LaVern Marine was matron of honor and wore yellow net over taffeta, made ballerina length with matching head band, mitts and bolero jacket and carried a circular bouquet of carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Edith Kimerer, sister of the bride and Miss Carol Loveland wore costumes identical with that of the matron of honor, Miss Kimerer's being turquois and that of Miss Loveland, pink.

LaVerne Marine assisted his brother-in-law as best man and William Bearinger and the bridegroom's cousin, Harold Lawhead were ushers.

Mrs. Kimerer, mother of the bride, wore a suit of navy with pink accessories while Mrs. Lidster's dress was a navy and white print and both had corsages of pink carnations.

A reception for 250 guests followed at the Tecumseh Grange Hall with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lawhead as hosts. The guests were registered by Miss Jeanette Lidster, sister of the groom and Mrs. E. S. Moran, the bride's aunt was in charge of the gifts.

The five-tiered wedding cake, which had been made by a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Harold Keasal was cut by her aunt, Mrs. Harley Kimerer, who was assisted by an aunt of the groom, Mrs. Verle Lidster. Miss Elaine Lawhead cut the groom's cake and punch and coffee were served by the twin cousins of the bride, Mrs. Gordon Barrett and Mrs. Harold Keasal.

Others who assisted were the Misses Kathryn and Delores Lidster, Mrs. Sidney Hathaway, Mrs. Loren Avery, Miss Margaret Kimerer, Miss Sandra Hathaway, Janet Bearinger and Marilyn Baker.

Guests attended from Metamora and Toledo, Ohio, Farmington, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Manitou Beach, Monroe, Pittsford, Quincy, Adrian and Tecumseh.

For her wedding trip to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Lidster wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories. She is a graduate of Tecumseh high school with the class of 1955 and is employed at the Nu-Way Stretch Co. in Adrian. Mr. Lidster, a graduate of Deerfield high school, is employed at Tecumseh Products Co. and also is engaged in farming.

They will reside on their newly purchased farm on Cadmus road near Clayton, Mich.

Ford Announces Car Safety Features

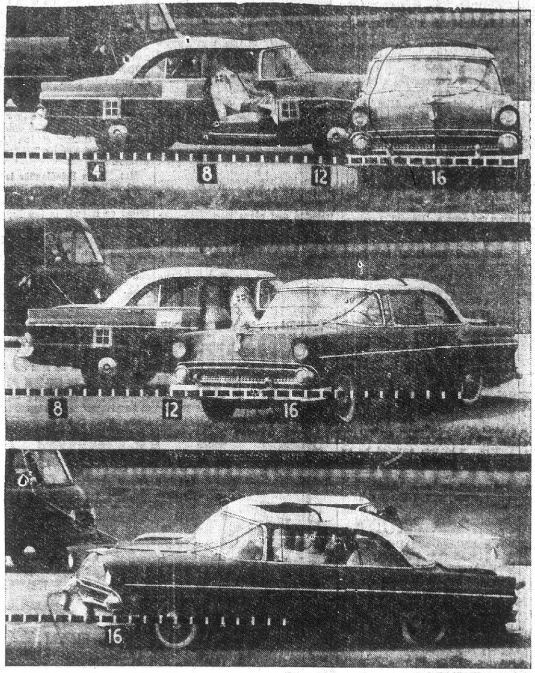
Ford Motor Company today announced that its 1956 cars will feature—for the first time in automotive history — a five-part package of safety devices aimed at substantially reducing injuries to passengers in the event of highway accidents.

The safety devices are a result of Ford's pioneer crash-injury program, first in the industry to embody the new safety concept of "packaging the passenger" as a means of limiting injuries.

The new injury-prevention study is a companion project to Ford's accident prevention program which includes the development of such things as better brakes and improved steering.

Announcement of the five-piece safety package was made during the two-day National Safety Forum and Crash demonstration sponsored by Ford at Dearborn, Mich., and attended by almost 100 leading traffic safety specialists from the U.S. and Canada for the purpose of exchanging safety information informally.

The new safety features—which will appear when the 1956 cars are introduced—include:



SPEED CRASH—The value of Ford's safety door latches, seat belts, energy-absorbing steering wheels, safety mirrors and crash cushioning for the instrument panels and sun visors is shown in sequence photographs of a test crash staged by Ford Motor Company engineers. The two cars, with their life-like dummy passengers, are shown in the top photo at the instant of impact. In the second photo, the dummy in the crash car's right front seat strikes the padded sun visor while the dummy in the driver's seat hits Ford's deep-center steering wheel, which distributes the force and absorbs the energy of the crash. The dummy in the parked car also is restrained by a seat belt. He momentarily slides over into the seat and then rights himself in the third photo. Although the parked car was struck at a vulnerable spot, all doors remained closed because they were equipped with safety door latches. These pioneer safety devices will appear—for the first time in automotive history—on 1956 Ford Motor Company cars when they are introduced. Research at Cornell University Medical College shows that almost half of highway injuries result from being thrown out of the car during an accident or because occupants strike the steering wheel, the instrument panel, the sun visor or the rear view mirror.

1. A deep-center safety steering wheel which slowly gives way under crash impact, thus absorbing the energy and distributing it over the driver's chest. This, engineers explain, is safer than steering wheels which collapse under impact, exposing the driver to the steering column. Automobile crash injury studies at Cornell University Medical College show almost 40 per cent of all injured drivers are hurt on the steering assembly.

2. Safety door latches, designed to prevent the door from springing open under impact, thus giving the passenger added protection against being thrown out into the road. Research by Indiana State Police and at Cornell indicates a passenger's chances of escaping injury in an accident are twice as great if he remains within the protective shell of the vehicle.

3. Seat belts which are structurally anchored to the vehicle with a steel plate. The restraining belts not only help retain an occupant inside the vehicle, but also reduce the possibility of his being thrown against the instrument panel, header bar and windshield area. Belts will be available for both the front and back seats in 1956 models.

4. Crash cushioning which will be available for the instrument panel and sun visors. The padding, five times more shock-absorbent than sponge, depresses under impact and distributes the force over a wider area of the head or body. Cornell research indicates that about 38 per cent of the injured front and center seat passengers are hurt on the instrument panel.

5. Safety rear view mirrors which have a specially prepared backing to reduce the possibility of glass falling out when shattered. Research indicates about four per cent of all injuries to front seat passengers in accidents are received on the mirror.

In addition, Ford has redesigned the mirror frame and the front and back seat supports to reduce the possibility of seats coming loose under severe shock.

Cornell researchers have found that almost half of all injuries suffered in automobile accidents are received on the steering wheel, the instrument panel, the mirror, or by being ejected from the vehicle.

The new Ford concept of "packaging the passenger" is based on the principle of first trying to keep passengers within the vehicle during an accident, and then designing car components to help occupants absorb the energy of the crash.

Each of the devices has undergone numerous evaluation tests in the field, including simulated accidents in which life-like dummies rode in cars which were crashed into each other or into concrete and earth barriers.

Plenty of Starch in Competition

Let anyone, in any field, get the idea that he doesn't have any competition, and it's a good bet that he'll start slowing down. To do a good job brings its own satisfactions, but even when a man enjoys the kind of work he does, he won't do his best unless he has an awareness of competition, to spur him on.

It may be comparatively easy for the man in the plant to forget that he is in competition. Not often does he meet it head on, like a ballplayer, a boxer, or a salesman. And on top of the very human tendency to forget about things that aren't right in front of us, we have economic spell-binders who try to convince us that the mass-production methods and large business units of modern American industry have taken the starch out of competition.

We are told that the use of complex, expensive machinery has made it difficult for the smaller business to assemble enough up-to date equipment to operate efficiently. Therefore, the argument goes, we are left with a comparatively few large enterprises in most fields—instead of numerous small ones — and so competition isn't nearly as tough as it used to be.

The truth of the matter is just the opposite. The many industrial improvements that have come about in the past half-century have made competition much harder, not easier. The basis of competition is the number of choices open to buyers. Modern production and conditions have greatly increased the number of choices that every consumer has.

The automobile, for example, has been a tremendous force in making competition keener among retailers. Back in the horse and buggy days, every little village had an independent general store. But the owner faced very little real competition, because the customers didn't find it worth-while to travel from one village to another to compare prices and values.

Modern automobiles and good roads, however, have enabled the average rural customer to travel considerable distances easily. Therefore many different stores compete for his business.

Competition isn't limited to a company vs. company affair. Years ago, coal producers had, as competition, only other coal producers. Now they must compete also with producers of fuel oil, water power, and natural gas. Soon, perhaps, they will have to compete with power and heat from atomic energy.

Frozen foods compete with canned goods. Plastics compete with lumber and metal; synthetic rubber competes with natural rubber.

You could say that every business competes against all other businesses—not only those in the same line—for the buyer's dollar.

Those who try to sell the theory that competition is fading out of the picture are doing the employees of industry no favor. Competition today is hard, and it will get harder as more new products appear on the scene. Every employee is involved in the competitive race. The better he competes, the better his job will be.

Constitution Week, 1955

(Copy of the President's proclamation, calling attention to Constitution Week was received by Mrs. Neil Pearson, Regent of Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. the local organization.

Through the chapter, window stickers have been distributed to local stores for display and all merchants and residents are being urged to display the American flag during Constitution Week.

Because of the interest of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the need for increased emphasis on American history in our schools, the suggestion has been made that Constitution Week receive special notice in local classes).

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

"WE the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America."

On September 17, 1787, the delegates to the Federal Convention in Philadelphia met for the last time and approved these familiar words now enshrined not only in our Nation's basic Instrument of Government but also in the hearts of our citizenry. Led by the President of the Convention, George Washington, the great majority of the delegates signed the newly drafted Constitution, and on the following day their Secretary set off for New York by stage coach to deliver the engrossed document to the United States in Congress there assembled. Within a week the proposed Constitution had been printed and circulated in both Pennsylvania and New York, and the great principles by which our country still is governed had been dispatched or carried home by delegates from other states as well. On September 28, 1787, the Congress resolved to transmit the draft text officially to the States of the Confederation for action.

It is fitting that we, whose entire lives have been protected by the fruits of the Convention's deliberations, should pause in our several occupations to study the course of events by which our Constitution came into being, the great debate which ensued before our Federal Government became established, and the internal stresses and the assaults from without which we as a Nation have met successfully, with God's help, within the framework established by our forbears one hundred and sixty-eight years ago.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting in accord with Senate Concurrent Resolution 40, agreed to on July 26, 1955, do hereby designate as Constitution Week the period beginning September 17, 1955, and ending September 23, 1955; and I invite the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies in their schools and churches, and in other suitable places. Let us give thanks for the wisdom of those statesmen of 1787 who labored "to decide the fate of republican government" and of their successors throughout our country's history who contributed to making our Constitution a living thing, a great taproot to feed and support the growth of our republic.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eightieth.

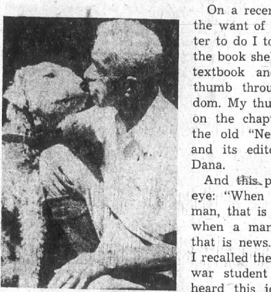
The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN



Prof Haines and Friend

On a recent weekend for the want of something better to do I took down from the book shelf a journalism textbook and began to thumb through it at random. My thumbing stopped on the chapter devoted to the old "New York Sun" and its editor Charles A. Dana.

And this pasage met my eye: "When a dog bites a man, that is not news; but when a man bites a dog, that is news." Immediately I recalled the day as a post-war student when I first heard this journalistic adage uttered. At that time it was attributed to editor Dana of the "Sun" when in reality it was first told to a cub reporter by John B. Bogart, brilliant city editor of the "Sun."

The professor requoting the famous remark was Donal Hamilton Haines of the University of Michigan department of journalism. It was Prof. Haines who also defined news as "a dislocation of the normal societal order." When I first heard the definition as a green student, I practically took out a social science slide rule and measured the definiton. Some of my first ideas, ideals and attitudes about news, however, have changed over the years.

Some of these thoughts raced through my mind as I scanned the pages of that old journalism text and I plainly could see Prof. Haines who, before his untimely death in 1951, had served the university for 24 years.

Author of 19 books, 17 of them for juveniles, (one of these books "The Southpaw" is on the book shelf with the rest of the journalism textbooks) and more than 200 magazine articles, Prof. Haines was one of the most revered, popular and friendly teachers on the Ann Arbor campus.

(The first school year following his death from a heart attack, the faculty of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts spread a memorial text on the minutes of the meeting. The memorial text said in part: "Students were first drawn to Prof. Haines by his striking appearance, then held by his love of life and abiding wisdom.")

But let's begin from the first time I saw this beloved and colorful character—and he was a character—in Nov. of 1945.

We first met in Waterman Gym when he was registering new students. Since the department at that time was sort of a step-child, the journalism registration table was squeezed in among other more academic subjects so when I saw the dignified gentleman at the table, I thought he was a doctor, a teacher of voice or at least an artist from the school of architecture and design.

The Band Played on

"Casey would waltz with the strawberry blond while the band played on . . ."

How many of you remember this tune from the dim and distant future? And how many of you realize that the school bands that will play in the ninth annual Lenawee County Band Festival here Tuesday, Oct. 4, were preceded by town bands that played this tune and other old favorites?

The county is really rich in music lore.

Before the early 20's these bands played regular concerts in the various county towns. Then school bands began to flourish.

The Tecumseh high school band was organized by Clare Camburn, director of the all-county band festival, in 1931.

The local school band was preceded by a 15-piece orchestra directed by Culver Wilcox. And in the public's ear in the early 20's was the Tecumseh Ladies' band.

The Adrian high school band was organized by Homer Hubbard in 1927 and in 1930 it was taken over by Paul Rainier, present supervisor of music.

The Blissfield school band was preceded by a boys' and girls' American Legion band about 1932.

The Addison band will depict Knute Rockne and the Hudson band will portray the Red Cross at the band festival this year.

Clinton's school band was organized about 1935 by John Gottchalk.

Addison's band first began as a combined school and community band in 1935, then it was decided to have a high school band. William Lint of Hillsdale was responsible for the forming of this band.

In 1948 a band boosters' club, under the leadership of Mrs. Lou Fisher, started Britton off on the right marching foot.

Deerfield also began its band in 1948 with John Gottchalk director. Mr. Gottchalk also was responsible for the beginning of the Onsted band in 1934.

Hudson's board of education began the band in 1939 and the Morenci band was preceded by an orchestra directed by Mary Helen Munson.

In 1936 Sand Creek decided the need for a band which grew out of an orchestra directed by Mrs. Lois Covell.

Dog Dies from Suspected Rabies

A five-year-old cocker spaniel named "Peanuts" died from suspected rabies last Thursday. It was the first rabies case in the Tecumseh area in 10 years.

Owned by the Robert Hyde family of 6030 east Monroe road, the dog had been sick about a week. Dr. W. S. Britton who was called by Mr. Hyde said the dog had all the symptoms of rabies: it had an uncommon thirst and unnecessary drooling.

"Peanuts" had had a mix-up with a skunk before becoming ill. Dr. Britton explained that skunks are carriers of rabies or hydrophobia which means "mad for water."

When members of the Hyde family tried to give the dog a bath on Labor Day to rid it of the skunk odor, they were scratched and lightly bitten.

According to law, all dogs suspected of having rabies must have their heads examined and tested for the disease.

So Mr. Hyde and Dr. Britton called the dog warden in Adrian to come over to pick up the dog's head. Mr. Hyde called three times and Dr. Britton called twice but the warden did not come over Thursday, the day the dog died. Nor did he come Friday.

Meanwhile, Dr. Britton, knowing the anxiety of the Hydes over whether "Peanuts" actually had rabies and whether their pet had passed on the disease to them, called the state police Saturday.

Saturday morning, two days after Peanuts had died, Sgt. Francis O'Donnell and trooper Catan came to Dr. Britton's office immediately and took the dog's head to Ann Arbor. By 11 a.m. a report was back to Dr. Britton. But because the head had begun to decompose a positive test for rabies could not be made. The test did point out, however, that rabies was suspected.

Dr. Britton was high in his praise of the fast services of the state police.

Saturday afternoon the dog warden Rellie Baughey Jr., arrived to pick up the dog's head. He said he had received the call that day but had not been contacted by the sheriff's office Thursday or Friday.

Meanwhile, members of the Hyde family have been taking the necessary Pasteur rabies shots. Mrs. Arthur Hyde, Mr. Hyde's mother, has had the first series or seven shots. Mr. Hyde, his wife and their eight-year-old daughter have had the first series and now are in their second series of seven. And they may have to take the remaining seven shots.

As a result of the case, Dr. Britton warns dog owners that if their dog gets rabies symptoms and bites, the dog should be confined at once and a doctor should be called to give rabies shots to those bitten or scratched.

Dr. Britton also believes that because Tecumseh is a growing city it may be advisable to think in terms of having a dog warden and dog pound for the city.

Kinsman Replaced by Beagle in Phone District

Changes in district managership were announced today by General Telephone Company of Michigan.

Mr. Beagle is married. The couple has no children.

Mr. Kinsman will move his family to Muskegon, his home town, Saturday then he will return to the Tecumseh office to help Mr. Beagle become acquainted with his work and with the community.

Three Men Are Sentenced

Three men were fined and sentenced to jail terms by Justice Robert French Saturday.

Leroy LeBaron, 37, of Tecumseh, pleaded guilty to drunkenness. He was fined $25 and $8.60 costs and given seven days in jail.

John Curtiss, 23, of Tecumseh pleaded guilty to reckless driving. He was fined $25 and $8.60 costs and given seven days in jail.

All three men were arrested by Tecumseh police Friday.

Class Schedule Changed at Central School

Crowded conditions at Central make it necessary to revise the schedule of classes.

Earl Greene, elementary supervisor, reports these changes:

Effective next Monday, Sept. 26, all kindergartens (Patterson, Brownville and Central) will start at 9:00 and dismiss at 11:15.

All elementary children who ride the first bus will continue to start at 9 a.m. and dismiss at 3:30 p.m.

Children who ride the second bus trip will start at 9:30 a.m. and dismiss at 4 p.m.

This will permit children of the second bus loads to go directly to their rooms, when they arrive in the morning. At dismissal they will go directly to their bus and home. This will eliminate the long wait both in the morning and at night, Mr. Greene explained.

The children will be given new room assignment slips, Thursday, Sept. 22.

All buses will leave Central, for the second elementary trip, each morning at 8:45.

All elementary schools will dismiss, Friday, Sept. 23, at 12:15 so children may attend the Lenawee County Fair.

All buses will operate. However, it is advisable that parents who wish an early start for the fair, be at the Central School so that they may take their children and not have to wait for the children to get home on the bus.

It was decided that the association should meet every other month and on the Thursday evening of the second full week of that month.

The chair appointed as program committee Mrs. James Barton, Miss Bertha LaPointe and Mrs. June Green.

BUTLER SHOWS NEW FORDS FRIDAY

Safety features offered for the first time by any automobile company, power equal to the Thunderbird, and lower body silhouettes are available in 1956 Ford cars which 6,800 Ford dealers place on display Friday, Sept. 23.

Locally the new Fords will be shown at Butler Motor Sales.

The new Fords will be built in four series offering 18 body styles — two more than in 1955. They are available in 13 solid exterior colors, or 21 two-tone combinations.

A "Thunderbird Y-8" engine leads the power selections available for 1956. It is installed on Fairlane and Station Wagon models, and develops 202 horsepower for Fordomatic, or 200 hp for overdrive or standard transmission. Customline and Mainline Fords offer a Y-8 engine developing 176 hp for Fordomatic, or 173 hp for overdrive or conventional drive. Also, the economical Ford six, increased to 137 hp, is available on all models with all transmission types.

"LIFEGUARD DESIGN"

Ford safety research, coupled with studies of medical groups, led to developed of a "lifeguard design" in 1956 models.

New door latches give added protection against the chance that doors may open under impact. They have been proved in full scale crash tests at Dearborn, Mich.

To keep the driver's chest from hitting the steering column in a crash, the new three-spoke Ford steering wheel has its center hub recessed 3-1/8 inches below the wheel rim.

Rear view mirrors have a special backing designed to prevent shattering.

Front and rear seat mountings have been strengthened so they will resist greater impact.

In addition, Ford offers two optional safety devices. Seat belts, designed to withstand pull up to 4,000 pounds, will help to hold occupants inside cars, and to prevent forward motion. Foam plastic padding for instrument panels and sun visors will help to absorb impact if a person is accidentally thrown forward.

STYLING ADVANCED

Styling advances in the Ford for '56 include a new grille with oblong parking lights at the outer ends, set in frames which wrap around the fender sides. Body side molding is restyled for Fairlane, station wagon and customline models. Restyled tail lamps and deck lid handles, a larger recessed hood ornament, and a completely new instrument panel are offered in all models.

The 1956 Victoria is 1½ inches lower than the comparable 1955 model. Two door and four door sedans also have new tops reducing total car height almost a full inch. However, headroom was not reduced since the contour change is mostly along the top's center line, and fabric headlinings are installed closer to the steel top.

ADD STATION WAGON

An addition to the line is the Parklane station wagon, a two door car which offers an eight by five-foot load space with tailgate extended. It is fitted inside with deluxe upholstery and trim combinations, and has special bright metal trim inside and outside. Early in the model year, Ford will start production of a new four door Victoria style in which side pillars have been eliminated to provide all-around vision.

A 12-volt electrical system is standard on 1956 models, providing 80 per cent faster engine cranking and more capacity to handle the increasing number of accessories being ordered on cars today. The new 30-ampere Ford generator has 61 per cent greater power output than last year's model. Batteries have 22 per cent more capacity.

OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT

Optional convenience and comfort features in the 1956 Fords include power steering, as well as power-operated brakes, seats, and window lifts. Air conditioning, fresh air heaters, and tinted safety glass are available. This year Ford offers a signal-seeking radio which automatically selects new stations. A dual-range automatic control adjusts the set for city or country listening.

18 BODY STYLES

The 18 Ford body styles to be introduced in the 1956 line will be produced in four series.

There are seven models in the Fairlane series, which offer special "Styletone" exterior color combinations, as well as the widest range of two-tone and single-tone selections in the Ford line. The Fairlane models are Club Sedan, Town Sedan, Sunliner convertible, Crown Victoria, Crown Victoria Skyliner, and Victoria. Later in the year the company will produce a four-door Victoria, as well.

The station wagon series includes six body styles for 1956, one more than last year. The two-door six-passenger Parklane has been added. In addition, the series includes the two-door six-passenger Ranch Wagon and Custom Ranch Wagon; the four-door six-passenger Country Sedan; the four-door eight-passenger Country Sedan, and the four-door eight-passenger Country Squire. The latter has mahogany finished metal panels and wood grained fiber glass moldings on the body.

A "new look" has been given to the Customline series, with changes in the side moldings for 1956. The series includes two sedans, the four-door and the two-door.

In Ford's lowest priced Mainline, three sedans make up the series. They are the four-door, two-door, and two-door business sedan.

9 TYPES OF ENGINES

Ford will produce nine types of engines in its 1956 models to meet specific power and transmission requirements in 18 automobile body types. And will operate on "regular" gas.

The engine series is based upon two Y-Block V8's and an I-Block six. All are overhead valve high-compression designs, utilizing short stroke and large bore. This "over-square" principle means pistons move a shorter distance, reducing internal friction and prolonging engine life. Deep skirts on crankcases provide extra-rigid support for bearings, and reduce internal vibration.

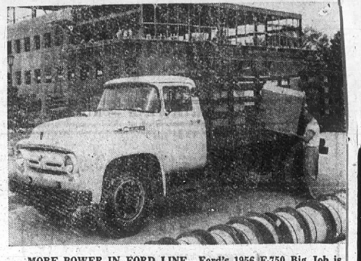
Each engine is offered in three different power takeoff designs to accommodate either automatic "Fordomatic Drive," overdrive, or standard transmission. In addition, compression ratios are varied on Y8's to match the type of transmission employed.

A 292 cu. in. displacement "Thunderbird Y8," most powerful of the series, is installed in Fairlane and Station Wagon models. Its power is equivalent to that now available in the Ford Thunderbird. With four barrel carburetor and 8.4-1 compression ratio, it velops 202 horsepower for For matic. For overdrive or standa transmissions, the compressi ratio is 8-1, producing 200 h Automatic choke and dual exhau are standard on this engine.

A 272 cu. in. Y-8 engine standard on Customline and Ma line models. Coupled with For matic, it has an 8.4-1 compressi ratio and horsepower is 176. Wi overdrive or conventional dri the compression ratio is 8-1 a horsepower is 173. Automa choke is standard.

Ford continues to offer t economical I-Block six in all mo els. This year the engine has bee advanced to 137 hp, and the co pression ratio has been raised 8-1 for more fuel efficiency.

SEDAN IN THREE SERIES—The four-door sedan, traditional American family car, is offered in three series by Ford for 1956—Fairlane, Customline and Mainline. Above is the Customline four-door in one of the 21 two-tone paint combinations offered on models which will be displayed by dealers Friday, September 23. A lower roof line, restyled grille and parking lamps, a new design of body side moldings are among 1956 Ford appearance changes. Thunderbird Y-8 engines in Fairlane models develop 202 horsepower for Fordomatic drive, or 200 hp for overdrive or conventional drive. In the Customline and Mainline, Y-8 engines produce 176 hp for Fordomatic, or 173 hp for overdrive or conventional drive. The 137 hp Ford I-Block six also is available in all models with all transmission types.



MORE POWER IN FORD LINE—Ford's 1956 F-750 Big Job is heavy duty truck with a gross vehicle weight of 21,000 pounds. Hig performance is obtained with a special heavy duty 168 hp Y-8 engin equipped with a four-barrel carburetor. It is one of the most powerfu engines in this weight class. Five different wheelbases and powe steering are available on this model. A hood airscoop aids engin performance. Official model introduction date is September 23.

Renovated for Show

Carpenters and decorators have been working practically around the clock to ready the renovated showrooms at Butler Motor Sales for the gala showing of the new 1956 Fords Friday.

All the east half of the building has been made over and enlarged for the showing of the new cars.

Rich pastel shades have been used in the renovating to accentuate the beauty and glamour of the 1956 Fords.

At the back of the enlarged display area and running the length of the room are gray draperies, embossed with the Ford insignia.

Behind the draperies are offices and private consultation rooms for Ford buyers to talk with the large staff of salesmen.

There are other rooms off a large conference room where sales training aids are carried out.

The renovation gives Butler Motor Sales one of the finest showrooms in the tri-county district.

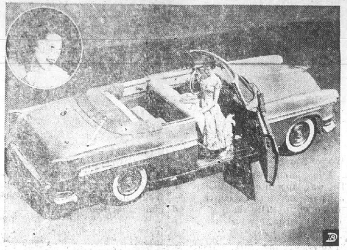
Lady Leather Picks New Yorker Convertible



The anonymous Lady Leather, who created quite a stir around the Automobile Show in Chicago last January, has remained consistent in her admiration for this material as proved by her selection of genuine top-grain, hand buffed leather upholstery for her New Yorker Deluxe convertible.

This lady, who is known for her beauty as well as her social prominence, wore a mask at the show. Even when asked for her autograph, which happened quite frequently, she signed only as "Lady Leather."

For her new New Yorker Deluxe she has chosen a jade green and white color scheme both for the body of the car and for the interior upholstery. This is a completely leather trimmed car with the bolsters in white and the cushions jade, matching the color scheme of the body.

Chrysler sales division reports that genuine leather is first choice in the upholstery of convertibles and ranks high in other models because of its ability to withstand the elements as well as to resist scuffing and to be readily cleaned. Mild soap suds and water are all that is required in most instances to bring the appearance of the leather back to its original beauty. In fact leather experts warn against the use of paste or wax which is likely to produce a film on the surface and, consequently, reduce the original beauty of the finish.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

For as long as men have grown things from the soil and taken pride in what they grew, autumn has been "Fair" time. Early times there was often sale as well as show and nearly always some form of the mountebank and the "shell game" added entertainment and a bit of hazard to the prize squash and the fat stock. The 1955 fair has modern trimmings but essentially it is the same.

For the true native of Lenawee, of course, there is only one FAIR. Some elderly citizens of the county have not missed a Lenawee County Fair since they could walk. It is a happy part of the childhood of many more. But to fair goers of a generation ago the picture was darkened by "the year the grandstand fell."

That was the worst disaster ever to happen in Lenawee, before or since and it took place on Thursday of fair week, 76 years ago, in 1879. The fair at that time was held on the "old fairgrounds" called Lawrence Park in Adrian, just west of the river and north of west Maumee street, not far from the present armory. Twenty-three people were killed and hundreds crippled and injured in a space of a few minutes.

A local Adrian paper gave the following eye witness account—

"At ten minutes to three o'clock yesterday, just after the class of double teams had completed their mile around the track (this must have been the judging of 'gentlemen's driving horses', not a race) while the grandstand was crowded with people and the band was just beginning to play, the center of the stand fell down. Immediately following, the whole front fell forward onto the track and the rear part fell backwards into the river . . . At once ensued a scene of indescribable confusion. Buggies were overturned, horses dashed frantically up the track into the masses of people who were rushing towards the disaster." The writer fails to mention the fact that the roof, falling onto the seats below, caused most of the casualties.

It is not difficult to picture the horrors of the scene. But it is almost impossible for us to imagine how rescue work could have been accomplished without ambulances, without a hospital, without modern machinery to lift the timbers and most of all without telephones to summon aid. An Ann Arbor doctor was called by railroad telegraph, wagons and teams carried the injured to houses in the neighborhood and to the opera house where they were cared for by the doctors available and by the "practical nurses" of the day who were accustomed to dealing with all emergencies.

Stories of heroism and hairbreath escapes were legion. The writer's own mother crawled through a crevice to safety, minus part of a new dress and an aunt who wore her hair in long braids had one cut in two between timbers.

But unhappy as were the memories of 1879 they do not seem to have retarded the growth of the fair, which in one form or another had even then been a going concern for more than 25 years.

Probably there is a basis for the 77 years now given as its age, but that certainly does not tell the whole story. There were local "agricultural expositions" in Tecumseh before 1850. As early as 1853, Benjamin Baxter, editor of the HERALD mentions a Lenawee County Agricultural Society, (the name of the present Fair Board) and in 1854 it was announced, "The Lenawee County Fair is this year being holden in the village of Hudson." Evidentaly for some years it was held in different towns of the county and then in June 1865, we are told, "Thirty acres of land have been purchased in Adrian for a State Fair Grounds. They are on the west side of the river, northwest of A. J. Dean's." This of course was the "old" fairground and here it must have started out as a state wide project and been reorganized later under the present setup. Some time in the early 1890's the present site was purchased, where it has been held ever since.

So in some form or other and in spite of the 1879 disaster, the people of Lenawee have had a fair for more than a century.

Tree Rings

Sherlock Holmes has nothing on foresters at the University of Michigan Biological Station, at least when it comes to the mysterious past of Michigan's woodland areas.

Stephen H. Spurr, U-M professor of silviculture, explains that tree cross-sections often give important clues for the forester "detectives of the woods."

Using as an example a recently cut section, Professor Spurr points out that the foresters have traced, through ring counting, the tree's birthdate back to 1750.

He says that the sudden increase in width of rings, shows a "sudden growth spurt around 1853." "Such growth increases usually indicate a fire or windstorm which destroyed surrounding trees," he adds.

Professor Spurr states that one such wide ring alone "is apt to stand for a particularly wet year, giving us an idea of what was going on at that time."

Pointing to black marks, or scars, on the rings, the professor explains that they give evidence of fires at the time. As an example, the log he mentioned sported such a scar in the ring marking the year 1876.

"History records a great logging movement in the area at that time, and following the job, the areas were always burned over," he states. "This one particular tree was not valuable enough to be logged but managed to survive that fire and many others," he adds.

Professor Spurr points out that foresters can even use the rings of record seasonal growth, for light rings indicate spring increase and darker ones, winter.

When it comes to Protection ...it pays to have the BEST

Adequate rain gear can keep you from getting soaked — but it's no good unless you have it with you when the heavens open.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST — and buy it today.

Grade School News

NEWS FROM PATTERSON SCHOOL

In our building this year, we have 255 boys and girls.

Already there are so many interesting activities started. Mr. Johnson, our band instructor, is organizing fifth grade Tonette classes. There is a breakfast contest going on in the fifth grade, too, and every one is trying hard to have a good report on what they have had.

Our sixth graders are a busy and responsible group. The safety patrol and service squad are well organized and have been doing a fine job. The following boys are on the safety patrol. Captain, Tim Whitney, Lieutenant, Bob French, Jim LeBaron, Robert Richards. Ronald O'Neil, Kent Naugle, Arthur Collingsworth, Richard Meads. Charles Osburn, Gary McKenzie Jay Andrews, Nickie Penrod, and Bobby LaPrad. Our service squad consists of Captain Diane Roe Lieutenant Alice Covell, Betty Andrews, Rudite Fremanis, Carol Brighton, Sharon Butler, Carol Green, Nancy George, Alice Shirley and Nancy Beland.

There are a few new faces in the third grade. Patrick Ward entered from Elmira, New York, and Earl Cook from Clinton. One day our third graders drew clown faces for their display case. In their science class they have had a fine time bringing caterpillars to school. Barry Roe brought a snapping turtle.

The first grade feels very happy and proud to be such big children. They, too, have a little visiting turtle which they named Pokey. The children enjoy watching him and making up stories about him. Joey Hall brought a bowl of fish for his room.

In the kindergarten there are so many new friends and things to do that the day seems to fly by too fast. Each child can now locate his own cupboard with his name on. A large "stop," and "go" sign was made one day and playing "traffic" is lots of fun. Eddie Stearns had a birthday one morning and he was the first boy to pick the lollipop from the lollipop tree.

All parents are welcome at any time to visit. We feel that it gives them a much better picture of the school program.

HARMONY HOME MAKERS

Mrs. Bert Bruder was hostess for the first fall meeting of the Harmony Home Makers last Wednesday. A noon potluck dinner was served with the help of the co-hostesses, Mrs. Claude Sebring and Mrs. John Snow and featured three birthday cakes. These were in observance of the birthday anniversaries of members which had occured during the summer months.

After a brief business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence Hunt the aftrenoon was spent socially. The Oct. 19 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Don Cleveland.

The fourth grade are enjoying their new social studies book. They are learning about the people who found and settled our country. In arithmetic they are reviewing the many things that they learned last year, but they will soon be starting their new work.

Each room appreciates the gift of the American Legion, a framed pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

New friends in the second grade are Linda Gilbert and Cathy Mary Brown.

Virginia Smock had a birthday and brought a treat for the second graders to enjoy. They are all happy that they have not forgotten how to read and their "Friends and Neighbors" books are not too hard. Pictures have been made of summer vacation fun for their bulletin board.

Ohio Gardener Speaks to Club

The home of Mrs. Don Heesen on south Union street was the meeting place of the Tecumseh Garden Club last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Paul Eddy was program leader for the day and introduced as guest speaker, Mrs. A. H. Hilty of Columbus Grove, Ohio.

Mrs. Hilty's subject was "Roses and Rose Gardens" and, by means of pictures and description, she took her audience through her own garden and several other outstanding gardens in Ohio. Her talk brought information and inspiration to all those interested in roses.

There were 21 members present and Mrs. G. T. Lind was a guest of the club. Mrs. Harold Wilson, club president, conducted the business meeting during which a communicaion was read from Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary announcing the mobile X-ray clinic for Sept. 28 and 29 at the Methodist church and the group voted to sponsor a Brownie Scout troop again this year.

Mrs. Kennard Wise, secretary of the "Garden Gate" reported her file of copies nearly complete and an invitation to all club members to attend the convention of the National Council of State Garden Clubs was read. As a part of the immediate plans for the work of the club, Mrs. Wilson appointed a committee for the Christmas project.

Tea was served after the program by the hostess and her committee, Mrs. Charles Kempf, Miss Anne Carson and Mrs. Mertie Waring. Mrs. Neil Pearson and Mrs. Waring presided at the tea table which had a beautiful and appropriate centerpiece of roses supplied by Miss Carson. A lovely arrangement of chrysanthemums grown by Mrs. Wilson decorated one buffet and tuberous begonias from Mrs. Al Helzerman's garden graced another.

In Oct. the club will meet with Mrs. Clarence Beach.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

...Makes a Man Healthy, Wealthy—and Tired!

Sandy Peterson's nephew Pete has gone back to college. He worked on Sandy's farm a couple of months last summer to get hardened up for football.

He seemed to enjoy farm life all right—but like most city kids it took him some time to get used to a farmer's schedule.

Sandy claims that when he went in to wake Pete—on the first morning—the boy looked up startled and asked what time it was. Sandy replied it was four-fifteen. "Gee," Pete murmured, "if we're going to do a day's work tomorrow you'd better get to bed!"

From where I sit, we must have heard a million stories like that. But they show how some people assume their customs are the only proper ones. To most city folks getting up at 4:15 seems odd, because they don't do it. Just like some people don't think enjoying a glass of beer is "right" . . . because they happen to prefer another beverage and haven't waked up to the fact that everyone has a right to his own choice.

Goodwill Comes Next Tuesday

The opening of school means many things to many people. To the children it is an annual readjustment time, a shift from the careless summer days to the routine of school. To the mothers it means new clothes to replace those outgrown or worn out, in brief the fall cleaning out of closets. To the men it means the putting away of summer garden tools and outdoor equipment and a chance to inventory winter needs before the snow falls.

Goodwill Industries can help and be helped during this change over period. More than 400 handicapped employees are ready to take your summer discards, work on them, cleaning and repairing them for sale in one of their six retail outlets.

These Goodwill stores sell at a price that will enable others, less fortunate in material things, to buy necessities for themselves and children.

Goodwill's local represenative, Mrs. Carl Burch of Tecumseh, and William Kuster of Britton say that the next Goodwill pick-up will be in this area Tuesday, Sept. 27, giving you plenty of time to set aside your discards and call them at Britton 2121 and Tecumseh 868.

"Remember that you will help yourself, you will help the handicapped keep gainfully employed and you will help others buy necessary clothing at a price they can afford to pay," said both of the representatives.

STUTESMAN ENROLLS AT MOODY

Philip A. Stutesman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Stutesman of 113 S. Maumee, Tecumseh, Michigan, has enrolled in the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

Since it was established 68 years ago by Dwight L. Moody, the famous old school has trained some 58,000 men and women for Christian service. Its alumni can be found in all parts of the world. More than 1,000 students are enrolled in its day school and almost that number in evening school. In addition, some 20,000 annually study its correspondence school courses.

HILLSDALE HAS TOM NEITLING

Civil Air Patrol News

The Civil Air Patrol group met at Sage Hall Monday night after the usual drill at the airport. The Cadets are selling Christmas cards to earn the money with which to purchase a film projector to show training films to be used in coordination with the military classes now being offered to the cadets. Cpl. Donald Partridge was appointed sales chairman.

The Tecumseh Civil Air Patrol squadron received the alert for "Operation Sarcap" at 6:30 a. m. Sunday. Within two and one-half hours, seven cadets and three senior members were mobilized and headed for the Ann Arbor airport, where part of the statewide operation was held.

The problem involved in the operation was given to the Civil Air Patrol by the U. S. Air Force. Theoretically, a light plane with four people aboard, bound for Kinross. A.F.B. from Columbus, Ohio, failed to show up at Kinross. The plane was last heard from about 10 miles east of the Toledo radio station. C.A.P. pilots from all over Michigan gathered at several designated airfields. From these fields, search planes combed the surrounding territory.

The Cadets from Tecumseh were assigned to various phases of ground work upon arrival at the airport. Cadets attending the mission were: 1st Sgt. Tom Maupin; Sgt. Ray Puffer; Cpl. Lonnie Penrod; Cpl. Cathy Sullivan; P.F.C. Doug LeFevre; P.F.C. John Dennis; and P.F.C. Jane Krebs. Senior members were: 1st Lt. Richard Jacobs, commander of cadets; and Capt. Leslie Calhoun and Capt. Elmer Burleson, pilots.

Church services were made available for all personnel who desired to attend.

WALLACE WINS

Robert W. Wallace, of Britton, a field representative for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, has won double sales honors, it was announced today by O. Embry Moats, CLU, Detroit agency manager.

Mr. Wallace led the central division's 900 field underwriters in number of paid applications for insurance during the first eight months of 1955, and he was fourth nationally, among 3,200 underwriters.

Also, with nearly half the club year remaining, Mr. Wallace qualified for the national field club, honor organization comprised of Mutual Of New York's outstanding field representatives throughout the United States and Canada.

A small but wiry man, he had white hair which always was crew-cut. His face, etched by many seasons spent in the out-of-doors (he had for years written a column on field and stream for the Booth newspapers and he was an avid hunter and fisherman and dog lover) was the color of old parchment and just as wrinkled. And he wore a long, handle-bar mustache, yellowed from the incessant smoke from his large, shallow-bowled pipes. Two or three years after our first meeting he added a grey-pointed goatee. But the most striking thing about him was his eyes. They were large and bright and his eyebrows, completely contrasted to his brown, wrinkled skin and his close-cropped white hair, were coal black and bushy, giving him the appearance of some strange bird.

And his clothes! It took courage to dress the way he did. He dressed with more dash than the most rakish of freshmen. But on him the flashy tweed sport coats, pastel colored shirts, gaudy ties and rugged sport shoes looked good.

(The memorial minutes said this about him: "The objective of his outdoor column, he said 'was the ultimate establishment of a healthier and more far-sighted attitude toward all aspects of conservation . . . the attitudes of people toward their play is one of the foundation stones of sound citizenship and that no effort should be spared in trying to improve this attitude.' ")

He dramatized the fun of outdoor life. One day a friend and I were discussing in a summer school class the large black bass we had caught in the lake at home. Prof. Haines overheard and he wanted to be "showed." He had not been having much luck that summer so when in two hours of fly fishing he had caught his limit in large bass, two of them weighing more than four pounds each, he was like a little kid who gets a new shiny bike at Christmas.

(The memorial also said: "He was informal and entertaining in his classes . . . and many serious students learned from him a fluid style of writing, a sense of humor, a respect for personality, a regard for integrity, for accuracy, for meticulous and persevering search for background information. Even from his delightful anecdotes students learned a sense of decency and balance in human relations and in relations of men to all of nature.")

I remember him best as a teacher. His delightful little stories always had a moral to them. He never "preached" but those who practiced the "golden rule" in his stories always won out over the "forces of evil." His stories of historical characters in journalism, his yarns about his beloved dogs, and his sports stories all had a point to them that students remembered long after leaving his classes. In other words, from most professors we gained knowledge; but from Prof. Haines we gained wisdom.

I always will remember the observation experiment. It was the beginning of class. There was a scuffle at the door and two students dressed in army left overs had harsh words. One of the students knocked books out of the other student's hands. Before picking up the books, the ex GI reached for his pocket. A girl screamed "He's got a knife;" then she fainted. At this time Prof. Haines nonchalantly entered the room, twirling the ends of his long mustache. He calmly said: "Write a story about what you just saw and heard." He had staged the whole affair with the three students, one of whom, contrary to the reports that he was pulling a knife and a gun, had reached for his handkerchief!

Never a taskmaster, he was very fair (sometimes so fair that students took advantage of him.) But he was never a "soft touch," particularly when it came to marking "A's". One could get by nicely in his courses (he taught introduction to journalism, feature writing and reviewing and the history of journalism) for "B" work. In his graduate course history of journalism I prepared an extra paper on the erudite subject "The Social, Economical, Moral, Psychological and Journalistic Causes and Effects of Yellow Journalism as Practiced by Pulitzer and Hearst in New York in 1895" and, much to my chagrin, after hours of research and mental "sweat," he returned the paper marked "A-". He always marked on the theory that those worthy of "A's" would be out in the field practicing journalism. Apparently I was not quite ready to practice.

(The memorial minutes said: "Following his death, which was announced in the press throughout the nation and in foreign lands, there came a deluge of letters to his wife and to his colleagues, consoling in the genuine expressions of appreciation of his character and of the unique qualities of his teaching. One letter said: 'Admiration and affection were qualities he attracted in quanity from all who knew him. I doubt very much that he had any adequate understanding of the high regard in which he was held by an unsuspected multitude.' ")

The textbook on journalism goes back on the shelf. Again it had served a purpose. It had recalled the wonderful memory of a fine teacher, a great man and a regular guy.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: This week's thought is dedicated to the memory of Prof. Donal Hamilton Haines: "Far from the city and the ways of men."—Homer

Wolf's Offer Food Service

Wolf's Appliances, Tecumseh, is now offering its Amana food service plan in two counties, Lenawee and Hillsdale.

Fresh frozen food for the freezer is delivered to a home every four months. The food comes from Wolf's large food and locker plant in Hillsdale.

A housewife can choose any frozen food items she wants and she can choose the quantity.

To show how versatile and economic frozen foods are Wolf's serves two complete frozen foods dinners each week. The dinners are held Mondays and Thursdays at 6:30 p. m.

Cliff Wolf, co-owner of the food service, says the service will save time, steps and money for housewives.

THS Begins Season With 32-0 Victory

STRATEGY — Brother Romaine, Boysville athletic director and Leo Janendo, head football coach, discuss plans for Boysville's game against South Lyon Friday. It is a league game.

Win 51-0

Boysville Smashes Deerfield

A smashing running game sparked by Joe and John Murray gave Boysville a resounding 51-0 victory over Deerfield Friday.

John scored four touchdowns from right half and Joe scored two tds from left half. John reeled off one scoring jaunt that covered 45 yards.

Boysville's second twin act accounted for nine more points. Dick Temerowski intercepted a Deerfield pass and scooted 30 yards to score. His twin brother Bob booted three extra points.

Jim Farr scored the other td for the Fighting Knights on an end run and Paul Carey took a kick-off on his 25 and scampered 75 yards to the two-yard line before being nailed.

Deerfield never threatened.

Faces Monroe in First League Game Friday

Combining a slashing running attack and an on-the target passing offense, the Tecumseh high school Indians Friday night defeated the Addison Panthers with ease by a score of 32-0.

The Indians scored their first touchdown of the non-league game in the first few minutes of play. The score developed from a break at the kick-off when the ball slithered off the foot of the Addison kicker and rolled only a few yards to the Addison 48.

In seven plays Tecumseh scored its first td of the new season. Gary Marsh plunged to the 40. A jump pass from Al Dickinson, his first of 14 thrown with 11 completions, was good for a first down on the 29 when converted center Ray Larned, now an end, gathered it in. Hal Weakly gained a yard. Then the sophomore quarterback Dickinson hit Ken Miller, his other end, on the 20. Showing he also could run, Al kept the ball and lugged it to the 12 for a first down. Marsh banged to the seven. And Dickinson hit Val Spangler, right half with another pass for the six points Ray Larned boomed one right between the uprights for the extra point.

The Indians scored again in the second quarter. With the ball on the Addison 44 Dickinson completed a jump pass to Miller good for 11 yards. Then Al kept the ball and gained two yards. He hit Spangler with a pass that carried to the 22. Val then bulled his way to the 11 on a plunge. Andrews picked up six more yards on a run and Dickinson hit Spangler with a pass that carried to the 2. Harold Weakly ran his own left end for the six points. And Larned booted the extra point.

As the teams left the field for intermission the Indians held a 14-0 lead.

PENALTIES HELP ADDISON

Several penalties helped Addison penetrate to the Tecumseh 25 yard stripe early in the third period but the Indians defense held and the Panthers punted out.

On the fourth play of the series after taking the ball over, Dickinson hit Ken Miller. The light speedster gathered in the ball and put on a burst of speed that carried him in for another td. The play covered 59 yards.

Addison's big end Copper blocked the try for the extra point.

Tecumseh will play host to Monroe Catholic Central Friday night in the first home and Southeastern league game. Game time is 8 p.m. on the recreation field.

Last year Monroe stopped the Indians 13-6.

Coach Breniff probably will go with the same line-up that plastered Addison last Friday night.

This will mean Larned and Miller at end; Lewis and Spreeman at tackle; Browne and Benham at guard; Nichols at center; Dickinson at quarter; Weakly and Marsh at the halves; and Spangler in the fullback slot.

Others who are sure to see action will be Jackson, Gurtzweiler, Manley and Covell in the line and Andrews, Cadmus and Hanna in the backfield.

Good Luck, Indians

Although the Tecumseh high school Indians scored a resounding victory over Addison, 32-0, Friday this first lopsided victory does not constitute a season.

The win over Addison for the past two years may mean that the Indian schedule may have to be revised. In two years the Indians have scored 58 points against the Panthers while holding the Addison school scoreless.

This mis-matching of the two schools may mean a possibility of rescheduling the Clinton Redskins in future grid games. This game was a natural and always brought a lot of interest.

Regardless of future scheduling and regardless of Tecumseh's future football status this year, we wish the gridders and their coaches a successful season. Good luck, Indians.

Searching Out TB

it's wise to be
X-RAYED

Did you know that you could have tuberculosis and not know it? One way to make sure your lungs are strong and healthy is to have a chest X-ray.

And this can be done free (tax supported) through the service of the mobile X-ray that will be in Tecumseh next Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 28 and 29.

In too many cases tuberculosis has been an undercover operator, sneaking up on the young and old alike without warning. But the modern X-ray machine tracks down tuberculosis in its early stages and this is when it is most quickly cured.

Although tuberculosis is the prime objective of this X-ray survey, lung cancer and heart disease also may sometimes be identified in time to prevent more serious difficulties.

All adults of 15 years and over are urged to have their chests X-rayed. A few minutes spent at the mobile X-ray unit next week (no undressing is necessary) may prevent countless days, and even months, of suffering.

You'd better drop in for your chest X-ray!

. . . . . And So Is Death

See by the papers where Gov. Williams says a discussion of a speed law for Michigan highways by state legislators during the special session he called is "too controversial." The governor also said the session will not have enough time to bring it up.

Newspaper folks are busy, too, but last June members of the Michigan Press Association took time to pass a resolution favoring a state-wide highway speed law.

At that time newsmen said they favored the recommendation of Joseph A. Childs, commissioner of the Michigan State Police. Commissioner Childs is on record favoring a speed limit of 50 miles per hour at night and a 60 mile per hour speed limit during the day.

But such a speed limit, according to the governor, is "too controversial."

The record set by Michigan in automobile deaths is controversial, too. A speed limit, strictly enforced, may be the answer to the slaughter on our highways. Gov. Williams in the past, as recently as Labor Day, called out members of the National Guard to supplement police in controlling traffic. But the highway deaths continued.

We feel he has an opportunity permanently to reduce the highway death toll if he and the legislators will follow the advice of the state police commissioner and establish a highway speed limit for Michigan.

"How long will it take to sell my house?" That is a question in the minds of nearly every owner who for one reason or another is faced with the problem of disposing of his home.

Nationally, a recent survey by the U. S. Savings & Loan League shows this: "A new house in the low or medium-price field remains on the market an average of 30 to 60 days. For an old house the average time is 60 to 90 days."

Locally, these averages probably hold true. Of course, we are talking of "averages" which means some will sell sooner, and others will take longer.

To shorten the time as much as possible, start by listing your home with our office. That's the first step scores of local families have taken. Give us a chance while it is "fresh," ahead of any other efforts.

Then price it in "tune" with the market. We want you to get all it's worth, but it still must appeal to buyers who compare "prices" rather closely.

Finally, list your house with us for an adequate time — 60 to 90 days — so that we can promote it effectively.

To list your house, merely phone 36. We'll take over from there!

Letters to Editor

To the Editor:

Did you hear the program on WJBK Channel 2 Sept. 18 from 1 to 1:30 against fluoride from eminent doctors of the state?

The fact was mentioned that Tecumseh had violated the mandate of the people.

Fluoride was in the water after it was voted out which was verified by a patient taking a gallon of water to Harper hospital to be analyzed.

She is suffering from incipient fluoride poisoning. She stayed in the hospital from Aug. 7 to 11 and various times thereafter with no assurance of a cure from six leading specialists.

We are not sure how many in this town are suffering but 61 in the state are and several are in hospitals from here.

We the people would like to know who gave the orders to leave these feeders on the line and another new feeder ready to be installed regardless of the lawsuit pending against the city.

Hintz-Miller Vows Exchanged Saturday

Bridal white was the theme of the decorations at the Tecumseh Friends church Saturday afternoon, when at 2 o'clock Rona Lee Miller and Jack Leroy Hintz were united in marriage by the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the church.

White chrysanthemums, gladioli and pompoms filled vases on the altar and the wedding party stood before a grouping of tall hampers of the same flowers backed by palms. White satin bows marked the church pews and the aisles were covered in white. Mrs. Amos Wilson at the organ played traditional wedding music.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Courington of 305 W. Pottawatamie street was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Tom Wilkinson of Detroit as matron of honor and by three bridesmaids, Evelyn Oliver, Shirley Covell and Vonnie Penrod, all of Tecumseh.

The groom, whose father is Elmer Hintz of Route 2, Tecumseh was assisted by his brother Howard Hintz as best man and the ushers were Douglas Hintz, James Covell and Dale Monigan.

The bride's gown had a silk, ballerina length skirt with over-skirt of chantilly lace over satin and a fitted lace jacket with long sleeves. With it she carried a crescent bouquet of white carnations, frenched mums and bebe poms backed with white maline and tied with a shower of white satin ribbon tied in lovers knots.

The four attendants all wore ballerina length dresses with head bands and shoes to match. Mrs. Wilkinson's gown was pale pink and those of the bridesmaids pale blue. All carried crescent bouquets.

That of the matron of honor was of blue delphinium flowerettes and blue mist with blue maline and ribbons, the others pink gladioli with matching maline and ribbon.

Mrs. Courington, mother of the bride, wore a dress of slate blue with hat, shoes and purse to match and a shoulder corsage of shell pink carnations and rosebuds.

At four o'clock 200 guests were entertained by the bride's family at a reception in the Legion Hall. There the bridesmaids assisted in serving the four-tiered wedding cake and the accompanying punch. Wedding bells and a miniature bridal couple trimmed the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Hintz left later for a trip to Michigan City, Ind., the bride wearing a pink and black costume with a white coat. Mr. Hintz, who is a graduate of Britton high school is employed at the Ford plant in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Hintz attended Tecumseh high school last year. They will reside at Rt. 2, Tecumseh.

VA Warns Students To Avoid Financial Troubles

Veterans starting school this fall under the Korean GI Bill can avoid financial troubles by taking along enough money of their own to see them through their first two months of training, Veterans Administration said today.

Under the law, it takes about two months for their first GI allowance checks to reach them, VA explained, providing enrollment forms are promptly submitted at the end of the registration period and certification of attendance is furnished at the end of the first month of training.

Those enrolling during the late enrollment period and those transferring from other states may expect a longer period than two months before receipt of their first checks. Once the allowances start coming, they will cover every month of training completed, as long as veterans make sure their schools file monthly attendance certificates with the VA.

REASONS ARE GIVEN

VA gave these reasons for the length of time required to make the initial GI allowance payments:

First, under the law, the allowances must be paid after the end of each month of training completed, and not before. Therefore a veteran could not possibly receive his money the day he enters school.

For veterans who begin training after the 20th of the month, the GI allowances usually are not paid until some time after the end of the following full month of training.

These factors account for at least one month's delay, VA said.

Second, after the close of the month, the veteran must sign a certification stating he was attending class during the month. The school sends this certification to VA. Usually, a veteran's check should go out within 20 days after the time VA receives the certification.

That accounts for the remainder of the two-month waiting period, VA said.

RECEIVE SINGLE CHECK

VA explained that under the Korean GI Bill, a veteran receives a single GI allowance check to cover each month of training. With the help of that check, he must meet all his own training expenses —tuition, books, fees, supplies and the like. VA does not make separate payments to schools, as it does in the case of veterans training under the original World War II GI Bill.

For veterans in school full-time under the Korean GI Bill, the monthly allowance rates are $110, with no dependents; $135, with one dependent, and $160, with more than one dependent.

Phone Company and Union Sign Contracts

The General Telephone Company of Michigan and the IBEW-AFL, Locals 1177, 1401, 1410, today signed contracts covering the working agreements between both the plant and traffic departments of the company. The increases in wage rates for the plant group range from 4c per houh to 20.5c, retroactive to Aug. 24, 1955, with 5c per hour of the increase retroactive to May 10, 1955.

The increases in wage rates for the traffic employees range from 3.5c per hour to 8.5c, retroactive to Aug. 24, 1955, and 2c per hour of the increase is retroactive to May 10, 1955.

This agreement was reached after negotiations which began on May 17 deadlocked and were certified to the fact-finding governor's panel.

The new pacts cover and incorporate all of the recommendations made by panel members Paul T. Sorensen, chairman, Arthur M. Rude, and Frederic A. Grimm, Muskegon attorneys.

The contracts are of 12 months' duration and affect approximately 1,000 employees of the General Telephone Company throughout the state.

First Mass-Made Furniture in 1800

Mass production of furniture often comes to mind when you think of today's mechanization. But the first furniture to be entirely mass produced was English Regency, which was popular at the beginning of the 1800's.

Mary Shipley, instructor in the textiles, clothing and related arts department at Michigan State University, explains that after Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo, interest in furniture shifted to English design. This went back to the classic Greek styles for inspiration.

One of the leading designers of Regency furniture, Thomas Hope, took many of his designs from Greek coins and plaster casts of Greek furniture.

Regency furniture pieces really were functional; this came from its Roman design, points out Miss Shipley. Hope planned furniture to fit the human figure. One of his objections to the furniture of the day was its impracticality. He was a tall man, but even he had to stand on a chair to reach the top drawers of chests.

Hope's Regency designs were copied in the United States and were the inspiration for our first noted furniture designer, Duncan Phyfe. The lyre shape, for instance, is seen in many Duncan Phyfe pieces, but was widely used by Hope first.

A new flame resistant finish for cotton cloth has been developed by U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists. It is hoped to be used in the future for safer uniforms, tents and other cotton fabric items for the military. The finish adds wrinkle resistance and rot resistance to the fabric.

Watch Out for Kids

Chief George Kilbourn today announced that the city of Tecumseh is cooperating with the State Safety Commission on the annual September "WATCH OUT FOR KIDS" traffic safety program.

"Each year," the Chief said, "motorists need to be reminded that children are returning to school and that there is a special need to watch out for them—many of whom have just returned from carefree vacations have not adapted themselves to the routine of going to and from schools."

According to Chief Kilbourn 5,057 children (0 - 15 years of age) were struck down by automobiles on the streets and highways of Michigan last year — 119 of them died and many were crippled for life.

"Our department will pay particular attention to speeding near schools during the first few weeks of Sept. as a forceful reminder to all motorists to watch their speed as they watch out for kids in school areas," the Chief continued.

The Chief gives the following advice to parents. They are urged to teach their children this simple rule by repeating it over and over again:

STOP at the curb
LOOK both ways
WAIT until it's safe to cross
WALK across the street

In conclusion the Chief said, "Hitting a little girl or a little boy with a ton and a half of steel is not a pleasant thing to do. You, as a driver in such an accident, would find small comfort in the fact that the police may decide that the mishap was caused primarily by the child's own carelessness."

Giant Animals Once Lived In Michigan

The Giant Beaver, who lived in Michigan ten thousand years ago at the end of the Ice Age, was as large as the modern black bear, according to University of Michigan geologist Russell C. Hussey.

How the prehistoric forest must have reverberated when he slapped his tail! Plainly the beaver that toils in Michigan today would have been no match for that giant creature.

The house of one of these oversized beavers measured nine feet across.

"The Giant Beaver was just one of an amazing assemblage of animals, completely unknown to our state today, which came to live here with the return of the forests and grass lands after the ice retreated," he states.

"Skeletons of the Woolly Mammoth have been found in Michigan and the condition of the bones indicates that they are only a few thousand years old. This elephant came to North America by way of a land bridge that connected Siberia and Alaska. He was well equipped to withstand low temperatures since he was protected by a heavy growth of woolly hair next to the skin and several inches of fat just beneath his haggy hide." Professor Hussey says.

MASTODON FOUND

"Skeletons of the American Mastodon are more common here than are those of the Mammoth. They have been found in a number of places throughout the state commonly in swamps, and buried to depths of only a few feet," he states.

An unusually well preserved skeleton, found near the town of Owosso, has been mounted in a standing position in the U-M Museum and is one of the University's finest and most spectacular exhibits.

The professor calls attention to the fact that many of the Mastodon bones from the swamps of Michigan are so recent and fresh that they still contain some of the original organic material, and even pieces of cartilage are found fastened to certain parts of the skeleton.

"Such discoveries mean that Mastodons survived in our state until comparatively recent times, and they must have been common all through the forests of Michigan. But nobody has been able to explain why the elephants and mastodons survived the worst conditions of the Ice Age and then, when living conditions were apparently getting better, disappeared completely from North America."

OX RETREATED

Describing still another animal, now vanished from the scene, Professor Hussey remarks that the Musk Ox lives today in Greenland and the northernmost parts of Canada. "When the great glacier occupied most of the Canadian region these animals were forced to retreat southward before the slowly advancing ice front and then when the climate grew warmer, they migrated northward, since their natural habitat was in the colder parts of the continent. Skulls of the musk ox have been found in Michigan and there is a well preserved skull of one of these animals in the University Museum."

"Some of these long-vanished animals may have been seen by the advance guard of Indians who once lived in this region. But they are all gone today and the cause of their disappearance is a profound mystery," Professor Hussey concludes.

Civil Air Patrol Holds Meeting

Civil Air Patrol meeting of Sept. 13 opened with a period of drill at the airport.

At 8 p.m. the group met at Sage Hall. After group discussion, it was decided that all future Civil Air Patrol meetings will be held on Monday nights, starting with Sept. 19.

Lt. Abner announced plans for a VHF radio to be set up in the Sage building, complete with a 30-foot, permanently mounted antenna. This radio will be in operation five nights a week and will be able to contact Monroe, Ann Arbor, and Detroit. It will eventually be operated completely by C.A.P. Cadets.

Goodwill Gets Top Honors

Detroit Goodwill Industries received two top awards from the National Goodwill Industries of America which embraces units in 112 cities, it was announced today by Harold H. McKinnon, Executive Secretary.

Detroit's Junior Goodwill Group composed of over 200 volunteer women received the first award for the best Woman's Auxiliary for raising $25,000 for capital improvements during the past two years.

The money was raised through the annual antique shows and a May fair. Improvements included a new recreation room, a conveyor belt which carries discards from the loading dock to the third floor clothing department, new insulation and other minor improvements in the Goodwill building.

Another top award was given to Detroit for the most complete public relations program of any Goodwill Industries in the country.

Completely non-profit and self-supporting as far as salaries for handicapped workers and operating costs are concerned, Goodwill relies on other sources for capital improvements.

The National Council of Woman's Auxiliaries also announced an award to the Detroit Women's Association of Goodwill for the employee birthday parties which are a bi-monthly affair for all handicapped employees.

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (261:4): "Hold thought steadfastly to the enduring, the good, and the true, and you will bring these into your experience proportionably to their occupancy of your thoughts."

The Golden Text is from Jeremiah (51:10): "The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God."

by DIZZY TROUT

THERE'S ALWAYS a feeling of nostalgia, a tinge of sadness, in the clubhouse after the last game of the season.

Because of the enormous turnover in personnel every year, you'll never again see several of the players. Others, injured or their work completed, have received permission to depart a few days early and are already gone.

The rest are likewise in a hurry to return to families and homes missed for many months, so there are fast showers, quick handshakes, a few brief words and then a mantle of silence descends upon the clubhouse.

When it's all over, Al Kaline will return to Baltimore to decide between two jobs, Harvey Kuenn will go back to his public relations job for a bank in West Allis, Wisc., and a trip to the altar in November, and Bill Hoeft will work in a sporting goods store in Oshkosh, Wisc.

School Teacher

Off-season, Steve Gromek, who lives in Detroit, operates a bowling alley, coach Jack Tighe sells radio time in Muskegon, Al Aber works in a Cleveland haberdashery, Babe Birrer teaches school in Buffalo and Bill Tuttle works in a lumberyard in Farmington, Ill.

Some of the players remain active in sports through part or all of the winter. Bubba Phillips hopes to play winter ball in Cuba or Puerto Rico, Jim Delsing is going on a barnstorming tour before returning to carpentering and Fred Hatfield will again officiate college and high school basketball games in Alabama.

Red Wilson, a former gridder, will help coach the University of Wisconsin freshman football team, Harry Malmberg will divide his time between working in a gas station at Antioch, Calif., and refereeing basketball games and Jack Phillips is trying to decide between playing winter baseball or officiating basketball around his home town of Marella, N. Y.

Ray Boone engages in an unusual off-season occupation for a ball player. He's a journeyman lathe worker. Likewise skilled is Leo Cristante, of Allen Park, who's a tool and die maker.

Several Students

Bob Miller, who is taking a correspondence course in business law from DePauw University, will tour the Orient early in January to assist in an Armed Forces baseball clinic.

Other Tiger bonus babies similarly are students, Reno Bertoia returning to Assumption College in Windsor, Jim Small going to San Jose State Teachers College and Jim Brady attending Notre Dame.

By contrast, Earl Torgeson plans to fish and play golf around Anna Maria Island, Fla., all winter, Ned Garver will hunt and fish on his farm at Ney, O., and coach Schoolboy Rowe expects to hunt a lot with former Yankee Bill Dickey near El Dorado, Ark.

Manager Bucky Harris now makes his home in Detroit and will be occupied with at least six major league meetings. He hopes to find time for hunting and fishing in between.

As for Ol' Diz, maybe I'll see some of you around this winter.

Lawson Cousino Buried Monday

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Elizabeth Catholic church for Lawson A. Cousino, whose death occurred Thursday at his home on Staib road in Clinton township.

Mr. Cousino, who was 73 years of age, had lived near Clinton for seven years, moving from a farm near Adrian. He was born, Dec. 14, 1882, in Erie and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Cousino.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby; one daughter, Mrs. Richard (Orlena) Huffman of Dryfork, W. Va.; two sons, Clayton R. at home and Gordon B. of Adrian; a sister, Mrs. Maxum (Libby) Lavoy of Petersburg and five grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and one son Joseph.

He was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Elizabeth church.

The Rosary was recited at the Collins Funeral Home Sunday evening by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins, who also officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery in Adrian with Earl McNeil, Martin Halley, Carl Gruber and Irvin, Curtis and Carl LaVoy as bearers.

TECUMSEH

Taking over moments later on their own 39 after again holding the Panthers powerless, Tecumseh began a march that ended when Dickinson hit Ray Larned with a perfectly-executed pass play from 21 yards out.

Playing no favorites, he had just hit his other end Ken Miller with a 20-yard pass play.

Larned's kick was to the right of the cross bars.

INTERCEPT PASS

The Indians struck suddenly again for their final score. With the ball on the Indian's 45 Bill Browne snagged an Addison pass and ran it to the 11-yard line before being hauled down. Weakly chopped off eight yards and Dickinson kept and carried it over for the td.

Teagarden's kick was not good.

In the final quarter Coach Breniff substituted freely. Still the Indians scored. They scored nine more points but both plays were called back because of Indian penalties.

The first was a 38-yard field goal by Ray Larned. And this boy really can boot that ball. His kick-offs were tremendous, several carrying inside the 10.

Again electing to boot a field goal, this time Dickinson kept the ball and heaved a td pass to Miller but the Indians were again off side.

Just before the game ended Larned attempted a field goal from 16 yards out. But it was no good.

HAS TEAM BALANCE

It would be difficult to single out individual stars in the Indians' first win of the year. But Coach Breniff seems to have a versatile quarterback in Al Dickinson. The boy can run as well as pass and this makes his passing attack even more effective.

Val Spangler played a bruising game and showed that he can catch passes, too, giving Dickinson three excellent receivers in Val and his ends Miller and Larned.

Gary Marsh reeled off several fine gains and was in on most of the tackles when runners shot past the line.

Harold Weakly ran well and picked his hole like a veteran when he went in for the td.

In the line the Indians are well-fortified from end to end with Miller, Benham, Nichols, Browne, Bailey, Lewis, Larned, Jackson, Manley, Colvel and Spreeman.

Cadmus, Hanna and Andrews proved that Coach Breniff can give the regulars a breather in the backfield. They will hold their own.

Outstanding Panthers who fought against a losing cause were Bowman, Betz, Blodgett and McLaughlin.

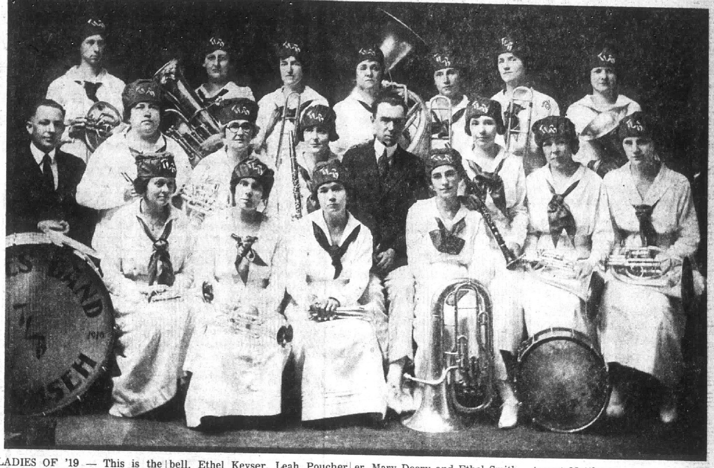
MEN OF '87 — This is the Tecumseh band of 1887. The picture is owned by Verdi Skinner whose father and grandfather were famous in Tecumseh band music.

In the bottom row are Harry Hoot, Leon Gray, Joseph Smith, Bert Gray, drum major William Ross, Al Heesen, Levi Hayden, Jim Dunnigan and Gus Rowland.

Verdi, Leon Rosacrans and Miss Edith Ingersoll collaborated in identifying the musicians.

In the top row are "Prof." Charles Skinner, Charles Skinner, Jr., William Ingersoll, William Eccles, John Richards, and George Tansley. "Prof." Skinner was the "Guiding Light" of the band.



LADIES OF '19 — This is the Tecumseh Ladies' Band of 1919. How about those hats! The picture is owned by Clare Camburn.

In the first row are Zela Campbell, Ethel Keyser, Leah Poucher and Edna Staulter.

In the middle row are Grace McCoy, Anna McCann, Margaret Dennison, Clare Camburn, Alma Fisher, Mary Deery and Ethel Smith.

In the third row are Edith Witherall, Florence Snow, Naomi Williamson, Ann Hardenburgh, Nevada Watson, Bessie Foster and Margaret Matthews.

Bill Coller, who ran a sporting goods store, is the chap on the bass drum.

Then, as Now..It's the Spirit that Counts

The words band music, Camburn and Skinner have been almost synonymous in Tecumseh's past. Since 1918 "Semper Fidelis," "Stars and Stripes" and the oomp-pa-oomp of the big bass drum have answered the baton of Clare Camburn. For 50 years before it was Charles Skinner, father and son.

Before Camburn began the long process of building up the high school band he had been leader and teacher of the "Tecumseh Ladies Band," known as "the only ladies band in Michigan." This too was a long time job. Cynics who say women cannot work together would do well to scan the story of this group. For 25 years they studied and practiced, gave concerts and benefits to support themselves, led parades in broiling sun and freezing wind and generously added their spirit to the community doings that made the town a unit.

Naturally it was not the same personnel for all those years. At one time the band had 30 members and, all together, probably more than 100 women took part.

But there was a nucleus that carried on. Three names seem always to be remembered first; Anna Hardenburgh, Mary Deery and Grace Austin McCoy. Perhaps this is because Ann's horn was the biggest and Grace played the "big bass drum." Members who still live in Tecumseh are Naomi North Williamson, who took part all the way through; Fannie Brees, band secretary from 1919 to '34, Ethel Keyser, Edna Staulter, Anna McClure Mead and Bess Cupples Mills. Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant of Ridgeway was also a member for the band included the community.

Oddly enough no one (to date) has remembered the name of the band's organizer. All agree she was a "trimmer" in the millinery shop of Alice Owen, one of those artists in feathers, velvet and buckram who came and went with the "seasons." Her husband was an army man, she had herself been a member of an all woman band and she supplied the idea which caught on so thoroughly.

A list of all the things they did would be endless. Beside their local work they played at the Adrian, Hillsdale and Washtenaw Fairs, at picnics at Sand and Wamplers lakes and at civic events over much of southern Michigan. They gave dances and concerts, with Mrs. Charles Jones, she of the lovely, swelling voice, as soloist. Only their hats and capes were uniform although they dressed alike, usually in white.

One of them remembers, "Maybe our playing was not perfect but we did have a good time" and according to another the playing must have been pretty good for her husband once reported overhearing in the audience "Well, they ain't much for looks, but they sure can play."

They might have been playing yet if the high school band had not come to take their place. Perhaps competition with drum majorette Ray Nita Larsen was just too keen.

Distant as 1918 now seems, however, our bands did not begin with the ladies. Far from it. As early as 1838 council minutes mention the organization of a "Village Band" and a vote to loan money for instruments and instruction. Who led this outfit we do not know but for 50 of the later years Charles Skinner and his son, who was also Charles, taught and led the town's musicians. They also organized bands in nearly all the surrounding villages. "Professor" Skinner, as the elder Charles was always called, had received his training in a military band school in England and his men were well taught.

They must have been something to look at too. Resplendent in natty uniforms with buttons and braid, their marching helmets topped with flowing plumes, they were led by an even more impressive drum major, handsome, six foot Will Ross in his towering bearskin shako.

From its far off beginning Tecumseh has managed to have music. When, in 1826, the citizens managed to catch their breath enough to hold a joint celebration of the Fourth of July and the grinding of the first flour in the first mill, they staged a parade. It was led by the Marshall of the Day on a piebald pony and the martial music was supplied by the nearest thing to a band they could find—a French fiddler from Monroe. Half way along the line of march, from Brown's Tavern at Maumee street up Chicago to Evans' new house on the corner of Ottawa, a fiddle string broke. But they refused to let the fiddler stop and he ended with a flourish on the remaining strings.

From a three string fiddle to 12 massed bands it is the spirit that counts.

Speeder Rolls Car Over Going 100 Miles an Hour

A young driver speeding through town early Saturday morning at 75 to 100 miles an hour escaped serious injury when his car missed the curve on Tecumseh-Clinton road near Burt street, traveled 600 feet, rolled over and came to rest on its top.

Thomas Arthur Rutter, 23, of Fowlerville was chased around town by a police car driven by patrolman Gene Skinner. The Rutter car headed north out of town but missed the curve and rolled over.

Arraigned before justice Robert French Monday on a reckless driving charge, Rutter was fined $75, assessed costs of $8.60 and given seven days in jail.

He was on emergency leave from the army because of the illness of his father. The jail sentence will not be served until the farm work is completed.

Skinner said the car was going 100 mph when it hit the curve.

Stones from the speeding car broke a window in the Hubert Brees house.

The young soldier would not say why he tried to avoid being caught by patrolman Skinner.

TRANSFER JENNINGS

After eight years as manager of the D & C Store here, Dick Jennings has been transferred to the new, large store in Kalamazoo. He will leave the local store in about a week.

As soon as suitable living quarters are found, he will move his family there.

His successor here is Fred Kister, formerly of Howell. Mr. Kister is married and the couple has three children.

Community Fund Budget Set at $11,234

This year the Tecumseh Community Fund will seek $11,234. The kickoff of the drive is set for Thursday, Oct. 13.

RABIES

"Peanuts," the five-year-old cocker spaniel owned by the Robert Hyde family of 6030 east Monroe road, did die from rabies.

Dr. W. S. Britton received word from the Pasteur Institute at Ann Arbor that tests showed positive for rabies.

When "Peanuts" was ill members of the Hyde family — Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, his mother, and their eight-year-old daughter — were scratched and lightly bitten when they bathed the dog. They have had Pasteur shots for rabies.

This was the first rabies case in the Tecumseh area in 10 years.

For the second year the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce will direct the fund raising with Jack Osburn as chairman. These Jaycee committees have been named: business and professional, Bill Davenport; clubs and fraternal, Don Purkey; store jars, Jim Osburn and John Graham; labor at the Tecumseh Products Company, Hugh Morden; office of the Tecumseh Products Company, Preston Caswell; industry, Jack Osburn; Tecumseh township, Merlyn Downing; publicity, Don Purkey and Bob Warren.

The Jaycees point out that a number of women again will be called on to help in the drive. And volunteers are welcome.

At its last meeting the community fund board re-elected George Green, Jr., and Owen Partridge to three-year terms. The board also voted to accept a nomination from the junior chamber of commerce to the board of trustees.

New officers of the community fund are George Green, Jr., president; Frank Rice, vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy Preston, corresponding secretary; and the Rev. Edward Escolme, secretary and treasurer.

Those attending the last meeting of the board were John R. Thompson, Mrs. Preston, Frank Rice, Owen Partridge and the Rev. Escolme. Also in attendance were Jack Osburn of the Jaycees and Joseph Dickinson, state representative of the United Health and Welfare Fund.

THANKS A LOT!

Another successful year of providing food for fair goers was completed at midnight Saturday night when members of the Tecumseh Baptist church fed their last customer. This was the third, and most efficient of these projects and those in charge are expressing their thanks to all—workers and customers alike—who contributed to its success.

300 Welcome President of U. S. Jaycees

The two basic purposes of junior chamber of commerce work are civic improvement and leadership development, Hugh McKenna, president of the United States' Junior Chamber of Commerce told 300 persons who welcomed him to Tecumseh Friday night.

Speaking at a dinner held in the Tecumseh Products workers' union hall and served by the Eagles Auxiliary, he said Jaycee clubs today number 2800 in the United States with a membership of 180,000.

Pointing to Jaycee projects he said members have taken part in "Operation Brotherhood" and "I Speak for Democracy" on an international and national scale. He also told of the Olympic fund that will be a Jaycee project next month.

Dr. Robert Murray, president of the local chapter, introduced Congressman George Meader and State Representative Rollo Conlin and city officials.

Pete Baldwin, vice-president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce introduced President McKenna.

Dave Knox, vice-president of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce, introduced state and national Jaycee officers.

Eino Kainlauri, Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce religious activities chairman, pronounced the invocation.

Jaycees and their wives were present from southeastern Michigan and from Ohio.

After the program the movie "The Jaycee Story" was shown and guests danced to the music of the Tecumseh Products Orchestra.

12 Bands Will Play

More than 7000 persons are expected to jam the Tecumseh recreation field next Tuesday night at 8 p.m. when 12 high school bands representing 500 musicians gather to take part in the ninth annual Lenawee County Band Festival.

Sponsored by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and under the general direction of Clare Camburn, the festival this year will have "Builders of America" as its central theme.

For the ninth time the Rev. B. O. Bashore will be narrator.

This is the program:

ADDISON, John Huffman director, will present Knute Rockne of the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame.

BRITTON, Robert Peterson director, will show how George Washington's life affected all America.

TECUMSEH, Don Johnson director, will depict Henry Ford and will show how his love, life and ability affected the United States.

SAND CREEK, R. E. Hildebrant director, will perform the circuit riders, showing the beginning of Christianity from the Pilgrims to 1955.

HUDSON, Manley Faye director, will show how the Red Cross helped to build America.

ADRIAN, Al Bohms director, will depict the life of Abraham Lincoln emphasizing that he was the Civil War president. The band will form a cabin and camp ground.

ADRIAN CATHOLIC CENTRAL, Paul Tkach director, will form an airplane as part of its routine showing the armed forces.

CLINTON, Richard Wegner director, will portray the part the circus has played in American lives.

MORENCI, Charles Winzler director, will play several marching pieces written by John Phillip Sousa.

BLISSFIELD, Howard Bond director, will feature the music of Glenn Miller.

DEERFIELD, Robert Kinder director, will show how the Boy Scouts have helped to build men for America.

ONSTED, Paul Buckleman director, will present the high spots in the life of President Eisenhower, leader in war and peace.

The 12 bands will mass for the finale.

A feature of the festival this year will be the baton twirling of Lucylee Neiswander of Adrian, champion baton twirler.

Lucylee has been state champion baton twirler since 1950 and she holds more than 200 state and national honors in baton art. She was chosen queen at a national contest last May.

She also won the grand championship trophy of drum majorettes of America in 1954 and she has been a top winner at St. Paul Winter Carnival for two years.

She won second place at the world contest held at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The color guard of the Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 American Legion will present the colors.

Birds Cost Hunter $107

Having pheasants in his possession out of season cost Robert LaPointe of Route 1 Tecumseh $107.80.

Pleading guilty to the charge Monday before Justice L. J. VanDeusen of Clinton, LaPointe was fined $100 and costs of $7.80.

His rifle also was confiscated and his hunting license was revoked for one year.

State police and conservation officer John Boudreau made the arrest.

Dr. Robert Murray, president of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, presented a moving picture camera to the high school coaching staff between halves of the Tecumseh-Monroe Catholic Central football game Friday night. Vic Lawson, athletic director, accepted the camera.

The Jaycees contributed $200 toward the purchase of the camera which cost $280. Ralph Hodges of Hodges Drug Store contributed $80.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

CLARENCE KELLER OF THE Freez-It Locker again has bought some of the prize 4-H Club beef shown at the county fair. But don't try to buy some. It's all been sold. Clarence reports that this year's beef is the finest he's ever seen.

DONNIE VIGRANT OF ST. Ignace, Mich., sent us a HERALD dated Nov. 12, 1885. He wrote: "I found this in back of [illegible] old picture and was going to throw it in the fire. Thought you folks would be interested in it so here it is." The most interesting aspect of this Stacy product were the names on the correspondence. He had "Clinton Chronicles," "Holloway Hash," "Addison Atoms," "Ridgeway Racket," "Brooklyn Billet," "Tipton Topics," and "Springville Snuff." At this time the HERALD was only 35 years old. Anyone wishing to see this old paper may drop in at the office.

ROG LINGER WHO OPENED his new meat market on north Evans street last Friday has been in the meat business 20 years. But he certainly doesn't look that old. This would seem that he started when he was still wearing three-cornered pants. But he was 17 years old when he started on the block. And he was paid the princely sum of 20 cents an hour.

LILLARD BROWN busted his left leg trying to show the Cub runners of St. Elizabeth's how to "cut" in running down field. From now on he says he is going to do his cutting on a rug.

OUR NINE-YEAR-OLD daughter thinks her three-year-old brother is going to get butterdibitis if he doesn't quit eating so much plain butter.

THESE ARE OTHER FEATURES of the festival. For eight years it has never been rained out and for the ninth straight year the Rev. Blair O. Bashore will be narrator. He has worked hand in glove with Clare Camburn on the festival since its beginning.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE students at Tecumseh high who have sparked the first issue of "Smoke Signals." It was most heartening to see the interest shown and it was a real pleasure working with Nick Touborg, John Naser and Harry Teets. The Lining wishes "Smoke Signals" and its staff the best of everything in student journalism.

TWO OF THE 12 BANDS playing in the county band festival here next Tuesday also have played in the national band festival. In 1934 Adrian had the honor at Evanston, Ill., and also played at the Chicago World's Fair. In 1938 Tecumseh played in the national festival at Elkhart, Indiana.

AND NOW FOR A LESSON in geography. How many know that the River Raisin flows into the Mississippi River? Well, it does and it can be proved. How else do you account for Frank Rice's five-fingered bowling ball being found there? The ball, angrily tossed into Red Pond last spring by Frank after he had had a bad night of bowling, has been returned. A package containing the missing ball arrived C.O.D. and Frank, thinking the package was from the Clinton Machine Co., had to pay $2.80 to get the ball that he no longer wanted. The ball was sent from Maquoketa, Iowa, only a hop and jump from the mighty Mississippi. When Frank saw what was in the package he exclaimed "My goodness!" and several of the ladies working at the R & S Manufacturing plant blushed.

Give Them a Chance

National Employment of the Physically Handicapped Week, Oct. 2-8, sponsored by both President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Governor G. Mennen Williams is designed to alert employers as to the value of hiring the handicapped people of the state and country.

It has a secondary purpose, that of making all of us realize that the only way successfully to meet the social problem of handicapped people is to give them an opportunity to get a job.

And, on the other side, many employers have learned that it is good business to hire the handicapped. They appreciate a job when they have it. They have less absenteeism. They have a lower accident percentage. And, above all, they have abilities that are profitable in both trade and industrial jobs.

Bleachers Still Needed

The excellent program of the 12 county school bands Tuesday night playing before an overflow crowd again points up the serious need for permanent bleachers on the recreation field.

Some time ago the junior chamber of commerce came up with a plan in which members said they would donate labor; and at that time cement and sand could have been had for the asking.

But the recreation board and school officials decided that a track was of a more urgent need so a special fund collected during the communityl fund drive went for the track and after the board of education made up the difference, construction work got underway.

We have no quarrel with this. Athletes on the track squad at Tecumseh high school and harriers they compete against do need a track; but at the time the decision was made we did think that more persons could benefit from permanent bleachers.

The all-county band festival certainly bears this out. There is a natural place to build permanent bleachers along the east side of the field. Such beachers could not only hold more persons at Tecumseh high school's football games but they would serve far bigger crowds at the band festival and at the chamber of commerce's July Fourth program of fireworks and other community events. Sure it would cost money, lots of it. But it would be worth every penny.

It seems to us that an all-out effort to get the permanent bleachers built would be a fitting tribute to the school bands and to their leaders. If the bleachers ever are built, the dedication of them should be made at the band festival program.

This is a project in which everyone concerned could share. Local businesses could donate materials. Members of the service clubs could donate labor. And so could some of the school athletes. The city and the school system could donate money (they probably do not have it right now, but perhaps it could be worked out) and, if needed, a public subscription could be made.

All the bleachers would not have to be put up at one time. Start a section when money and time are available; then follow with another section, and if needed, still another section.

What do some of the rest of you think?

"You should be surprised to see me in here," said Mr. Martin as he came in our office, "at least my wife would be."

"How's that?" I asked.

"She said we ought to try selling our house first before listing it. But I'm sure it's going to take enough of our time to find a home in Danville, and attend to the dozens of details in moving. I want you to take over and sell it."

"On an exclusive basis?" I asked.

"Sure," said Mr. Martin. "Just your office. That's enough. It only takes one buyer. And one broker should be sufficient too. I used to be in the real estate business in Tennessee. I know with a willing seller and an active broker, a sale is merely a matter of time."

"We'll come right out to look it over and then get busy and try to move it right away."

"Fine," said Mr. Martin, "I knew, by your reputation, you'd be interested. Let's get my house sold."

And we DID. So ended a pleasant assignment!

How about assigning us the job of selling your home too? Chances are good we will get the job DONE.

Haight-Haak Vows Exchanged in East Lansing

Richard Haight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Haight of Tecumseh and Miss Alice Haak of East Lansing were married Saturday noon in the lovely little Memorial chapel on the campus of Michigan State University.

Miss Haak is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haak of East Lansing and both bride and groom are graduates of Michigan State.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Brandt Tefft, pastor of the East Lansing People's church and music during and before the ceremony was provided by James Antemith, organist and Mrs. John Holland, soloist.

The couple was attended by Miss Shirley Plant as maid of honor; Ann Witmer as bridesmaid, Thomas Rohweder and Robert Marsh of Tecumseh as best man and usher, while Thomas Chaffey of East Lansing was also an usher.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white lace over ivory satin. Her shower bouquet was of white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Both the maid of honor and the bridesmaid were in cocktail length gowns of green silk shantung. Their hats were copper colored velvet and they carried yellow and copper chrysanthemums.

Sixty guests attended the wedding breakfast at the Michigan State University Union following the ceremony.

When the couple left to spend a few days near Lake Michigan, the new Mrs. Haight was wearing an avocado wool outfit with matching hat and black accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Haight are graduates of Michigan State University. She is employed by the Upjohn Co. and the groom by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in Kalamazoo, where they will make their home.

Business Women Begin New Year

An informal program with the object of getting acquainted opened the year's activities of the Business and Professional Woman's Club Monday evening. The meeting was held in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center with Mrs. Gordon Garlick, Mrs. M. G. Partridge, Miss Mabel Lockwood and Mrs. E. J. Crawford as hostesses.

Dinner was served at 6:45 at tables decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums and 54 members and guests were present. Mrs. Roy Cadmus read the devotions.

The new president, Mrs. Ray Sluyter presided and after introducing the other new officers and the guests, disposed of routine business.

Three resignations were accepted with regret, those of Mrs. Mills Swick, Miss Kathleen Gray and Mrs. Anabel Cadmus and two new members were introduced, Mrs. Harold Hall and Mrs. Gerald Dunn. Mrs. Cecile Smith is the year's recording secretary, replacing Mrs. Lester Runk, who has moved away.

Announcement was made of the Godey Tea to be held in Adrian, Oct. 3 by the County Federation of Women's Clubs, proceeds from which will be used for an increased number of scholarships to the Interlochen Music Camp next summer. The Mobile X-ray Unit, which will be stationed at the Methodist church in Tecumseh Oct. 28 and 29 was also announced.

Summer birthday donations and some very amusing fines were levied on the members by the finance committee, Mrs. George French and Mrs. A. W. Porter and then the program committee Mrs. Purnell Osburn, Mrs. Nina Heath, Miss Ruby Preston and Miss Frances Baker proceeded to make those present entertain themselves.

With Mrs. Heath in charge and Mrs. Edna Staulter at the piano, groups of four chose and "executed" well known songs; Mrs. Dale Tingley organized a relay race which involved the donning and disgarbing of very complicated costumes and Miss Baker conducted a quiz game which did not flatter the IQ of the membership.

"Flying Saucers" will be the topic of the Oct. meeting with Miss Marjorie Wickwire as program chairman.

MRS. PURKEY HONORED

Mrs. David Faling assisted by Mrs. William Sisson entertained a group of friends of Mrs. Donald Purkey Monday evening at the Faling home on Cummins street.

Dessert was served to 12 guests seated at card tables centered by rose bowls. Favors were miniature baby scales made from pink and white nut cups filled with mints.

Stuffed toys set the theme of the decorations.

Prizes at games which followed the refreshments were won by Mrs. David Murphy, Mrs. Donald Purkey, Mrs. Lester Fogelsong Jr., Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Harold Gomer.

Guests from out-of-town included Mrs. Garnett Schafer and Mrs. Gomer of Milan. A shower of lovely gifts was presented to the guest of honor.

Monday Club Opens Year With Luncheon

The new season of the Tecumseh Monday Club opened very auspiciously with a successful fall luncheon and program Monday. The tables in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center were gay with fall flowers.

Place cards marked the plates of the ten past presidents and the executive board at the speaker's table and each of the 94 members and guests received a miniature bouquet in an attractive container.

The new president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy opened the business meeting by thanking all who had worked to make the affair so pleasant, the report of the budget committee was accepted and announcement was made of the district convention of federated clubs in Jackson Oct. 14. The resignation of Mrs. Paul Maves was regretfully accepted and Miss Mary McWilliams was welcomed as a new member.

The past presidents under the leadership of Mrs. Truman Rentschler then staged a unique pageant of events which depicted the important periods of the club, entitled "Through the Years."

The narration, written by Mrs. Rentschler, was read by Mrs. E. T. Armstrong, music was arranged by Miss Sally Rentschler and stage effects were under the direction of Mrs. E. J. Aebersold and Miss Pat O'Brien.

The first episode picturing the founders of the club in 1894 and its first 25 years was staged by Mrs. S. L. Wyman as Mrs. C. A. Wright; Mrs. Aebersold as Mrs. C. S. Stacy; Mrs. Charles Williamson as Mrs. Mary Shull; Mrs. Perry Hayden, Miss Louise Phelps; Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Miss Haight (later Mrs. E. D. Brown); Mrs. Jennie Temple, Miss Gertrude Hialey; Mrs. Thomas O'Hara, Mrs. Cupples; Mrs. R. J. McCoy, Mrs. Cornelia Howland and Edith Cotton Smith as Mrs. Bills.

Greek art, the club's project, indicates the serious purpose of its beginning. An essay about Hercules by Mrs. Shull was the first paper given.

A resume of the club activities in relation to the centennial pageant which they sponsored was the theme of the second episode. Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. Charles Williamson wrote the script for this event and the club realized more than $900 from ticket sales.

The club's golden anniversary was symbolized by a tableau of Mrs. McCoy in a golden gown and the fourth and last skit was a prophesy of the 75th anniversary with Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. McCoy as ladies from Mars being entertained in the club's revolving glass club house.

A pleasant afternoon was brought to an impressive close by the lighting of a new candle for the year from the nearly exhausted one of last year.

Miss Joan Waltz Is Bride of Daniel Goodman

A wedding of interest to many in Tecumseh took place at 7:30 Friday evening when Joan Waltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Waltz of Manchester and Daniel Goodman of Tecumseh were married at the United Brethern Evangelical church on the Manchester-Chelsea road. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Goodman Sr., has been living in Tecumseh at the home of Mrs. Clyde Barber.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. A. Weinert of Detroit, former pastor of the church, who was assisted by the present pastor, the Rev. Beardsley. Mrs. Weinert at the organ played the traditional music and just before the ceremony played "O Danny Boy." She also accompanied John Nudefer, who sang "Baceuse" and "Th Lord's Prayer."

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bowers of Tecumseh, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, were matron-of-honor and best man. The bridesmaids were Joan Huber and Marilyn Breitenwischer and the ushers Forrest Waltz, brother of the bride and Jack Saunders of Adrian.

The petite bride was radiant in bridal satin, made princess style with full skirt over hoops sweeping into a chapel train. It had long sleeves and a bateau neckline embroidered with pearls and sequins and her double, finger-tip veil fell from a crown of pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Her attendants wore dresses styled like hers but in ballerina length. Mrs. Bowers' was beige faille with which she carried deep burgundy Fugi mums; Miss Huber's faille gown was toast and Mrs. Breitenwischer's, seal brown and their flowers were cream colored chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble in turqouise blue with mauve accessories and Mrs. Goodman was in dark brown accented in gold. Both had gardenia corsages.

A reception for 250 guests followed in the church social rooms where the groom's two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Byron Goodman of Tecumseh and Mrs. Jeffery Goodman of Onsted cut the bride's and groom's cakes.

After a honeymoon in Miami Beach, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman will live at 106 Chestnut St., Adrian, where the bride is employed. The groom is an employee of the Tecumseh Products Co.

Those from Tecumseh who attended included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. Clyde Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Goodman and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bowers.

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK, October 2nd to 8th, has been set aside to remind you and ourselves that "Your Pharmacist Works For Better Community Health."

THERE ARE MANY other services we perform, but essentially our training as a Pharmacist, is to provide with proper safety, medicines that help you to get well and keep well.

COMPOUNDING PRESCRIPTIONS important enough to mean the difference between good health and bad, often life and death, requires a great mental concentration to avoid any possible error.

OUR WORKING HOURS are long because our Pharmacy is often open evenings and holidays when others can play. At the end of a long day we may momentarily feel that there surely must be an easier way to earn our daily bread.

BUT THERE IS really nothing else we would rather be than Your Pharmacist, and we thank you for the privilege of being able to serve.

EACH NIGHT we have the comforting thought that, because we are a Pharmacist, we can help folks like you to enjoy a healthier life.

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

IT'S BEEN a long season, but an exciting one, and now that it is all over and the Yankees and the Dodgers are tearing at each other in the World Series, the rest of the teams can look over past mistakes and plan for the future.

You never stop planning for the future in baseball.

Although the Tigers improved on their record of last year, they still couldn't fight their way back to the first division largely because of a tremendous late-season spurt by Boston, the same team that knocked them out of fourth place in 1954.

The natural question is why did the Tigers falter after holding onto fourth for so long, why couldn't they beat back the challenge of Boston?

The answer lies apparently in a couple of major weaknesses. The Tigers desperately need a sound-hitting second baseman and a good right-hand hitting catcher to share duties with Frank House, a left-handed swinger who has finally found himself at the plate.

Youngsters Coming Up

In addition, we could use more help on the mound, particularly in the relief department, although these problems may not be too serious. Youngsters like Duke Maas Babe Birrer and Bud Black may well fit in with Billy Hoeft, Frank Lary and the veteran hurlers next season.

Moreover, Steve Gromek, on the basis of some fine relief work at the end of the campaign, may very well be the fireman we've been looking for. Without one or two standout reliefers, you're a dead duck in today's kind of baseball.

Ol' Diz believes the Tigers are two years away from being a serious pennant contender on the basis of what they've done this season and the potentialities of the personnel presently with the club and soon to come up.

However, they certainly should show natural improvement next year and get back in the first division, if too many breaks don't go against them.

Tightest Race

I know that the second-guessers will point to my early season prediction that the Tigers would land in fourth this year, but it's one of those things. Who could predict that Boston would stage such a wild rush or that the Tigers, too, would hang on grimly to make this the tightest five-team race in American League history?

After all, at one point we were only 5½ games off the pace, and any time such a small margin separates the first five teams, it is indeed a real race.

Well, it was exciting and it was fun, and Ol' Diz certainly has enjoyed writing this little piece every week and broadcasting the games with Van Patrick. I really appreciated the many comments I received from readers and I hope to be back with more Hickory and Horsehide next year. Thanks a lot for sticking with me.

Jayvees Open Season with Win Over Hudson

Tecumseh high's junior varsity opened its season last Thursday with a 7-6 win over Hudson.

Hudson took the opening kick-off and marched down the field for a td. Townsend scored the td on a 20-yard run up the middle. The try for extra point by running failed.

Both teams had scoring opportunities in the remaining time of the first half but they lacked scoring punch. At the end of the half Hudson Tigers were leading, 6-0.

At the beginning of the third period Tecumseh took the ball and scored after a sustained drive of running plays. J. C. Helfin went over from the five-yard stripe off his own tackle. And Heflin ran the extra point.

Tecumseh outplayed the Tigers for the remainder of the game. Outstanding Indians were Tony Hasik, tackle; Lee Marsh, end; Carl Bailey, guard; Max Smith, center; Larry Yoakum, quarterback; and Bob Long, J. C. Heflin and Dick French, backs.

Today (Thursday) at 6:30 Tecumseh plays Bedford sophs here.

Tecumseh 19-6 1st Half Lead Doesn't Hold Up

Leading 19-6 at the end of the first half, Tecumseh high school ran out of gas as the Falcons from Monroe Catholic Central came from behind Friday night to win the first Southeastern League football game, 26-19.

The Indians struck fast and hard in the first half, scoring three touchdowns while holding the visitors to one. But there was a complete change about in the second half. It was the Catholics turn to strike and strike they did.

Tecumseh gained the half-time advantage in this manner:

On the second play of the game Bill Browne recovered a Monroe fumble on the Falcon 28. An off-side penalty against Monroe carried the ball to the 23. Harold Weakly chugged to the 20. Al Dickinson dashed to the four. Weakly gained two. Then Dickinson went in for the score. Ray Larned's try for the extra point was not good.

Score: Tecumseh 6, Monroe 0

Monroe came right back with a drive that carried to the Tecumseh 18 but penalties against the Falcons pushed the ball back to the 44.

The series of plays warmed up the Falcons' scatbacks Dick Vigliotti, Jack Gerson, Bob Russeau and Frank Castellese and the Indians should have known then that they would be in for an evening of chasing the elusive backs.

But this time the Indians held and Monroe was forced to punt. Tecumseh couldn't move the ball out from the nine and Larned punted to Vigliotti on the Tecumseh 34. Gerson gained four yards. Vigliotti duplicated the trick. Tecumseh's off-side placed the ball on the 21 as the first period ended.

As the second quarter began the Indian forward wall rose up and stopped the Falcons cold on two running plays but on third down Castellese hit Vigliotti with a pass for the td. The extra point try by running was stopped.

Score: Tecumseh 6, Monroe 6

Tecumseh came roaring back and showed its best offensive punch of the game. After two running plays after the kick-off, Al Dickinson rolled out on his 44 and tossed a long one that was caught by Hal Weakly on the 17, a gain of 27 yards. Weakly was stopped on a running play. Val Spangler gained two yards. Dickinson lost three.

With fourth down Dickinson looped a pass to Spangler that was caught on the four for a first down. Gary Marsh plunged to the one-yard line. Dickinson picked up inches; then he scooted between his end and tackle for the six points. This time Ray Larned's kick was right between the uprights for the seventh point.

Score: Tecumseh 13, Monroe 6

With Bill Browne leading a rugged line, the Indians held Monroe after the kick-off again. Larned booted the kick to the 10 and after the fast Falcon backs were stopped in their tracks, Vigliotti punted to the 35.

Weakly picked up a couple of yards. Then Dickinson hit Larned with a jump pass that carried to the 20. In the next two plays Dickinson ran to the 1 but a holding penalty against the Indians put the

Nichols Breaks Leg Again

Ray Nichols, rugged Indian center, is out for the season.

Ray rebroke his leg in practice last week during a scrimmage tackle.

Last year early in the season he was lost to the Indians when he broke his leg in a motorcycle accident.

With a brace on his leg, he was the Indians' leading center when the new break put him out for the season.

Bill Spreeman, tackle, has been moved over two slots to replace Ray on offense.

Boysville Twins Again Lead Knights in 20-0 League Win

Boysville's td twins John and Joe Murray again led the Fighting Knights to victory. Friday the Murrays paced Boysville to a League of the Lakes win over South Lyon 20-0.

John scored two tds and Joe scored once. After Boysville recovered a fumble Joe scooted 30 yards to pay dirt in the first period. And John capped a 30-yard drive with an eight-yard run in the second period to score the Knight's second td.

In the last quarter Joe raced 35 yards for a score but a penalty nullified the run. The Knights, however, worked the ball in again where John went in for the td from two yards out.

Bob Temerowski, part of Boysville's other outstanding twin combination with brother Dick, scored two extra points from running in the second and fourth periods.

The Knights ground out an impressive 330 yards on the ground.

Boysville held South Lyon for most of the game, allowing only one penetration beyond midfield.

The victory marks Boysville as a strong contender for the league title. This is the first year for league football competition for the Knights.

Chevrolet Truck Work Styling is well illustrated in these four models ranging from the Low Cab Forward and Cameo Carrier at left to the pickup and tractor-trailer unit at right.

They're the most modern trucks on the road. If you don't get all the advantages they offer, you stand to lose money on the job today . . . and again at trade-in-time!

Most modern power—V8 or 6
In most new Chevrolet truck models, you have your choice of V8* or 6. Chevrolet's new truck V8's have the shortest stroke of any V8 in any leading truck! That means less friction and wear per mile. The valve-in-head sixes are new editions of the engines that have long been famous as the "work horses" of the truck world! The truck driver's "dream cab"
That's the closest we can come to describing the new Flite-Ride De Luxe cab. What truck driver wouldn't go for features like these: panoramic windshield for wider, safer vision; concealed Safety Step that stays clear of snow, mud and ice; High-Level ventilation that provides a more constant supply of outside air in all kinds of weather.

Most modern truck styling
We call it Work Styling—and you get it only in new Chevrolet trucks! Two fresh, functional styling treatments are offered—one for light- and medium-duty models, another for heavy-duty models. Your Chevrolet truck will do your job better—and look better doing it!

Physical Exams Urged for School Children

Parents, has your child had a physical examination this summer? School has started and if he is in good health he will have a happier, more profitable year. It's up to you to give him a healthful send-off, says the Lenawee County Health Department.

After he has his check-up by the family physician, be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble. They may start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to grow up with good teeth—see that he has a dental examination twice a year.

Sometimes children need glasses and their parents don't realize it. An examination by an eye specialist is important. A child who needs glasses, will have time to get used to them before school is far along.

When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox? Does he know he should use only his own drinking glass? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he shows signs of a cold?

Plenty of exercise and recreation, the right kinds of food daily, and 12 hours of sleep a night, are necessary for a child of elementary school age.

Get your child an appointment for a check-up today!

Music Club Has First Meeting

Sixteen members of the Tecumseh Music Club combined work and business for their first meeting of the new season Monday evening. They met in the basement of the public library, where they sorted and prepared for filing the music left for public use by the late Mrs. Robert S. Moore.

The president, Mrs. William Hayden conducted a short business meeting when announcements were read of "Music for the Blind" month in Oct. and of the visit of the mobil X-ray unit to Tecumshe Sept. 28 and 29.

The club constitution was read to the group by Mrs. W. G. Waldron and a committee consisting of Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Nina Heath and Mrs. Robert Warren was appointed to give it further study and to suggest possible revision. A donation of $40 was accepted by the club and added to the treasury.

The club will hold a special work meeting the evening of Oct. 4 at the library to continue work on the music and Mrs. John McColl, leader of the club chorus, announces that that group will have a rehearsal Monday evening, Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. John Wintersteen..

Geo. Underwood Shows New Mercury

George Underwood will show the new Mercury at his auto agency in Clinton today (Thursday).

Exciting new body styles featuring the low-silhouette in all three series, three new Safety-Surge engines with major improvements in performance, and distinctive changes in exterior and in interior trim and fabrics are introduced by Mercury for 1956.

The new cars will be displayed in 2,750 Mercury dealerships throughout the nation.

"A total of 13 models in the Montclair, Monterey and Custom series will enable Mercury for 1956 to penetrate further into all levels of the medium-price car market," said F. C. "Jack" Reith, vice president and general manager of the Mercury Division.

"This is the first new model introduced since Mercury became a separate division of Ford Motor Company some six months ago, and we expect this car to continue Mercury's near-spectacular accomplishments in the automotive industry," Mr. Reith said.

700 SHOWROOMS

"Our new models will be displayed and sold in 700 more showrooms compared to the 1955 introduction," he said, drawing attention to Mercury's sharply expanded dealer organization.

Further emphasizing the wide choice offered prospective customers, Mercury for 1956 will have a total of 15 attractive body colors and 60 two-tone combinations.

A new low-price two-door sedan called the "Medalist" is one of six cars in the expanded Mercury Custom series. The "Medalist" was designed specifically for those who want big car performance and feel, yet at the same time require low cost transportation. It is an economy car that offers the chance to step up into Mercury engineering and performance at a budget-minded price. Chrome ornamentation and trim on the "Medalist" are styled in keeping with the clean, crisp Mercury lines.

A new six-passenger four-door station wagon is another newcomer to the Custom series, which also includes a new low-silhouette hardtop coupe, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan and an eight-passenger four-door station wagon.

MONTCLAIR SPORT SEDAN

The Montclair series, which made its debut last year in pioneering the low-silhouette, presents a four-door sport sedan, a striking two-door hardtop coupe and a glamorous convertible.

In offering a choice of three high compression, overhead valve, V-8 engines, Mercury has designed its power plants and its transmission to complement each other. Displacement has been increased to 312 cubic inches, with a larger cylinder bore and a longer piston stroke. The combination of increased displacement, higher compression ratios, greater breathing ability and improved carburetion makes the Mercury engines outstanding in performance and dependability.

Power when it is needed is assured to all driving ranges by each of these Mercury engines, with compression ratio of 9.0 to 1, or 8.4 to 1, or 8.0 to 1.

A 12-volt electrical system provides the additional voltage required for the higher compression engines, thus improving starting under all weather conditions and assuring efficient and economical operation of the new ignition system at all times.

Acceleration is smoother and swifter with improvements in the Merc-O-Matic transmission, and the upshift from first to second gear is revised from 36 miles an hour to 41 miles an hour at wide open throttle.

Restyled both inside and out, the 1956 Mercury has a finer texture in the upper portion of the grille and more massive bumper guards with a more pronounced forward rake to emphasize the headlight thrust.

The regular two-door and four-door sedans not only look lower, but are lower. Their overall height has been reduced by lowering the roof line. Sweeping body side mouldings add to the long, low appearance and set the frame for a whole series of attractive new "flo-tone" color combinatons — 20 in all — which are in addition to 32 conventional two-tone combinations.

MODERN INTERIORS

With the new Mercury "flo-tone" two-tone exteriors, the roof and the area below the body side mouldings are painted one color and the intervening area and the hood and deck lid are painted a different color to blend or contrast. Montclair models have the drop belt area matching the roof and lower body color.

Door panels, quarter panels and seats have been restyled with new, richer fabrics, including woven plastic, vinyl and cloth materials. Patterns and combinations range from conservative to ultra-modern, all selected to blend with the exterior body colors and interior trim schemes.

For greater safety in case of accident, all Mercurys have a number of specially engineered safety devices to help protect driver and passengers from injury. These safety features were developed for Mercury as a result of extensive research and crash tests during the past four years.

Election of officers resulted in the choice of Paul Snyder of Tecumseh as district chairman for the coming year, Dorance Dunlap of Adrian as vice chairman, Verdi Skinner of Tecumseh, secretary and Arnold Emerson of Monroe, treasurer. Dinner was served to the members and there was entertainment in the afternoon.

Corn-on-the-cob time is here. Here are some things to look for when buying corn—bright, plump kernels; well filled cobs without insect injury; dark green husks which are fresh in appearance and wound tightly around the bottom of the ear; shiny, dark brown silks; and a stem, green at the break, to indicate freshness.

Style Show Held at Country Club

The ladies of the Country Club opened the fall season of their one o'clock luncheons with a style show last Wednesday. Baskets of fruit and foliage in autumn colors decorated the tables arranged by the hostesses, Mrs. Robert Hanna, Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, Mrs. Philip Colgrove and Mrs. Earl Wood.

Fall costumes from the Watkins Shop and Cal's Tog Shop were modeled by Mrs. C. W. Hanna, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, Mrs. Paul Eddy, Mrs. Ted Sisson and Mrs. Earl Baldwin, while junior styles from the Lad and Lassie Shop were displayed by Pam Eggleston, Mary Lou Barrett, David Laidlaw and Mark Brown.

Prizes furnished by the exhibiting merchants were won by Mrs. Marvin Rumpf, Mrs. Breitenwischer and Mrs. Robert Fuller.

There were 85 members and guests who played cards during the afternoon with high score at bridge being held by Mrs. Joseph Rohweder and canasta Mrs. A. W. Porter.

ball on the 16. On the next play Monroe was caught holding as the gun went off ending the first half and the ball was placed back on the 1 with the Indians' getting a chance to bang it over. Spangler did the trick. Larned's kick was wide.

Score: Tecumseh 19, Monroe 6

As the half ended Tecumseh was leading 19-6.

Taking the ball on the 40 when play was resumed Tecumseh acted like they were going to run up the score.

Dickinson gained eight yards in two tries. Then he hit Miller with a pass on the 42. A pass to Spangler carrier to the 34 and an unnecessary roughness penalty against the Falcons placed the ball on the 19. Dickinson gained three yards, then a running play and two Dickinson passes failed to gain and Monroe took over.

And the Falcons were on the march. Castellese tossed a long pass that was collected by Vigliotti on the 44. Castellese gained 10 to the 34. And Vigliotti jetted around his left end and down the side lines for a touchdown. Vigliotti's try for the extra point was not good.

Score: Tecumseh 19, Monroe 12

The Falcons threatened again when Tecumseh fumbled on the 36. Russeau picked up eight. Vigliotti added three. Then Vigliotti ran to the 14 and Gerson and Russeau ran the ball to the 3. Here Tecumseh proved its strong defense and Bob Benham and Ed Lewis crashed through to jar Russeau loose from the ball and Benham fell on the fumble. A break had stopped the Falcons and a break aided them.

After no gain, the Indians were forced to punt.

Bill Spreeman, a converted tackle who had replaced the injured Ray Nichols who re-broke his leg in practice, made a wobbly pass from center. Bill had been getting the wet and slippery ball back all night and had been playing a whale of a game but this time Ray Larned could not handle the pass. The big end dropped the ball but scooped it up and lumbered up the field. The officials ruled, however, that his knee struck the ground and Monroe took over on the 21 as the third quarter ended.

Taking turns, Russeau and Castellese banged to the two and Russeau went in for the td. And Russeau showed he could still gain ground when he ran for the extra point to tie the score.

Score: Tecumseh 19, Monroe 19

Taking the kick-off Tecumseh ran well with Dickinson, Marsh and Weakly carrying the ball. The Indians penetrated to the 33 before losing the ball on an intercepted pass.

Then began a weird bit of penalizing against both teams with handkerchiefs tossed all over the place. Hardly a fan knew what was happening. After a long pass Monroe backs carried the ball to the seven. The Falcons were penalized for illegal use of the hands and the ball was placed on the 22.

The Indians were then penalized for pass interference and the ball was placed back on the seven. Russeau scored on an off tackle slant. And Castellese passed to Vigliotti for the extra point.

Score: Monroe 26, Tecumseh 19

The Indians still didn't give up. With Dickinson passing to Weakly and Marsh and to Larned, sandwiched in with runs by himself, Weakly and Marsh, the Indians penetrated to the 25 before the attack bogged down and the game ended seconds later.

Score by quarters:

Tecumseh	6	13	0	0	19
Monroe	0	6	6	14	26

Junior High Continues Dancing

Last week a questionnaire was mailed to parents of local junior high school students asking their opinion of permitting junior high students to attend senior high dances after Friday night athletic contests.

Fifty-nine per cent of the cards mailed out were returned. Of the 129 parents interested enough to reply, 64 said junior high students should not be permitted to attend.

Since only 64 of the 220 parents contacted felt that their children should not attend these parties, school administrators have decided to continue the policy of permitting junior high school students to attend the Friday night dances.

An important point about stock car racing that may not have occurred to you:

The safer car wins... and Chevrolet is the big winner

Auto races aren't won by brute horsepower. Roadability, acceleration, precision steering and stamina—the very qualities that make a car safer for you—are the keys to victory on the track! And that's why Chevrolet is top car, by far, on the NASCAR (National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing) Short Track circuit.

Faster acceleration means safer passing

PASS
CARE

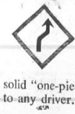
Chevrolet's cannonball acceleration has punched past many a bigger car to victory. But the same blazing surge is a vital safety factor on the highway—one that can whisk you more safely around other cars and out of critical situations.

Easier, super accurate steering

Nimble is the word for Chevrolet. But you don't have to see them in action on a tight quarter-mile track to judge how they make other cars seem clumsy. You can feel that yourself in the press of traffic, and sense the feather-light precision of Ball-Race steering in every curve. There's extra safety, too, in Glide-Ride front suspension that sops up the harshest bumps—that lets your car "keep its feet under it" for maximum traction on the roughest roads.

More stability on curves

Chevrolet's famous stability means money in the bank to the race driver—it lets him broadside through turns faster and smoother. But it means peace of mind to you on the road—more comfort in every curve and less body-roll with broad-based Outrigger rear springs, extra security if you have to swerve sharply to meet an emergency, a solid "one-piece" feel that is a delight to any driver.



The ability to slow down and stop quickly and smoothly

Those big 11-inch brakes have averted many a disaster in the close-packed battle of racing. But they weren't designed for that; they were made to give you "heads-up" stops and extra stopping power in traffic, on mountain grades, on high-speed expressways. Competition has merely proved their margin of superiority!

Come in and try out this new winner yourself ... and see how easy we're making it to buy a Chevrolet right now!

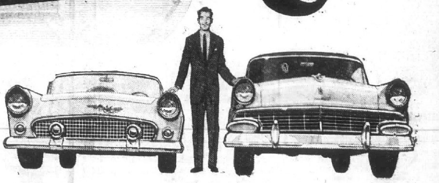
1. We would like to show you some of the things that make the new 1956 Ford one of America's finest cars—despite the fact it is one of America's lowest-priced cars. Let's start with these long, low lines. Looks like it hates to stand still, doesn't it?

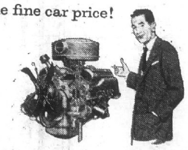
Let's take a walk around the NEW '56 FORD!

It's the fine car at half the fine car price!

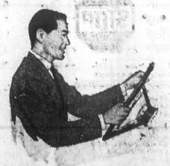


2. Here, on your left, is the inspiration for the styling of the '56 Ford—the famous Ford Thunderbird. You can see the similarity from any angle. Look at those broad, flat hoods, those visored headlights, for example. Here is styling that will stay in style.

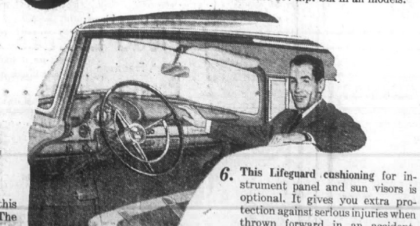
3. Here's what you ride on. This frame has five cross-members including a K-bar member up front. It can take it! And Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension really blots out bumps.



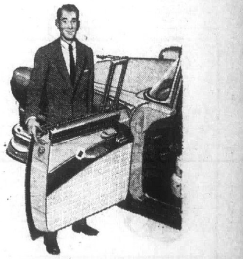
4. Here's the new 202-h.p. Thunderbird Y-8 and we assure you, it will give you new driving enjoyment. It's available in Fordomatic Fairlane and Station Wagon models . . . the 176-h.p. Y-8 in Fordomatic Mainline and Customline models . . . the 137-h.p. Six in all models.



5. Note the deep-center design of this new Lifeguard steering wheel. The wheel rim is over three inches above the post to help cushion the driver in case of an accident.



6. This Lifeguard cushioning for instrument panel and sun visors is optional. It gives you extra protection against serious injuries when thrown forward in an accident. You may also have optional seat belts to help keep occupants securely in their seats.



7. Here's Ford's new Lifeguard door latch. A double-grip locking engagement reduces the chance of doors springing open under impact. Chances of serious injury in accidents are less when passengers remain in the car.

Well, that covers the important points. But there's a lot more. So we'd like to invite you to come in and see the new '56 Ford for yourself. Then you'll see the colorful new exteriors and interiors, the quality workmanship that is evident everywhere. Then you'll learn the full story. You'll know that Ford is the fine car at half the fine car price.

The Cubs manifested a terrific defensive battle, thanks to Coach Jack Osburn. Saint Elizabeth Cubs play their next game away vs Saint Mary's of Adrian on Oct. 1 at 10 a.m.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

ONE HUNDRED FIFTH YEAR — NUMBER 1
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1955
TEN CENTS A COPY

PRESIDENT VISITS — Hugh McKenna, president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, dropped in to read a HERALD when he paid an official visit to the local Jaycees last week. The Jaycees are Dr. Robert Murray, president of the local club; Bob McKee, executive secretary of the Michigan Jaycees from Lansing; President Hugh; Frank Stanton, national director from Milan; and Bob Williamson, chairman of arrangements for Hugh McKenna day here.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

TO CLARE CAMBURN, to the Rev. B. O. Bashore, to the 12 county school bands and their directors, to the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, to the Exchange and Rotary Clubs, to Amiel Teske, to the Tecumseh police — to everybody who had any part in making the ninth annual band festival the colorful and musical highlight of the year — the Lining sends its sincere thanks and a "well done."

INCIDENTALLY, DID you hear Marshall Wells, farm editor of WJR, give the festival a plug on the radio Tuesday morning? He did and it was a fine one, too.

TWO DISTINGUISHED VISITORS dropped in on us last week. Congressman George Meader and Al Eastman, his executive secretary, stopped by on their way to the Hugh McKenna day dinner. They were shown around the back shop and both were gracious with their compliments. Al, it developed, is a former Ann Arbor and Detroit newsman and he still hankers to own a little old weekly newspaper.

CYRUS CAMP OF TIPTON likes HERALD classifieds. When his strawberries were in season he placed a little ad in the paper and, according to him, "Everybody and his brother stopped out to buy berries." This time he placed a real estate ad and we hope "everybody and his brother" stops out to buy his lots.

WHEN DON PURKEY ASKED at the council meeting Monday night what could be done about the pigeons in the block of the Sage building, fellow councilman Bob Moore replied: "When I was a boy we used to make pot pie out of them." The pigeons, it seems, have come down to shop since the buildings at the East Branch school site (now owned by the city) and Brookmeade farm have been razed.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: 'Some people are like blotters. They soak it all in but get it backwards!"

NATIONAL LETTER WRITING week this year will be from Oct. 2 to 8. Letters bring happiness so sit down and write that letter you have been putting off.

A PAT ON THE BACK to 4-H Club kids who had winners at the county fair.

THOSE WHO PLIED THE ancient art of weight guessing at the fair reminded the Lining of an event that happened almost 29 years ago. As a seven-year-old, I was carrying home a large box of groceries when I spied a weighing machine in front of the dime store. I put the groceries on the machine that also told "fortunes" and out came the card with the message: "You are a man of good taste."

Raisin Center Friends Church Offers "Thanks"

A group from Tecumseh which included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick, Mrs. Joseph Layton, the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Escolme and Miss Kathleen Richmond, attended a "thank-you" supper at the Raisin Center Friends church Monday evening.

The occasion was the first community gathering to make use of the newly remodeled downstairs rooms of the church. Some 100 people attended and the pastor of the church, the Rev. Lowell R. Shreve, expressed the thanks of the congregation to all those who had contributed work or money to make the pleasant social rooms possible.

There was a short program of music and readings after which the Rev. Shreve introduced the guests and called on Mr. Herrick, the Rev. Escolme and Miss Richmond for remarks.

All spoke briefly, Miss Richmond telling of the work of the cerebal palsy school at Palmyra, where she is an occupational therapist.

Work Begun by Appraisers

Appraisers of the J. M. Cleminshaw Co. have started preliminary measurements of downtown buildings preliminary to their re-appraisal of all city personal and real properties.

Kenneth Schuh and Benny Young of the Cleveland, Ohio, appraisal company are the appraisers doing the work here. So far they have done only exterior work on buildings and some houses close to the business district.

Mr. Schuh asks the cooperation of residents in allowing the appraisers to come into Tecumseh homes to make interior measurements.

Purpose of the re-appraisal is to get all assessments equalized with every property owner, business and industry paying his fair share of city taxes, no more and no less.

The re-appraisal will take about three and one-half months.

The cost to the city has been estimated at $12,500.

X-rays

The local clinic of the mobile chest X-ray unit of the Michigan Dept. of Health was considered most successful by those in charge. X-rays taken totaled 3670.

Although only Tecumseh people were included in the two-day program held Wednesday and Thursday at the Methodist church, 1045 X-rays were taken. The project was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Frederick Dickinson who also assisted with the work at the Tecumseh Products where 2625 examinations were made in four days.

Those who assisted Mrs. Dickinson included members of the Future Nurses' Club and Mrs. Glenn Kohler; Mrs. Robert Fuller, Mrs. Victor Lawson, Mrs. David Dick, Mrs. Donald Geringer, Mrs. Douglas Hall, Mrs. Byron Goodman, Mrs. Russell Langham, Mrs. Stanley Kruse, Mrs. Hugh Walters, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. Joseph Rohweder, Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, Mrs. Harry Richard, Mrs. Gibbs Barber, Mrs. Cecile Smith, Mrs. Rhea Stephenson, Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. Leo Seidel, Mrs. M. W. Wilson, Mrs. Frank Owen, Mrs. Paul Eddy and Mrs. Donald LaBounty.

Advance publicity was in charge of Mrs. Ben Gillies, Mrs. Charles Mensing, Mrs. Raymond Kempf, Mrs. Wilbur Andrews and Mrs. Jeane Kemp.

PICK UP LEAVES

All leaves left at the curb will be picked up during the next three weeks, reports Ed Nelson, city manager.

He said city trucks will make the pick-up Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the leaf-falling season.

The city manager again reminded residents that leaves cannot be burned in curbs. He said the heat from the fires will break the concrete in the curbs.

SHELTERS PAINTED

Playground shelters in Tecumseh Acres and in Herrick Park are being painted by the Jaycees. Charles and Don Aebersold are co-chairmen of the project.

Consumers, Products Trade Water Rights for Land, Building

Consumers Power Company today revealed its plans to cease operation of its Tecumseh hydro-electric plant upon completion of an agreement with the Tecumseh Products Company, whereby Consumers will turn its dam, buildings and water rights on the Raisin River over to Tecumseh Products in exchange for a plot of land and a new building at Patterson and Maumee streets.

Herman H. Koelbel, division manager of Consumers' Jackson division and Joseph E. Layton, president of Tecumseh Products Company, said the exchange of properties was agreed upon so that Consumers could move certain operations from the dam site as it is turned over to Tecumseh Products. Consumers plans to dismantle and sell the hydo-electric generating equipment in the plant. This consists of two generators, one of 100 kilowatts capacity and another of 200 kilowatts capacity, and related equipment.

Mr. Koelbel said the exchange of properties was proposed by residents of Tecumseh, who plan to stabilize the level of water in the pond, restock the pond with game fish and beautify the shore line as a permanent improvement to the community. Tecumseh Products intends to use the building now housing the generating equipment in their advertising and warehouse operations.

Among the Consumers properties to be traded to Tecumseh Products is the Quaker dam site, a mile and a half southeast of town. No dam exists at this site, Mr. Koelbel added. He said Consumers agreed to the exchange in view of its rapidly growing generating facilities elsewhere in its service area. As an example he cited the company's recently built Tecumseh substation, and its new Justin R. Whiting steam-electric station at Erie, a few miles east of Tecumseh, which went into service in 1952 and 1953 with a rated capacity of 276,000 kilowatts—almost 1000 times that of the hydro plant's capacity.

As part of the exchange agreement, Tecumseh Products is erecting on its land at Patterson and Maumee a building to be deeded to Consumers. This will house personnel and equipment for the company's gas distribution operations in the Tecumseh area.

Mr. Koelbel said Consumers acquired the Tecumseh dam in 1938 when it purchased the Citizens Light and Power Company of Adrian.

According to Mr. Koelbel and Mr. Layton, the exchange of properties probably will be completed sometime in Dec. Actual date of shutoff in the plant has not been set, they said.

200 Attend High School PTA Meet

Two hundred members of the high school parent-teachers' association last Thursday night heard W. Scott Westerman of the University of Michigan discuss a course in home and family living.

Mr. Westerman discused a course he teaches in University high school.

After a discussion, the membership decided to petition the board of education for a home and family living course in the curriculum here. James McDowell, superintendent, explained that several of the courses given now have some of this material.

Meanwhile, Neville Hart, principal, will investigate what other schools are using in their course on home and family living.

The membership also voted to have separate parties for junior high students.

Supt. McDowell explained that school board members wanted the mixed junior and senior high school parties to continue. But a committee from the parent-teachers' asociation will meet with the board further to discuss the matter.

Principal Hart explained that a poll of 220 junior high parents failed to give a clear-cut decision on their desire to have the mixed parties continued or discontinued.

He also said seventh graders polled wanted to have separate parties and eighth graders reached no clear-cut decision.

The first junior high party will be held Friday night at the high school from 8 to 10:30.

Co-chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith. They will be assisted by the Hugh Andrews, the Al Muschs and the Clarence Damons.

Before the party, two heavyweight junior high football teams will play a football game beginning at 6:30 p.m.

PATTERSON PTA

The Patterson school parent-teachers' association will meet at the school tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. An open house will be the feature of the first meeting of the school year.

Credit

A credit of $82.56 for 800 pounds of sodium fluoride returned to the Blockson Chemical Co. in Joliet, Ill., has been received by the city.

The two drums of sodium fluoride were returned Sept. 7.

An accompanying letter to Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, explained that the credit was $12.90 per hundred pounds, less 20 per cent for rehandling the chemical. This amounted to $20.64.

Freight costs for sending the chemical to Joliet were $9.84.

Former Policeman Pleads Not Guilty to Embezzelment

Frank Gregory, former Tecumseh policeman, charged with embezzlement pleaded not guilty to a preliminary hearing Monday and he was released on bond.

The charges were brought by Green Springs, Ohio.

Specific charges are that Gregory, who was named chief of police in the Ohio town, obtained a $50 police revolver and issued checks totalling $15 on the village account. The village charges that he converted the checks for his own use.

Gregory said the money was spent for police equipment and that he returned the revolver.

After taking the job, Gregory did not show up for work.

FIREMEN CALLED

Firemen answered two alarms during the week. The first was Sunday at the Beatty farm on Billington's Corner. A grass fire caused little damage.

Tuesday they were called to the Don Heesen home on south Union. Burning leaves threatened a barn but there was no serious damage.

DRINKER FINED

Angel Hermandez, 35, of Tecumseh pleaded guilty to drunkenness before Justice Robert French Saturday.

Arrested by Tecumseh police Friday, he was ordered to pay a $15 fine and $8.60 costs.

Needs of Agencies Shown in Budget

The kickoff breakfast of the Tecumseh Community Fund will be held next Thursday, Oct. 13, at 9:30 a.m. in the American Legion home.

Mrs. Madge Boyd and Mrs. Frances Roe are in charge of the Auxiliary ladies who will serve the breakfast.

The 1955 community fund drive will begin immediately after the breakfast. The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce with Jack Osburn as chairman is conducting the drive again. Jaycees and their co-workers seek $11,234 this year.

There will be no speaker this year but a group of students will show how the community fund drive aids them.

This is the budget for the 1955 drive:

Dr. Dawson to Speak at Harvest Festival Service

The Tecumseh Methodist Church will observe its annual Harvest Festival Service this Sunday, Oct. 9 at 11 a. m. with Dr. John H. Dawson, president of Adrian College, as guest minister.

The observance of this Harvest Festival Sunday is the bringing of canned fruit, vegetables and produce to the church to be shared with the folks of the Methodist Old People's Home at Chelsea.

It is an act of appreciation and thankfulness to God for the abundance that is ours, reports the Rev. Horace James.

The young people of the church will be in charge of decorations and arrangements with the senior choir providing special music. These donations for the Chelsea Home may be brought to the church or parsonage any time this week.

TEEN DANCE SET

A teen-age dance, sponsored by the youth committee of the junior chamber of commerce, will be held in St. Elizabeth school gym next Saturday night, Oct. 8, from 8:30 to 11:30.

7000 See 9th Colorful County Band Festival

A crowd of band music lovers from young to old estimated at 7000 Tuesday night thoroughly enjoyed "Builders of America," the theme of the ninth annual Lenawee County Band Festival as presented by 12 county school bands representing more than 500 musicians.

Sponsored by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce with Miss Marjorie Wickwire as chairman, the festival was under the general direction of Clare Camburn, founder, and was narrated by the Rev. B. O. Bashore.

Although a smattering of rain fell earlier in the evening, there was not enough to force a postponement and for the ninth straight year the festival was held without being held over because of inclement weather.

Before the spectacle of music and color on the Tecumseh recration field began, a color guard of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34, the American Legion marched to the flag pole where the flag was raised and a cornet section of the Blissfield band played "To the Colors."

The Rev. Bashore narrated: "Builders of America is the music story of the building of our nation—the finest in the world."

Folks were still coming when the Britton-Macon band, directed by Robert Peterson, presented highlights in the life of George Washington. The band formed a hatchet and a cherry tree and it played "It's a Sin To Tell a Lie" and "Yankee Doodle."

Sand Creek band, directed by R. E. Hildebrant, showed how circuit riders spread Christianity throughout America. The band played "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Deerfield band, directed by Robert Kinder, saluted the Boy Scouts of America with "There Will Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," "Polly Put Your Kettle On" and "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here." Scouts of Troop 39 of Deerfield gave the Scout oath and the audience sang "America, the Beautiful."

Hudson band, directed by Manley Faye, depicted the Red Cross with Pat Wineland as Florence Nightingale and Chris Fletcher and Donna Terrill as Angels of Mercy. Forming a cross, the band played "Little Champ" and "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Saluting the armed forces, the Adrian Catholic Central band, directed by Paul Tkach, played "The Caisson Song" and, forming an anchor and a platoon, the band also played "Anchors Aweigh" and "The Marine Hymn."

Forming a shamrock, a football, and K.R. the Addison band, directed by John Huffman, used the "Notre Dame Victory March" as its theme song in showing the highlights in the life of Knute Rockne.

America's most famous marches were played by the Morenci band, directed by Charles Winzler. Representing John Philip Sousa, the band formed an "S" and played "High School Cadets," "The Thundering," "Washington Post," "El Capitan" and "Stars and Stripes Forever."

A day at the circus with Dumbo, the waltzing elephant, a clown, a dog (maybe not part of the script) and a human cannon ball was portrayed by the Clinton band, directed by Richard Wegner, with the band playing a medley of circus music showing the part circus life has played in American life.

One of America's most famous dance bands was portrayed by Blissfield band directed by Howard Bond. The band played several Glenn Miller numbers including "St. Louis Blues," "Moonlight Serenade," "Tuxedo Junction" and "In the Mood." Members formed a tie, top hat and tails.

Showing how the life of Henry Ford affected the American way of life, the Tecumseh band, directed by Don Johnson, formed a horseless carriage, the hands of a clock, a church and an assembly line and played "Here Comes the Bride" and "Whistle While You Work." As a finale a Model-A and a new Ford were driven onto the field.

America's greatest living American, President Dwight David Eisenhower, was portrayed by the Onsted band, directed by Paul Buckleman. The band formed a cannon and a "V" and played "Army Blues," "The Caisson Song," "Hail to the Chief" and the "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Depicting the life of another great American — Abraham Lincoln — was the Adrian band, directed by Al Bohms. Forming a tall silk hat, a cabin and a camp ground, the band played "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Camptown Races" and "Tenting Tonight." The last was played in total darkness with only camp fires showing which added to its effectiveness. The band concluded with an American medley and "America, the Beautiful."

Before the massed band finale the Rev. Bashore said: "The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow" as he introduced Lucylee Neiswander of Adrian, champion baton twirler.

Lucylee, holder of 200 titles in state and national baton twirling was every inch a champion as she performed several difficult baton twirling feats. The most spectacular was the torch twirling without any lights on. Tossing the blazing torches high into the air, she put on an exhibit that spectators long will remember.

Concluding the panorama of music and color, the 12 bands massed for the finale with Richard Wegner of Clinton directing. The more than 500 young musicians played "Men of Ohio," "America, the Beautiful" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

This was indeed a spectacle of youth, the future builders of America. This was America in the finest sense of the words. —R.L.W.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

OF YOUTH — AND SELF EXPRESSION!

Specimen No. 1—

"A forlorn old bachelor, sinking back in his chair with an audible sigh, broke forth in the following soliloquy, 'Ehew me miserum' the last ray of hope has fled . . . disappointment has crushed my every hope . . . I thought to seek one to share my joys and sorrows . . . but ah illusive phantom, it escaped my eager grasp."

No. II—

"In order that our daily papers may be carried on successfully, a large corps of editors and reporters is needed . . . Besides the newspaper reporter there is another particularily disagreeable to the mischievous school boy; viz., a teacher . . . Let me say here that the impressions taken in school officers are different from those in newspaper offices . . . usually imprinted in black and blue across the urchin's back."

No. III—

"Kids, kids, kids! everwhere all over the place, and it is still only 20 minutes to eight. Such enthusiasm! Well, they will be back to normal tomorrow and Mrs. Jacobs will be handing out tardy slips in the morning . . ."

Three excerpts, taken very much at random from three "feature articles," in three different student papers of Tecumseh high school; from "The Student's Gazette" of 1851 "The Student's Gazette" of "Smoke Signals" of 1955.

"Smoke Signals" is the newest journalistic effort. It appeared last week for the first time, with an enthusiastic staff headed by Nicky Touborg, editor. We think "Smoke Signals" is a very tricky title. The quote is from a word picture portraying the first day of school.

Friends of Robert Moore, Sr.,—and even Robert, Sr., himself — may be a bit surprised to learn that he was the author of the second paragraph, part of a description of what happened when the teacher "reported" to the superintendent. "The Breeze" was evidently edited by the class of 1890, of which Mr. Moore was a member in the old three-story and belfry building where the Central school now stands. As far as we can learn it lasted for four issues.

"The Student's Gazette" was the literary outpouring of the "Tecumseh Literary Institute," the private institution which served as a high school at that date, more than a century ago. Free education at that time extended only through the district school but higher learning was offered to the youth of Tecumseh at a very reasonable rate by a truly remarkable staff of teachers at the "Institute." Most of them were graduates of eastern colleges and the Institute was a successor to the branch of the University of Michigan, located in Tecumseh when that institution was in its infancy. It was held in the building which had been the county courthouse and which stood in the middle of Adams (or standpipe) Park.

These three are not the only student papers ever published by the school body. A mimeographed sheet "The Splash" was put out by a journalism club for five or six years beginning in 1939 and afforded an outlet for the literary aspirations of that period. There may have been others and probably were.

"The Gazette," "The Breeze" and "Smoke Signals" all have about the same format although "The Gazette" had eight pages and "The Breeze" only four. All three papers solicited advertising. "The Gazette" saying graciously that "a few select advertisements will be admitted in the next number when enlarged." There was no humor in "The Gazette;" the only item of news was the obituary of one of the student body; it was strictly "literature" and lugubrious literature at that. "The Breeze" had an editorial column, personals and local items and the type of humor which awarded "degrees" to individuals as: A.M. —All Mouth and A.B. Always Bragging.

No description of "Smoke Signals" is needed. It is here for all to read and if the enthusiasm of its staff is a yard stick, that reading will be good.

We are indebted to Mr. Ray Herrick for the use of the copy of "The Gazette." It was sent to him by a descendant of a former student and from the point of view of Tecumseh history it is priceless.

The three papers vividly reflect the training and point of view of the youth of the three periods. They differ widely but all—1851—1890—1955 have a common bond. All were printed by the HERALD.

150 Attend P.T.A. at Central School

Some 150 parents and teachers of Central school attended their association meeting last Wednesday evening held at the Central building.

Mrs. Robert Anderson presided at the business meeting and called for suggestions for future meetings.

Earl Greene, supervisor of the elementary schools, introduced the teachers and also explained the new bus schedule and service.

It was voted to hold meetings hereafter on the third Thursday of each month and at the high school building rather than Central because of better facilities for serving refreshments.

As Mrs. Anderson has moved to the West Branch school section, she tendered her resignation as president of the association which was reluctantly accepted. No successor was named at this meeting.

Parents then visited the school room of their children and discussed with the teachers teaching problems and possible future programs after which the association assembled for coffee and cookies served by Mrs. Edgar Relyea, Mrs. Guy Haviland and their committee in a very capable manner despite the handicap of limited equipment.

One hundred and nine members were signed up by the membership committee, which is made up of Mrs. Fred Oberlin, Mrs. Robert King Jr., Mrs. Russell Cheever, Mrs. D. B. Hannibal and Mrs. Franklin Fergus.

At the next meeting, Oct. 20, the constitution committee will submit the new constitution for discussion and acceptance.

Saturday morning the Cubs' movement on the gridiron in Adrian was very good, winning 13-0. They were exceptionally alert on defense but showed a weak offense. Jon Aho scored the first touchdown with an off tackle play. The try for the extra point failed.

The second touchdown which continued the winning drive was started when Dave Weakly handed off to Dick Horvath on a reverse from the 24 yd. line. Dick went around left end for the td. The extra point was good when Bod Davila took the hand off from Dave Weakly on an end and went over. The entire line played a real bang up defensive game.

Airport Ties Tecumseh, 6-6, in Last Five Minutes

Tecumseh high school came within five minutes of winning its first Southeastern league football game in two years Friday night. Leading 6-0 with five minutes to play, the Indians were tied 6-6 by an impotent Airport Community 11.

The Indians' defensive play was superb, but the secondary had a difficult time with both short and long passes. Airport gained very little ground through the Indians' line but the Jet's passers riddled the secondary. Ironically enough, it was a pass on fourth down that set up the Jets' tying td with five minutes to play.

Tecumseh's offensive blocking was as bad as its defensive tackling was good and this lack of consistent solid blocking, both on running plays and passing plays, spelled the loss of a clear-cut league win for Tecumseh.

Tecumseh threatened when the game was only minutes old. Stopping the Jets cold on the 49, the Indians began to march. Weakly dashed around his right end for 25 yards and Dickinson and Marsh picked up ground that placed the ball on the Jet 24. But Tecumseh fumbled on the next play and Leduc of Airport recovered.

After working the ball to the 39, Lloyd Lambrix, Jet quarterback, arched a soft but long pass to his back Ted Price who dashed behind the Tecumseh secondary, caught the ball on the Tecumseh 46 and rumbled in for the six points. But a clipping penalty nullified the score.

Tecumseh came close to scoring in the second period but a Dickinson pass to Miller was just out of reach of the skinny end's hands as he crossed the 20 with no Jet around him.

There was no score as the teams left the field at the half but Al Dickinson soon changed this. In seven plays he was in the end zone with six important points. With the ball on the Jet 42 and fourth down with five yards to go for a first down the junior quarterback kept and dashed into the line over his left tackle. There was no hole but Al made a hole and outraced the Jet secondary for the score.

Ray Larned's attempted try for the extra point from placement was blocked.

Score: Tecumseh 6, Airport 0

Midway in the third period Tecumseh's defensive strength had a big test. The situation developed when Bill Spreeman shot a bad pass back to Larned that the big end could not handle. He had no chance to get off his punt and the Jets took over on the Tecumseh 33. Price gained two. Whiteside added a brace of yards. Gary Marsh shot through and tossed Price for a loss. On the next play Price was racked up hard on the 21 and he fumbled. Gargantuan center Jim Jackson pounced on the ball and Tecumseh squeaked out of a bad hole.

Dickinson hit Larned with a 32-yard pass play for a little excitement but the Indians' attack went no where.

After punting to the Jets, Tecumseh received the ball when eagle-eyed Jackson again pounced on a fumble on the mid-field stripe.

After two incomplete passes, Dickinson fumbled and Airport recovered, with LeDuc making the recovery. Running plays by Price and Whiteside carried the ball to the 31. Lambrix, attempting a pass, was smothered by Covell for a two yard loss. The next time, however, Lambrix got his pass away to Price for a six yard gain. He unsuccessfully tried again; then, with fourth down and using a spread formation, the Jet back arched one to George Tilley, his running mate, whcih was good for 20 yards and a first down.

With the ball on the six, Price hit the line for two; then he exploded over the line for the tie maker.

Whiteside attempted to run for the extra point but he was smothered by the Indian line.

Score: Tecumseh 6, Airport Community 6

The Indians roared back but the clock ran out on them. After the kickoff, which Dickinson ran back to the Jets' 45, Dickinson hit Spangler with a pass for eight yards. Marsh banged to a first down on the 35. Al tossed an incompleted pass. He then ran to

Miller Out

Ken broke his left collar bone in the third quarter of the Airport game when he made one of several bone-cracking tackles.

Doctors report that the injury will be healed by the time basketball season rolls around and they expect that it will not hamper the Indian court ace.

The Sign Costs $1.30

She was one of those sprite-like little creatures, about knee high to a grasshopper, and her skin was the color of an Autumn moon. This in itself wasn't so different from other little girls', but her hair—that was the paradox. It was a brilliant red, like fire, almost as though the flames of her zest for living had broken through her being and formed curly little flamelets around her pallid face. And then, from out of the general scheme of things, as though to soften the contrast, Nature . . . God . . . whichever you prefer, had given her a pair of eager blue eyes and a sparkling little smile. That way you could tell that she really was alive and not a doll baby like you see in the store windows at Christmas time.

It was over a year ago that I saw the little girl. The day was sunny and I heard her pleading with her father for a nickel so that she could buy an ice-cream cone. She extended a tiny hand and then in her anxiety to spend her nickel she dashed headlong into the busy street.

There was a terrible screeching of brakes, an agonized scream from the father, and then a deathly silence as her little body bled its happiness and its anxiety and its zest for living into the dusty street.

I remember hearing her last cry of "Daddy!," not in pain or in terror, but as though she were surprised at not having the nickel in her hand any longer. I remember hearing her father pleading with her not to die, and I remember seeing the truck driver getting mutely, numbly, out of his truck and falling to his knees beside the torn little body in the now suddenly quiet street.

Too, I remember asking myself, "Who is to blame for this tragedy?" Surely it wasn't the truck driver. He didn't see the little girl. He would rather have died himself. It couldn't have been the father. He only wanted to give her happiness. It wasn't the little girl's fault. She only wanted her ice-cream cone.

And then, a year later almost to the day, I thought I had my answer. I was walking along the same street and I saw a workman busily erecting a "Stop" sign on the corner where the little girl had been killed.

I couldn't resist going over and askeng, "Mister, do you know, do you realize, what this sign cost?" He looked at me intently for a moment and then replied, "Sure, a dollar's worth of metal, a quarter's worth of wood, and a nickel's worth of paint."

Hast thou not known that the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? Letters to Editor

To the Editor:

Concerning a letter to Jackson Citizen Patriot by Earl H. Bryan.

He states that he has certified tests from three separate laboratories that show fluoride was injected artifically into our water supply. This matter is now in court and there is no proof that fluoride was artificially injected into our water supply. The city has had tests taken and are certified by the Michigan State Health Dept. that show only a natural content of fluoride is in the water. The records show that this content was in the water before it had ever been used artificially.

He also stated that they have a case in court at present, which is true, but he states they also have a libel suit against Mayor H. H. Hanna. This is more of their half truths as the mayor has not received any such notice.

Mr. Bryan also states that two 450 pound drums of fluoride were sent back to the chemical firm at Joliet, Ill. He goes further to say that the shipping tag was dated June 5, 1955. Three quarters of this statement is incorrect. The two drums were 400 pounds each. Shipped to Joliet, Ill., there were no tags on the drums or any dates whatsoever stamped on the drums.

I checked the city files for the last shipment to Tecumseh. I found that Dec., 1955, we received our last shipment of three drums.

I had the city clerk write the Blockson Chemical Co. and ask if any dates or tags were on the two drums returned, pertaining to June 5, 1955, or any date that may be on them. Also when the company last shipped fluoride to this city.

We received a letter from Russell Attaway of the Blockson Chemical Co. He personally inspected the two drums returned and found no dates or tags on either container. He also stated that from the production code numbers which appear on the two drums returned that it would indicate that they are part of the last shipment made in Dec., 1953.

I would like to see a list of the scores (20) of people that have drilled private wells this past month which Mr. Bryan also stated, also I would like to see the list of people that have so called fluoride poisoning.

There are complaints of the water smelling and leaving stains, also rust. In Aug., 1948, the city pumped 38,941,000 gallons of water. In Aug., 1955, we pumped 57,570,000 of water. We also have two new wells since then and we are getting harder water which accounts for the rust. I believe that we are also getting more minerals which would cause a smell.

I say to the people of Tecumseh stand up and be counted. You have elected men to the council and then disbelieve what they say and yet believe an organization that is doing the city more harm than good. Just think what could have been done for the YOUTH of Tecumseh with 10 per cent of their time and money. Ask any of them what they have done for Tecumseh, then check the members of the council. Our city is being dragged to the gutters on one issue. Is there not any good being done here?

I am a married man with four children ranging from 11 months to six years old. We do not have a well. We drink city water. So do most of you. Are you sick? I'm not, at least not from the water.

The reason I am writing this letter is that I am getting hit from all sides, "what is the council going to do about this?", "why hasn't it done something?" I am writing this on my own behalf. I suppose the council members had enough faith in the citizens of Tecumseh and thought they had a little faith in them.

I am hoping that this matter will be cleared soon.

—John H. Hamilton

"You wonder why we are here," said a chunky, husky-voiced middle-aged man. "We are suffering from a terrible affliction: Room-a-tism."

"Yes," he said, "we just don't have the room our family requires and it's about to make us all sick. In our alleged living room, the five of us can comfortably sit down—but only as long as we stay put. If one gets up and tries to move, two more have to rise to let him through. So that's why we want a spacious family home. We're just plain tired of the frayed nerves brought on by Room-a-tism."

I grinned. "You've come to the right office. You see we are house doctors. We've cured many a confining case of Room-a-tism. And we can even give you a choice of medicines. The cure is available in several attractive sizes, colors, shapes and districts."

"O K., doctor," he said with a smile. "Let's get at the treatment."

Before nightfall, the Room-a-tism vanished. He bought a nice-sized family home.

Do you suffer from Room-a-tism too? If so, come in or phone and we'll talk over the proper medication.

They're Buying More U.S. Bonds

Residents of Lenawee County purchased $164,145 in Series E and H United States Savings Bonds during Aug. of this year, it was announced today by H. Dale Gardner, chairman, Lenawee County Savings Bonds Committee.

This compares with purchases of $133,912 for Aug., 1954. County total for the first eight months of 1955 was $1,484,295, which constitutes a comfortable margin over the $1,152,324 bought during the Jan.-Aug. period a year ago.

Total sales of Series E and H Bonds in the State of Michigan for Aug. were $28,346,400; an increase of 8.7 per cent over Aug., 1954, according to Noble D. Travis, state chairman, U. S. Savings Bonds Division.

Michigan sales of the two popular series were $222,806,000 during the first eight months of 1955, up 13.5 per cent from the $196,225,000 sold in the same period of 1954. This represents the highest Jan.-Aug. total for 10 years.

Travis said Michigan has achieved 69.24 per cent of its annual quota as of Aug. 31. The state's quota of $321,800,000 represents approximately six per cent of the $5.5 billion national goal for this year.

The county chairman urged residents of this area to continue their loyal support of the Savings Bond Program.

The safer car wins . . . and Chevrolet's the winning car

Every checkered flag signals a Chevrolet victory in official 1955 stock car competition—not only against its own field but against many American and foreign high-priced cars, too!

Let's translate these Chevrolet victories into your kind of driving.

You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways. You've got to have better springing and suspension. Again, safer and happier motoring for you. You've got to have big brakes that act fast and smooth . . . and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving safer.

But it's more fun to try these things out than just to talk about them. So come in and let's take a ride.

NOW'S THE TIME TO BUY!

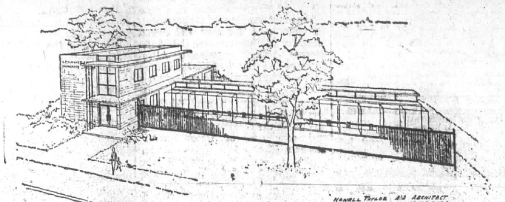
Humane Society To Build New Small Animal Shelter



The Lenawee County Humane Society, through Miss Claire V. Forrey, chairman of the new building committee, announced the plans for a new small animal shelter to be constructed in the near future on James street near the south city limits in Adrian. A campaign for funds is now under way.

The building will be two floors of concrete block construction, 18 x 76 ft. The animal cage shelter will project 64 ft., with runs and pens of the newest type. The first floor will have offices, food storage and kitchen facilities, treatment rooms and garage. The second floor will be living quarters for the caretakers. Mr. Howell Taylor, AIA, of Ann Arbor is the architect.

The society recently lost a court decision that forced the closing of the shelter on Hunt road. The new property was purchased for the long range plan of a permanent shelter building. The new site was carefully selected in an industrial area, and is approved for this purpose.

The society is asking the public to contribute funds liberally to complete the building. With the purchase of the James street property and cash on hand, about half the amount required is provided but $11,000 is needed to assure completion of the building, cages and the necessary equipment.

Donations may be sent to the Lenawee County Humane Society to: Miss Claire V. Forrey, 564 S Winter street, Adrian, Michigan.

All donations will entitle the donor to honorary membership in the society, and will be acknowledged.

Pass The Meat To Baby . . . .

Time there was when some cereals and vegetables were given to baby at about the time of the first teeth. It was too daring to start baby on cereals before six or eight months.

Now reports from many pediatricians show the use of solids, meat and vegetables, at a very early age. Mothers seem to regard this as nutritional progress. However—babies differ, and your Doctor's orders should always be your guide.

Grade School News

PATTERSON NEWS

This is the first year of gym classes for the fourth grade girls and boys, and we are enjoying them very much. Most of us like the shower days best of all.

We think our social studies class is very interesting, too. We are reading about the people who found and settled our country.

Barbara Colgrove has been ill for several days. We hope she will be back with us soon.

Billy Truesdale, Floyd Steele, and Larry George, replaced Arthur Collingsworth, Bobby LaPrad, and Ronald O'Neill on the school safety patrol.

Rayanna White has transferred from Central school second grade to Patterson school. We are happy to have you with us. Rayanna, and we're sure you will know all of our names real soon.

We, in the second grade at Patterson, are making a map showing where our school is located and where our houses are. We are drawing pictures of our houses to put in the proper place on the map.

Patterson P.T.A. will meet Thursday, Oct. 6, at 8 p.m. We do hope that all of our parents come to the meeting which will be an open house and short business meeting. Come to meet and talk with our teachers and later meet the P.T.A. officers.

State Press Asks for Unity in Special Session

The Board of Directors of the Michigan Press Association have passed a resolution calling for cooperation of the political entities of the state at the special session of the state legislature scheduled for late Oct.

The resolution announced today by Elmer E. White, secretary of the Michigan Press Association, demanded the "best efforts" of the governor and the legislature in the effort to reduce highway accidents.

The resolution stated that the people of this state have a right to expect that political consideration should be at a minimum and special interests ignored. The subject matter of the special session is, after all, the lives and safety of the people.

Newspaper publishers have maintained a concentrated interest in highway safety matters during the past three years. MPA safety committees have studied traffic problems and individual newspapers have used hundreds of columns in space to promote safety programs for Michigan citizens.

Wilson's Staff Sees '56 Plymouth

Harvey Wilson of Wilson's Motors and members of his staff — LaMar Cheever, Harold Koons, Ivan Maynard, Harry Schuch and Harland Ruhl—attended a special preview of the 1956 Plymouth cars, featuring aerodynamic styling and many innovations for safety and performance, in Toledo Wednesday.

The preview was conducted by G. J. Cutler, director of service, Plymouth Motor Corporation, and was one of 135 held in all parts of the country to acquaint dealers with the many new features of the cars before the 1956 models go on display in showrooms.

Following the previews, dealers will launch a series of training meetings for their service and sales personnel to acquaint them with the mechanical changes.

The Plymouth executive said the aerodynamic styling of the new models was adopted after a public reaction survey indicated increasing preference for "jet-type" styling.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Tie This One For Consideration—

Closed the office early last Saturday to go after pheasants with Pops Foster. I used fewer shells than the old gentleman and took home more birds—but not because I did better shooting.

I'd borrowed a dog for the occasion. Pops took along Blue, his ancient pointer. Several times I noticed Pops walk up to a clump of bushes Blue had pointed at and fire into the air—though he hadn't flushed a single bird.

Naturally, I wanted to know why. "Well," he said sheepishly, "I've been hunting with that dog for 11 seasons. His nose isn't much help any more—but I'd rather waste a shell than let him know."

From where I sit, Pops always shows consideration for people, too. For instance, this is a small thing, but he puts a bottle of beer on ice for me when I visit him—though he never takes anything but coffee himself. Even if he doesn't agree with me on a matter of personal choice (which is his right) he'd rather not make a "point" of letting me know.

The entire Britton line was outstanding on defense.

Catholic Central	6	0	7	6	19
Britton-Macon	0	6	0	0	6

Knights Lose Game and Joe Murray

Boysville lost more than a ball game Friday night when Manchester won, 27-0. The Knights also lost their star left half Joe Murray who broke his left arm on the third play of the game.

In St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, Joe skirted end and was run out of bounds on the two yard line. He fell backwards and his arm snapped.

Manchester played an outstanding game, both offensively and defensively.

The Knights, however, were hampered by the loss of Murray, his brother John who had a pulled thigh muscle; Jerry Spears, tackle, who didn't play because of injuries and by four regulars who sat out the game as a disciplinary measure. The regulars were quarterback, end, tackle and full back.

Conyer, Van Hatter, Pniewski and Meyer scored touchdowns for Manchester and Conyer scored two extra points and Pniewski added one.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

IT'S THE SAME OLD STORY. When a mailman has a day off he takes a walk. When the bus driver has a day off, he rides a bus; and when a newspaperman, whether he works in the "front office" or the "back shop" has a vacation, he spends his time visiting other papers. Rudof Glanz who used to work on the Dundee Reporter and who has been on the Oceana Herald at Shelby for the past 20 years as chief linotype operator dropped into the HERALD Friday to talk shop. He had papers from towns between here and the Smoky Mountains. Rudof, very proud of his German blood, manages the theater in the cherry country during his "spare time."

PAYMENT FOR SERVICES rendered at the county band festival has been refused by Tecumseh Electric. George Derby, co-partner, told Mrs. Frances Pennington, chamber of commerce secretary: "We like to help out, so there's no charge for the public address system." A ray of silver to George and Ralph Sager, his partner.

BILL WRIGHT IS going to have quite a store when the remodeling program currently under motion is completed. His store will be colonial American and patterned after the old apothecaries.

LESTER ROGERS SAW A flock of geese going south Monday. The way the golden days have been coming on lately the geese might have been premature.

IT WAS BOUND TO HAPPEN. When Tom Tipton, leading community singing at the Presbyterian dinner, asked if there was a favorite hymn somebody would like to sing, a masculine voice boomed out: "Yea, Davy Crockett."

MRS. MICKEY JOHNSON of Johnson's Grill expresses appreciation and pleasure at the splendid behavior of the students of Tecumseh schools when she entertained them for free hot dogs on the Monday following her re-opening. About 150 in all came in and she says no group could have been more polite. "They were a credit to their parents and teachers."

ANOTHER GROUP OF youngsters were commended by Mr. and Mrs. John Christie who this week sold their Top Hat Soda Grill to Mr. and Mrs. Pano Galovich. The young folks dreamed up a farewell party for the Christies and contributions were sought from students and neighbors. A nice set of luggage was purchased for the Christies who said of the party: "It was the most heart-warming thing that ever happened to us during our pleasant stay in Tecumseh."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "This is the time of year when it will be getting too cool to do the things that it was too hot to do during the summer."

His father bought him a new horn and he gave his first exhibit in the G.A.R. entertainment in Tecumseh, Monday, Oct. 7. This little squib about the director of the famous all-county band festival appeared in the HERALD Oct. 10, 1895 which would make Clare about . . . .

Girl Scouts, Brownies Plan Vesper Service

Twenty troops of girls numbering 265 are eligible to assemble in the Tecumseh Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. for their annual Brownie and Girl Scout's own vesper service.

A dignified service providing music and a message from Mrs. Lawrence Ward of Milan as guest speaker has been arranged by Mrs. John Saling and Mrs. Ronald Harris.

All parents, relatives and friends of these girls as well as their leaders, assistant leaders, committee-women and men and sponsors are cordially invited to attend this service.

Officers of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association with Mrs. Howard Truesdale as president will be seated together and all who have been awarded their five-year pins are expected to be present. The service will last about one hour and is not denominational.

Leaders will meet in the church sanctuary Saturday at four p.m. to receive final instructions.

Legionnaires See Convention Film

Members of the American Legion saw movies of the state convention at their last meeting. Bob Lowe showed the movies.

Members voted to do the following:

A $25 check will be sent to the American Legion Flood Disaster program.

A get-well telegram will be sent to President Eisenhower.

The membership also discussed plans for a Hallowe'en dance Saturday, Oct. 29, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. and plans for a New Year's party.

At the next meeting, Thursday, Nov. 3, a shrimp supper will be held.

WARN BIKE RIDERS

Chief George Kilbourn warns that bike riding by two or more persons is too dangerous. He added that bike owners who allow this to continue will have their bikes impounded.

The chief said he would much rather impound a bike to stress this safety point than to answer an accident report in which a young bike rider is injured or killed.

Schools Recess for Two Days Monday, Tuesday

Students in the Tecumseh public schools will have a two-day recess next Monday and Tuesday while their teachers attend an institute meeting in Ann Arbor.

Paul F. Burns, teacher in Tecumseh high school, is to participate in the program of the annual meeting of region three of the Michigan Education Association on the University campus Oct. 17 and 18.

The program lists Burns as chairman of the Monday afternoon section on agriculture, at which George Axinn, assistant to the director of cooperative extension service, Michigan State University, will speak on "Communications to Rural People." There will also be discussion of related topics.

William Sherry, also a teacher in Tecumseh high school, is in charge of reservations for another section meeting, that on business education, to be held at a luncheon Monday noon.

Nearly 3,600 teachers are expected to attend the meeting, at which Kenneth McFarland, educational consultant and lecturer of Topeka, Kansas, will be a keynote speaker. A feature of the conference will be talks at the concluding session Tuesday on "Peace Time Uses of Atomic Energy."

Speakers will be Dr. Ralph A. Sawyer, dean of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, and Dr. Henry J. Gomberg, director and assistant director of the Michigan Memorial-Phoenix Project.

West Branch Parents Seek More School Improvements

A group of six parents from West Branch school Tuesday night discussed with the board of education and Supt. McDowell an eight item list of improvements that they felt was needed at their school.

The meeting was an outgrowth of a letter listing the items which was sent to the board of education.

At its last meeting the West Branch parent-teachers' association passed a resolution calling for the letter to the board of education.

Meeting Tuesday night with the board were Keith Barron, president of the parent-teachers' association and Robert Wood, James Barton, Mrs. Lee Kayner and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brighton.

Pointing out in their letter that the group was more than pleased with the new lighting and refinishing of the floors during the summer maintenance work, the parent-teachers' association listed these needed improvements:

Return drinking fountains to the halls (only ones now are in the rest rooms).

Put outside air vent or window in the first grade toilet.

Replace outside front steps (new ones not uniform in height or tread).

Provide various size chairs and desks to meet the needs of the students in the various rooms.

Provide new blackboards.

Provide window shades for the second grade room.

Check and repair worn out heating controls.

Cover bare electrical outlets in ceiling and paint rooms.

These points were covered in the discussion that followed:

Supt. McDowell explained that elementary buildings today have too many students around the fountains if they were placed back in the halls. He said he was against putting them back.

The vent, he said, has been on order but it has not arrived. President Touborg questioned the service on the vent, saying that perhaps it could be purchased elsewhere.

Supt. McDowell said the "mess" made of the steps was an accident that happened when too much wet concrete was poured into the forms which "buckled" and caused a malformation.

He said Tom Gallant of Adrian said the steps could be ground down but Mr. Gallant has been in the hospital and has not been able to do the work. Members of the group and trustee Mead and President Touborg did not think much of the potential grinding program. They said it would take a lot of grinding and that the steps might as well be made over and made right.

The superintendent said the chairs could be moved from room to room to provide for the shorter legged students. Trustee Mead said that perhaps some kind of wood platforms could be placed in front of the chairs so students' feet could reach the "floor."

The new blackboards, Supt. McDowell said, can be ordered.

An inspector has approved the heating controls, he said.

Mr. Barron said "You can write your name in the dirt on the walls." And he added: "They should be painted or at least washed."

Supt. McDowell explained that there is only so much maintenance money in the budget and that the money has to go around to all the schools.

Mr. Barron asked if the parent-teachers' group could borrow school equipment to clean the walls. The superintendent said they could. Mr. Barron said he would take it up with his group and maybe the cleanig could be done. Supt. McDowell said his men could probably clean the walls during the Christmas recess.

Mr. Barron said he thought the board of education did not get "value received" for the labor on the summer program at West Branch. But Supt. McDowell said he was "very happy" over it.

Supt. McDowell said: "Had the parent-teachers' group invited Mr. Greene or myself to their meeting most of these questions could have been answered at that time." Mr. Barron explained that Mr. Greene was invited at the last minute because of an oversight on his part but that Mr. Greene, who had out of town company the night of the meeting called and said he would come over if he were needed.

Mr. Barron said both administrators will be invited to the next West Branch parent-teachers' association meeting further to discuss what has been done about the eight points. This meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 10.

Champs

James Dean, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dean of Ridgeway and a Tecumseh high school senior was a member of the 4-H Club dairy cattle judging team that won first place in the cattle judging contest in the junior division of the International Dairy Show in Chicago Monday.

Dean was named high scorer on the three-member team with 681 points. His team won first by 14 points.

His father is manager and part owner of Meadowridge Jersey Farms.

Exchange Club Sponsors Blind Products Sale

Paul Clauda, president of Tecumseh Exchange Club, announced the completion of their new program today, that not only adds funds for their local charities but also provides help for local and state blind persons.

It is, as Mr. Clauda puts it, "The most completely charitable effort ever attempted by a service group, because it really isn't charity." Here's how it works:

The Exchange Club will sponsor and supply men for a Blind Products Sale. The products — ironing board covers, clothes pin bags, mops, brushes and brooms are products made by persons who are blind.

They will profit by sales that provide them with work. They've been trained to be useful, productive citizens.

The second phase—the innumerable other local charities of the Exchange Club get 40 per cent of the profit from the sale of these products. Mr. Clauda has a crew of 30 ready to start out at 6 p.m., Oct. 26.

It is a matter of legitimate merchandise, made by handicapped people who want the right to earn, sold by a group that wants to make their every effort count.

Mr. Clauda sincerely hopes that the local men who are devoting their faith and time to this effort will get a good response from everyone.

TRICKS OR TREAT GO TO NEEDY

A project to replace the begging of the ordinary trick or treat activities of children on Hallowe'en has been organized by churches. Children are encouraged to ask for coins instead which they collect for needy children the world over through the United Nations.

Last year was the first time it was attempted in Tecumseh. Representatives of Tecumseh churches make up the local comittee whose chairman is Mrs. John Saling. Further details will be given later.

Police Chief Warns

Pedestrian Also Has Rights

Tecumseh police have received several complaints from pedestrians that drivers of cars and trucks will not give pedestrians the right of way when they are crossing the street with the green light.

Because of many complaints George Kilbourn, chief, points out the following:

"We have lights on all four corners of the intersection of Chicago boulevard and Evans street that were installed for the purpose of helping the pedestrians cross the street. When the light reads "WALK" that means that the pedestrian has the right of way over any traffic making a right or left turn. When the light reads "DON'T WALK" that means for the pedestrian to wait at the curb until the light changes.

"We drivers seem to forget what the word courtesy means when we get behind the wheel of an automobile. It would be easier for the driver to wait a minute for some one to cross the street, than to be detained by an officer who is either giving you a summons for failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian, or making out a report on how you struck a pedestrian that had the right of way.

"We cannot expect our young people to respect the traffic laws when we do not obey them ourselves.

"I have also noticed any number of pedestrians cross the street against the "DON'T WALK" light. The same rule applies to you, as it does to the motorist. We can not expect the drivers to show us any courtesy if we do not return the act.

"Parents, schools and policemen try to teach the children to obey all the laws so that they will get home from school safely. We tell them not to cross the street unless the light is green. We cannot expect them to wait for the light if they see us doing what we are trying to teach them not to do.

"We have been very lucky that we have not had a serious accident yet at this intersection. Let us all cooperate and keep our records clean, and make it a safer place to cross the street.

"If the drivers fail to cooperate and continue to fail to give pedestrians the right of way when they are entitled to it, we will have to issue summonses to the drivers. Pedestrians also can be summoned to justice court for failing to yield the right of way to traffic."

Boy Shoots Self in Leg with Rifle

Harry King, 11, shot himself in the right thigh with a home-made, sawed off rifle Saturday afternoon.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marsh, 615 south Pearl, he was target practicing with his brother Charles, 14, across from Porter's gravel pit when the accident happened.

The boys took the gun out without their parents' consent.

Taken to Herrick Memorial hospital, he was discharged from the hospital Tuesday.

School District Number Changed from 7 to 11

From now on Tecumseh Public Schools District No. 7 propably will be known as district No. 11.

Supt. James McDowell told school board members of the new change Tuesday night.

According to Milton C. Porter, county superintendent of schools, the new number is tentative. School districts in the county, he said, were numbered under the new school code in the order in which they reorganized. Sand Creek District, for example, was given number one because it was the first county school to reorganize.

Tecumseh Public Schools, District No. 11, he said, will be a fourth class district. All former graded, rural agricultural and township schools from now on will be known as fourth class simply to give uniformity to school laws pertaining to the former three types of schools.

Tecumseh had been a graded school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christie have sold their Top Hat Soda Grill to Mr. and Mrs. Pano Galovich of Sand Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie, who had operated the soda grill and restaurant for the past two years, will remain in town the rest of the month. They then will go to Florida to make their home after Mr. Christie goes to the hospital for a check up.

Arrested by Tecumseh police, Cole was charged with running into a parking meter in front of the Rocket Tavern earlier Wednesday morning.

He was fined $25 and assessed costs of $8.60 and he must make restitution for the meter.

Owned by City

Cemetery Board Head Cites Brookside Improvements

Members of the board of Brookside cemetery this week pointed out the merits of the city-owned and operated cemetery.

Through Ellsworth Collins, president, the board, made these statements:

"Many persons from out of town as well as our own residents have much praise for our beautiful and well-kept cemetery.

"It has taken years of hard labor and thousands of dollars to build it with all of the improved roads and fine lawn with trees and shrubbery and always plenty of help to keep the lawn mowed and trimmed.

"Our new addition of 10 acres to the north and in connection with the other part is fully finished with shrubs and trees, including improved roads and lawn. Many lots have been sold in this new section and it will be a wonderful addition.

"There is one very fine section in the best part of the former yard that is reserved to sell for grass markers only. This is not a new block but has always been kept for families wanting markers level with the ground.

"All the old and new parts are piped for water so no matter where you have a lot there is a water connection handy to your lot.

"Crypts in the fine mausoleum are sold by the cemetery

Should you wish to purchase a lot in advance of immediate use, you can pay a certain amount in advance and can use a certain portion of the lot until paid.

"If you should be interested in a lot or the prices, call at the cemetery and Mr. Clayton Young, sexton, will be glad to give you any information.

"There is a new cement building in the foreground that has a double garage for our truck and fine yard equipment, and in the front part is a nice waiting room and rest rooms with gas heat and electric lights for winter or summer use and convenient for anyone waiting or coming in with a funeral from a distance."

Members of the cemetery board in addition to Mr. Collins are Guy Belding, vice-president; Mel G. Partridge, treasurer; and Mrs. Naomi Sallows, secretary.

71, 750 Bushels of Potatoes Will Be Made into Chips

About 71,750 bushels of potatoes now being harvested at the Kuehmann potato farm north of town soon will end up as potato chips.

Jack Hahn, manager of the "Q-Man" farm, reports he had 287 acres planted to spuds and he has about 50 acres yet to harvest.

The average crop will yield about 250 bushels to the acre.

Planted April 20, the crop was average because of the hot and dry summer. One hundred and eighty five acres of spuds had to be irrigated. The farm has two irrigation outfits, one with a capacity of 550 gallons of water a minute and one with 1150 gallons of water a minute.

Water for the irrigation came from the Raisin River.

Manager Hahn and his crew of nine during the planting, spraying and irrigation season planted 50 acres of cobblers and the balance of the acreage with katahdins.

A crew of 35, mostly Mexican employees, now are harvesting the crop.

A large machine called a harvestor digs the potatoes and loads them on a large wagon. A crew of men ride on the machine to begin the sorting process. They throw out stones, grass and spoiled potatoes. The harvestor will harvest about seven acres of potatoes in one day.

When the large wagon is filled, it is hauled by a tractor to the storage shed. A motor on the wagon begins a flow of potatoes to a sorting conveyor where other employees sort again, taking out stones, grass and spoiled potatoes. The conveyor rolls the sorted potatoes to another conveyor which stores them in a mountain of spuds in the sheds.

The wagon holds about 145 bushels of potatoes. It takes about 30 minutes to sort a wagon load.

The company owns a 300-acre farm in Manchester, too, and a 600-acre farm near Mobile, Ala.

Chipping, as the potato chip making process is called, is done in the company's Toledo plant. By May all the chipping of local potatoes will be finished; then the Alabama potatoes are used. The potatoes are hauled to Toledo from the storage shed here by semi-truck.

Kickoff

The kickoff breakfast of the Tecumseh Community Fund will be held in the American Legion building this morning (Thursday) at 9.

Volunteer workers will receive their kits for the drive which is being directed by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce with Jack Osburn as chairman.

Section chairmen for the drive are Ernest Oliver, northwest; Dr. Robert Laidlaw, northeast; Dr. Robert Mohr, southeast; and Robert Williamson, southwest.

350 Hear Dr. McFarland

"Put a light in the faces of others by having a light in your heart," Dr. Kenneth McFarland told 350 persons attending the all-congregation dinner of the First Presbyterian church a week ago last night in the Union hall.

Educational consultant for General Motors Corporation, Dr. McFarland said "this light must be constantly refueled with a meaningful, purposeful, sincere religion."

Introduced by J. C. Beardsley, Dr. McFarland said: "To be permanently and personally successful, keep your light shining."

These other "common denominators" in personal relationships were cited:

Say or do the right thing with finesse; know the interests and needs of the other fellow; always use the same set of rules.

Before Dr. McFarland's speech, a dinner was served by Don's Grill, assisted by young people of the church and Tom Tipton sang several solos and led community singing.

BAPTIST WOMEN HEAR BOOK REPORT

A review of a book, entitled "I, Too, Can Read," given by Mrs. Delmar Finch, was the program for the Oct. meeting of the Baptist Women's Society Monday evening in the Youth House.

Written by Dr. Laubach, the book described his method of teaching reading and writing to those who have never before done so. "Each one teach me" was his motto and his method was so simple that this was possible.

The religious thought was given by Mrs. Floyd Bryan. Mrs. Earl Wood and her committee served refreshments with Mrs. Eddie Kirkland and Mrs. James Danforth at the tea table.

Mrs. E. C. McConnell will have charge of the program for the next meeting. The subject will be Indian Americans.

Phone Companies Stock Holders Approve Merger

The shareholders of General Telephone Corporation and Theodore Gary and Company have approved today the plan of merger whereby Theodore Gary and Company will be merged into General Telephone Corporation.

Action was taken at a special shareholders' meetings of both companies held in New York and Kansas City following the recommendation made by the boards of directors in Aug.

The operating company of the Gary group in Michigan is the Union Telephone Company with general offices in Owosso. Union Telephone has principal exchanges in Adrian, Mt. Pleasant, St. Johns, Alpena, Dowagiac, South Haven, and Owosso, with a total of 74 exchanges.

The Union Company serves 83,000 telephones. General Telephone Company of Michigan now serves 107,000 telephones through 78 exchanges, including Tecumseh. General Telephone System is the world's largest non-Bell communication network.

Britton Supt. Meets with School Board

Projected enrollment increases in their school systems and how these increases might affect their systems were discussed by the board of education with Supt. Rudolph Koczman of the Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural school Tuesday night.

Some of the problems discussed were community solidarity, transportation and types of schools wanted by the districts that might be involved in future annexation programs.

It was an exploratory meeting and no definite action was taken.

CHIEF COMMENTS ON CITY PARKING

Two important aspects of city parking were discussed this week by George Kilbourn, chief of police.

The chief again warned motorists who insist on double parking on the boulevard. He pointed out that this double parking is against a state law.

He also said parking meters have been removed from the west side of north Evans street from Chicago to the alley by the secretary of state's office. This area will be "No Parking" both day and night.

The right lane, coming south, will be a right turn lane only and the middle lane will be used for left turns and for through traffic.

KARLICH-STUDNICKA

Grace Lutheran Church of Tecumseh was the scene of the double ring ceremony Saturday which united in marriage Kathryn Studnicka of Milan and John Karlick of St. Johns. The Rev. A. Jeschke, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Studnicka of Milan and Mr. Karlick is the son of Mrs. Anna Karlick of St. Johns.

Study Shows Farms Need Big Kitchens

Farm women may live in the wide open spaces, but they need bigger and more efficient space for their kitchen and sewing areas.

Because farm girls seem to spend more time helping their moms in the kitchen and because farm families generally spend more time in the kitchen than any other room in the house, farm kitchens must be able to accommodate them. This was pointed out in a recently completed five-year study done by Mrs. Alice Thorpe, home management researcher at Michigan State University.

The study was designed to show how both farm and town families used the various rooms in their homes. "Knowing this," Mrs. Thorpe pointed out, "we will be better able to advise planning and remodeling of both rural and urban homes."

Mrs. Thorpe based her information on lengthy interviews with 50 farm families and 50 town families from central Michigan counties. Each family kept time records which told what was done in every room in the house throughout the day and evening and just what members of the family were in the rooms.

Although farm girls spend more time working with their mothers than town girls, Mrs. Thorpe found that town men and boys were in the house more than farm men and boys.

On Saturday farm men are in the house 4 3/4 hours and city men more than 6 hours; on Sunday, farm men 6 1/2 hours and town men 8 hours; and on weekdays, farm men 4 hours and town men 4 3/4 hours.

Rural and urban homemakers seemed to agree that they wanted a downstairs bedroom to accommodate sick children, parents and children's naps. Two-thirds of all the women interviewed wanted one-story houses. "We're sick of climbing stairs," several declared.

Cleatus McLain Services Held

He is survived by his widow, Ima and two sons, James of Tecumseh and Charlie of High Point, N. C.

The Rev. Edgar Owens, pastor of the Missionary Baptist church of Tecumseh conducted a prayer service Friday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home, after which the body was sent to Murray, Ky., for funeral services and burial Sunday.

Christian Science Services Listed

Man's responsibility to make religion practical in his activities throughout the week will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections include Paul's advice to the Hebrews, (4:14): "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession."

Also pointing up the need for emulating the master Christian is the following passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (37:22-25): "It is possible, — yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man, and woman, — to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness."

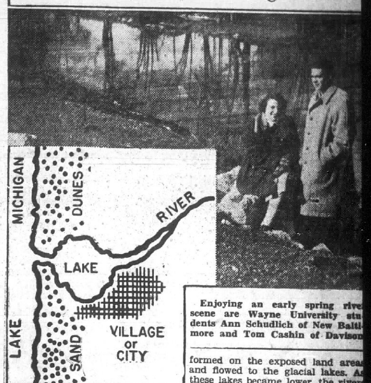
Wayne U. Geography Professor Reveals Interesting Facts About Michigan Rivers



Enjoying an early spring rive scene are Wayne University students Ann Schudlich of New Baltimore and Tom Cashin of Davison

Michigan can boast over 36,350 miles of fast-running rivers and streams. The importance of these waterways in the early development of the State is reviewed by Dr. Bert Hudgins, chairman of the geography department at Wayne University, in his study, Michigan — Geographic Backgrounds in the Development of the Commonwealth.

With the opening of the Erie Canal in 1825, many home seekers found their way by water route from the East to Michigan where they penetrated the interior of the Lower Peninsula by way of the Raisin, Huron, and Clinton rivers.

The smaller streams of the State also were important factors in local history. It was by way of these water courses that trappers and traders pushed inland. Besides directing the travel of the settler, these streams provided the power for his mills, floated his logs in the lumbering era, drained his land, provided abundant fishing and recreation areas, and supplied his other water needs.

Michigan's rivers are unique in that they are extended rivers at their exits. Extended rivers, Dr. Hudgins explains, are those which formed on the exposed land area and flowed to the glacial lakes. A these lakes became lower, the river were extended to flow at the lowe lake outlet. The river courses wer established in many cases by flo from melting ice ends in the glacia recession period.

The rivers that exit into Lak Michigan nearly all have outlet partially dammed by sand dune hence, the rivers broaden to mak a lake before exit into the large body of water. Examples are Kalamazoo Lake, Black Lake, Muskeg Lake, White Lake, and Maniste Lake. Important urban centers o today such as Grand Haven, Muskegon, Ludington, and Maniste grew from small villages on such outlets. (See above diagram.)

Longest of Michigan's rivers i the 225-mile Grand River. Th Menominee River is approximatel 200 miles, the Escanaba is 90, and the Manistique, 60 miles long.

Today, as in the past, Michigan' interior waters provide a vast sourc of water supply, recreation, and water power.

". . . considering the advance i technical skills, it might be contended that man is more closel related to the inland waterways i the modern day than ever before. . ." Dr. Hudgins states

Post Offices Bought With "Rent" Payments

Contracts for leasing or long-term purchase of new buildings to be used by the Post Office Department have been signed at a rate of over one and one-half per working day during the past 18 months, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield reported today.

Through the department's commercial leasing program and its lease-purchase method for obtaining new modern buildings, the Post Office Department has either occupied or will occupy, upon completion, approximately 600 new units at an estimated construction cost of about $49 million dollars.

This new construction is not part of a Federal Public Works Building Program. As a matter of fact, no appropriations for federal construction of public buildings for postal use have been made since 1938.

The commercial leasing program permits the department to make long-term non-cancellable leases. By this means new modern postal facilities erected to the department's specifications are leased from private enterprises, using funds provided by private investors. This program has created about $35 million dollars in new construction during the last 18 months.

The lease-purchase program, passed by the 83rd Congress, is actually a "buy-out-of-rent" method for obtaining new modern postal facilities. Under this program, the department is buying modern vitally-needed facilities substantially like the average prudent American buys his home, in periodic payments like rent. This program is designed to use the financing and construction capacity of American business to provide modern buildings for post office use.

While the lease-purchase program is relatively new, the 27 projects presently approced will create an estimated $14 million dollars of new construction.

Frost-Schmid Vows Spoken at Presbyterian Church

A wedding with appointments beautifully appropriate to the fall season took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the Tecumseh Presbyterian church when Phyllis Irene Frost became the bride of Clayton E. Schmid of Petersburg.

Miss Frost is the daughter of Mrs. Maggie Frost of Rogers highway, Tecumseh while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmid. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, the Rev. George Walworth.

Traditional palms and lighted candelabra massed the altar with two tall baskets of white chrysanthemums as Carole Milchey sang "Because," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride was given in marriage by her brother Wendell Frost.

The bridal pair was attended by Mrs. Dean Hamilton as matron of honor and Bob Schmid, brother of the groom as best man, while the bridesmaids were Mrs. Derael Jenkins and Mrs. Ken Jones and Dean Hamilton and Hugh Soules of Monroe were the ushers.

The bride was radiant in her lovely gown of corded Chantilly lace over satin and the full skirt swept into a chapel train. The slender, fitted bodice was made with long sleeves and a rounded yoke of tulle, outlined as was the mandarin collar by embroidered sequins and pearls. The double finger-tip length veil was held by a lace crown trimmed in pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis backed by white velvet leaves.

Mrs. Hamilton's gown was of gold velveteen and tulle with a draped, strapless bodice worn with a fichu of the velveteen and matching mitts and half-hat. Her flowers were cream Fuji mums with bronze poms, made in a cascade with gold leaves. The bridesmaids' gowns were of the same design but in winter green and they carried similiar bouquets of yellow Fuji mums and cream pompons also backed by gold leaves.

The flower girls, Connie and Karen Frost wore floor length dresses of ruffled white net with net hats accented with gold ribbons and carried tiny colonial bouquets of shaded pompons in gold lace holders with gold ribbons.

Mrs. Frost wore a charcoal gray dress with accents of pink while Mrs. Schmid was in avacado green with pink accessories and both had corsages of pink rosettes.

Immediately after the ceremony the 300 guests were entertained at a reception at the Tecumseh Country Club where the decorations were in autumn colors. The mantle of the reception room was banked with cream and yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The bride's table had a compote arrangement of yellow Fuji mums and a bridal wreath of cream and yellow pompons encircled the wedding cake.

The guests were registered by Mrs. Helen Aebersold, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Fred Dickinson and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring, Mrs. Tom Kampmuller presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Lois Brown and Miss JoAnn Burke of Dundee at the coffee urns.

The bride, who is a graduate of Britton high school has been employed in the I.B.M. department of the Tecumseh Products Co. The groom graduated from Petersburg high school and until his recent transfer to the Danville plant had been employed here in the purchasing department of the Tecumseh Products Co. They left by air for ten days at Miami Beach, Florida and on their return will make their home at Danville.

Stitch Size Varies with New Fabrics

A stitch in time can save nine. But the length of that stitch is important and should be adjusted to the thickness and texture of the fabric.

Florence Rann, extension clothing specialist, points out that her experience in sewing on synthetic materials has led her to set her machine for shorter stitching and loosened tension. This makes for stronger seams and greater beauty to the stitching line, she says.

The Michigan State University specialist explains that this idea is in contrast to sewing on man-made fabrics when they first came on the market. Then women were advised to lengthen the machine stitch for best results and to help avoid puckering of the seam line. But, contends Miss Rann, the smaller stitches seem to blend into the fabric.

On lightweight fabrics, sheers or tricot knits, she likes to use 16 to 18 stitches to the inch. On medium weight fabrics, such as challis jersey and crepe, 12 to 15 stitches per inch is about right. And deep pile fabrics like fleeces and upholstery-types, require 10-12 stitches per inch.

On stretchy fabrics like knitted goods and crepes, Miss Rann suggests a light tension and short stitches. This will allow seams to stretch with the material and not break. The same adjustment can be used for bias or semi-bias seam lines which must stretch when worn, such as sleeve and blouse underarm seams and long bias skirt seams.

"Actually," Miss Rann adds, "short stitches put more thread length into the seams than long stitches."

THE MIDDLE GUARD

by LES BINGAMAN

CLAD IN A freshly-cleaned uniform, helmet in perspiring hands, the muscular young player sat in front of his locker and gulped nervously as he waited for the signal to call the team onto the playing field.

He glanced at other players, also in varying attitudes of waiting, some of them first-year men like himself and nervous but most veterans of other campaigns and visibly composed over the contest that was only a few minutes away.

No, this wasn't a high school youngster awaiting his first game or a collegian about to make his big debut but a professional football player, with eight solid years of gridiron experience behind him, as jittery as a schoolboy ready to play before mom and dad for the first time.

The cause of the young player's nervousness was the realization that once again he was a freshman, this time on the most competitive level of football, the intensely rugged professional level.

Select Society

Where thousands of players annually land berths on college teams, and an even greater number plays on high school squads, the opportunity is diminished tremendously in pro football.

Less than 400 players are actively engaged in the National Football League, 33 players on each of 12 teams, or a total of 396 to be exact. And most of these 396 are veteran performers, the most talented, durable and clever in the land. Only half a dozen to a dozen rookies make the grade on any team in any given season.

Thus, to join this select society, a player has to be very, very good — exceptional, in fact — and the nervous young player awaiting his first pro game is well aware of the fact.

No matter that he has survived the initial cuts of the training season. He can be cast adrift any time his performance suffers, for this play is for cash as well as for keeps. There are any number of talented young men eager to fill his shoes.

Using Will Power

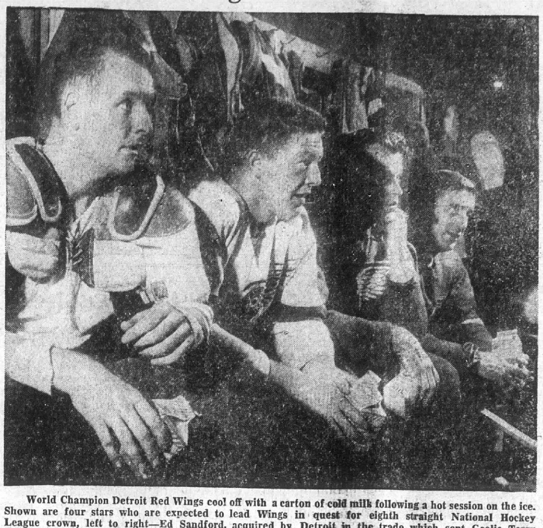
I well remember how upset I was during my first year as middle guard with the Lions in 1948. I was fearful that I was playing poorly and that every game would be my last. It took me a long time to get over that feeling.

With the competition so keen and the threat of unemployment always a factor, why do most of the topnotch collegians graduate into pro football instead of immediately embarking on a business or professional career?

There are several answers. One is the pay, which for an established star of the first rank can run up to $20,000 for six months' work. Others are the glamour, the opportunity to make contacts for business positions later and the strong desire to prove worth as one of the best 400 players in the country.

In addition, there is love for the game, which I still have, well over 300 pounds of it. It takes a lot of will power for me not to get on the field with the Lions again, but I'm going to limit my football to assisting in broadcasting the games and writing this weekly column on pro ball and the Lions. I'll have a lot to tell in the ensuing weeks.

Red Wing Stars Cool Off



World Champion Detroit Red Wings cool off with a carton of cold milk following a hot session on the ice. Shown are four stars who are expected to lead Wings in quest for eighth straight National Hockey League crown, left to right—Ed Sandford, acquired by Detroit in the trade which sent Goalie Terry Sawchuck to Boston; Marcel Pronovost, star defenseman, and the Wings' scoring aces, Gordie Howe and Capt. Ted Lindsay.

Britton, Boysville Win League Games

Tories Win 18 to 13

Britton-Macon Tories took advantage of a blocked punt to ring up an 18-13 Little Six football league win over Sand Creek Friday.

Down 13-12 in the final quarter, the Tories scored their clincher when Ron Croll, Tory guard, blocked the punt and John Korican picked the ball up and raced 10 yards for the score.

Sand Creek scored in the first quarter when Gary Sears dashed 33 yards.

Britton scored twice in the second quarter. A 25-yard pass from Merl Sanch to Harold Rhora accounted for the first td and the second one resulted when Dick VanValkenburg gathered in a 33-yard aerial from Larry Patterson.

Sears traveled 86 yards with a kickoff to put the Aggies in the lead in the third quarter.

Knights Get 18 to 7 Win

Boysville's Fighting Knights beat Pinckney in a League of the Lakes game Friday night, 18-7.

Pinckney was leading 7-0 at the end of the first half but a fumble early in the third period led to a Boysville score.

Dick Temerowski picked up the fumble and ran 25 yards for a Boysville score. His brother Bob's kick for the extra point was wide.

In the last querter John Murray intercepted a Pickney pass and ran 65 yards for a td. Again the extra point try failed.

Later in the period Boysville blocked a Pinckney punt and Tourangeau plowed over for the score from the 14.

The extra point attempt was wide again.

Higgs scored Pinckney's lone touchdown in the first quarter.

Papooses Beat Blissfield, 12-0

Tecumseh Jayvees beat the Blissfield junior 11, 12-0 Thursday.

The Papooses scored half way through the second quarter to climax a 60-yard drive. A 20-yard pass from Yoakum to Williams accounted for the score. The try for extra point failed.

Near the end of the third period Tony Scutt blocked a Sugar Boy punt. Two passes from Elliott to Williams and O'Neill advanced the ball to the two-yard stripe where Yoakum dashed inot the end zone for the score. The pass for the extra point failed.

Blissfield never was able to penetrate beyond the 20.

Tecumseh's best defensive players were Dave Holden, tackle; Tony Scutt, linebacker; Gary Williams, end; Mike Walters, end.

Tonight (Thursday) the Jayvees play Boysville here.

A Matter of Parental Supervision

The junior high party for junior high students held Friday night by the high school parent-teachers' association seemed to prove that the younger students enjoy their own parties far more than they enjoy mixed parties where senior high students also are present. Friday night the younger folks were the big frogs in the big puddle.

And this test may further prove that the parent-teachers' association is on the right track in sponsoring junior high parties for junior high students.

A poll of junior high parents by principal Hart failed to bring out a clear-cut choice of whether parents wanted separate parties. And a vote taken in the seventh and eighth grades failed to bring out a clear-cut decision on the question. The seventh graders, however, definitely decided that they would like separate parties.

At the risk of being called an old fogey we make these comments over this junior-senior high party question that has been brewing for some time now:

After a varsity football or basketball game it is time for a junior high student to be home. A student of 12 or 13 should not be allowed to stay out as long as senior high parties last. It would be far better to have junior high parties after junior high athletic contests. Their own game could precede their own dances and parties. It would take a little scheduling but it could be worked out, even though the games were intramural and not interscholastic.

Regardless of whether the dances continue as in the past or whether the parent-teachers' association wins out in continuing separate dances for junior high students, it becomes a matter of individual parental supervision.

If the mixed dances continue, parents should set deadlines for their children to be in and then parents should be home to see that these deadlines are met. It is not up to the board of education, teachers, chaperones or any other group to baby sit on these young students after they leave school parties.

And if parents do not want their children attending the mixed parties parents should be rugged enough to stand up and firmly say "no" without swallowing the line: "Well, so and so is going." And if some sophisticated parents do not want their junior high children attending the junior high parties they can keep them from it.

So actually the whole squabble boils down to parental supervision and this is as it should be.

Star of Radio, Television, Motion Pictures, Stage

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
From whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord,
Which made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved;
He that keepeth thee will not slumber,
Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is thy keeper;
The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil;
He shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in
From this time forth, and even for evermore. (121st Psalm)

The average cost of a prescription is just about the charge for a good meal. This is a tribute to the pharmaceutical industry that spends millions on research yet keeps ultimate costs so low.

Some medicines appear to be expensive. Judging by appearances a dozen capsules may not seem to be worth as much as six dollars. Your Physician knows their higher cost and true value. When he prescribes them for you he knows that your eventual cost will be much lower because they will do you more good in less time. Trust his judgment. We will cooperate by pricing them fairly.

F.F.A. Mothers' Club Meets

The F.F.A. Mothers' club of the Tecumseh Chapter met Monday evening at the school for the first meeting of the year. The meeting was conducted by the president Mrs. Herbert Long. The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Sarah Lowery.

A welcome was extended to the new members, and a discussion was held on how mothers with sons in F.F.A. could best help them. It was decided money earned by the mothers be applied on the new tractor purchased by the boys last year.

With the help of Mr. Burns, the boys' advisor, arrangements were made for the annual banquet, to be held Nov. 7, at the Tecumseh Grange. The boys will furnish the chicken raised in their summer broiler project.

Chairmen and co-chairmen for the banquet are as follows; general chairmen, Mrs. Lawrence Reichenbaugh, Mrs. Sylven Echelbarger; kitchen, Mrs. Percy Cadmus, Mrs. Richard Dewey, Mrs. Lester Munger; dining room, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mrs. Robert Wright; clean up, Mrs. Archie Scheffler and volunteers.

It was decided to have another bake sale in the near future.

Month of Moons

Oct. will be a month of moons, two of them full—one harvest, one hunter's says Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh of the University of Michigan astronomy department. And the full moon of Oct. 1 will be the year's harvest moon, which is defined as the full moon occurring nearest the time of the autumnal equinox in mid Sept.

The second full moon, seasonably called a hunter's moon, might this year be called a Hallowe'en moon—it occurs on Oct. 31. Due to the moon's path being nearly parallel to the horizon at these times, the moon will appear sooner than at any other time during the year, thus supplying harvest and hunting evenings with full moonlight for several nights in a row.

And while farmers are making hay while the moon shines, city folks who catch the 8 o'clock bus will be getting up in the dark. The length of the days will decrease noticeably in Oct., says Profesor Losh, and by the end there'll only be about 10 hours of daylight.

This leaves plenty of time for observing planets, constellations and meteor showers during the 14 evening hours. There are two of the showers scheduled, one around Oct. 9 and the other around Oct. 22.

Among the constellations, Auriga, the Charioteer, will be prominent as a pentagon-shaped figure with Capella, third brightest star visible from northern latitudes, at one of its corners. Capella rises in the northeast at sunset and was used by early Arabs for a guide star.

Capella is much like our sun in temperature and color but if it were at a similar distance from us it would be more than 100 times as bright as our sun, says Professor Losh.

Another star group in the autumn sky will be the Pleiades, coming up in the east about an hour after Capella. Six of these stars are quite clearly visible to the unaided eye and there are more if you want to test your eyesight—if you can see them without binoculars, throw away your glasses.

And pick up your umbrella in any case because both the Pleiades and Capella have been associated with the rainy season from time immemorial, Professor Losh concludes.

More Children Than Does Disease

Accidents in Michigan claim their heaviest toll in the prime of life, and rank as the number one cause of death among children and young people, the Michigan Department of Health reported today.

Fatal accidents, the health department disclosed, happen most often among persons 15 to 44 years of age. Grimly, the record also shows that accidents last year topped the killer list in ages one through 34.

The department reported: Accidents took 3,948 Michigan lives last year, ranking as the fourth cause of death among all ages. Nearly half of the total — 1,916 deaths — were caused by motor vehicle accidents. Other causes include poisoning, fires, falls, drownings and gunshot wounds.

The accident death rate in 1954 was 56.2 per 100,000 population — surpassed only by heart disease, cancer and apoplexy.

Seventeen percent of the deaths from accidents were among persons 14 years of age and under, 35.5 percent in 15 to 44-year olds, 20.2 percent in the age group 45 to 64, and 27.3 percent among persons 65 years of age and older.

In the age group hit hardest — persons 15 to 44 years old — two out of every three fatal accidents were in the "motor vehicle" classification — deaths on the highway.

Although heart disease, cancer and apoplexy lead the death list in Michigan, the health department pointed out that these causes of death, unlike accidents, are more concentrated among persons over 45 years of age.

The Middle West's first hydroelectric plant was built in Grand Rapids in 1881.

Some 182 high schools will participate in the world's largest massed band day at the University of Michigan Oct. 15 during the Michigan - Northwestern football game.

The estimated 11,500 band members taking part, including those of the sparkling Michigan Marching Band, will entirely fill Michigan stadium and will stretch up into the end zone seats during the halftime show.

This seventh annual event will be more than six times larger than the original gathering held in 1949. Then there were only 29 bands and 1,850 participants.

Last year 110 bands were represented, a record number.

Coming the longest distance will be the 70-member Calumet High School band and its director, Anton Peshek.

Don Johnson, director of the Tecumseh high school band, reports he will have 48 musicians in the show.

Grade School News

FIRST GRADE—CENTRAL

We have thirty-seven children in our first grade this year. Many of us moved from Mrs. VanValkenburg's first grade. We are all acquainted now and really beginning to work hard.

We started reading out of "Our Big Book" this week. We have three reading groups. Some of us know all of our color names.

Sue Illeck brought a Monarch butterfly which she caught. We know it is a butterfly, because we could see the little knobs at the ends of its antennas. Moths do not have these knobs.

We are having a regular music class this year. We certainly look forward to seeing Mrs. Smith on Friday.

We are enjoying a story about "Little Brown Koko." He is a little first grade boy, too.

Mrs. Neitling, Teacher

WEST BRANCH

Bonfires and pumpkins
Leaves sailing down—
October is red
And golden and brown.

Greetings from the First Grade at West Branch. There are 33 of us. Two of our group are new in Tecumseh this year. Billy Cruse comes from Garden City, and Linda Alanez comes from Centennial School in Raisin Township.

We have different furniture in our room this year. We like the chairs and tables very much. The new floresecent lights and toilets add a great deal to our comfort.

We are eager to learn. Most of the boys and girls can do average or better with the manuscript almost immediately. Some can hardly wait to learn to read and really write. It doesn't take us long to do our number work.

Soon we'll be getting our room ready for Hallow'en.

During next month we'll celebrate American Education Week. We hope to see many of you then.

Miss Steinhoff,
First Grade Teacher

PATTERSON

Things have really been happening at Patterson. The kindergarten are building a grocery store and are having a good time talking about the different foods that make them grow big and strong.

The third grade have been studying the habits of spiders. There were four spiders brought to school in jars so we could watch them. We also have a nest of spider eggs.

The fourth grade enjoyed a birthday party when Susan Whitney brought ice cream and cup cakes for each of us. Joey Hanna has been absent all of this week. We hope he will be with us soon.

Barry Hall and Connie Schneider brought fish for the fifth grade aquarium. Eugene White has been transferred from Central to Patterson.

We are happy to have James Graham in our sixth grade.

The fifth grade have a very nice Pioneer showcase and the second grade showcase tells us about the maple tree they are watching this year.

Cotton plants are starting to grow in the fifth grade. They have fine plants. Also the fifth grade can play Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star and Jolly Old St. Nicholas on their tonettes.

The plants in the foyer have all been re-potted. They look very nice.

We were very happy to see so many people at the P.T.A. meeting. We hope to see many more at our November meeting.

BROWNVILLE

The big day for starting school finally arrived for 63 of us! We are really enjoying ourselves. There are so many new things to do. We are very proud of our room and toys, and happy to be in kindergarten.

During our conversation time we have had many interesting things brought in to show. There have been all kinds of dolls, farm toys, turtles, a garter snake, and many other interesting things.

We have learned many rhymes and songs. We have lots of fun playing new games and rhythms. We also enjoy listening to records and stories.

Those having September birthdays are Yolanda Sanchez, Diana Clark, Lucille Osborne, Deborah Beaubien, Brad Brees, Louann Geringer, and Trudy Curtis.

Mothers who have visited us are Mrs. Brees, Mrs. Geringer, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Rinehart, Mrs. Gillies, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Prettyman, Mrs. Horton, and Mrs. Andrews.

Miss Bugbee,
Teacher

FIRST GRADE CENTRAL

At the present time, we have thirty-three hard working, happy, boys and girls in our room. We have finished our books, "Before We Read." We have learned to recognize the names of the characters in our reading books. We are real excited to find out that we actually can read from "Our Big Book."

We were very happy that so many parents came to P.T.A. so that we had a chance to become acquainted.

Mrs. VanValkenburg

Letters to Editor

To the Editor:

Well now Saturday forenoon it happened. A 10 or 11-year-old boy got shot with a .22 through the leg and he is a patient at the hospital.

I went to the police all summer and told them about the guns and how someone would surely be hurt and soon if something wasn't done about it.

Our yard early in the spring was just full of robins and their young and in no time there were none at all.

There are a lot of laws but how much do the people in our neighborhood follow them? The parents of these children love money better than their children and most of the time their mothers and fathers both work and just let the children run wild all over, not only in their own yards.

We feel very sorry for the boy.

When they talk about delinquent children I think it is the parents who are delinquent for upholding their children for being sassy in our neighborhood.

It's too late for the boy now.

—Mrs. Bert Creger

Tecumseh, Mich.

To the Editor:

Last week the HERALD published a letter written by John Hamilton.

I do not buy the Jackson paper. I do know the people of this little burg voted to have machines taken out of the wells and fluoride removed. Like a thief in the night the machines were put back in the wells and John Hamilton said they would be taken out when they got d--ready.

Went to council asking about water meter charge. Councilmen stated meter frozen. It is over furnace. Been in 26 years. Chickens have a way of coming home to roost sometimes and the roost is not desirable.

We have carried water for drinking and cooking. Caught water when it rained for bathing, not daring to use city water for it makes us sick. Many others are doing same. Others are driving wells putting in old pumps because they cannot afford anything else.

Regarding Fluoride the tag was taken off and date can be sworn.

I voted for you. Trust you, not much. You will have to prove in a different way that you deserve it. The good Lord knows when you do wrong and there is always a pay day coming.

Davy 'Gunned' Politicians

If Mrs. Crockett's son Davy was never particularly subtle when he notched his sights on a marauding Indian or when he fought to the end in defense of the Alamo—neither was he when he faced opponents on the floor of the House of Representatives.

A copy of the speech by dauntless Davy before the House in March, 1830, found in the Transportation Library of the University of Michigan, reveals that when some members were trying to ram through a bill proposing the construction of a national road from Buffalo to Washington to New Orleans, Davy went after them with scalping knife, tomahawk, and old Betsy loaded to the muzzle.

Some "gentlemen," he said, had underestimated the length of the road, overlooked swampy ground in figuring construction costs, planned the road to run parallel to the Mississippi River (itself a natural highway) for five or six hundred miles, and had forgotten to mention that parts of the road would be impassable in the winter — a time when it was needed most for defense of the nation.

He told the Committee of the Whole of the House there was only one reason to justify himself for voting for the bill as proposed:

"I discover a determination to squander the public funds in some way; and, therefore, I should strive to 'come in for snacks.'"

He added, however, that because of the high duties which would come with the expenditure of the funds, "I would not be surprised if we should finally be obliged to resort to a system of direct taxation. This will be a tough morsel for the people in any part of the country to swallow."

According to John C. Kohl, professor of civil engineering and director of the Transportation Institute at the U-M, Davy need not have worried about the road. A few years later saw the coming of the railroads and the abandonment of the project. Appropriations for the road were stopped.

Those direct taxes of which Davy spoke did not suffer the same fate.

Getting Over Illness Can Be Fun, Useful

Handiwork and crafts are good answers to the problem of how to occupy the time of someone who is experiencing a long convalescence.

Most invalids, according to Jean McHarg of the Michigan State University nursing education staff, like to make things for other people or for the home.

Family mending can be done and hand-knit articles made for gifts. Weaving has also become popular recently, Miss McHarg, says. Invalids can use a simple, homemade loom or a more elaborate set-up. Some of these pastimes can develop into marvelous hobbies after convalescence, Miss McHarg declares.

She suggests that other crafts that patients enjoy are weaving and braiding jewelry and belts of gimp; soap carving; and block printing with wood, linoleum or art gum blocks. Do-it-yourself kits are other possibilities.

Children can use their imaginations, points out Miss McHarg, using crayons and paper bags to create paper-bag puppets and masks.

Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

RUSHING THE SEASON was a small fry seen bouncing a basketball on the boulevard at 3:59 p.m. Tuesday.

AND NOW FOR A LESSON in arithmetic. Her teacher was trying to make the little Tecumseh girl understand subtraction and she said: "You have 10 fingers, now supposing there were three missing. What would you have then?"

"No music lessons," the little girl promptly replied.

SMALL DWARF IRIS, as beautiful little buggers as their name, are blossoming in the yards of Mrs. Neil Pearson, Mrs. Ella Brown and in ours. Hybridized by the Frenchman Andre in 1926, the small but gorgeous iris is named Lt. de Chavagnac. I thought it may have been named as a memorial to some French soldier killed in World War I but Mrs. Pearson does not know why it was named for a lieutenant. The tiny Frenchman (we actually have three) was given to us by Mrs. Brown. It is, like all the flowers and plants that have been gifts cherished by all members of the family and enjoyed by everybody who sees it. There is no finer gift than a living, growing flower, plant or tree.

IF YOU'RE TRAVELING through northern Ohio and want to save time, take the new turnpike. It's a dandy, even though it does cost slightly more than a penny a mile to ride on. But if you want the quaint scenery of the tiny towns and the excitement of the bigger cities, don't take the pike. You won't see any towns or cities.

MRS. WILLIAM OSBURN and her second grade son Billy saw 14 pheasants on Pocklington road one day last week. Mrs. Osburn comments on the wiseness of the birds in escaping the hunters' guns: "The 14 . . . pheasants made a beautiful sight and I remarked . . . that maybe the pheasants were having school, too, but more likely they were having a pre-hunting season meeting to plan their defense for this season. Each year I am more convinced of their ability to sense danger for you will see many of them around until the first day of hunting season and then they seem to disappear until the season is over and then you will see them out again enjoying their freedom.

"Last year one day I noticed several hunters in the fields behind our home and I hadn't heard a pheasant all that day and thought the hunters must have had very good luck. But that evening just after sundown I heard a pheasant call as if he were announcing the 'all clear.' I like to see hunters enjoy their sport but I enjoy even more seeing the pheasants putting one over on them."

DID YOU NOTICE THE NEWSY page one last week? Frankly, it really wasn't planned that way. Pictures for the page were sent to the engravers at Fostoria, Mich. That was o.k. We had the first name right but we sent them to the wrong state. They should have gone to Fostoria, Ohio. We were about ready to go to press when the package was returned from Fostoria, Mich., marked "No such Name."

THIS WEEK MARKS the twenty-first anniversary of the Tecumseh Products Company in Tecumseh. Congratulations on your coming of age and many more happy birthday anniversaries!

TECUMSEH HIGH SCHOOL did not read the form charts. The Indians were supposed to lose to Bedford by a number of touchdowns. But they rose up and tomahawked the Mules 9-0. Nice going, team.

WE COMMEND TO YOUR attention "Mama Goes on Safari." The series by Mrs. Peg Touborg begins this week in the HERALD. We know you will thoroughly enjoy the trip to Africa as seen in Mrs. Touborg's letters home to members of her family. We are grateful that she kindly consented to share these experiences with our readers.

DIDN'T KNOW THAT English walnuts would grow in Michigan. But they do. W. G. Waldron has a nice stand of the trees which produced some fine nuts.

Tricks or Treats Aid the Needy

Children of local protestant churches and St. Elizabeth's will do their tricks or treats for needy children of the United Nations.

Last year 65 children collected a fund of $196.40.

The collection of money this year will be held Saturday, Oct. 29.

Mrs. John Saling, chairman of the program, gave this additional information:

"Trick or treat for the United Nations' International Children's Emergency Fund is the unique American program to extend the benefits of Hallowe'en to all the world's children. Carrying out the traditional Hallowe'en activities with their children, thousands of community groups across the nation give the event a new significance.

"Spooks and goblins still are about but they have learned about U.N.I.C.E.F. and collect coins to assist its work. Traditional Hallowe'en parties are still in vogue but they have a new constructive meaning.

"Friendship and help for the less fortunate neighbors channel the destructive energies of youngsters into constructive fun. Good will embassadors have no time to soap windows.

"Trick or treat provides a non-controversal, non-political project on which all community groups can work together."

Board Plans Annexation of Tuition Districts

The board of education of Tecumseh Public Schools District No. 11 has authorized Supt. James McDowell to notify all school districts now sending tuition pupils to Tecumseh that no freshman tuition students may be enrolled in the fall of 1956.

Members of the board also felt that "in the interests of improved educational facilities for their own students as well as for Tecumseh students, districts served by the Tecumseh service area be invited to consider annexation immediately."

Supt. McDowell will invite the districts to annex that long have been considered geographically a part of the Tecumseh district and who have been sending secondary pupils to Tecumseh high school.

The board's decision came after more than a year of consideration and planning.

The decision was based partly on the fact that the board long has realized that Tecumseh taxpayers have borne the largest share of the per capita cost of educating tuition pupils.

But no action was taken until the recent change in the method of levying taxes for school purposes—the use of state equalized valuations—and the changing of Tecumseh district from a graded to a fourth class district.

The decision was made after board members considered these facts:

Last year schools cost Tecumseh city taxpayers $133.14 per child whereas schools cost the average district sending tuition pupils to Tecumseh high school only $58.57 per child.

Local costs are more than two and one quarter times those of the average country school district sending children to Tecumseh.

If capital outlay and debt retirement costs are added to the per capita cost which the state allows for tuition purposes, Tecumseh public schools lost $84.43 on each of 160 tuition children last year.

Tecumseh high school is over crowded and increased numbers of tuition pupils attend each year. It is only fair that these tuition districts annex and begin to help pay their fair share of the educational costs for their children.

It is impossible to maintain and improve the high school without these tuition pupils at present since the loss of 160 pupils would make classes in such subjects as trigonometry, refrigeration and languages too small to operate efficiently.

Therefore, since approximately $7,000,000 in state equalized valuation will be added to Tecumseh if these districts are annexed and since their children already attend our high school and although area schools to serve their elementary pupils would need to be built soon, Tecumseh taxpayers would receive assistance in paying their present bonded indebtedness as well as future needs.

The board issued this preliminary announcement. Plans for the possible annexation of the tuition districts are incomplete at present. Further plans are expected to be announced by the board in the immediate future.

Dr. James Sisson Injured by Hit-Run Driver

Dr. James H. Sisson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sisson of Tecumseh, is improving from severe injuries suffered about 12:30 a.m. Monday when he was hit by a hit-and-run driver near Flint. His condition was listed as "critical" but it is now "fair."

Dr. Sisson's car was struck by another car on Miller road just outside Flint. He got out of his car to check the damages with the other driver and was looking at something lying in the road when another car sideswiped his car and struck him. The car did not stop. The impact knocked Dr. Sisson's shoes off.

A patient at Hurley hospital, Flint, Dr. Sisson was operated on for an internal injury Tuesday. His left hip also is broken in two places and he has a broken left ankle and bruises. Traction has been placed on his leg.

His sister Katherine said Wednesday that his family hopes to be able to move Dr. Sisson to University hospital as soon as is possible. She said he would be "laid up" at least two months.

He is a resident physician at the Veterans hospital in Ann Arbor.

Dr. Sisson was returning from Saginaw to Ann Arbor at the time of the accident.

Approve Fence for Disposal Plant

Councilmen Monday night authorized the city manager to buy fence to go around the sewage disposal plant. The lowest bid for the fence—$4674—was from the Cyclone Fence Co.

City manager Nelson explained that the city has been "lucky" that no children have been hurt or killed playing around the plant. He said the fence would offer protection for the children because they no longer will be able to get near the large tanks and other equipment.

MANAGER COMMENTS ON SCHOOL TRACK

In his report to the council Monday night Ed Nelson, city manager, said: "We would like to complete the cinder track for the school this month. The school would like track meets in the spring.

"I believe there is enough money in the track fund to complete this work for them."

Contributions Trickle

Contributions for the 1955 community fund drive are coming in very slowly, reports Jack Osburn, drive chairman.

"Too many folks are waiting for the other fellow to give," he said.

He also pointed out that the budget of $11,234 actually is about $500 higher than it was last year. He said that an additional fund sought in the drive for the track at the recreation field brought the overall goal to more than $16,000 last year. This year, however, there is no track fund but the goal of the fund is higher.

At the kickoff breakfast held in the American Legion home last Thursday he told volunteer women workers and Jaycees who are conducting the drive: "Your job is a selling job, not a begging job."

Before the breakfast served by co-chairmen Mrs. Thomas Boyd and Mrs. Richard Roe and their co-workers Mrs. Vern Manwaring, Mrs. Robert Lowe, Mrs. Otto Baaske and Mrs. Thomas King of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Rev. Horace James pronounced the invocation.

George Green Jr., president of the community fund board, was introduced and Sharon Ann Mitzer, Diane Mitzer, and Mike, Jay and Sherry Osburn performed several skits showing how children are aided by contributions to the community fund.

Prisoner Stricken with Illness as He's Booked

Donald E. Teegarden, 43, of Tecumseh, was stricken with illness and collapsed while he was being booked at the county jail Tuesday.

He was taken to Bixby hospital for treatment and then transferred to Herrick Memorial hospital. He was discharged from the local hospital after treatment.

He was being booked for failure to appear for arraignment on the opening day of the Sept. circuit court. The court brought the charge.

He had been free on bond waiting arraignment on a forgery charge. His $500 bond was forfeited when he failed to appear.

Teegarden is charged with endorsing and cashing a $95 government income tax refund check made out to C. E. Teegarden, a former Tecumseh resident.

The prisoner was arrested by Tecumseh police on the charge last summer.

GET OVERSEAS GIFTS READY TO MAIL

Tecumseh Postmaster Jack Metcalf reminds all residents who are planning Christmas boxes for overseas mailing that such boxes must be in the mails on or before Nov. 15.

He adds that the earlier the packages are mailed, the better chance they will have in reaching their destination by Christmas. Postoffices all over the nation, he said, are urging the mailing of overseas packages between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15.

Exchange Club Blind Sale Set Wednesday

Paul Clauda, president of the Tecumseh Exchange Club, announced the completion of their new program today, that not only adds funds for their local charities but also provides help for local and state blind persons.

It is, as Mr. Clauda puts it, "The most completely charitable effort ever attempted by a service group, because it really isn't charity." Here's how it works:

The Exchange Club will sponsor and supply men for a blind products sale. The products—ironing board covers, clothes pin bags, mops, brushes, brooms, are products made by persons who are blind.

They will profit by sales that provide them with work. They've been trained to be useful, productive citizens.

"These are the people," Mr. Clauda pointed out, "from whom we are buying our products."

The second phase—the innumerable other local charities of the Exchange Club get 40 per cent of the profit from the sale of these products. Mr. Clauda has a crew of 30 ready to start out at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 26.

Mr. Clauda sincerely hopes that the local men who are devoting their faith and time to this effort will get a good response from everyone.

Vesper Service Held Sunday

Despite the rain Sunday afternoon, the sanctuary of the Presbyterian church was filled with Brownies, Girl Scouts, leaders, assistant leaders, committee-women, officers, parents, relatives and friends for their annual vesper service at 4 p.m.

Girl Scouts acted as ushers while the Brownies distributed the programs. More than 200 girls were in the procession.

After all were assembled they participated in the following non-denominational service which was planned by Mrs. John Saling and Mrs. Ronald Harris:

Processional, Mrs. Kennard Wise; invocation, Rev. D. L. MacPhearson; presentation of colors, troop No. 10 and No. 5; pledge of allegiance, scouts and audience; vocal solo, "O Beautiful Banner," Mrs. A. W. Merz and scouts; address, Mrs. Lawrence Ward; hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," assembly; retiring of colors and benediction, the Rev. Edward Escolme.

Greetings were extended by Mrs. Howard Truesdale, president of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association and during the service recognition was given to the women who have spent five years or more in the Girl Scout program, which is volunteer work.

LOTS OF SPUDS — This is part of 71,750 bushels of potatoes now being sorted and stored for potato chips at the Kuehmann potato farm north of town. Mrs. A. Alfaita and Woody Bailey are shown sorting the potatoes as they come from a large wagon on to a conveyor. Employees working on this line also throw out foreign materials such as stones and grass. The wagon holds about 145 bushels of spuds. It takes about 30 minutes to process the load.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas the United States of America was one of the nations instrumental in establishing the United Nations in an effort to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war; and

Whereas it is the consistent policy of the government of the United States to encourage and support the work of the United Nations in that effort; and

NOW, therefore, I do hereby urge the representatives of civic, educational and religious organizations, as well as all citizens to cooperate in appropriate observance of this tenth anniversary of the United Nations, in order that there may be a better public understanding of its problems and of its aims and achievements.

Rodney L. Miller, 45, of Tecumseh, pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge before Justice John Lowe of Adrian Monday.

Jr., Sr. Highs To Have Own Parties

Separate parties again will be held for junior and senior high school students in the public schools.

The following statement concerning the change in policy was issued by Supt. James McDowell:

"Separate junior and senior high parties have been given by the school with the sanction of the board of education and administration in Tecumseh for many years. The only parties to which both junior and senior high pupils have been invited recently are those sponsored by the P.T.A. and those sponsored by the Teen Club which is not a public school organization.

"Since the P.T.A. has been organized for the first time this year as building units, the secondary P.T.A. decided at its last meeting that they would no longer sponsor dances for both junior and senior high pupils combined but would invite only senior high pupils to their after game dance. They also decided to sponsor special dances for the junior high only during the year in place of allowing them to attend their after game dances.

"At the board of education meeting a week ago last Tuesday the board voted to continue to delegate control of these activities to the superintendent as in the past.

"I conferred with principal Hart and since neither of us have desired mixed junior-senior high parties, or parties for junior high pupils after either football or basketball games, we decided that since the P.T.A. no longer sponsors a mixed party after the games that no separate junior high party will be held after high school games.

"Two parties are to be held this fall after football games. Both parties are public school functions sponsored by the Girl's Athletic Association and the Student Council.

"Junior high pupils will not be admitted to these parties. It is hoped that parents of junior high pupils will see that their children come home immediately after the games as the regular curfew will apply to these children."

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

For over a year books of Africa had been piling up on papa's night stand — "African Bush Adventure", "The Cape Buffalo", Hemingway's "The Green Hills of Africa", "Horned Death", "Killers in Africa", etc.; catalogues arrived in the mail from gunsmiths; I found safari literature used as book markers. Robert Ruark's "Horn of the Hunter" was certainly calling. But it was not until I discovered papa diligently studying a little yellow book entitled "Quick Swahili", the African language in 10 easy lessons, and heard him muttering strange phonetic combinations, that I realized that his casual remarks about a hunting safari had more substance than a pipe dream. Even then I never dreamed that mama, a timid creature, gun-shy and scared to death of even a bumblebee, would be going on a hunting safari.

With just enough light clothing for our few stopovers on the way — our weight allotment of 132 pounds consisting largely of ammunition, cameras, and papa's guns — we were off by plane to Nairobi, Kenya Colony, East Africa, where Ker and Downey Safaris, Ltd. had promised to assume the responsibility for our life, liberty, and the pursuit of wild beasts.

This is not the hunter's version of the trip — just my experiences and impressions in diary form as I wrote them home to my family.

New York City
February 2, 1955
(Wednesday Morn.)

Dear Family:

Eleven o'clock, waiting patiently while daddy and George I. Boone discuss business over a cup of coffee in the drug store at the New York Athletic Club.

Our bags are weighed in — 10 pounds to go (they did weigh our overnight bags) so papa relieved his bulging overcoat pockets of all shells he had stashed away. We leave the air terminal at 1:45 p.m. by taxi to Idlewild. Our plane leaves at 3 p. m.

3:30 p.m. — where are [illegible] now? Sitting in the P.A.A. hangar where huge hoses are de-icing our wings, and I'm glad to have a chance to catch my breath. In true Touborg traveling fashion, we were the last on the plane. I struggled from the air terminal to the plane (a good blocks walk) thru the snow, the wind whipping the sleet in my face, my unbuttoned coat billowing, a heavy flight bag on each shoulder, plus the movie camera; my huge blue leather bag that I hope will be "just the thing," a slippery Good Housekeeping magazine, and a huge box holding an orchid from the Shantz's — all these clutched wildly to me.

Here we go — there's life in the plane again; its hands are clean and we're warming up down the airstrip. I'm chewing the donated gum madly. Daddy has finished sorting his important papers and has announced "I'm hungry". Don't like the smoky odor.

We'll be in Paris for 45 minutes tomorrow.

"IT'S RAINING IN PARIS"

The cute stewardess has just settled herself in an empty seat by us and fastened her life belt. The floor boards are shaking; the motors are drilling into my head. "Ten hours and 20 minutes to fly to Paris — 15,000 feet, and then 21,000. Rain in Paris" — announced over the speaker by Captain Knute Iscowl. Is this rumbling beast going to make it? Its vibration tickles my feet.

We've left the ground, but still it isn't very pleasant. Do all planes roar like this? Now everyone is lighting up and settling down and so will I.

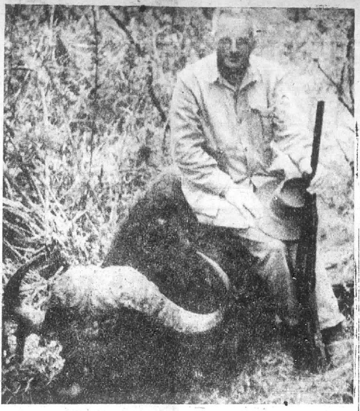
Yes, — things are more pleasant new. Smell coffee. Smells good — am starved. Nothing but a spongy looking gray mass outside my window.

Six o'clock break:

Announcement — "350 miles an hour — wind at 70 miles".

Have been in conversation with a couple across the aisle. Jens' guns had aroused their curiosity so now the girl has even taken down our name in case she reads about "us" in the papers.

This plane does not compare with BOAC. Toilet rooms are the same for men and women — no hot water! And I expected to repair my beauty from the products of Arden or Dorothy Gray! Evidently the only P.A.A. luxury liner travels just on Saturdays. Poohey on the Americans!



Papa and one of the many specimens he shot in Africa

LUGGAGE CHECKED

To continue: — We had all of our luggage checked in down in the city. The officials knew we had to check the serial numbers of the guns and camera with customs, but let us ride the bus out to the airport, arriving at just 2:45, instead of suggesting we leave earlier. We beamingly planked our "carrying luggage" down on the P.A.A. counter. I just knew that as we approached, one official had run his index finger down the column of passengers a'la the "High and the Mighty" and said to his companion, "Oh, here approaches Mr. and Mrs. Touborg. Such a delightful couple. He hunts, you know. Shame she had her hair cut."

Break: — Mr. — with the greasy locks who shakes them from his face with a characteristic toss of the head, has paced back and forth on the ship long enough and has decided to go to bed. (There's always a "pacer" whether on plane or ship). The stewardess has changed her heels to a pair of Joyce Lamplighters and has very efficiently snapped the upper down over our heads — where Mr. — is to bed down.

Now we are in the midst of our dinner, lap boards and trays, and daddy's first casualty, — tomato on his polka dot tie!

WILL WE MAKE IT?

To go back to officials — instead of welcoming smiles, they eyed the guns. "Registered? No? We're loading the plane now. Customs at the end of the building. You may make it". We took off. Of course, I brought up in the rear. The walk, or dash, seemed endless, pushing our way through the throngs to the custom office, a warm cubicle far from the hustle and bustle of travelers. Jens coughed loudly several times, but the officer continued writing, and when I finally asked in a harassed voice, "We have to make the three o'clock plane. Do they hold planes for people?" he actually said — "Don't know", and went on writing. Of course, he did take down the serial numbers, slowly admiring the guns and even commenting to a companion on the type of wood in the construction. You know we did make the plane, but I was almost in tears and my short little legs were beginning to give out. I still think the only way we did make the plane was by daddy arousing their curiosity enough to shake their dignity and make them look at the Danish gun with its special shock absorber and its exotic stock.

It's evidently bed time, twenty after seven o'clock. The stewardess is swamped; bells are ringing for attention. I don't see how her life can possibly be an exciting one — just a peek at the ports. I'm ready for bed.

Mrs. Whelan Tells D.A.R. Chapter of European Trip

An evening meeting of Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. was held at 8 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Paul Keyser with 23 members and guests present. The annual registrar's report was given by Mrs. Lyman Curtiss, who also told the group of the serious illness of Mrs. Leon Wilson of Vanderbilt, Mich., who is a member of the chapter. Mrs. Arthur Brown reported on matters of national defense.

There was a discussion of plans for the entertainment of the state conference to be held in Jackson in March 1956 when Abi Evans chapter will be one of four hostess chapters. Tentative plans were also made for a rummage sale in the near future with Mrs. Roy Whiting as chairman. The chapter voted to sponsor the Lily-of-the-Valley troop of Brownie Scouts again this year.

The group then enjoyed an impromptu account of her recent European trip given by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan. This was of special interest to members of the D.A.R. as the tour of Holland and England covered spots of historical significance to the Society of Mayflower Descendants and was sponsored by that organization.

Mrs. Virgil Deming read excerpts from letters received from her son who is in military service in France, after which refreshments were served from a lace covered table presided over by Mrs. Richard Carter. Those in charge were Mrs. Deming and Mrs. Leon Van Valkenburg.

The Nov. meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans when the state chairman of national defense will be guest speaker.

Road Improvements Cost Phone Company $100,000

Road widening and construction projects made necessary by the growing volume of motor travel in this state and speeded by additional funds available this year to the State Highway Department will cost General Telephone Company about $100,000 this year, company officials report.

Similar projects are expected by company officials to cost the utility between $80,000 and $100,000 a year through an indeterminate number of years. This, the company says, has been the average cost in recent years.

MUST MOVE LINES

When a road is rerouted or widened it means utility lines along the right-of-way must be moved — sometimes as far as 400 to 500 feet to the side — along every foot of the section. This means new right-of-way must be secured and the changeover must be made without interruption of service.

Acquisition of right-of-way is a time-consuming process and such seemingly unimportant factors as a few trees in the way can mean large expense. The company will pay $10,000 for removal of shade trees along a four-mile section of the planned four-lane road between Benton Harbor and Ludington in the Hart area. A similar figure will be paid for tree cutting along a three-mile section of road widening in Ottawa County.

CAN DISTORT VOICES

The reason for this is that the telephone electrical connections are in such delicate balance that contact with a leaf can cause phone wire "crosstalk" and distort voices. No decrease in the amount of power used by the phone lines is permissible since the slightest change in shape of the electrical waves causes distortion.

The company estimates it will spend $31,000 and 5,525 man hours in replacing 130 poles and stringing 29 circuit miles (58 statute miles of copper wire weighing 350 pounds a mile, or a total of 10,050 pounds), and 10,000 feet of cable in relocating the four miles of long distance cable and rural exchange lines in the Hart area. The Ottawa County project involving a similar number of poles, plus 240 crossarms, and about 23 miles of cable and exchange lines will cost about $11,600, plus another $10,000 for tree-cutting and 2,252 man-hours.

Other projects, such as the M-20 widening, work on the four lane project between Grand Rapids and Muskegon, and the Norton-Glade Expressway will cost more. Other relocation is necessary in the widening of US-31 from Giles to Duck Lake road, and the utility also has relocations underway at Marlette, Otisville, Deckerville, Tecumseh and Adrian.

Methodist WSCS Plans Bazaar

Mrs. Robert Bonner presided over the business meeting of the W.S.C.S. in the social rooms of the Methodist church last Wednesday and Mrs. Willis Porter was in charge of devotions and the program.

The latter consisted of a TV panel show with Mrs. Porter as coordinator and Mras. Elmer Bryan, Mrs. Walter Hizer, Mrs. Edward Leighton and Mrs. W. G. Waldron as panel members. The topic discussed was entitled "They are my people saith the Lord."

A skit was also given by Mrs. Leighton assisted by the members called "The Traveling Methodist Woman."

Further announcement was made of Quiet Day which is to be observed here Wednesday, Oct. 26 at the Methodist church beginning at 2 p.m. and of family night, Nov. 3 when a potluck supper will be served at the church. Those attending are asked to bring clothing suitable to be sent to the Navaho Indian Methodist Mission school at Farmington, N. M.

The program and decorations will be in keeping with the theme "Indian Americans" which is also the study subject of the Woman's Society for this year. The worship center for the meeting had been aranged with this thought in mind by Mrs. Hizer, who is secretary of spiritual life.

Mrs. Elmer Bryan, secretary of local church activities, reported that it was planned to open the fall bazaar, Nov. 17 at 1 p.m. and to serve the ham supper from 5 to 7. It was also reported that several members went to Clayton to attend the association meeting there last Tuesday where they heard the Otto sisters tell of their work as missionaries in Africa.

Mrs. Roma Waters and Mrs. Maynard Lucas served refreshments. The Nov. 9 meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m.

Red Cross volunteers during 1954 reported for duty at an average rate of one every eighteen minutes to assist in the collection of blood for civilian and national defense use.

LYSTER LEAGUE MEETS TUESDAY

The Lyster League will meet next Tuesday night, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. at St. Peter's Parish House.

All daughters of St. Peter's and St. Peter's Guild are invited to attend the program. Mrs. Robert Laidlaw will show movies of Japan, its customs and its peoples.

The American Red Cross through its Blood Program, started in 1948, has collected more than 14 million pints of blood for civilian and national defense use.

More Polio Vaccine Is Received

Local health departments have received enough polio vaccine to begin immunization for children age five through nine who weren't included in earlier clinics, and records will be kept on each child vaccinated.

This was the word today from the Michigan Department of Health, which has recommended that nine year olds should be first in line for immunization as this second stage of the polio vaccine program opens.

CARDS ARE SHIPPED

The health department said more than one million index cards have been shipped to local health departments to help make sure the vaccine is given to the designated age groups and, just as important, to serve as a method to evaluate the effect of the vaccine in preventing paralytic polio.

Here's how the system will work: Each dose of vaccine given out by a local health department, either in clinics or through family doctors, will be accompanied by a 3 x 5 card. The doctor giving the injection will fill in the name of the child, age, sex, address, site of injection, route, name of manufacturer, vaccine lot number, date and residence by county. The card filled out at the time of the first shot is white. The second dose card is pink and the third injection record will go on a blue card.

GIVE CLOSE CHECK

The files will give health departments an opportunity for a close scrutiny of the vaccine's value in the fight against polio. When a Michigan child in the age group five through nine gets polio, local health authorities will be able to check immediately to find out when and where the child was vaccinated and whether or not he has had one, two or three doses of vaccine.

The system conforms to policies set down by the State Legislature, which require that complete data should be kept on the vaccine program. Vaccine is being purchased through state and federal funds.

WERE GIVEN TWO DOSES

In the first stage of the polio vaccine program, first and second graders were given two doses of the vaccine. About 325,000 children —or 80 per cent of those eligible —were vaccinated. Third doses of vaccine for this group will be given at a later date.

As soon as vaccine has been given to the five through nine year old children,

Aug. Set New Record in Traffic Deaths

Michigan's traffic death toll of 213 in Aug. was the worst fatality record for any month since before Pearl Harbor, the Michigan State Police monthly report reveals.

Not since Nov., 1941, when 219 persons lost their lives, have so many been killed within any month on Michigan streets and highways.

The death figure, which was an increase of 47, or 28 per cent, over 166 persons killed during Aug., 1954, also continued an upward trend in Michigan's 1955 toll which was interrupted only during Feb. and July.

Injuries increased 19 per cent, or from 4,698 to 5,614, over Aug. of last year, while accidents rose 15 per cent from 13,786 to 15,792.

Deaths were up in both rural and urban areas as were injuries and total reported accidents. However, rural areas showed the sharpest percentage increases compared with Aug., 1954, and accounted for 79 per cent of the state-wide death toll.

According to provisional figures, most of the Aug. fatality increases resulted from "ran off roadway" type accidents.

The record for the first eight months of this year includes 1,250 persons killed, 38,299 injured and 121,128 reported accidents. Deaths are up 13 per cent from 1,104, injuries increased nine per cent from 35,029 and accidents gained three per cent from 117,075.

Mileage traveled for the first seven months of this year, the latest figure available, was 16.8 billion, an increase of nearly eight per cent over 15.6 billion in the same period last year. The death rate of 6.2 per 100 million miles of travel was up three per cent.

Joan Hindes Slick Graduates as Nurse at Harper

A recent letter from Miss Gertrude Spaulding, former superintendent of Herrick Memorial hospital, to the chairman of the scholarship committee of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Edward Boss, tells of the graduation of Joan Hindes Slick of Britton with the class of 1955 of the Harper Hospital School of Nursing.

Mrs. Slick, then Miss Hindes, was one of two high school graduates to receive the scholarship award in 1952, and entered the nursing course at Wayne University in Sept. of that year.

The commencement exercises were held Sept. 8 in the Rackham Memorial building with 58 in the class. Since entering training Joan has married and is the mother of a year old daughter.

Miss Spaulding wrote, "It was a pleasure to see her so happy and her family so proud of her, I was also very proud that she had gone back (after her marriage) and is now so nearly finished and a credit to us all." Joan will complete her hospital training in Dec.

Of herself, Miss Spaulding writes that she is very happy in her work. She is head of nursing service in the huge new out-patient clinic at Ford hospital in Detroit and says that while the position is largely administrative it also entails much counseling of patients.

Grade School News

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL

Mrs. Puffer

One day we went upstairs to the library room and chose some story books to put on our own library table. We were pleased to discover that we could read some of the books all by ourselves. Mrs. Puffer is reading the other stories to us.

Shirley Kotts has had her tonsils out, but soon will be back with us. Valerie Rumpf had chicken pox and Timmie Rodgers was ill; otherwise there have been few absences.

The 17 boys and 19 girls in our room have a fine start in Second Grade work and we are looking forward to a happy and interesting year together.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL

Mrs. Callihan

This year we have 35 boys and girls in our room. Charlene McClain was with us for awhile before returning to North Carolina. John Wirick recently came from Tipton and Julia Foule from Franklin School.

Our room begins school at 9:30 and we are out at 4:00. It seemed strange for awhile, but we are gettings used to it.

The leaves were so pretty that we began our Science with Plants Leaves and Seeds. We brought different kinds of leaves and seeds and have a nice display of them.

All of us are reading in a new book after reviewing some of the first year's work. We hope to read very well now.

The words plus and minus have caused quite a lot of trouble. We think we know what they mean now.

It has been arranged so that we have gym one day a week. It is fun to play in so much space. We can have games we could not do in our room.

We were interested in the story of Columbus. We wrote a story together of his discovering America.

We are beginning to think about Hallowe'en. It is so much fun to have the decorations around and to have a party.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL

Mrs. VanWinkle

Hello! We are thirty-six Second Graders from Room 200, Central Building. We are very busy getting acquainted with one another and with our teacher. Some of us were in the same first grades and many of us played together on our playground, last year. Three of us are from other Michigan schools. Paul Jones came from Adrian, Duane Keil from Brooklyn and Steven Brockley from Leroy.

In Science we have been studying "Insects." We brought jars from home and collected grasshoppers down at the Athletic Field. We had fun looking at them closely and finding their two antennae and six legs. We could see their two big eyes, but had a hard time finding the three little ones. Did you know that grasshoppers have five eyes? Many of us didn't, until we started studying about them. We had a jumping contest and Eddie Brazee's grasshopper jumped the highest, almost 36 inches high!

We were happy to have so many mothers visit us during our first P.T.A. meeting—Mrs. Haughn visited us recently. We enjoy having our mothers visit us.

We visited our school library and each of us with the help of some sixth grade girls, checked out books that we keep in our desks and read during our spare time. Many of us are ready for another book. We are finding out that it's really fun to read.

SECOND GRADE—WEST BRANCH

Miss LaPointe

Our first month of school has passed quickly. We have enjoyed our work and have had many pleasant experiences. We have enjoyed several good books, especially "Blackie Bear" and the "Box Car Children."

We appreciate the improvements made in our building during the summer.

For Columbus Day observance we learned about the life and voyages of Christopher Columbus. We drew pictures of his ships and some members of the class made little replicas of the Santa Maria.

Jana Barron and Gloria Green brought chop sticks to show the group, after we read a story about Chinatown, in San Francisco.

In one of our reading stories we read about a little girl carving a rooster from soap and now soap carving has become quite popular as a pastime among some of the pupils. We may have some future sculptors in our group.

Thus far this year we have had only three cases of tardiness. We hope our good record will continue.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The kindergarten girls and boys are having a good time building a little grocery store. We have many good things in it, and we know a great deal about food that makes us grow strong.

Mary Easton has moved from Tecumseh. We shall miss her in our third grade room. Pamela Bryan had a birthday last week.

The fifth grade filled the hall display case with articles representing pioneer days. Jane VanValkenburg was the only one with a perfect paper in our Problem Test I in Arithmetic.

The sixth grade elected the following people for class officers for the first semester. President, Robert French; vice president, Nancy Beland; secretary, Rudite Roberts; and treasurer, Bobby LaPrad. The class has decided that each child will earn his own money for the Greenfield Village trip.

Hostess Training Starts Young

APPLE JUICE
NP

DAUGHTER'S HALLOWEEN PARTY offers opportunity for her to practice the graceful ways of a hostess. The trick is to keep the arrangements simple—well within her young capacity to manage on her own—and, at the same time, have fun at her own party.

For refreshments, she probably would like a big plate of doughnuts with apple juice, chilled, tangy and sweet.

Poured into a large punch bowl, the apple juice wafts its own apple perfume. And the punch bowl helps create the special party air.

Other Serving Suggestions:

1. To be sure the juice is cold, pile ice cubes in punch bowl and pour chilled apple juice over.
2. Float slices of lemon, lime or orange on top. And toss in a few red maraschino cherries.
3. A half-and-half combination of apple juice and gingerale is a delicious one. Or, for a more elaborate punch, blend one 6-oz. can of frozen orange juice and 3 cups of charged water to each quart of apple juice.

Want To Know How To Wrap A Package?

Helpful facts about wrapping and shipping packages are contained in a new and profusely illustrated pamphlet entitled "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing" available free at all post offices on and after Oct. 15, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today.

The pamphlet, excerpted from the postal manual, describes the types and sizes of cartons best suited for outer and inner shipping containers; gives details for the internal protection of goods being shipped; lists hints on wrapping chinaware, stemware, framed pictures, books, and other goods; and gives instructions for marking various types of parcels to insure the quickest possible delivery.

IT'S ILLUSTRATED

Written instructions are highlighted by numerous illustrations showing how to wrap and tie packages securely. Drawings of various types of containers and boxes and the best way to use protective material to guard goods against breakage are also used.

"This free pamphlet," Mr. Summerfield pointed out, "if used in conjunction with the department's free pamphlet entitled "Domestic Postage Rates and Fees" which was issued a few months ago, should answer practically all questions any user of the mails might have on fees, rates, special services, and protection of parcels in transit."

AVOID DAMAGES

The Postmaster General emphasized that much of the delay in delivery of parcels, particularly at Christmas, and most of the damage en route is due to lack of knowledge of basic rules to follow in mailing packages.

"The employees of the post office department have a tremendous ing Christmas season." Mr. Sum- job ahead of them again this commerfield added. "Every effort will [illegible] and in good condition by Christmas Eve, as has been done these past two years. May I urge mailers to avail themselves of these two free pamphlets: 'Packaging and Wrapping Parcels for Mailing,' Post Office Department Publication No. 6; and 'Domestic Postage Rates and Fees' Post Office Department Publication No. 3; which will answer most of their mailing questions, demonstrate the best methods of packing goods, and help the postal employees in their important work of moving the huge volume of Christmas parcels."

BRITTON SCOUT TROOP VISITS WILLOW RUN

The Boy Scouts of troop 23, Britton have completed their annual "good turn" conservation project by planting small pine trees in the Britton Park. They also donated some to the Britton and Ridgeway Methodist churches.

Saturday the troop visited Willow Run airport where they were guests at the weather bureau and also were invited to the airport control tower where they were given the privilege of watching a plane come in by radar and then seeing it land. The boys all agreed they had a great time.

Monday three scouts and two explorers of the troop assisted in the Community Fund drive in Adrian. Oct. 31 the Scouts are to participate in the UNICEF drive.

from The Bible

Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.—(Hebrews 5:2.)

Which of us, being human, is without fault, or weakness, or error? When we have found the road to everlasting peace and content through goodness, should we not point the way to the wandering and the lost? There, we should say daily, but for the Grace of God, go I.

THE MIDDLE GUARD

by LES BINGAMAN

BY NOW IT should be apparent even to the most casual observer that this is going to be the most crazy, mixed-up race in the history of the National Football League.

Three weeks ago who would have believed that the mighty Lions, three straight Western Division champions, the powerful Chicago Bears and the explosive San Francisco 49ers would be victoryless after their first two games?

What makes it even more complicated is that the Lions figured that their less difficult (although not easy, for no pro game is easy) contests would be against the Green Bay Packers and Baltimore Colts. Sterner opposition was expected against teams like the Los Angeles Rams, 49ers and Bears.

Although Coach Buddy Parker anticipated trouble with Green Bay, which we knew had a real good team, he didn't expect anything like the dramatic last-20-second touchdown that beat us.

Surprising Everyone

After the initial shock, the defeat was taken more philosophically, as "one of those things," but the Lions fully expected to rebound against the Colts. So what has happened? The Colts are surprising everyone with one of the finest football teams I have ever seen, polishing off the Bears and Lions on successive Sundays.

Lack of scoring punch was blamed for the defeat at Green Bay, but inability to stop two rookies cost the Lions the game at Baltimore.

Oregon's George Shaw was faultless as a field general. He had the poise of a 10-year veteran. His faking and ball handling drove our defense nuts. Wisconsin's Allan Ameche was virtually unstoppable on his bull-like rushes and breakaway runs. Add to that Baltimore's usual near-impregnable defense and you have trouble.

What it adds up to is a six-team race both in the Western and Eastern Divisions. This, of course, makes Commissioner Bert Bell most happy, but it is giving Coach Parker and the rest of the Detroit high command the creeps.

12 Contenders

In the past, there were always just a few top teams, like maybe the Rams, Bears, 49ers and Lions in our division and the Browns and Eagles in the other division, but this year there are six contenders on both sides.

There isn't an expert, I don't believe, who will venture out on a limb to pick a winner this year.

Parker still feels the 1955 edition of the Lions is the best he's ever had. Earlier he believed it to have the strongest offense in football and among the best defenses, but now with all the other teams showing such remarkable improvement who can be sure?

About the only thing that anyone can be certain of is that no club can be counted in, or out, at this stage of the game. It is entirely possible that a team with four or five defeats in a 12-game schedule will be crowned the champion.

Scared Back Beats Boysville

A fast back who ran scared proved Boysville's downfall Friday night as the Knights lost to Dexter, 19-7.

Two long runs by Tidd of the Dexter team proved too much. He took the opening kickoff and scampered 80 yards to pay dirt and in the second period he took a Knights' punt and raced 70 yards for another td.

These two runs broke the Knights' back and would have been more than enough for Dexter but the Washtenaw County team scored again when Lavelli went over on a 20-yard pass play.

Boysville scored its lone td in the second period when John Murray scored from five yards out. Bob Temerowski booted the extra point.

Boysville outgained Dexter in every department but Tidd proved to be a secret weapon.

Betzoldt Tries for QB at Western

Jack Betzoldt, a graduate of Tecumseh high school and now a freshman at Western Michigan College, is out for the Bronco frosh football team. He is a quarterback candidate on the team.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Betzoldt of Clinton, Michigan. He is 20 years old, 6 feet tall, and weighs 160.

In high school he was quarterback on the football team for four years, played guard on the basketball team for four years, was a catcher on the baseball team for four years and ran the mile and broad jumped on the track team for four years.

He was coached in high school by Elven Duvall, a graduate of Eastern Michigan College, and Vic Lawson, a graduate of Michigan State University.

Win 1st League Game In More Than 2 Years

Playing a bruising defensive game, the Tecumseh high school Indians blasted Bedford from the unbeaten ranks Friday night, 9-0.

Using a nine-man line, the Indians stopped the Mules' highly-rated running attack cold and administered Bedford's first defeat of the season. Prior to Friday's game Bedford had won four straight games and had shared the Southeastern league leadership with Monroe Catholic Central.

The Indians, moreover, stopped a Bedford three-year winning streak in the Tecumseh-Bedford series. For the past three years the Mules had won 59-7, 57-7 and 26-7.

The win Friday was sweet for Tecumseh in another way, too. It marked their first league win in more than two years. Tecumseh's line play really told the story. Containing the Mule attack, the Indians waited for an opportunity and made the most of it.

After two quarters of bruising, scoreless football with both lines slugging it out waiting for a break or a mistake, the Indians scored in the third period. The score was a direct result of the Indians' forwards bottling up the Mules' running game.

Not gaining on the ground, Bedford resorted to one of its few passes. Al Dickinson picked off the pass on the Mules' 40 and went all the way for the important six points. Ray Larned's try for the extra point from placement was not good.

But he booted a good one in the final period. Standing on the 20 he smacked one right between the uprights for three insurance points.

But as it turned out, the way the Indians were playing defensive ball the six points were all they needed for their first league win this year and their first league win in more than two years.

The defense kept Bedford away from the goal but the Mules did penetrate to the 20 in the last period before the Indians took over on downs.

SCORE BY QUARTERS:

Tecumseh	0	0	6	3	—9

Britton Loses Close One, 7-6

Failing to make an extra point try cost Britton a tie with Deerfield Friday with the Minute Men winning 7-6.

Dennis Goll scored Deerfield's touchdown in the second period when he skirted end for a 55-yard scoring jaunt. Bob Light ran over for what proved to be the winning point.

Recovering a fumble on the Deerfield 19, the Tories scored moments later on a two-yard plunge by Fred Barnoske. The try for the extra point was not good.

LINCOLN
FOR 1956

Longest . . . Lowest . . . Most Powerful Lincoln of all time!

Here — pictured the way you see it as it sweeps majestically by — is the new one that's been turning so many heads. And no wonder.

Lincoln for 1956 — the longest, lowest, roomiest, most powerful Lincoln of all time — is far and away the newest car on the road.

It's a larger, more luxurious Lincoln — obviously, And from hooded headlights to jet-pod exhausts, the refreshing, clean-lined Lincoln look goes beautifully with this great new size. Inside, greater size means more room, and the leg-room, shoulder-room and hat-room (all increased) comfortably belie the snug-to-the-ground lowness of Lincoln's new silhouette.

And that's just a starter. Match this new Lincoln against any other fine car — on luxury, on safety, and especially on performance — and you'll soon find out why we say this car is the finest in the fine car field.

Most important of all, this new Lincoln is never too proud to prove all we say. Come in any time and take a few turns behind the wheel.

The only completely new car in the fine car field

▶ New 285-hp Lincoln engine with more usable power than any other car ▶ New Lincoln Turbo-Drive — most versatile, most obedient of all automatic drives ▶ New firm, yet gentle ride and effortless handling ease ▶ New individualized interiors — 29 to choose from ▶ New safety all around you: Retracted steering column with Safety-Flex steering wheel . . . triple strength safety-plus door locks . . . optional safety belts . . . largest windshield area in any car.

Unmistakably . . . the finest in the fine car field

Of Faith and Economy

AS THE CARTOON this week shows, the gloom and doom boys are at it again. They are in the big cities and in the small towns.

Many of them sit around wringing their hands about how poor business is and some of them cry about how they will suffer when the next depression hits.

The best antidote for the poison dispensed by these gloomy guys is to work a little harder and longer and to keep faith in the overall national economy.

The gloomy ones even got mixed up in the stock market. According to the Michigan Press Association the stock market "whodunit" developed when observers tried to check into the question of what type of person was involved in the stock market drop immediately following President Eisenhower's illness.

Reports showed that "little fellows" did not rush to sell.

More reports showed that "professional operators" did not rush to sell.

Who did?

Growing belief is that large foreign investors are responsible for flooding the market.

If so, it is important because the market drop did not show domestic uneasiness that many thought it did.

CURIOUSLY ENOUGH, the nine points in "the key to success" as outlined by Al Bishop of Leadership Training at a recent Rotary Club meeting here are all positive and they also represent an antidote in couteracting the gloomy outlook pictured by some scairty-cats.

The points are these: don't criticize, condemn or complain; give honest, sincere appreciation; arouse an eager want in the other person; become genuinely interested in other people; smile; remember a man's name is the sweetest thing in the English language; be a good listener; talk in terms of the other man's interest; make the other person feel important and do it sincerely.

A person who uses one or more of these points in his daily associations with others will find that he just can't be gloomy.

POETS ALSO WRITE about this gloom and doom:

He who goes bitter and sour,
Finds the world sunless and grim;
Smiles fade away at his glower,
Gloom's the reflection of him.

He who goes laughing and gay,
Sees the whole universe glad;
Maybe it's raining that day?
Best day he ever has had!

Running Up the Score

Letter to Editor:

To the Editor:

While nursing a fractured left clavicle and, thereby, taking a vacation from my household duties, I find myself musing over the things that I read, see, and hear. One article in particular was yours on page two, column one, in the HERALD, of course, on Thursday, Sept. 29, 1955, regarding "Bleachers Still Needed" at the Recreation Field. May I comment on that? Why so much along that line has come to my attention this past year I will never know unless it is an indication that it is time for me to air my views or keep quiet.

There is no question in my mind about the great need for comfortable bleachers with the sitting space a few inches higher than the walking space so that a person can reach the seat in an easy manner as well as leave it without disturbing everyone around him. We are living in a restless age and nothing is quite so disconcerting as having people climb all over you in the bleachers, theaters, and auditoriums. As we grow older we need more space which is a natural part of the growing older process and as a result we will often stay away from public places, if we cannot be comfortable.

Last spring when we planned Youth Day as a part of the observance of Michigan Week, we felt that the parents, relatives, and friends of our youth would enjoy the activities on the Recreation Field. As I had to be out of town on that date, I learned later through the grapevine that only a handful were present. Immediately, I gave as the answer "no seats." Little folks like to be comfortable, too, you know. Then, when the donkey baseball game was played I was present. Somebody took pity on me and made room for me to climb to the top of a portable bleacher and there I sat with my feet dangling.

If the young are worn out sponsoring these projects, why not call on some of the retired senior citizens who would not only have the time but might enjoy calling on and sounding out individuals and families about the "Buy a seat" plan for $5 a seat as that is about the right price per seat according to some recent figures, if permanent bleachers were built properly. Furthermore, let's build some of them at the west end of the field, if you get what I mean.

While we are speaking of needs, maybe we would enjoy the class plays, etc., in the auditorium located in the old Central building more, if we could be seated more comfortably. By the way, that auditorium has great possibilities if theater seats were installed, the windows were draped, and floor runners were laid, and it wouldn't cost $125,000 either to do the trick. Mr. McDowell knows how I feel about that matter and he did the best that he could at the time by putting the balcony seats in front but that isn't enough.

In closing, may I beg of you to plead for seats not only in the Recreation Field but in the auditorium also. I'll buy mine.

Yours for good community living,

Ruth V. Rentschler, (Mrs. T.)
311 West Shawnee Street,
Tecumseh, Michigan

P.S.—Maybe the auditorium has been remodeled and I don't know it.

Christian Science Services Listed

Spiritual demands on man for growth and progress will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christ Jesus' emphasis on regeneration will be set forth in readings from the Bible including the following from John (3:3): "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be among those read (291:12-13): "Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them."

The Golden Text is from John (5:21): "As the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will."

As we were writing up an exclusive listing, I asked Ted Trobert, "What is your reason for selling?"

Mr. Trobert's jaw quivered nervously.

"Do you really need to know? I've got nothing to hide. We need the money for medical care."

"I'm not prying," I said, "but 90% of the prospective buyers will ask. We like to have the answer."

Mr. Trobert nodded. "That's O.K. I wasn't offended. I just wondered why you felt you needed that information."

"It has two main advantages," I replied with a relieved smile. "First, people are naturally curious to know why you'd want to part with a good property. That's especially true if they are really interested."

"Also," I continued, "It helps us in promoting the sale. For example, we know that you mean business because you have a strong reason for selling."

"I understand," Mr. Trobert said, "now SELL it."

We did!

So whatever your reason is for selling, place the job in our hands. Remember, we are the office that specializes in "personalized service."

'Tis not for power, or wealth, or fame,
I pray Thee gracious Lord,
But help me use the gifts Thou gave
In Kindly thought and deed and word,
So when at last my time has come
To seek eternal rest,
My soul may take as parting gift

ARE YOU A BIRD WATCHER?

"Please ma'am, how soon will the dining room open?

He was not impatient about it. Tufted Titmouse is nothing if not polite. But there was a little urgency in the way he inspected the lilac bush with one eye cocked at the kitchen window. Accommodations had been good there last winter and he would like to make reservations early for the coming season. He had visited the spot now and then during the summer in his neat blue-gray suit and pale russet waistcoat. No bird is trimmer or better groomed, even his pointed crest seems polished. Now he had his new winter clothes and he wished to be sure of his winter meals as well.

Those other, even more zany enthusiasts whose bird hotels are open the year around see him every day, along with his companion nuthatches and what have you. Such spots attract a clientele not granted to us scotch inn-keepers who do not believe in summer subsidizing of ablebodied workers. But if we will not cater to the more exotic visitors then we should not envy Ella Brown her Rose-breasted Grosbeaks and Cedar Wax Wings or the summer evening flute concerts of her Woodthrush. To be sure not all hotels are like hers with running water, deep shelter and almost complete quiet — but a year round supply of sunflower seeds, scratch feed and suet helps. She may have a pauperizing influence on the feathered economy but she reaps a rich reward. She knows her regular guests by sight, flight and song and if a stranger arrives it is not long before he too is properly registered, even if, like the chapter on Warblers, it reduces her bird book to tatters.

There are other watchers to whom the bird is more important than his name. Marda Gene Duncan is not so much concerned with the variety of sparrow that comes to her feeding tray as with what he does when he gets there. That does not mean she does not know her birds. From her bed in her wide windowed room close to Evans cheek she sees them come and go with the seasons and many are year round friends. She even likes the raucous Blue Jay, forgiving his bad manners in the pleasure of the picture he and her friend the Cardinal make against the winter snow.

Her feeding tray is on the window sill (they decided the birds were more important than clean windows) so she gets an intimate view of such doings as the gallantry of papa Cardinal in the spring and his lack of it in the winter. She also has many a chuckle over the jealous sulks and scoldings of Peter the Parakeet when she gives the outside birds the attention he considers his due.

Perhaps some of the shy, rare specimens avoid the window sill but she had one visitor this season that is rare indeed—a Red-headed Woodpecker. Very common here a relatively few years ago, it is vanishing, some authorities say because of the vanishing of our native oak trees—but Marda Gene has had one while the rest of us have to be content with ordinary "Downies."

Those who remember the days when tramps were common have heard of "tramp signs," symbols chalked on gate posts or sidewalks indicating the chances of a handout at that house. If you are a bird-feeder—even a part year one—you may come to believe in bird tramp-signs. There seems no other explanation of the visits of migrating flocks, like the hord of wax-wings that visited our neighborhood last week.

They feasted on the red fruit of the barberry bushes, filled the trees with soft twitterings and swooped and darted from shrub to vine. There seemed to be thousands of them and they were as excited as children on a picnic. The excitement was contagious. Robins and flickers who had been skulking quietly about for weeks, thinking about going south, suddenly developed a wild enthusiasm and dashed and twittered with the best of them.

The visitors were definitely Waxwings. They had the wide crest, rising from a striking black band through the eyes and the clear yellow line across the end of the tail—as if it had been dipped in the paint pail. But they were a soft gray all over with only flashes of the russet of the Cedar Waxwing. So, triumphantly waving her bird book, the Amateur reported the visit of the rare and unusual Bohemian wax-wing only to be deflated by the voice of Authority, suggesting that perhaps they may have been moulting Cedars. Well maybe, but after all Authority did not see those little gray Quakers and the Amateur did!

Hospital Group Adds Members

Three new members were welcomed at the Oct. meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary Tuesday evening. They were Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. Ray White and Mrs. Robert Ely of the Irish Hills. The period of devotions was in charge of Mrs. Victor Lawson. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Robert Fuller presided at the meeting during which plans were discussed for the annual holiday ball of the organization, which this year will be held Dec. 3.

Mrs. Robert Anderson has been appointed general chairman of the event. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, chairman of the recent mobile X-ray clinic, reported the very satisfactory totals of 1045 for the two days at the Tecumseh Methodist church and 2625 at the Tecumseh Products.

Mrs. Hunter Heesen was then introduced and told of her work in training nurses' aides at Herrick Memorial hospital and of the duties and responsibilities of aides in general.

The other speaker on the evening's program was Mrs. Henry Hamilton who is a native of Athens, Greece. Mrs. Hamilton compared the facilities and comforts of a hospital such as Herrick Memorial with those of her homeland. Her last contact with Greek hospitals was during the war but while she is sure they have much improved since then she feels the citizens of Tecumseh still have many advantages.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. James Barton and her committee, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Mrs. Hunter Heesen, Mrs. David Dick and Mrs. A. J. Geisenhaver.

The speaker for the next meeting in Nov. will be Dr. Wilson, of the Huron Valley Clinic.

Sheets Live Longer with Proper Care

Give your bed sheets the right care and they will give you longer wear.

Good care includes correct laundering, declares Cecilia Roach, instructor in textiles, clothing and related arts at Michigan State University. White sheets are more likely to remain white if they are washed with white clothes only and if neither clothes nor sheets are badly soiled.

Sunshine is the safest bleach, says Miss Roach. Strong bleaches will damage cotton and cause them to deteriorate and wear out sooner. If you must bleach from time to time, she suggests you use no more than is recommended on the bottle.

If you dry sheets out-of-doors, Miss Roach suggests hanging them where they will not flap in the wind. Strong winds may whip the corners and hems or break the selvage yarns. Hang your sheets in a different position on the line every now and then. And, fasten them with clothes pins rather close together to avoid strain on small areas.

Un-ironed sheets tend to wear longer, points out Miss Roach, but if your iron yours, be careful to use the proper temperature. Even the mildest scorch will weaken cotton.

Be sure your sheets are dry before storing them. They may mildew if they are put in a warm, dark place. Mildew will weaken sheets and often the stains can never be taken out.

Miss Roach feels that homemakers should get in the habit of putting newly laundered sheets at the bottom of the pile in their linen closets. This automatic rotation will result in longer life for bed linens.

Fisher Will Show New Pontiac Friday

The new 1956 Pontiac models which go on display in dealers' showrooms Friday, Oct. 21, introduce a General Motors "first," a completely new Hydra-Matic transmission. Called Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic by Pontiac engineers, the new transmission is designed to provide smoother, quieter shifting of gears. The new Pontiac will be shown locally by G. H. Fisher Pontiac Motors, Inc.

The Pontiac Strato-Streak V-8 engine, introduced last year, is larger in 1956 with horsepower upped to 227 in the Star Chief and 205 in the 870 and 860 series. Fifteen new body styles, longer by 2.4 inches, include six "hardtop" Catalinas, three of them four-door and three two-door. "Hardtop" models are available in all three series, the Star Chief, 870 and 860

There is a choice of 57 new colors in "Vogue" two-toning or solid colors. Interiors utilize new fabrics and leather in a wide range of colors.

A BIG "FIRST"

"Pontiac is proud to be the first to introduce a big and vital General Motors first—Pontiac's new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic transmission," R. M. Critchfield, General Motors Vice President and General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said today. "In over two million test miles this revolutionary transmission system demonstrated smooth, effortless shifting.

'The longer and lower look of Pontiac's new body styles combine with big-car riding comfort in the new series," Critchfield pointed out. "The rich colors of Pontiac Vogue two-tones are picked up in the luxurious interiors. Exciting new fabrics are colorful with durability, cleanability and slideability."

Foremost among the mechanical improvements in the 1956 Pontiacs are the new Strato-Streak V-8 engines—bigger and sturdier than ever and upped in horsepower to 227 in the Star Chief series and 205 in the 870 and 860 series. The upsurge in horsepower comes from the increased displacement, higher compresison ratios up to 8.9:1, and improved carburetion.

OFFERS THREE SERIES

Pontiac offers three Strato-Streak body series in 1956. Longer by 2.4 inches overall, the 15 new body styles have a longer, lower looking silhouette.

Most luxurious of the three series, the Star Chief line consists of the custom Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," four-door sedan, and convertible, on a 124-inch wheelbase and the Safari Station Wagon on 122-inch wheelbase.

In Pontiac's middle-priced 870 series with 122-inch wheelbase are the Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," a four-door sedan, a two-door two-seat station wagon and four-door three-seat station wagon.

Comprising the low priced 860 series are the Catalina coupes and sedans, two and four-door sedans, two-door two-seat station wagons and four-door three-seat station wagons.

STYLING IS SIMILAR

Front-end styling is similar on all three series. A brilliant wrap-around bumper of sturdy, chrome-plated steel protects the entire front end of the car. The cleanly integrated front bumper and grille give the car a spirited, powerful look. Bomb type bumper guards and air-scoop cresents above the headlamps add to the fleet appearance of the car. The headlamp visors match the color of the front fenders.

ADD NEW COLORS

Continuing its trend in modern colors, Pontiac introduces a completely new array of exterior finishes. Custom models feature Sandalwood Tan, Sun Beige, Catalina Blue and Nimbus Grey. Other colors have been named for well-known places such as Chesapeake and Olympic blues, Hialeah and Glendale greens and Grenada gold; others have exotic names—Bolero Red, Tarragon Green, and Phantom Grey. Still others bear such descriptive names as Amethyst, Camellia, Vista Blue and Raven Black. The exciting flair of the new "Vogue" two-toning combines these colors to add to the low, trim look of the 1956 Pontiac silhouette.

The wide varieties of interior trim materials on the new models are most colorful and more luxurious than ever offered by Pontiac. They range from bizarre red and black to soft combinations of greens or greys. The custom model Pontiacs are upholstered in top-grain leather and patterned nylon ornamented with metallic threads. Convertibles and station wagons feature bright color combinations of Morrokide, a durable, waterproof fabric with appearance and durability of genuine leather. The 870 Chieftain models have richly colored nylon fabrics with a three-dimensional repp weave in satin. The 860 Chieftain models sport nylon and orlon upholstery trimmed with a new fabric ornamented by silver flecks which the manufacturer refers to as "stardust."

Safety

Pontiac, since its very beginning, has been incorporating new safety developments in its car just as it has other major features such as performance, economy, appearance and comfort. During Pontiac's 30-year history over 100 new safety features have been incorporated in the Pontiac car.

One of the latest in the new safety interlocking door lock which will be introduced on the 1956 cars.

HAVE MORE LEG ROOM

The front seats of all 1956 body styles have been redesigned for more comfort and more leg and head room. A new optional electric powered adjustable seat which can be moved in six different ways, offers almost unlimited variations in front seat positions. A mechanical 360-position seat is also available.

Displacement of the 1956 Strato-Streak V-8 engine is 316.6 cubic inches. The extra volume from larger cylinder bore and pistons, gives more reserve power, not only at low, but at all driving speeds.

Compression ratios, raised to 8:9:1 in the Strato-Streak engines of Pontiacs equipped with Hydra-Matic transmissions, take full advantage of the higher octane ratings of today's premium fuels Along with economical maximum power from improved gasolines the higher compression gives quick acceleration and quiet operation.

Larger venturi or air-intake throats on both the four-barrel and the two-barrel carburetors improve the "breathing" qualities of the 1956 Pontiac engines. Better performance and greater economy result. The 227 horsepower engine with four-barrel carburetor is standard for the Star Chief series and the 205 horsepower engine with two-barrel carburetor is standard equipment for 870 and 860 series equipped with Hydra-Matic.

IMPROVE TRANSMISSION

In addition to the new Strato-Flight transmission for the Star Chief series, Pontiac ofrers an improved Hydra-Matic transmission for the 870 and 860 series and a new Synchro-mesh transmission, incorporating many refinements and improvements.

A notable improvement in the ride and handling characteristics of the 1956 Pontiacs comes from a new steering knuckle and support assembly. The press fitted king pin bushing reduces friction and improves lubricating qualities of the front suspension.

Completely new power steering, power brakes and electric window lifts are available as optional equipment.

PONTIAC 860 TWO-DOOR SEDAN—Pontiac's 1956 two-door sedan, the most economical model in the big-car class, rides on a 122 inch wheelbase with 206 inches over-all length. It's big 205 h.p. Strato-Streak V-8 engine gives it power and performance unequalled in the medium priced range. "Vogue" two-toning and luxurious interiors are other features that make it the best dollar for dollar buy.

Wildlife Expert Gives Tips for Duck Hunters

There's a method of duck hunting suited to every pocket book and even one for duck hunters who hate water.

And in case you're planning to try any of the methods this season George S. Hunt of the University of Michigan Wildlife Management Department cautions that you first make sure you're "legal." You'll need a small game license with a special waterfowl stamp on it.

For the hunter with a thin pocket book the wildlife expert recommends "pass" shooting which only involves finding out where the ducks fly at certain times during the day — near feeding and resting areas or between river systems — and waiting for them to "pass" overhead.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

The popular duck-blind shooting is one step up on the expense scale because it calls for decoys and a duck call, which usually works to lure ducks, says Hunt, but "sometimes scares them away." Take your choice.

"Jump shooting" has you sneaking along the river's edge hoping to fall over sitting ducks. But if you're a true sportsman you'll scare them into the air before potting at them, Hunt points out.

And another method along the sneaky line is "drift shooting." Get a boat and a large number of decoys and set them out in an open water area downwind from your boat. When the real ducks gather let your boat drift down on them, Hunt explains, and there you are.

TRY "LAYOUT"

If you happen to have a small power launch, a good friend who likes duck hunting too, and about 50 decoys you can try "layout shooting." Legend has it that this method was developed in the west end of Lake Erie and is thus peculiarly Michigan's own.

In addition to your power launch you'll need a boat with a low silhouette in which yon can lie down after determining the flight pattern of the ducks around you, Hunt explains. You'll have to try this on a large lake with your decoys set up to bring the ducks down left-or-righthanded for you. Storms spring up quickly and because you'll have 50-some-odd decoys to haul in, your power launch will come in handy for a get-away should one be necessary.

HIDE IN THE CORN

And if you hate water and like ducks? "Cornfield shooting is the answer," Hunt declares. You hide in the corn shocks and wait for the ducks to come over—it would be a help if you were sure that ducks actually did come to the particular field, he adds.

Ducks are divided into two general classes, dabblers and divers. Major dabblers in Michigan are the mallard, black duck, blue wing teal, pintail, gadwall, green wing teal and wood duck. Divers are, canvasback, redhead, blue bill and ring-billed, Hunt says.

Dabblers are found in shallow water and divers are open water ducks; divers are gregarious, dabblers more apt to travel alone.

And the best places in Michigan for finding either kind are at the Pte. Mouille State Game Area, the St. Clair Flats and both east and west of Saginaw Bay, according to the U-M professor.

The junior Knights scored a safety in the first and a touchdown in the final quarter.

Your Car Can Poison

Next time you take your car into the repair shop, watch the mechanic attach a hose to the tail-pipe before running the engine — he's protecting against carbon monoxide. According to the Michigan Department of Health, the beginning of cold weather is the most dangerous time of year for this common poisoning hazard.

Even the most efficient automobile engine, health officials explain, produces about one per cent carbon monoxide by volume of exhaust gas; enough to cause suffocation quickly in an enclosed space.

This means, the department warned, that you should never warm up your car engine in the garage unless the doors are open. With the doors closed, a deadly concentration of carbon monoxide can build up within a few minutes. The department says it's also a good idea to drive with one window open a little — even in the coldest weather. A faulty exhaust system can allow carbon monoxide to escape into the car. Since it is a colorless, odorless, tasteless gas, you might not realize this had happened until too late.

Although an automobile engine is the most frequent source of carbon monoxide, the department points out that the gas can result from burning any fuel which contains carbon — such as coal, gas, or oil. Whenever combustion is incomplete due to an inadequate supply of oxygen, carbon monoxide forms.

The department goes on to recommend: "Have your furnace or stove checked carefully before putting it into operation for the winter. A little care and attention right now, may help save a number of lives this winter."

Wilson's Motor Sales Shows New DeSoto

The daring, ultra-modern "Flight Sweep" body styling concept of the new 1956 De Soto combines the beautiful sweeping lines of the "Forward Look" with high-sweep fin-type rear fenders to provide an even more dramatic, low slung, taut, eager and striking forward thrust appearance.

The new cars are now on display locally at Wilson Motor Sales.

From the new full sweep perforated mesh "floating" grille, bumper, parking lights and safety beam headlamps, to the smart new upswept color sweep and rear fenders with three-tiered, turreted, body-integrated and highly decorative tail lamps, these cars are lithe, clean-lined and uncluttered. They will be recognized immediately as the smartest, longest and lowest-looking ever produced by De Soto, according to A. E. Kimberly, Chief Engineer, De Soto Division of Chrysler Corporation.

MORE POWER

Both the Fireflite and Firedome models are powered by new larger engines, with substantial increases in power, in keeping with performance requirements of our super-highway age. The Fireflite engine now provides 255 horsepower, while the Firedome is rated at 230 horsepower.

Both engines, set in cushioned cradle front mountings, deliver more torque for improved getaway acceleration, plus improved fuel economy. Increased displacement, higher compression ratio, larger valves, redesigned intake and exhaust ports, new spark plugs, and improved carburetors all contribute to increased output and higher efficiences. Dual exhaust systems are optional on both.

Crankcase capacity has been reduced to four quarts, which means a saving at each oil change.

On 1956 De Soto models equipped with Powerflite transmission (standard on Fireflite), a revolutionary and exclusive mechanical push-button drive selector is designed as an integral part of the left end of the instrument panel for safer operation and ease of control. Within convenient finger tip control with the left elbow on the arm rest, the housing unit, with neutral, low, drive and reverse selector buttons, is safely out of reach of children or other passengers. Push-buttons are illuminated for night driving, and the inadvertent selection of reverse is automatically blocked out at speeds above 10 M.P.H.

SAFETY FEATURES

A completely new advanced braking system will be standard equipment on all De Soto models, with or without power brakes. Known as floating "Center Plane," the brakes are considered by De Soto officials to be the finest ever developed for passenger cars. With 25 per cent more braking surface, these brakes provide 25 per cent less pedal effort and a very low wear rate, with up to 20,000 more miles of lining service.

Optional power brakes for all models have been improved to provide instantaneous power response, with a pedal now nearly the same height as the accelerator treadle. A reservoir tank provides for emergency braking.

All 1956 De Soto models will be equipped with positive acting, tested safety door locks. This design provides a sturdy interlock between the two halves of the door lock when doors are closed to greatly minimize the possibility of doors opening under sudden impact.

Windshield wipers have been redesigned so that the wiper blades now wipe around the corners of the wrap-around windshield, resulting in better vision to the sides during adverse weather conditions.

All 1956 De Sotos will be equipped with the nationally approved new safety (sealed) beam headlamps which project the low beam approximately 80 ft. further on the right hand side without creating a glare for the oncoming motorists. This is accomplished by a low beam filament cap which prevents the scatter of light rays above the horizontal. Back-glare is also reduced when driving in snow, fog or rain. The power on each beam has been increased by 5 watts.

NEW ACCESSORIES

In addition to previously offered accessories, several new improvements are offered for increased driving comfort and convenience. One is an instantaneous heater which delivers hot air within five seconds after it is turned on, regardless of outside temperatures.

De Soto for 1956 will also offer the sensational and exclusive Highway Hi-Fi, a high fidelity record player which plays through the radio to provide music or recorded readings. The seven-inch records play up to 45 minutes per side, completely undisturbed over the roughest roads. Exceptional fidelity was designed to compensate for normal traffic sounds. With six records stowed in the unit, furnished with purchase of the accessory, up to nine hours of entertainment is thus provided. Highway Hi-Fi was especially developed for Chrysler Corporation by CBS Laboratories.

Among other new accessories are a hand brake warning light, a 15-jewel precision steering wheel watch, dual rear radio antennae and a Triad, or third horn, with a distinctive commanding tone.

In addition, the line will feature a 12-volt electrical system for high ignition potential on cold starts and improved low speed charging rate; new one-piece, single motion, pull-design door handles; an improved turn signal, made longer and nearer the wheel for easier operation without removing hand from the wheel.

RECORD NUMBER OF COLORS

A record 84 color combinations, unusual iridescents, pastels, etc., including 14 solid colors, will be offered. These are color-keyed to rich decorator fabric interiors, including brocades, damasks, failles, leather, etc.

Body styles include in the Fireflite models four door sedans, two door Sportsmen coupes (hardtop), four door Sportsman sedan (hardtop) and convertible coupe. Firedomes include four door sedan, two door Seville coupe (hardtop), four door Seville sedan (hardtop), two door Sportsman coupe (hardtop), four door Sportsman sedan (hardtop), convertible coupe and station wagon.

Modern in the Forward Look manner but the ultimate in the tradition of graceful elegance is the new 1956 De Soto Fireflite four-door sedan shown here. The second phase of De Soto's Forward Look highlights extensive exterior body changes, including a dramatic new upswept lift to the popular color sweep that runs the virtual length of the car. Other glamorous new touches are the all-new front and rear ends, lush color-keyed interiors in brocades, damasks, leather, faille and other decorator materials. New perforated mesh grille with built-in parking lights, and a dramatic, turreted, three-tiered taillight assembly are among over two dozen highlight changes in design and engineering.

U.S. Rubber Puts Steel in Tires

United States Rubber Co. today announced a new line of passenger car and truck tires all containing from one to eight miles of flexible, high strength steel wire.

Steel wire, U.S. Rubber said, makes a tire tread rupture-proof, doubles cut resistance and eliminates tread cut growth. It also makes a tire run from 20 to 40 degrees cooler, reduces the danger of centrifugal force throwing off treads at high speed, improves high speed riding qualities, and contributes to increased tread mileage.

The wire, made of steel as strong as that in bridge cable, is used in filaments which are slightly larger than a human hair. These filaments are twisted into strands and laid in criss-crossed layers which give the effect of a fine mesh of steel cloth.

To prove the greater strength and safety of the tires, U. S. Rubber put them through their paces for automotive editors at its tire testing grounds on the edge of the Mojave desert near Lancaster, Calif. The tires were driven over double rows of sharp ax blades, beds of jagged broken bottles, and upturned railroad spikes without failure. All-fabric tires failed in similar tests.

A big advantage of wire is its ability to conduct heat away from the shoulders of the tire toward the cooler central part of the tread. This means that, over-all, the tires with wire run from 20 to 40 degrees cooler than tires without wire. This is particularly important at high speed.

For truckers, wire means a lower operating cost per mile. Truckers can get more recaps per tire carcass without costly carcass repairs. The elimination of groove cracking, ruptures and cut damage means less down time per mile of haulage. Operating economy is possible without increased tire inflation and without limiting trucking speeds.

The line will offer two distinct styles and a choice of colors to blend with modern automobile styling. One style has a white sidewall only one inch wide. The other style has a wider white sidewall with a curb guard that protects the white from scuffing. In the wider version, a choice of shoulders colored blue, green or bronze is offered at no extra cost.

Michigan's population increase—more than 10 per cent in the past five years—is the biggest in the Middle West.

Wilson Shows New Plymouth

Plymouth's new aerodynamic 1956 cars will be displayed by dealers throughout the nation beginning Friday, Oct. 21.

Locally they will be shown at Wilson Motor Sales.

Plymouth President John P. Mansfield said the new models incorporate major advances in every phase of automobile design, with special emphasis on engine performance, safety and aerodynamic styling.

HAS NEW ENGINE

Plymouth has a wholly new engine for 1956. It is a more powerful Hy-Fire V-8 with a polysphere combustion chamber design, a 277 cubic inch displacement and an 8 to 1 compression ratio.

Other major innovations include:

Airfoil rear fenders which emphasize and contribute to the aerodynamic feeling of the new models.

A push button drive selector for Plymouth's PowerFlite automatic transmission.

GET AWAY FASTER

New 90-90 Turbo-Torque PowerFlite on V-8 models. Ninety degree angles at the inlet and outlet blades of the torque converter impeller give faster breakaway performance.

A new four-door Hardtop (Sport Sedan) with an ingenious rear window operating machanism allowing full side vision for all passengers.

A new line of Suburbans. In Plymouth's 1956 line-up, the Suburbans are an entirely separate group of cars and are available in a wide selection of two-door, four-door, two-seat, three-seat, V-8 and six cylinder models.

FEATURES SAFETY

New safety door latches to keep doors closed even under severe impact.

New 12-volt electrical system, new pull-type door handles and new deck lid latch.

Highway Hi-Fi, a new car phonograph providing an hour of uninterrupted entertainment, and new Search-Tune radio.

STYLING FEATURE

In addition to the completely new aerodynamic rear end styling, the 1956 Plymouths have scores of new design details, inside and out.

From the front the most noticeable are a new hood ornament, new Plymouth name identification and a new grill. Side trim on all models is of a new design and the Plymouth Forward Look emblems appear on the rear fenders of Belvedere models.

Inside, the instrument panel is redesigned for greater convenience and new beauty. The new push button PowerFlite drive selector is on the left of the steering post where it is out of reach of front seat passengers who might otherwise accidentally change the driving range while the car is in motion. Push buttons are illuminated for night driving.

The ammeter and oil pressure gauge have been replaced by red flasher lights between the gasoline and water temperature gauges directly in front of the driver. The lights flash their warning for instant driver attention, thus eliminating the possibility of oversight or improper interpretation.

MODELS

Plymouth offers a wider selection of body types and models in its 1956 line than were available in 1955.

There are now four separate lines and 15 models. Added to the Plymouth line-up are a four-door hardtop in the Belvedere line and a two-door hardtop in the Savoy line. The Suburbans are now a separate line of cars.

Plymouth is building three types of Suburbans—the four-door Sport Suburban, two-door and four-door Custom Suburban and two-door Deluxe Suburban. The four-door models are available with a third seat which increases passenger capacity to eight.

There are five models in the Belvedere line — four-door sedan, four-door hardtop, two-door club sedan, two-door hardtop and convertible.

Plymouth's middle line, the Savoy group, is made up of a four-door sedan, two-door club sedan and two-door hardtop.

The Plaza group, priced lower than the Belvedere and Savoy, is composed of a four-door sedan, two-door club sedan and three-passenger coupe.

Plymouth convertibles are powered by V-8 engines. All other models are available with V-8 or six cylinder engines.

Plymouth Offers Safety Features

The 1956 Plymouth cars have new safety door latches which minimize the possibility of doors opening under impact.

The new latch is designed so that interlocking pieces of heavy gauge steel on the door and striker prevent separation and keeps the doors safely closed. The new latch is standard equipment on all Plymouth models.

Plymouth continues to offer safety seat belts anchored directly to the frame of the car.

New safety beam headlamps provide as much as 80 additional feet in seeing distance on the right side of the road.

Other "built-in" safety features include the safety rim wheels, a hand brake independent of the regular braking system, dual cylinder front wheel brakes, a wide-visibility wrap-around windshield and electric windshield wipers.

ENGINES

Plymouth engines for 1956:

Hy-Fire V-8, 277 cu. in. displacement—200 horsepower with Power-Pak. Available in all four lines, Plaza, Savoy, Belvedere and Suburban.

Hy-Fire V-8, 277 cu. in displacement — 187 horsepower. Available in Belvedere and Suburban lines.

Hy-Fire V-8, 270 cu. in. displacement — 180 horsepower. Available in Savoy and Plaza lines.

PowerFlow 6 — 131 horsepower with Power-Pak. Available all lines.

PowerFlow 6 — 125 horsepower. Available all lines.

1956 Plymouth Belvedere

Belvedere four-door sedan is one of 15 attractive models in Plymouth's 1956 line of cars. Aerodynamic styling, push button driving and powerful new Hy-Fire 277 engine are among outstanding features. Safety door latches and other safe driving items are standard equipment.

Hooker Electrochemical, DuPont, and Union Carbide are several of the companies which have located in Michigan in recent years because of the state's large supplies of salt and brine. Iron, copper, limestone, and timber are several others of the state's most plentiful natural resources.

Through group instruction meetings, the American Red Cross last year provided safety information to an average of eight persons per minute.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Shades of Tom Sawyer!

Hack Willis had just stopped the tractor so's he could cool off at the pump, when a young insurance salesman came up the drive.

Hack was tired of plowing, and needed insurance on his new barn. But he also needed to get that winter rye in fast. The salesman, an eager kid, noticed hesitation. "I come from a farm," he said. "Why don't you look at these booklets—get all the dope—and I'll take that plow a couple of rounds for you."

Young fellow laid off a pretty straight furrow, too. It was almost dark before Hack—sitting in the shade—was able to decide just what kind of policy to get.

From where I sit, to be a good salesman—or a good citizen—it always helps to "put yourself in the other man's place." He may have a different sort of job with different problems ... he may prefer to close a deal over, say, a friendly glass of beer while you might prefer something else. But both of you can co-operate if you make it a "policy" to try.

16 Districts Have Census of 1044 Students

Annexation Could Push Tecumseh School District's 'State Value' Over $30,000,000

If 16 districts now sending tuition students to Tecumseh high school annex to the Tecumseh public schools; the local school district will have a state equalized valuation in excess of $30,000,000.

The accompanying chart prepared by Supt. James McDowell shows that Tecumseh No. 11 (Tecumseh Public Schools) now has a state equalized valuation of $23,055,448. The 16 districts have a total state equalized valuation of $7,389,660.

The chart also shows that the 16 districts have a total school census of 1044. The districts currently are sending 166 students to Tecumseh high school. They have 120 students in the seventh and eighth grades and 537 students from kindergarten through the sixth grades.

The school census of the 16 districts with Tecumseh's school census totals 3,505 students.

Letters explaining the possible annexation and why it is being considered have been sent to boards of education in the 16 districts. The smaller boards have been asked to make their wants known to the Tecumseh board by Nov. 5. At that time they will have the opportunity to aid in the planning of possible area elementary and secondary school additions.

These are the steps necessary in annexation of one or more of the 16 districts to Tecumseh No. 11:

1. Each board of education must write the superintendent of public instruction for permission to annex.

2. Each primary district must vote on the annexation. To pass, the issue needs one more than half of those voting in the election.

3. The districts' boards of education requests the Tecumseh board of education to annex their districts. The Tecumseh board of education can accept or reject the districts.

Considering the millage rate, 10 districts have 1.3 mills less for operation than Tecumseh's 6.3; four have 1.7 mills more; one .3 mills less; and one 2.7 mills more.

Five mills on state equalized must be raised in order to receive state aid which provides the bulk of the money needed for operations.

Only one of the 16 districts has any bonded indebtedness. Ridgeway has eight mills, two more mills than Tecumseh's current six.

HOSPITAL ADDITION COMPLETED: The remodeling of the X-ray department at Herrick Memorial hospital has been completed at a cost of $60,000 and new X-ray machines are now in use. The first is a 300 milliamper diagnostic table plus a steroscopic unit for routine admission X-rays for those 15 and older. The hospital also has a 250 K.V. therapy unit used for deep and superficial therapy. The new equipment was a gift.

The complete radiological service includes theraphy — radium treatments — and diagnostic. The equipment is equal to that of any hospital in Michigan.

Radiologists are Dr. D. A. Parker and Dr. J. W. Boyd. Administrator is Orrie Gilbert. Ogland Lay is chief X-ray technician.

In the picture are Clarence Gilman and Ken Herrick of the hospital board; Dr. Boyd; Dr. Lay; Dr. Parker; and Mr. R. W. Herrick, chairman of the board of the Tecumseh Products Company.

District Governor To Visit Rotary Club

The Rotary Club of Tecumseh, next Tuesday, Nov. 1 at 6:15 p.m. will be host to Fred H. Rollins, Jr., Governor of the 223rd District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 38 Rotary Clubs in Southeastern Michigan and including six clubs in Essex County, Canada.

He will address the club here and confer with President Herbert W. Dillon, Secretary Lester Rogers and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Rollins is President of The Rollins Company in Detroit and is a member of the Rotary Club of Detroit, which he joined in 1937. He was president of that Club in 1949-50. During his 15 years of perfect attendance, he has taken an active part in all committees in the club.

Mr. Rollins served in the Armed Forces from 1944 to 1946 — holds the rank of Lieutenant, Supply Corps, U.S.N.R. Since his return to business, he has been active in civic affairs. He was president of the Detroit Better Business Bureau from 1948 to 1950 — and has been a director and member of the executive committee since 1939. He has been a director of the Detroit Retail Merchants' Association, and is now first vice-president.

Also, Mr. Rollins serves as a member of the board of directors for the Detroit Grand Opera Association and the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross.

He was elected District Governor of Rotary International for the 1955-56 fiscal year at Rotary's Golden Anniversary Convention in Chicago last June. He is one of 238 District Governors supervising the activities of some 8,800 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 414,000 business and professional executives in 92 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located President Dillon asserted, in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Tecumseh because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, he said, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the past fiscal year, 467 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 50 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the Islands of the Pacific.

GOV. FRED ROLLINS

GOES TO EUROPE

Pvt. Jose A. Garza, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Garza, Route 2, Tecumseh, is scheduled to be sent to Europe from Fort Riley, Kan., in Nov. as part of Operation Gyroscope, the Army's new unit rotation plan.

His unit, the 10th Infantry Division, is the first division to move under the Gyroscope plan. It will replace the 1st Infantry Division which is returning to the U. S.

Garza, a former employee of Kuehmann's, Inc., entered the Army last April and completed basic training at Fort Riley.

He attended high school in Perrysburg, Ohio.

Accident Injures Mrs. R. W. Dixon

Mrs. R. W. Dixon received a head and knee injury Friday night when the car she was driving was run off Macon road near Saline.

To avoid a head on collision with a car coming from the opposite direction that had just passed another car, she took to the shoulder and lost control.

Her car skidded 75 feet, struck two trees and came to rest against a utility pole. The driver of the other car did not stop.

Mrs. Dixon was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital for X-rays and released.

The Dixon car was extensively damaged.

MEET AT CHURCH

Boys and girls who will take part in trick-or-treat for UNICEF will meet at the Methodist church at 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29. Canisters must be returned by 7 p.m. of the same evening.

Britton Boy Killed While Bird Hunting

Funeral services for Frederick James Tiede, 13, who was accidentally killed while hunting pheasants about 6 p.m. last Thursday were held with a prayer service at the Tiede home two miles east of Holloway and at the North Blissfield Lutheran church Sunday.

The Rev. William Weinlander officiated and burial was in the Blissfield cemetery.

Bearers were Larry Peters, Walter Tiede Jr., Herman Tiede Jr., Richard Faust, Alvin Faust Jr., Charles Faust. The junior choir of the church sang two hymns.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Tiede, Route 2, Britton, was hunting with three companions in section 20 of Ridgeway Township when the accident happened. He was hunting with his brother Carl, 25, and Ronald Maschino, 23, both of Britton, and Michael George, 48, of Detroit.

Blissfield state police said the party was walking through a field when a pheasant flew into the air. George and Maschino both fired at the bird. And Frederick, about 25 yards away, fell to the ground. He received pellets in the left side of his back.

The boy was carried to his home less than a mile away. He was dead when a doctor examined him. Coroner Edward Braun ruled the death accidental.

An eighth grade student at Britton-Macon school, he was a member of the North Blissfield Lutheran church.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers Carl and Wesley; two sisters; Mrs. Dora Mae Maschino of near Britton and Donna Jean at home. He also is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tiede of near Britton and Mrs. Mary Peters, also of near Britton.

Realism

Coach Bob Breniff received a shoulder separation of the left shoulder Monday afternoon when he was tackled by Tecumseh high school players.

He was showing his players how Blissfield runs its plays when he was racked up. At the time he was Blissfield's star running back.

Tecumseh plays Blissfield Friday night but the injury will not keep the coach out of the game.

Halloween Parties Are Planned

Two Halloween parties are planned for young folks.

The first, chairmaned by John Hamilton, will be for students from the ninth through the twelfth grades which will be held Saturday, Oct. 29. This will be a costume dance. Refreshments will be served.

Cal Damon is chairman of the party for pre-school children and students from kindergarten through the eighth grade. This party will be held on the recreation field Monday, Oct. 31, at 7 p.m.

The small fry party will be in costume with prizes going for the best costumes. Games also will be played. Prizes will be awarded in 10 groups.

Chairmen from these clubs also are serving on the committee: Business and Profesional Women, Helen French; Rotary, the Rev. Blair Bashore and Robert French; Exchange, Russ Garno; V.F.W., Warren Filter; V.F.W. Auxiliary, Kathleen Richards; American Legion, Don Maves; Legion Auxiliary, Joyce Manwaring; under teen PTA, Janet Maples; C.A.P., Dick Jacobs; retail merchants, Sally Pope; recreation board, Fay Whelan; and band, Don Johnson.

31 Per Cent of Fund Goal Turned in

Because the community fund drive scheduled to end today has reached only 31 per cent of its $11,234 quota, the drive has been extended to Nov. 1, reports Jack Osburn, chairman.

As of Wednesday $3474 had been turned in.

He said block captains and solicitors have been slow in turning in funds to area chairmen.

To reach the quota each Tecumseh family would have to give $6.38, he explained. This would make an average of 18 cents per agency participating in the drive, he said.

Families that have not given $6.38 are urged to give the balance by sending the money to Merlyn Downing or to chairman Osburn. Letters may be sent to either man in care of the Tecumseh Community Fund, Tecumseh, Mich.

Contrary to some reports, Mr. Osburn said the emergency fund has just slightly more than $15,000. This money, he said, is held in event of a disaster. Last year this fund was used to buy an emergency vehicle for the city.

Ron Sutton Buys Paper

Roldon P. Sutton, formerly of Tecumseh, has purchased the Modesto Tribune in Modesto, Calif., with O. Craig Hawley of Los Angeles, Calif.

They published their first issue Oct. 7.

Both parties had been employed for many years by the Los Angeles Herald Express.

Mr. Sutton, son of Mrs. Evelyn Sutton, and the late Frank Sutton, spent his boyhood in Tecumseh.

He is married to the former Mary Lou Curtiss of Tecumseh. The couple has three children. Mrs. Sutton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Curtiss of Tecumseh.

AWARDING A QUEEN—Ken Miller presented a bouquet of roses to homecoming queen Johanna Young at the school party after the ball game last Friday. [illegible] at Tecumseh high school.

Others in the queen's court are Rita Crosby, junior; Diane Fox, sophomore; and Merene Boltz, senior.

Eggleston's Jewelry furnished the roses.

Other pictures of the homecoming are on page three.

Picture Is Worth 10,000 Words

According to legend, it was a Chinese sage who first said: "One picture is worth more than 10,000 words."

If that is true, the picture content of today's HERALD sums up the value of many hundred thousand words.

This is the first of a comprehensive program to increase the use of pictures in this newspapers.

The Tecumseh HERALD now has in operation a Fairchild Scan-A-Graver engraving machine. This machine not only permits increased use of pictures, but also more rapid production of the printing plates. The result is better and more timely pictorial coverage.

The Scan-A-Graver, which made practically all of the cuts in today's paper, is an electronically controlled machine which produces halftone engravings on plastic material by a direct process without a recourse to photography or the use of chemicals.

The machine is a self-contained unit about four feet long. It resembles a small lathe. The mechanical components consist of two cylinders mounted on a common shaft, an engraving needle or stylus, an electronic eye scanning beam, a gear housing, a spacing generator, and a light meter, all mounted on top of the cabinet.

Mounted below the machine are twin electronic amplifiers for transmitting the signal from the scanning beam. A microscope is provided for checking the tone level before making the engraving.

The picture to be made into a halftone cut is placed on one cylinder. A 6x6 inch piece of plastic, 21/1000 of an inch thick, is then placed on the engraving cylinder. The etching is done by the needle or stylus, which is heated red hot, 1600 degrees. It vibrates against the plastic 305 times per second. The depth to which the stylus penetrates the plastic is controlled by reflections from the photograph on a photo-electric cell. The whiter parts of a photo penetrate deeper than black or middle tones. The point of the stylus burns a large hole or crater when transmitting a white impulse, leaving a very small surface to pick up the ink. Conversely, it burns a small hole when transmitting black impulses, leaving a large surface to pick up the ink.

After a picture is made into a halftone plastic, the plastic is washed and dried in a matter of seconds and cut to the size as indicated on the order from the editor's desk.

The plastic halftone is covered on the back with double coated adhesive tape and sent to the make-up department where it is mounted in place in the page for direct printing.

Through the use of the Scan-A-Graver, more up-to-minute pictorial coverage can be obtained. It requires less than six minutes to make a one-column plastic halftone cut and 12-minutes for a two column halftone.

(If you don't understand how it works after reading the above description — and you probably won't, drop in to see the machine in operation.)

C of C Wants To Know If It Should Continue

In a letter to business, professional and industrial places the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce this week is taking a poll on whether to continue.

The letter makes these points:

"We feel that we have been doing a good job in Tecumseh — handling many things that tend to make our city a bigger and better community.

"Nevertheless, the apathy of a substantial number of merchants and professional persons — and their consequent failure to join our organization — influences the chamber to question whether or not the continuation of its services is generally desired.

"Please fill in the blank below and return. If you vote to continue the chamber of commerce, we will expect your membership in 1956.

"If you do not return the form by Oct. 29, we will assume that you are in favor of dissolving the organization."

The letter also asked: "Would you serve on the board of directors?"

It is signed "board of directors, Frances Pennington, secretary."

Dues are $25 per year per member.

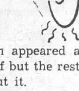
The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears



CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THE FIRST SNOW OF the season appeared at 4:48 Monday. Kids loved the white, cold stuff but the rest of us probably could get along nicely without it.

THE PROUD TECUMSEH parent gloated over the report card of his tiny first grader and he remarked how wonderful it was that she had gotten all "A's". She came right back with: "I did not. I got two zeros, too." The zeros, the proud parent hastens to add, were for no days absent and no times tardy.

EXPERTS FROM THE printing press factory made their annual check last week on the monster that prints this paper. Part of their job was to put on a new blanket and, to keep it from sticking, talcum had to be liberally sprinkled on the blanket. The expert remarked: "The press may not work but it sure will smell pretty."

SOMEBODY AT THE ball game Friday had a lot of gas to waste. An announcement was made between halves that some motorist had left his car's motor running behind Tasty-Freeze.

GLENN KOHLER REPORTS that at first he thought one of the pheasants he shot last week died of a heart attack. He said it did not succumb to his expert (??) shooting right away and for a moment he thought he was using delayed action buckshot. But when the bird was cleaned it was discovered that one BB had penetrated its heart.

ANOTHER FINE SERIES begins in the HERALD this week. We are sure you will enjoy Mrs. Hoyt Whelan's "The Mayflower Pilgrimage."

HAVE YOU SEEN the riotous colors of the maples on north Union? You're certainly missing something if you haven't.

MARY MC WILLIAMS picked violets in her garden Sunday.

GLENN DRISCOLL REPORTED this little item in the "Adrian Watchtower" for May 15, 1853: "Tecumseh might in many ways be called a model town. It is a pleasant place to live and inexpensive, too. Last year operating expenses totalled $70. Total taxes raised were $80."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: "Everybody needs beauty as well as bread, places to play in, and pray in, where nature may heal and cheer and give strength to body and soul alike." — John Muir

SCOUT TROOP 73 WILL REORGANIZE

There will be a reorganization meeting of Boy Scout Troop 73 at the Scout cabin Thursday, Nov. 3 at 7 p. m. This troop met once a month all summer but has lapsed during the last few weeks. Jerry O'Brien is troop leader and requests that all former members attend and all others who are interested in being members.

Enoch Spangler Died Tuesday

Enoch M. Spangler, a resident of Tecumseh for the past 32 years, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. John Gregg of 301 S. Market street in Hudson where he had been a guest for the past week. He had been failing in health for several months.

Mr. Spangler, whose home in Tecumseh was at 601 S. Evans street, came here from Toledo and until his retirement two years ago he had been employed by the Tecumseh Products Company.

He was born in Henry county, Ohio, Nov. 20, 1874, and was the son of Francis M. and Julia Ann Mohart Spangler.

He is survived by three sons, Harold, Homer and Russell Spangler, all of Fostoria, Ohio; four step-children, Mrs. Gregg of Hudson, Mrs. Melvin Greenwald of Houghton Lake, Mrs. Harold Treat of Roscommon and Erwin Richardson of Tecumseh; several grandchildren and a brother, John Spangler of Springfield, Ohio. He was preceded in death by his wife, Electa who died in 1941 and by two brothers and three sisters.

He was a member of the Order of Eagles, the Knights of Pythias, the Oddfellows and the Rebekahs.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. at the Green Funeral Home. Burial will be in Brookside cemetery where graveside ceremonies will be conducted by the Oddfellows.

PTA Institute Is Scheduled

A Parent Education Institute sponsored by the Michigan Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations will be held in the Rackham School of Graduate Studies in Ann Arbor next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 2 and 3.

Theme of the institute is "Lifetime of Mental Health" and the principal speaker both days will be Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, who will be remembered for her informative talks in Tecumseh.

There will also be study group meetings where the pre-school, school age, teen-age and gifted child will be considered.

Parents desiring to attend either meeting, Wednesday or Thursday, may call Mrs. Laine Holden, 122-R for further information or for transportation.

Among those from Tecumseh planning to attend the meetings are Mrs. Holden, Mrs. James Elliott, Mrs. Murray Day, Mrs. George Elliott and Mrs. Betty Wing.

Success is just a good idea coupled with hard work.

Summer dresses may not have as many hooks, but they have plenty of eyes on them.

Mayflower Pilgrimage

BY MRS. HOYT WHELAN

In observance of the 335th anniversary of the sailing of the Pilgrim Fathers from Holland and England and their landing on Plymouth Rock in Plymouth, Massachusetts, the officers of the General Society of Mayflower Descendents arranged a trip to Holland and England to visit the places where the Pilgrims had lived, and worked, and suffered from persecution because of their religious beliefs. Only members of the society and their immediate families were eligible for this trip.

Two large airplanes were chartered, one holding 71 people and the other 81. All seats were filled, and a dozen more were turned away because of lack of room for them. The larger plane flew from Chicago directly to London, England, where they transfered to two smaller planes and continued to Amsterdam, Holland, where they met those of the smaller plane which had started from New York City, stopped in Boston, Massachusetts, to pick up those gathered there (including my daughter, Miss Marion E. Whelan, and myself) and landed in Amsterdam after having set down at Shannon, Ireland, for about three quarters of an hour.

LOSE FIVE HOURS

As we were flying eastward we lost five hours in time, and after setting our watches back soon forgot about that. We flew through the edge of Hurricane Ione, with wind at 115 miles per hour, but the plane was so big and steady that we did not notice it at all, although we were twice told to fasten our seat belts. Marion and I had the last two seats on the right hand in the tail of the plane, mine next to the window where I could look out and admire the country below, when the clouds were not too thick below for us to see anything else but clouds. We were flying at 17,000 feet altitude and most of the time there were clouds below us, but when they broke away the sea looked like hammered silver, and we could see large cakes of floating ice.

As we neared the coast of Ireland we saw small, rocky islands, which indicated we were nearing land.

Breakfast, cooked on the plane, was served to us as we neared the land. This was the first time that breakfast had been cooked on a plane. It was delicious: orange juice, rolls and butter, scrambled eggs, bacon, coffee, and generous servings of each with more coffee if you wished it.

The captain of the plane told us that the ocean had been one of the roughest he had ever seen, with the 115 mile per hour wind, but we did not know it until after we had started on again from Shannon. While there we noted so many young women with small children in the waiting room. An air ship, with families of soldiers returning from Germany, had broken down there and they had been waiting 36 hours for arrangements to continue their journey. Babies were sleeping all over the place, in cribs and on improvised beds on davenports.

SUN IS BRIGHT

The sun was bright as we landed, and continued so as we went on over Ireland and Wales. The captain told us we were very fortunate as Wales does not have more than 10 days in a year as bright as the Sept. 23 we flew over it and could clearly see the landscape below. As we passed over Limerick, Ireland, before Wales, we could see the landscape clearly, but as we neared London, England, the clouds obscured our view of it.

As we neared Amsterdam the clouds moved away again and we got a grand view of the regular Dutch fields, outlined by ditches for drainage, which were beautifully green. The captain also said that while we might feel that we were alone in the air it was not so. During July and Aug. there is a flight every seventeen minutes. Planes flying east fly at an odd number of feet altitude, and those flying west at an even number of feet. Planes must stick to the altitude assigned to them, and may not change without permission from the control room. All this makes for safety.

We arrived at Schiphol Airport, Amsterdam, at 4:45 p.m. This is the only major airport in the world which is below sea level, and is 12 feet below. The buildings are beautiful, with many flowers. The Dutch people love flowers, and have them everywhere. We saw no weeds, whatever, in Holland except a very small patch near the sand dunes which I think may have been left to hold the sand from blowing.

3,918 X-rays Were Taken in Tecumseh Area

Three thousand nine hundred and eighteen X-rays recently were taken in the Tecumseh area by the mobile X-ray unit.

Dr. R. J. Hanna, director of the county health department, reports that Britton had 237 X-rays; the Tecumseh Products Company had 2,636; and Tecumseh had 1,045.

Dr. Hanna said this was a very fine showing.

He also urges all persons who received letters from the state health department to visit their doctor immediately for a report on their X-ray.

Judging from what we hear, more people with coughs go to theatres than to doctors.

A fellow who follows the horses sure has to keep ahead of them.

FIREMEN KEPT BUSY

Tecumseh firemen were kept busy during the week but no serious damages resulted from any of the three fires.

They had a grass fire Thursday on Burt street and one Saturday on Russell road.

Monday they answered an alarm at 3375 Muray Drive when an oil burner exploded.

Retan-Verrier Vows Exchanged

At a pretty home wedding at 8 p.m. Saturday evening, Barbara Jean Verrier and Lavon Clair Retan were married by the Rev. Edward Escolme in a double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Verrier of 121 N. Ottawa and Mr. Retan's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Retan of Adrian.

MRS. LAVON RETAN

An alcove, which was the setting for the ceremony, was decorated with a hamper of white chrysanthemums and pompoms flanked by natural palms and lighted candelabra.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Theresa Ann Verrier, wore a two piece, pink dress with pencil slim skirt and jacket made in tunic effect. Her necklace and earrings of rose colored rhinestones were a gift of the groom and her costume was accented by a corsage of white roses.

The bridesmaid was also in pink, her dress having a skirt with nine kick pleats and featuring three-quarter length sleeves. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Both costumes had black accesesories.

Mrs. Verrier's dress was of silk and lace in gun metal gray while Mrs. Retan wore a two piece dress of blue rayon. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

Jack Retan attended his brother as best man.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony at the bride's home with Nancy Porter, Janice Jedele and Rhea Swartz assisting. Mrs. Collin Fox cut the bride's cake which had a "wedding ring" decoration of pink and white pompoms and it was served from a table centered by an arrangment of the same flowers. Mrs. Jane Retan and Evelyn Schfella were in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Retan left for a trip through Michigan and on their return will make their home in Adrian. The bride, who graduated from Tecumseh high school, has been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co., while the groom, a graduate of Sand Creek high school is employed at a service station.

The business meeting started at 3 p.m. and the theme for the day was "Witness Where You Are."

A ham dinner was served to 170 visiting Leaguers at 5:30.

During the evening the Rev. E. A. Westcott of Milan lectured on his experiences as a missionary for the Missouri synod in Nigeria, Africa from 1948 to 1954. After his lecture, the two local leagues presented several comedy skits.

The rally was closed with a candlelight vesper service, with the Rev. Westcott preaching the sermon and the Rev. V. H. Schwartz acting as liturgist.

MEN'S CLUB MEETS

The Men's Club of Immanuel Lutheran church met in the church parlors Thursday evening, Oct. 13. The Rev. V. H. Schwartz led a topic discussion on "American Churches—Beliefs and Practices."

During the business meeting it was decided to purchase a sign which reads, "The Church of the Lutheran Hour," to be placed in front of the church. Plans for the 1955-56 dart ball league were discussed.

James Kujawa and Alvin Pollitz showed colored slides of Austria and other points of interest in Europe, which were taken by the former while serving there in the U. S. Army. Ralph Schafer and Franklin Schroeder were on the refreshment committee for the evening.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB

The Fellowship Club of Immanuel Lutheran church met at the home of Clarence and Rosemary Schroeder Monday evening, Oct. 17. The Rev. V. H. Schwartz led a topic discussion on New Testament history. It was decided to change the meeting date to the third Wednesday of each month until the dart ball league is over.

A masquerade party has been planned for Saturday night, Oct. 29 to be held in the church parlors. After the business meeting the host and hostess led the group in several entertaining games after which they served a delicious lunch.

MACON COMMUNITY CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot of Brooklyn opened their home to the Macon Community Club Tuesday evening. A cooperative supper was followed by a short business meeting conducted by Clayton Bigelow. The group decided to list their meeting dates on the church calendar, which will be printed soon. Mrs. Ralph Halladay accompanied the group singing and William Bigelow played two piano selections. Mrs. Carrie Payne recited "I Know Not What May Befall Me."

A poem "My Garden" was read by Mrs. Hamilton Moore. The Nov. meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow.

The date of the annual Macon Women's Club banquet has been changed to Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 7 p.m. instead of Nov. 10.

Macon Homemakers Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Lois Jordan, Friday. A dessert luncheon was followed by the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Carl Hawkins. The holiday work shop will be held at Madison high school Saturday, Nov. 12. During the Nov. meeting, the group will do china and textile painting at the home of Mrs. Helen Thomas.

Macon Youth Fellowship met at the church Sunday evening, Ernest Gilbert was leader and following the business meeting a miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Miss Mary Lou Alderdyce and Dean Moore. They opened many lovely gifts and cider and doughnuts were served.

Mrs. Ellen Collins and Mrs. Mabel Neidham and son George were in Jackson Saturday morning to attend the Pennington-Walker wedding held in St. John's Catholic church.

Miss Sandra Cook of Chelsea spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis.

Floyd "Bob" Spence Jr. is walking on crutches due to inuries suffered when he had an accident with a chain saw.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Wonderly were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robison of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. William Mintz, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Yoakum and their mother Mrs. Arthur Mintz of AuClaire, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Withrow of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wonderly, Carol and Dick Bilby, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wonderly and son Ricky of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. George Squires.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bruder of Tecumseh and Mrs. Hamilton Moore and son Richard were in Ypsilanti Sunday afternoon and helped Susan Jill Furlong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Furlong celebrate her second birthday.

Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and son of Clayton spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell VanValkenburg.

Children are asked to bring empty milk cartons or containers of some kind to Sunday School next Sunday at the Macon church. These will be marked for the U.N.I.C.E.F. Hallowe'en party to be held in Macon Monday, Oct. 31. The party is for all children of the community, not just members of the Methodist church.

Dean Moore spent from Tuesday until Friday in Ludington attending a state Grange meeting. He was chosen Prince Charming from Lenawee county and will represent the youth of the county at future meetings.

Mrs. Charles Patterson and Clayton Bigelow are attending the state Grange meeting in Ludington.

Cubs Win Fifth, 21-0

When the Cubs met Plymouth on the gridiron Sunday afternoon they seemed to be evenly matched during the first half.

First touchdown was made on a pass from Dave Weakly to Bob Davila which was a 40 yard gain on the play. Jon Aho scored the extra point. Plymouth then worked their way to the Tecumseh 20 yard line just before the half ended.

During the second half Tecumseh changed their defense and Plymouth had a negative gain in yardage. Second touchdown was made when Dave Weakly swept around his own right end for an 18 yard run to score the touchdown.

Jon Aho again plunged across for the extra point. Final touchdown came late in the fourth period with Jon Aho going over right tackle seven yards and touchdown. Dave Weakly made the extra point on a quarterback sneak.

The next game is Saturday at 1 p.m. on Tecumseh recreation field vs. Miraculous Medal School, Jackson.

Business Women Hear Story of Flying Saucers

Members of the Business and Professional Woman's Club took a trip into outer space at their meeting Monday night when George Adamson gave an informal talk on flying saucers.

He told of the fakes and facts that have been discovered regarding the subject in the past eight years, but assured his audience that the facts outweighed the fakes. By charts and graphs he illustrated the painstaking work of the scientists in correlating the information so far known. He has been in personal touch with most of the men in this field.

Mr. Adamson was introduced by Miss Marjorie Wickwire, program chairman and his talk was preceded by two piano solos played by Miss Johanna Young, who was a guest of the club.

In all there were six guests and 40 members around the tables which were decorated in the Halloween theme with chrysanthemums and miniature jack-o-lanterns.

During the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Ray Sluyter, five new members were presented by the membership chairman, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg. They are Mrs. Lucy Lawton, Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Mrs. Carlos Jones, Mrs. Elmer Burleson, Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe and Mrs. Beulah Todd. It was announced that Mrs. Archie Porter would no longer be a member as she is leaving town.

In response to a request for volunteers to act as judges for the Halloween party Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Ralph Sager, Mrs. Marvin Watkins, Mrs. Purnell Osburn and Alice Randall offered to assist. Mrs. Mary Drake also volunteered to be committee woman for the Wild Rose Brownie Scout troop sponsored by the club.

The matter of the club undertaking the canvas of the town for a city directory was discussed and the responsibility was accepted. An announcement then was read of the Book Fair to be held at the public library Nov. 14 to 18 when new books will be offered for sale.

Hudson Celebrates Tecumseh Homecoming

Tigers Drub Indians 45-0

You would have thought it was Hudson's homecoming. Prior to the game Friday night Tecumseh high school students held a parade. Three of the floats were marked "We'll skunk 'em"; "It's Time to Strike"; and "Operation Victory." All of these things came to pass—but for Hudson. The Hudson Tigers did the skunking, 45-0, striking early and late to score an overwhelming victory.

Three things contributed to the Tigers' lopsided non-league win:

1. The Indians came up flatter than a deflated pigskin after their brilliant 9-0 win over Bedford the previous Friday.

2. About half the team of starters were out with injuries, includin Al Dickinson, quarterback; Val Spangler, right half; and Ken Miller, end.

3. Hudson has one of the finest rated class "C" teams in the state. The Tigers have a rugged line that knows fundamentals and they have some hard-running backs. This is a tougfh combination for any team to beat.

SCORE SEVEN TDS

For the record this is how the Tigers scored in their parade of seven touchdowns and three extra points:

1. Bill Knapp, Tiger fullback, took the opening kickoff and after being apparently stopped at midfield, he skirted to the sidelines, going 82 yards for the first score. The running attempt of the extra point was stopped.

2. Gordon Fish scored from the two in the second quarter after an out of bounds punt gave Hudson possession on the 24. Knapp scored the extra point on a pass.

3. The Tigers covered an Indian fumble on the 37. Redding tossed a pass to Knapp that carreid to the four yard line. After two cracks at the line, Weber scored the second touchdown in the quarter. The extra point attempt was smothered.

4. After taking a punt on the 36 the Tigers ran the ball to the 18 early in the third period; then Redding passed to Tomer on a beautiful pass play for the score. Redding passed to Fish for the extra point.

5. Again in the third period Hudson struck when Ron Berkshire, 180 pound end, gathered in an Elliott pass and went 23 yards for the td.

6. In the final quarter the Tigers continued to pour it on when Redding passed to Tomer from the 18. Weber ran the extra point.

7. Tiger end Dale Frantz intercepted a Yoakum pass and went 34 yards for the last Tiger td.

MARCH TO SEVEN

Tecumseh threatened only once. This was in the waning moments of the first half when Yoakum passes to Larned carried the ball 63 yards but the Indian attack sputtered on the seven yard line.

In the final period the Indians' penetrated again when Yoakum, subbing for the injured Dickinson, picked off a Tiger pass and carried to the 26. He fumbled moments later when, as usual, the center of the big Tiger line, smothered him. Larry, weighing only 120 pounds caked with mud, performed creditably. His passes in the fading moments of the first half were hitting their mark. But you can't continue to get passes off when you're not protected. Larry had few moments of protection.

Others who fought valiantly in the losing cause were Ray Larned and Gary Marsh.

YOUNGSTERS PLAY

The game served to give Coach Breniff a line on some freshman and sophomore players. In addition to Yoakum, Coach Breniff had frosh Tony Kasik at center and Mike Walters at end part of the time.

He also used sophs Dave Elliott at quarter, Tony Scutt at guard and Gary Williams at end. Although these players were inexperienced Coach Breniff should have liked what he saw. Their play and their future possibilities probably gave him his only consolation in the game.

SCORE BY QUARTERS:

Hudson	6	13	13	13	45

Britton Loses to Onsted, 38-6

Britton-Macon Tories were blasted by Onsted, 38-6 in a Little Six league game Friday night.

The Wildcats began the scoring when Timm passed to Branch for 20 yards and a td. McCaughey skirted end for 62 yards for the second td of the quarter.

Timm intercepted a Tory pass in the second period and ran 62 yards for the td. Later in the period Timm blocked a punt on the 4 and Ed Hadden scored on a sneak.

Carncross scored a Wildcat td in the opening moments of the third from four yards after a 76-yard sustained drive.

Britton scored its only touchdown in the third period on a screen pass play from Gerald Grady to John Korican. The picture play covered 53 yards.

Onsted completed the scoring in the fourth period on a 20 yard pass from Timm to Lighthall.

Sunday the Knights shut out St. Mary's of Wayne, 20-0.

The Knights scored twice in the first quarter and once in the final period. John Murray scored first from about 20 yards out in the first period. Moments later he picked up a St. Mary's fumble and rumbled 38 yards for a td.

In the final period Paul Wegrzyn exploded into the center of the line and jetted 78 yards for the final td.

The Knights scored two other touchdowns but they were called back because of penalties.

THE MIDDLE GUARD

by LES BINGAMAN

SAN FRANCISCO—Unquestionably the roughest road trip of each season for the Lions is the annual 10-day visit to the West Coast, where we play the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers, both always tough for us, on successive Sundays.

It was bad enough meeting the Rams and 49ers one after another at Briggs Stadium, but playing them in succession on their home grounds is doubly difficult.

Unlike trips to Eastern Cities, we must remain out here between games instead of returning to the friendlier atmosphere of Detroit, the cost of two West Coast trips in one season being prohibitive.

This creates a number of problems, chief among them being the eventual loneliness of many of the married men for their families. Then there is always the fear that some player might get a little too rambunctuous so far away from home and land in trouble—though the Lions, fortunately, have little to worry about on that score.

Extra Dose of Film

Just to make sure, however, and to keep the family men's minds on football instead of home, Coach Buddy Parker and his staff keep the Lions occupied with more practices and more team meetings than normally.

One of their first tasks after checking in at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, following the seven-hour flight from Detroit Friday, was to view films of the Rams' game the preceding Sunday. Saturday morning was devoted to a brief workout.

Immediately after the game Sunday, the team was treated to a buffet at the hotel. Monday they were flown to San Francisco, but they're staying at a pretty motel near Palo Alto, home of the Stanford Indians, while preparing for the coming Sunday's clash with the 49ers. They will fly home the following day.

In between this moving about, the schedule is as I outlined it last week, studying game movies, practicing offense, more movies, practicing defense, more movies, trying out new plays and more movies.

Cards, Music and Movies

Of course, not all the time is devoted to practice and studying films, and the Lions while away their idle hours in a number of pursuits.

Card playing is a big favorite, fellows like Bobby Layne, Jug Girard, Jim Cain, Jim Doran, Doak Walker, Leon Hart, Sonny Gandee and sometimes Dick Stanfel engaging in bridge or hearts or similar games.

Joe Schmidt likes to listen to popular music, and so do Jim Martin, Layne, Hart, Stanfel and Andy Miketa.

Virtually everybody enjoys going to the movies—sometimes the team is taken in a group—but by and large you'll find the rookies are in the film houses more than the others. This would include Dave Middleton, Jim Salsbury, George Atkins and Lee Riley.

Sometimes the players visit the Hollywood movie sets, and this is an experience, though so far no one has been given a screen test—but I'm still hoping!

Just Some Thoughts

THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN wondering what has happened to city plans for a new city hall on the former East Branch school site can take heart. Councilmen and the city manager currently are studying various plans and they are visiting other cities to see what has been done in the way of new city halls. They are doing this "to give Tecumseh one of the finest city halls for its size in the state." We commend them for this planning.

BEFORE YOU SIGN THE letter put out by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce this week on whether the chamber should continue or disband, you had better give the matter serious thought. Forget, if you can, any personal prejudices you may have and think what a town would be like that has no chamber of commerce to serve as a clearing house for information that is sought about the town. Personally, we think the chamber should continue; but to do this it will have to have more support than it has had in the past year. You can't run it the way it should be run without sufficient funds.

SEE WHERE BLISSFIELD walloped little Pittsford 54-0 in football. This is another mark in the Sugar Boys' record book; but what does it actually mean to Blissfield to be able to continue to wallop the weaker schools of the Lenawee County Athletic Association and what does it do to the weaker schools to receive such walloping? We would like to see teams like Blissfield, Hudson and possibly Clinton become members of the Southeastern League. The league now has only five teams. Three more good teams would make possible a better league and easier scheduling for teams presently in the Southeastern League.

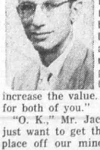
"I'm Frank Jackson. We used to live here and still own a house in town we'd like to sell. Could you come with us to look it over?"

Upon inspection, the house proved "run down." It needed attention, but the owners didn't want to spend any money on it. However, they owned it free and clear.

"What do you suggest?" Mr. Jackson asked.

"A contract sale," I replied. "Sell it with a small down payment. Carry the balance yourself at interest. We'll try to find a buyer who has lots of energy, and a little money. He will put the property in shape and increase the value. It'll be a break for both of you."



"O. K.," Mr. Jackson said. "We just want to get the worry of this place off our minds. Sell it to a deserving young fellow."

Within 45 days, we did.

May we work out a sale for YOU too? Whether you want "all cash" or a "small down payment" we have the experience and buyers needed to produce RESULTS.

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

Break: 8:15 but almost 1:30 plane time. A terrible break, and I will no longer make fun of Mr. Greasy Locks and his berth. He's the smart one. No berths for the Touborgs—naught but a pillow and a blanket, and one's seat let down on a few inch incline. Mix-up on berths and there are no extra ones.

The moon and stars are so close right outside my window that I can't sleep. There's no place to prowl to. Better call it a day. What a bright star I'll be to greet Dr. Italian in Rome tomorrow morning, and what a drag at sight seeing.

Hours pass—1:30 our time (such a short uncomfortable nap) but the rays of the sun are breaking through the clouds — here comes the sun — a yellow blast in my face. The fields of Normandy are beneath us, clearly visible at 20,000 feet. We've had breakfast and an aspirin; the general activity is contagious, and I do believe I'm ready to face a new day.

"Fasten your life belt." In Paris for just forty-five minutes.

ENTER PARIS!

A two hour stop over in Paris —all countries look the same from the air, and since we weren't allowed to leave the airport, there was very little atmosphere except for the jabbering of French. I cocked my ear, caught a few words, but my lack of sleep made me very blase' and I was content to sip a cup of miserable coffee and visit with our two women passengers — a sweet girl from New York who is meeting her husband in Beirut; a Miss Bradley from Pittsburgh who is traveling around the world by herself—an old maid of probably 40 years, very efficient (wouldn't she love my description of her?)

We're up 17,000 feet, very smooth, but Jens feels just a little green. He's sleeping now and I'm exhausted, but hate to miss a minute. It's a shame he's sitting on the aisle because I love to follow the jumble of conversation around me. A new couple joined us at Paris. He's sleek and moustached, leans over and kisses his dark bespectacled wife intermittently, and she continues her knitting. Am wondering if her knit one, purl one, will have a few gaps. I have enough difficulty knitting without a lover watching over me intently!

Just started a mystery story. Odor of garlic coming from the small galley ahead. "Fasten your seat belts, please," the loud speaker said, so probably we're due for a few jolts. Daddy is fastened in, and is reclining again, eyes closed.

Mrs. Wintersteen Hosts Music Club

Mrs. John Wintersteen was hostess for the Oct. meeting of the Music Club last Tuesday evening with 16 members and one guest, Mrs. Oscar Bryan present. The club was pleased to welcome Mrs. Clyde Smith back into active membership after her absence from Tecumseh.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. William Hayden announcement was made of the meeting of the southeast district of federated music clubs and tentative dates were set for chorus practices. The chorus has several advance engagements for the winter season. It was also announced that the public library will hold a book fair Nov. 14 to 18 when new books may be purchased by the public.

Miss Marie Wintersteen was program leader and presented three periods of the ballet. She entitled them, "Yesterday," "Music and the Dance" and "Ballet in the United States." Musical recordings illustrated each phase of the subject.

The next meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Day and Mrs. Hayden.

SOHIO GUARANTEED RADIATOR PROTECTION

Ordinarily when you protect your radiator with non-evaporative anti-freeze in the Fall, you're never sure but what you'll need to add more later on to replace what may be lost through leakage or other causes. But there is a way to buy non-exaporative anti-freeze that guarantees you against loss of anti-freeze. It's Sohio Guaranteed Radiator Protection . . . with permanent type Anti-Freeze — long available as a service of Sohio and its dealers. With it you have a guarantee that Sohio will give you replacement anti-freeze if you lose protection through leakage, boil-over, or any other cause. Yet, Guaranteed Radiator Protection with permanent type Anti-Freeze costs you no more than one fill of other non-evaporative anti-freezes without the guarantee!

OFFER EXPIRES NOV. 15!

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

1 First, Sohio thoroughly checks your car's cooling system, to be sure that it's water-tight.
2 Next, your radiator is protected to 20 degrees below zero with non-evaporative anti-freeze.
3 You get a written guarantee that the solution in your radiator will be protected against loss until April 1, 1956.
4 If a radiator check during winter shows you've lost protection by five degrees or more Sohio adds enough permanent type Anti-Freeze free to restore protection to 20 degrees below.

New Chevrolet Will Be Shown Friday, Nov. 4

Climaxing a sales year that promises to set new all-time records for the automobile industry, Chevrolet will introduce 1956 passenger cars Friday, Nov. 4.

The new models will go on display simultaneously at dealer showrooms across the country. Although details have been withheld, the company has reported the forthcoming line is the most diversified in its history.

W. E. Fish, general sales manager of Chevrolet, predicted one of the company's most successful retail showings.

"This is the biggest day of the year for Chevrolet dealers," Fish commented, "and they traditionally go all out to make it a memorable occasion for the people who visit their showrooms.

"Special entertainment, decorations and favors are an accepted policy by thousands of dealers. The expense in showroom trim alone will run well over $3,000,000. Dealers want to be certain that the background and setting of the new cars do justice to their many improvements."

A feature at many showings this year will be demonstration rides in a duplicate of the car that clipped a full two minutes off the Pikes Peak hill climb record. The officially certified mark was set in Sept. with a heavily disguised 1956 model.

Walter Kelley, Robin Morse and the star Ernest Borgnine in a scene from "Marty," the tender love story that has become a widely acclaimed movie. It co-stars Betsy Blair.

Does Eating Fish Build The Brain . . .?

Probably half of the people today believe that fish IS an important brain food. This is a belief that is entirely without scientific foundation.

Yet it is no more of a fallacy than many other beliefs about health. Rely on your Doctor's guidance rather than rumor or fables. Only by regular use of your Doctor's knowledge are you assured of best health.

Services Held for Harry U. Abbott

Harry U. Abbott died at 10:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 20 as the result of a heart attack at the home of his son Leslie Abbott in Dearborn. He was 80 years of age.

The son of Eli and Clara Barsocks Abbott, Mr. Abbott was born March 27, 1875 at Watson Station, Seneca County, Ohio. Oct. 21, 1899, he was married to Ina B. VanValkenburg, who preceded him in death Sept. 1, 1944, as did a daughter Marion Blanche, Nov. 14, 1901.

He moved from Ohio to Michigan in 1882 with his parents to a farm in Franklin Township. Shortly after the turn of the century, he moved his family to a farm in Tecumseh Township. In 1929, he moved into Tecumseh village where he was employed by the village and later by the Tecumseh Products Company.

He was a member of the Tecumseh Methodist church, a life member of Tecumseh Masonic Lodge No. 69, F. and A. M. and the Royal Arch and Knights Templar. He was also a member of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Abbott leaves a sister, Mrs. Harry Van Doren of Adrian, two sons, Leslie B. Abbott of Dearborn and Russell W. Abbott of Toledo; and three grandchildren, Leslie Patterson Abbott of Dearborn and Jeannine and Lorraine Abbott of Toledo.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Horace James, pastor of the Tecumseh Methodist church, Monday at 2 p.m. in the Collins Funeral Home followed by a Masonic burial service at Brookside cemetery. The Masonic service was in charge of Past Worthy Master, Howard Wilson Sr.

Bearers were R. W. Puffer, E. H. McConnell, Kenton Hunt, Stanley Miller and Claire and Victor Gillespie, all Masons.

Friends and relatives attended the services from Kalamazoo, Dearborn, Toledo, Adrian, Clinton and Tecumseh.

Give Fur-Like Fabrics Care Due Real Fur

Fur-like fabrics seen in so many of the new fall and winter coats are really orlon-dynel pile materials.

The fabric, which is on some yard goods counter, resembles sheared beaver or a high quality mouton, describes Bernetta Kahabka, clothing specialist at Michigan State University. But it is entirely new and is not intended to be a substitute for fur, she declares.

The coats are available in full length, three-quarter length and shortie styles and come in color tones of beige, grey, brown and black. There are two types of fur-like fabrics in the orlon-dynel combination, explains Miss Kahabka. One has a knitted back; the other a woven back. The pile of the knitted back fabric is 65 per cent orlon and 35 per cent dynel, and the backing is 100 per cent dynel.

Miss Kahabka describes the material as strikingly different with a deep rich pile and very light in weight. Because of dynel's extreme sensitivity to heat, the fabric should receive special care. She suggests that when such a garment is taken to be cleaned, the dry cleaner should be told the fiber content. Manufacturers advise a fur cleaning method to be used in the care of the orlon-dynel coats.

Another precaution given by the Michigan State extension specialist is not to brush or try to smooth the pile of the fur-like fabric when it is wet or damp.

Services Held for William C. Brooks

William Carter Brooks, a long time resident of Tecumseh, was found dead at his home at 308 east Chicago Blvd. last Wednesday evening. It is believed that his death occurred late Tuesday evening.

Mr. Brooks was 80 years of age, having been born April 17, 1875, in Penn. He was the son of George and Clarinda Carter Brooks. He moved to Tecumseh 29 years ago from Portage County, Ohio, and was a dealer in livestock.

Survivors are one son, William T. Brooks; two step-daughters, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and Mrs. Jack Williams; two grandchildren and three step-grandchildren, all of whom live in Tecumseh and two nieces, Mrs. R. H. Franks of Silver City, N. M., and Mrs. A. H. Sellin of Dallas, Texas. His wife, Lucy died in 1953.

Funeral services were conducted Friday evening at the Green Funeral Home by the Rev. Edward Escolme and burial and graveside services took place Saturday morning in Mason, Mich.

Mrs. G. A. Tuesley Buried Saturday

M. Mae Tuesley, widow of George A. Tuesley, died Wednesday morning at the home of her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rice. She was known to many in Tecumseh, having spent three winters here with the Rices. She had been in failing health for the past six months and had been cared for in the Rice home since Oct. 1.

Mrs. Tuesley was born in Edwardsburg, Mich., May 28, 1875, and was the daughter of Jasper and Marie Aldrich. She married Mr. Tuesley in 1904 and his death occurred in 1946. She was a member of the Edwardsburg Methodist church.

Besides Mrs. Rice, she is survived by two other nieces, Mrs. Daniel D. Wile of Whittier, Calif., and Mrs. Albert S. Porter of Vacaville, Calif., and a nephew, James A. Aldrich of Buchanan. One brother preceded her in death.

The body was at the Green Funeral Home until Saturday morning when it was taken to Edwardsburg where funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 2 p.m.

Sewing on that hat you are making over is just as important as the kind of trim you use. Use a single or double thread. Bring the needle through from the inside, then back, just once, using the stab stitch. Michigan State home economists suggest tying the threads loosely so there is some give between the hat and the trimmings.

Christian Science Services Listed

The way to overcome sin—its causes as well as its effects—through the understanding of God will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from Ezekiel (18:23): "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?"

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "Divine Love corrects and governs man . . . Every supposed pleasure in sin will furnish more than its equivalent of pain, until belief in material life and sin is destroyed" (6:3 only, 12-14).

Scriptural readings include the following (Psalms 37:27): "Depart from evil and do good; and dwell for evermore."

To increase the life and looks of your clothes, brush them regularly to remove loose dust. Be sure to include the inside of trouser cuffs and pockets.

O.E.S. Officers Installed Thursday

New officers of Tecumseh chapter of Eastern Star were installed last Thursday evening in an impressive ceremony at the Masonic Temple. There were 140 present with guests coming from Detroit, Milan, Palmyra, Morenci, Clinton, Fowlerville, Adrian and Tipton.

The hall was beautifully decorated with potted chrysanthemums and lighted candelabra and with each of the five points marked by a star-shaped vase holding flowers and a candle of the appropriate color.

The guests were welcomed by the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Claire Rozelle who also introduced the installing officers. They were: worthy installing officer, Mrs. Chester Beach; installing marshall, Mrs. Warren Benham; installing chaplain, Mrs. LaRue Hart; installing organist, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and installing soloist, Mrs. Al Merz.

New officers installed are Mr. and Mrs. Norris Morehouse as worthy matron and worthy patron; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Westgate as associate worthy matron and patron; Mrs. Lynn Harris as secretary; Mrs. Ray Schlegel as treasurer; Mrs. Melvin Smith, conductress; Mrs. Donall LaBounty, associate conductress; George McCombs as chaplain; Chester Beach, marshall; Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, organist; Mrs. Stanley Miller, Ada; Mrs. Kenneth Johnston, Ruth; Mrs. John Rinehart, Esther; Mrs. Cecile Viele, Martha; Mrs. George McCombs, Electa; Mrs. Orville Bishop, warder and Melvin Smith, sentinel.

The new worthy matron was conducted to the east by her two grandsons, Bobby and Timmy Baker, through an aisle formed by the incoming officers. She was presented with a lovely bouquet of red roses, a gift of the chapter by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elsie Walker of Detroit.

Mr. Morehouse was also conducted to the east by his grandsons. The associate worthy matron and patron, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Westgate were then conducted to the east by their granddaughters, Sharon Lee and Brenda Carol Gallant.

During these ceremonies the soloist, Mrs. Al Merz sang "Whither Thou Goest," "I Believe" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Among the many gifts received by the new matron was a white Bible inscribed with her name from the retiring matron and a white gavel from friends.

The retiring matron and patron were presented with their official jewels and as the past matrons formed a circle about the altar, Mrs. Rozelle was received into their membership and presented with a bouquet of flowers.

The meeting was closed by the singing of "Bless This House" by Mrs. Warren Benham and refreshments were served by Mrs. Lillard Brown and her committee.

The chapter will hold a special meeting Nov. 17 for a school of instruction.

ST. PETER'S AUXILIARY

A potluck dinner at the Parish House preceded the Oct. meeting of St. Peter's Auxiliary last Thursday when Mrs. E. C. Dickin presided over the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara.

Final plans were made for the bazaar, bake sale and chicken supper to be held Nov. 27 in the Episcopal Parish House. The first two mentioned open at 2 p.m. and serving of supper starts at 5. The Nov. meeting of the auxiliary will be in the afternoon at the church.

Imagine! It is almost Hallowe'en time. We are planning our party and we expect to have many goblins, witches, and ghosts present.

Shirley Kemp broupght a horned toad to school last week. It was quite interesting. We are looking up more information about this particular toad and we shall make special reports to the class on our findings.

Carole Winfield celebrated her birthday at school last week. We enjoyed the treat very much. All thirty-nine of us.

Mrs. Whiting

We have thirty-one pupils in our room now. Gary Peterson has moved to Britton. We were sorry to have him go, because we all liked him very much.

Terry Haughn's mother visited us last Thursday. We hope she will come again and that more of our parents will visit us.

We had our hobbies in the hall display case the first month of school. We had cars, airplanes, dolls, stones, old coins, boats, picture cards, pennants, a stamp album, and many other things on display.

Sophia Baughey, Mike Withrow, Gary Peterson, Mary Lou Curtiss, Glenn Green, and Cliff Doyle have had birthdays since school started.

We all had our pictures taken and are anxiously waiting to see the results.

We are making plans for our Hallowe'en party next Friday, Oct. 28. The boys are giving this one, and the girls will give the Valentine party.

We have been making scrapbooks of animals for Science, and expect to finish them this week.

We are receiving our copies of the Checkaway and Weekly Reader each week and enjoy them very much.

Mrs. Miller

Dear Parents:

In Language we are having a Unit on letter writing and decided to write to you to tell about our room and work at school.

We have new desks this year. The tops can stay flat or can be tilted at either a ten or twenty degree angle. The janitor came into our room and fitted our desks to us.

This year we have special teachers for Music, Art and Gym. We were at Art class when our first fire drill bell rang. The girls had skill tests in Gym. Some were easy and some were hard, but it was fun to try them.

For Social Studies we have been reading about the early explorers. On the blackboard we made pictures, in colored chalk, of Columbus, Cabot, Cartier, and Hudson.

The sweet potato Ronald Jones brought to school is growing. In Science we learned how plants breathe through their leaves. On the larger leaves we can see the openings in the leaves, where it gets air.

Mrs. Lasky

We are thirty-four willing workers in all our studies. During this first six weeks we have really done many new things. We have discovered interesting facts about the mammals we have on one of our bulletin boards. There is one about fish and another about fowl and one displaying insects. Some of us brought snails, coral, seahorses, shells, and a starfish to display.

Karen Creger played her new accordion for us. We liked her music.

All of us have helped make our room attractive by making Hallowe'en mobiles, autumn leaves with fruit on them, and many colorful posters showing cats, bats, jack-o-lanterns, and very big fall moons.

Our fathers are hunting pheasants today and we are going to have a contest to see who gets the longest tail feather. We will have a hunting table display. Laura Seager is arrangements chairman; Jo Ann Green and Mildred Griewahn are committee helpers. The judges will be Larry Whelan and Douglas Jedele. We call this our "Center of Interest" display.

Operational Costs at Tecumseh Are County's 3rd Lowest

Facts essential to understanding the question of the annexation of 16 tuition districts to Tecumseh have been compiled by Supt. James McDowell from the records in the county superintendent's office.

Since the only comparable basis for comparing costs to districts is the state equalized valuation only these valuations are used for these statistics.

The bonded indebtedness of Tecumseh Public Schools is being paid off much more rapidly than contemplated. If the 16 districts under consideration decide to annex, it is anticipated that most of the debt, if not all, may be paid after the receipt of the Dec. taxes of 1957. This means that instead of taking 13 years to pay off the $6,500,000 debt for the Patterson School and high school additions, it will have taken approximately seven years.

Only Blissfield and Onsted which have operating rates of $5.00/1000 are less than Tecumseh with an operative rate of $5.30/1000.

Only Morenci with $5.50/1000 is even close to these figures. All the tuition districts being considered for annexation have at least $5.00/1000 operating rate for by law each school district must raise at least $5.00/1000 on state equalized valuations in order to qualify for state aid which each year accounts for the largest portion of our operation funds.

Of the 16 districts considered for annexation, one now pays $9.00/1000, four $8.00/1000, one $6.00/1000 and the rest $5.00/1000.

Thus, it is evident that Tecumseh schools are providing city school facilities with fully certificated interested personnel for 30c more per $1000 than most of the tuition districts levy for operating country schools and also less than most other city school districts in the county.

These statistics are presented, Supt. McDowell said, so tuition districts as well as local taxpayers may know the facts, consider the educational needs of their community, and compare quality of their schools with others of the county in reference to overall local costs.

The table shows the 1955 tax rate as received from the county superintendent's office:

School	Operation	Debt Retirement
Addison	$6.10/1000	$ 3.20/1000
Adrian	8.55/1000	2.10/1000
Blissfield	5.00/1000	5.00/1000
Britton	6.40/1000	6.10/1000
Clinton	7.00/1000	10.60/1000
Deerfield	7.50/1000	4.60/1000
Hudson	6.00/1000	10.90/1000
Madison	7.00/1000	4.50/1000
Morenci	5.50/1000	5.00/1000
Onsted	5.00/1000	4.10/1000
Sand Creek	7.50/1000	4.50/1000
Tecumseh	5.30/1000	6.00/1000

Library Sponsors New Book Sale

Tecumseh Public Library will sponsor a new book sale Nov. 14 through 18 at the library.

The sale will be held from 2 to 9 p.m. each day.

Aims of the sale, according to Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, librarian, are to stimulate the reading habits of young people; to increase the use of the library; to draw attention to new books; and to provide the chance to buy books for the home.

All the books are new. They are of all types, including picture books, and books on religion, how to do it, teen-age, adventure, hobbies and many others. New cook books also will be sold.

The date was selected to coincide with national book week and its stogan of "Let's Read More."

High School Plans Open House Wed.

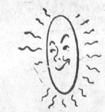
Parents of Tecumseh high school students are urged to attend the American Education Week "open house" in cooperation with the regular Parent-Teachers' Association meeting. The "open house" will be held Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p.m., in Tecumseh high school.

The program will include opportunity for individual conferences with teachers, followed by a general assembly and P.T.A. business meeting. Refreshments will be served.

James Howard is chairman.

The meeting night was changed to Wednesday in place of Thursday to avoid a conflicting date with West Branch P.T.A.

The Silver Lining



Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

TEN BROWNIES OF TROOP 13 and their leaders Mrs. Judy Fouts and Mrs. Betty Kiser visited the HERALD Tuesday. The Lining has never seen such interest shown by such a young group in overall newspaper production. For the record, the Brownies were Sharon Gillin, Connie Harrison, Joan Forrester, Vickie Lord, Judy Purkey, Carolyn Fletcher, Sandra Petrovich, Donna Grigg, Marilyn Beland and Marilee Kiser. Fawn Choske and Cathy Custard were ill and could not attend. As we told the Brownies, we hope all of them will grow up to be newspaper women.

MRS. LUCY TERRY and Mrs. Blanche Turner Saturday left for St. Petersburg, Fla., for about six months. This fact is not unusual; nor is the fact that they have been going down there for 16 years unusual. But it is unusual to note that they went down by plane and it marked their first plane ride. Mrs. Terry is 90; Mrs. Turner is 78.

THOSE WHO WANT to subscribe to a worthy competitor, Tecumseh high school's "Smoke Signals," the school paper, may call Judy Kempf at Tecumseh 110.

THE LINING HAS two tickets to the International Live Stock Exposition and Horse Show at Chicago which runs from Nov. 25 to Dec. 3. They are free for the asking.

A PICTURE STORY on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boss appeared in the Detroit Free Press Sunday magazine. The article was titled "The Traditional House" and described the house as Greek revival, designed to preserve a tradition in Tecumseh. Its success is due to an architect's knowledge of building history and his eye for detail said the article written by Lillian Jackson Braun, Free Press Living Section editor.

FORMER TECUMSEH BOY Roger L. Waring a 1908 graduate of Tecumseh high school had a poem printed in the New York Times. He writes that he thought of the subject when he dunked a worm in Evans Lake while he fished last summer. Now a famous architect, he wrote this "Sonnet to a Worm":

Even a worm has methods of defense.
He huddles with his brothers in a ball
Endungeoned in a can. He does not tense
Nor does he blanch in answer to the call,
When I reach down to grapple him as bait.
He stretches out his length. He oozes slime.
He whips his head and tail against a fate
That makes him food for fish at feeding time.
He fiercely fights the horror of the hook.
Half-gibbeted, he breaks himself in two—
One part to sink, to perish in a brook;
One part to live, to propagate anew,
Who, trampled underfoot by mastodon,
Shall rise to greet each dew when I am gone.

MRS. GEORGE C. HINCKLEY of Yellow Breeches Farm, Fredonia County, Pa., sent the Lining some bits of history in the form of parts of old HERALDS dated Dec., 1883. She wrote: "Under this cover are some interesting bits of old history covered by your paper and I thought you might like to have the bits of paper. I am a doll collector and in a recent find I discovered these old papers in the head. I purchased the doll from a dealer in eastern Ohio and I think that the papers were put in when some one about that time was mending the head. The doll is a large paper mache with rag body and I suppose the little girl that owned her is long dead.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK — With me a change of trouble is as good as a vacation. — David Lloyd George.

C of C Takes "Last Ditch" Stand

Members of the board of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce took a "last ditch stand" Tuesday night when they decided to see out the rest of the year and they hoped that more interest would make possible a continuation of the chamber of commerce.

This action followed the returns of a special letter sent to 235 business, industrial and professional places asking whether they wished to continue the chamber of commerce.

Of the 235 letters, 58 were returned favoring continuation and one favored dissolving. Those not sending back a reply totalled 176. The letter sent out said that if no return is back by Oct. 29 "we will assume that you are in favor of dissolving the organization."

Six of the 58 said they would "go along with the majority."

Of those answering 12 said they would serve on the board of directors; 18 said they would not serve and the remainder answering did not check it.

The chamber now has 70 members. It would need 140 members at $25 a member just to keep the office open.

After a long discussion, members decided that unless more members could be brought in, the chamber of commerce will have to disband.

It was suggested that a special numerical promotion be planned as an inducement to get more members. The suggestion passed and President Paul Clauda was asked to appoint a committee to work out the necessary plans.

Merchants taking part would give a prize to a shopper who has the corresponding number on a ticket that the merchant has showing in his window on a placard.

Last year, it was pointed out, the chamber spent $2000 for special promotions in Tecumseh. These included a numerical telephone directory; brochures, signs, national paint-up, clean-up and fix-up week; Michigan Week; an essay contest "What My Mother Means To Me"; July 4th fireworks; the all-county band festival; and the Halloween party. It also will sponsor the Christmas party.

It takes $3500 to keep the office open for a year, or 140 members paying $25 each per year.

But $5500 is needed per year to continue the special promotions along with the office.

The chamber of commerce has $1100 in its treasury to complete the year. Part of this will go to pay for the Halloween party Monday night and about $500 will go for the Christmas party, leaving a balance of about $500 to continue the rest of the year.

Board members felt they owe something to the 58 who want to continue and they hesitated about disbanding but they pointed out "desire is one thing; funds to operate on is another thing" and without a sufficient number of members to pay for the costs of operation the chamber of commerce will not be able to continue.

This is why they decided on the numerical window promotion to create new interest and new members. This was their "last ditch stand."

TAKE IT EASY RACE — The third annual economy run was sponsored by the Exchange Club Sunday. Don Oswald won the 97 mile race in the heavyweight division and Jon Smith placed second. Albert Gebarowski won the middleweight crown with Duncan Harris taking second.

Those who took part from Tecumseh were David Dick, chairman; Jon Smith, Albert Gebarowski, Don Partridge, John Cadmus, Gary Cameron, Raymond Aylesworth, Don Oswald, Ken Jacobs, Duncan Harris and Gale Hooton who furnished the drivers' gas.

Seek To Prevent Revocation of Liquor License

The Chieftain Hotel has started action in circuit court to prevent the revocation of its liquor license.

Mrs. Emma L. Badger, represented by James Coss of Detroit, was granted a writ of cerlorari by Judge Rex Martin. He ordered the Liquor Control Commission to turn over the records of the commission proceedings in the case to circuit court.

The hotel lost its special designated distributor license after Maynard Mulvaney, hotel manager, was found guilty of selling liquor to a minor last Jan. 7.

Mrs. Badger claims the commission was in error in its revocation and that it had no substantial evidence to support its decision.

Judge Martin also issued a temporary injunction against the commission restraining it from revoking the liquor license until the court decided on the case.

$117 Collected for UNICEF

There were 70 children who took part in the trick-or-treat coin collection for UNICEF Monday evening. Collections were $117.22 which was not quite as much as collected last year. Planned originally for Saturday evening the drive took place from 4 to 7 on Monday and the children obtained their canisters from the committee at the Presbyterian church and returned them before seven o'clock. The general chairman of the project was Mrs. John Saling.

Exchange, Jaycees Begin Funds for "Rec" Bleachers

The Tecumseh Exchange Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce have started action to provide permanent bleachers for the recreation field.

The Exchange Club realized a profit of $370 on a gross sales of $955 a week ago Wednesday when it sponsored the blind products sale. This money is available for a fund to be set up for permanent bleachers, states Paul Clauda, president.

And last Thursday night the Jaycees pledged $1000 for the same purpose.

The Jaycees agreed to funnel all their project funds for the next six months into the fund. They decided to have a Christmas tree sale; to sponsor a name band dance; to have a variety show; and to sponsor a concert of the Michigan State University Glee Club to raise the $1000. Proceeds from a football banquet also will go into the fund.

Jaycees also agreed to have their blood typed to be used as an emergency blood bank at Herrick Memorial hospital. There will be no charge for the blood.

After the dinner served by Eagles ladies, movies of the Michigan State-Penn State football game were shown by Bob Breniff, high school football coach.

CORKERY ACCEPTS COLLINS POSITION

Thomas J. Corkery has accepted a position with the Collins Funeral Home.

A veteran of the Korean war, he is married and the father of a son Thomas Jeffery.

Mrs. Velma Custer and Mrs. Henry Ehlinger were in Quincy Tuesday afternoon where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Helen Milliman. Mrs. Milliman who was a past grand officer of the Pythian Sisters was well known to many of the members in Tecumseh.

PRISON TERM

Elmer W. Sharpe, 39, of Tecumseh, charged with gross indecency, received a three to five-year sentence in Southern Michigan prison when he was sentenced in circuit court Friday.

GETS JAIL TERM FOR STEALING

Robert W. Lazelle, 21, of Tecumseh was fined $50, paid costs of $8.60 and was given seven days in jail by Justice Robert French Monday.

Arrested by city police, he was charged with larceny from some Tecumseh stores.

YOUTHS FINED

Two Tecumseh youths were fined and assessed costs for having beer in their possession.

Arrested by Tecumseh police Sunday were Lowell Kelly 19, and Joe Gregory, 18.

Arraigned before Justice L. J. VanDeusen Monday, they were fined $20 each and assessed costs of $4.30 each.

Miss Goal of Fund by $1,910

The Tecumseh Community Fund is still shy of its $11,234 quota by $1,910.

As of Wednesday $9,324 had been turned in. But Jack Osburn, chairman of the drive, says he is confident that the goal will be reached.

He said he knew more collections are to be turned in.

Those who have been missed in the drive may call the chairman at 429-J (evenings 1010-W) and their contributions will be picked up.

Area chairmen who still have collections are urged to turn them in to the chairman or to Merlyn Downing, treasurer of the drive.

The drive again has been extended, this time to Nov. 8.

Assessor Clarifies Re-appraisal Facts

City assessor John Saling this week clarified some of the misconceptions of the re-appraisal of city property by the J. M. Cleminshaw Company of Cleveland, Ohio.

The first reason for the re-appraisal, he said, is to try and equalize all properties and to put all valuations on an equal basis. At the last board of review meeting this thought was expressed by almost every person. They would be satisfied if they knew that all properties were valued equally. That is also why an independent firm has been engaged to do this job. They are experts in their field and will do the best job that is possible.

"Secondly, we are not interested in the type of personal belongings of the individual. We are only interested in the physical aspects of the buildings, the construction of the home, the size of the lots and the location of the property.

ASK COOPERATION

"The question has been asked, Do we have to allow these men into our homes? The answer is no. But if they are not allowed into the home they will have to guess as to the valuation and in all probabilities it will be high. In some cases it might be too high. But if it is it will be because they have had to guess, and for that reason alone it is better if everyone co-operates with these men.

"Another important question asked is How is this to affect our taxes? This is a question that no one can give a positive answer to, but from all indications it will not change the picture too much.

SAVE MONEY

"In some cases it may raise the tax but in some cases it may drop them. In looking at it from an overall picture it should save the taxpayer money over a period of years by paying off the present school bond by 1956 and thereby saving about five or six years interest. It also will increase our valuation and bring us nearer the state equalized value which is now the only true cash value, according to the ruling of the State Supreme Court.

"The state has set the equalized value of the city at $21,933,476 and, because of our low valuation, the school is losing a certain amount of state aid which has to be made up by the local taxpayer.

"Therefore the higher our valuation is the more state aid our school district will receive, thereby lowering the amount the local taxpayer will have to pay.

"There are probably a great many more questions and if they could be given to the assessor in writing he would be only too glad to try and answer them."

Monday Club Entertained by Mrs. Earl Wood

"Nature Revealed by an Artist's Hand" was the intriguing title listed for the Oct. 31 meeting of the Monday Club and the 52 members present agreed that it was appropriate.

The artist was Mrs. Bert Ousterhout, who demonstrated an infinite variety of beautiful holiday decorations. Assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Ringman, she made table, mantle and other arrangements of flowers and greens and showed her audience how to make lovely and unusual gift wrappings and decorations.

The meeting was held in the spacious Wampler's lake home of Mrs. Earl Wood and was also the occasion of a very successful silver tea prepared by the hostess committee with Mrs. E. J. Aebersold and Mrs. Wesley Mast as cochairmen. They were assisted by Mrs. Jack Douglas, Mrs. Fred Marsh, Mrs. Earl Wickwire, Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. Earl Updyke, Miss Mary Whitelock, Mrs. Fred Rector, Mrs. Jeanie Satterlee and Mrs. E. T. Armstrong.

The lace covered tea table was decorated by a cornucopia of autumn flowers and leaves and was presided over by Mrs. Wickwire and Mrs. Seaton Dove. Proceeds of the tea will be used to provide gifts for the patients at Maple Lane Manor, which will be visited by the club next meeting.

Because of the importance of the program the business meeting was very brief but the president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy announced the meeting of the county federation to be held in the Adrian Library, Nov. 3, opening at 10 a.m. and with a potluck dinner at noon.

She also announced the Book Fair, a project of Tecumseh Public Library for the week of Nov. 14 when the new books will be on sale.

Mrs. John H. Smith and Mrs. Wilbur Rumpf were welcomed as new members.

The next meeting, Nov. 14 will be Sunshine Day and will begin with a potluck dinner at sharp noon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Waldron after which the club will visit Maple Lane Manor where they will present a program. Members are asked to bring games, puzzles and playing cards for distribution to the patients.

Sugar Boys Run Up Sweet Score

For the second week Tecumseh high school was racked up by a Lenawee County Athletic Association team. Almost two weeks ago Hudson did the trick, 45-0; Friday night the Sugar Boys from Blissfield were hot and sweet, winning 53-0.

A simple arithmetic problem shows that the Indians have had 98 points scored on them in their last two games while scoring none. Fundamentally, the record shows that for the past two weeks Tecumseh has had neither an offense or a defense. Blissfield Friday night began scoring early and the Sugar Boys scored late. They scored two tds in each of the four quarters.

Dwight Klump, fast Sugar Boy back, tallied 29 points alone — four touchdowns and five extra points.

Klump rambled 50 and 30 yards for his tds in the opening frame. He also added two extra points.

In the second period fullback Norm Johnson was the scorer. He scored first on a five-yard plunge and later exploded in the line for a one-yard score. Klump added one more extra point.

Klump tallied in the third quarter, going 20 yards on an end play. Again he scored the extra point. Gary Bowman went around end for 60 yards and anothed td later in the period

Klump went over center for another td in the fourth and Bob Fatchett scooted 60 yards for the final Sugar Boy td after intercepting an Indian pass. Klump converted, scoring his 29th point.

Boysville Takes 3rd Place in League of The Lakes

Boysville's Fighting Knights celebrated homecoming Friday by smashing Hartland in a League of the Lakes game, 39-6.

The win gave Boysville third place in the league with a 3-2 record. Dexter won the crown with a 3-1-1 record.

Boysville took a 20-0 lead in the first quarter. John Murray scored all the touchdowns on runs of 35, 40 and 35 yards.

In the second period Vern Tourangeau scored on a 15-yard run.

Bill Gregory scored for Hartland in the second period when the Knights' reserves were in.

John Murray scored from seven yards out in the third period and from 15 yards out in the final period.

Bob Temerowski, the Knights' standout defensive player, scored two points after tds and Tony Mata scooped up a fumble to score one point.

After Leading Britton Loses to Adrian Reserves

The Adrian reserves came from behind to nip the Britton-Macon Tories, 19-14 Friday.

Britton scored first in the opening quarter when John Korican climaxed a drive with a five-yard plunge for the score. Merle Sanch booted the conversion.

Ed Mandrell scored for Adrian moments later when he took a pitchout and scooted 45 yards. The extra point try was not good.

Larry Patterson put the Tories ahead again in the second quarter when he went 10 yards for the td. Sanch converted again.

Jerry Cook took a 30-yard heave from John Goldsmith for another Adrian score late in the period and Mandrell ran the extra point.

With five minutes to go in the final period, Clark took a pass from Wood that covered 45 yards and the winning td for Adrian. The extra point try was not good.

Indians Play Dales Friday

The Hillsdale Hornets, Tecumseh's next and last Southeastern League foe, upset a highly favored Hudson Tiger 11 Friday night, 13-6 and snapped the Tigers' 11-game winning streak.

The Indians hope to tomahawk Hillsdale Friday night at Hillsdale. Two weeks ago Hudson sunk the Indians, 45-0.

Hillsdale has lost two league games. Bedford beat the Hornets 20-13 and Monroe Catholic Central shut Hillsdale out, 20-0.

Comparing league scores Tecumseh has an edge. The Indians, playing their best game of the year, shut out a favored Bedford Mule team, 9-0, and lost to Monroe Catholic Central, 26-19, after leading 19-6 at half time. The Indians tied Airport 6-6. Hillsdale measured the Jets, 13-0.

The Indians have scored 34 points in league play for an average of 11 points a game. Their defense has allowed 32 points in the league for an average of 10 points per game.

The Hornets have averaged 26 points a game for an eight point game average. Their defense has allowed 40 points, an average of 13 points per game.

Currently Tecumseh is 1-1-1 in the league and the Hornets are 1-2-0. A win Friday would give Tecumseh a successful season, in spite of the Hudson and Blissfield fiascoes.

The Emergency Fund

Because the Tecumseh Community Fund drive did not reach its quota of $11,234 in the allotted time given to collections, it might be well to re-examine aspects of the drive to see if there are any shortcomings that might be corrected in future drives.

From a lot of talk — some of which was stretched to the rumor stage — it should not be too difficult to put a finger on the most glaring shortcoming.

After talking with a number of folks who claimed they would not give "another plugged nickel" until the emergency fund is used up, we discovered that maybe the emergency fund built up after a number of drives had exceeded their quotas, might be a stumbling block in waging a successful drive.

Records show that it certainly was an "out" used by too many folks who failed to give this year; and those who did give used the emergency fund as an excuse for not giving more.

The emergency drive angle seems to have replaced the old dodge of "my husband gave at work" which is worn thin.

Results of the drive which officially ended Oct. 27 show that only 31 per cent of the $11,234 quota was reached. Only $3474 was turned in by the time the drive ended. Whether the extension of the drive to Nov. 1 will mean that the quota this year will be reached is doubtful.

Actually there are two reasons why we think the drive will not be reached. First, too many of us always wait for industry to make up the difference to assure that the goal is reached.

Secondly, too many of us—right or wrong—have used the emergency fund of the community fund as an excuse for not giving at all or for cutting our contribution.

Part of this has been due to a misunderstanding based partly on the lack of information stemming from the community fund board.

The lack of information has resulted in rumors that have placed the emergency fund as high as $30,000. And those who believed this said "The emergency fund can be used to make up the quota. Before I give again part of the emergency fund will have to be used to make up quotas."

Board members report that the emergency fund, now totalling slightly more than $15,000, will be used in event of a disaster in Tecumseh.

Those who do not agree with this comment: "There are other agencies, such as the Red Cross, that are geared to handle disasters."

And, this is where the matter now stands. For the sake of future drives, it is hoped that the community fund board will take the comments made on the emergency fund under advisement.

An ad in the Help Wanted section caught Jack Bowry's eye. It read:

"WANTED. Good Salesman. Preferably man who owns his own home."

Jack saw another man waiting for an interview when he applied for the job. After 30 minutes, Jack found himself talking with his prospective employer.

"Tell me, Mr. Bowry," the employer asked, "Do you own your own home?"

"Yes," Jack replied.

"Good," the employer said. "You and the man ahead of you seem about equally qualified. But he didn't own a home so I'm going to give the job to you."

"Thanks," Jack said, "but why?"

The employer leaned back in his chair, "Mr. Bowry I've learned from experience home owners are my best bet. To start with, it shows me a man is settled and a loyal booster for this community. Also, it indicates he is thrifty and trying to get ahead. As a result, home owners are generally more steady and dependable."

Jack smiled. "I've never thought of it in those terms before. But I do have pride in my home and this community. I'll surely do my best."

Ever since Jack related this incident to me, I've been tempted to urge lots of other ambitious fellows to own their own homes.

Who knows? A better job may be waiting!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Last Word in Farm Machinery

Curly Lawson was first in this area to use one of those roadside vending machines. He's sold milk and eggs in one about a year now, and recommends them highly—but with reservations.

"Mine's the latest model," says Curly. "Built-in refrigeration unit—heater—an automatic sign turner-on for night. Takes any combination of coins."

"However," he warned, "those machines aren't cheap to buy ... or operate. They run about $3500. If you're not on the main highway like I am—where lots of city people pass—you'd better stick to the old methods."

From where I sit, you have to admire Curly for his pioneering spirit. Of course, there's also plenty to be said for those who tend to stick to the old proven methods. People's ideas differ on the subject—on any subject. Like you may always drink buttermilk with your meals ... while a glass of beer's the "automatic" choice with me.

30's Biggest Doll Up Age; Duds Bill Up

Whether women spend more for clothing than their husbands depends generally on their age bracket.

Usually, explains Dr. Elizabeth Wiegand of the home management staff at Michigan State University, the number of clothes bought by adults decreases as they get older.

For those husbands and wives under thirty, the clothing for the Mrs. is responsible for the larger share of the clothing dollar. In the 30 to 39 year-old bracket, both men and women are at their maximum spending for clothing, with the money spent for feminine frills still a little ahead of that spent on men.

But Dr. Wiegand says in the 40 to 49 year-old group both husbands and wives have tapered off in amount spent for clothing and both of them spend the same. From 50 and up studies show that men tend to spend somewhat more than their wives for clothing.

These figures, which came from a survey done in Minnesota by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics, go hand in hand with those telling the relationship of money spent for clothing to size of income. Results show that for families with a yearly income of $1,000 or less, about $49 was spent for husbands clothing and $47 for wives. Jumping to the three to six thousand dollar income bracket, about $111 was spent for Mr. and $126 for the Mrs. of the family.

Dr. Wiegand adds that of the $211 spent per year for the average farm family, the largest expenditure is for the girl of the family in the 12 to 15 year-old bracket. She spends $121. Girls two to five years old account for the smallest amount, $38.

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

WHEN YOU ARE SICK, you go to your physician because you know he can help you. You answer his important questions, often have a physical examination, and he prescribes a medication.

WE COMPOUND YOUR PRESCRIPTION, you take the medicine, and you get well again. Then do you tell your friends, who seem to have the same illness, to use your prescription?

YOUR PRESCRIPTION was written for you after a careful study of your particular trouble. Many different ailments have symptoms that look the same to you. Only a physician can correctly judge them, and it often takes more than one visit to do so.

NEVER GIVE YOUR PRESCRIPTION to a friend or relative without permission from your physician. Advise them to visit their own physician, or yours if they have none of their own.

AND WHEN YOU GIVE them this very sound advice, we would appreciate your mentioning that, since the compounding of prescriptions is our most important duty, we would welcome the privilege of becoming "Their Pharmacist."

Schneider Shows New Chevrolet This Friday

Continued emphasis on the superior performance and rakish lines that contributed importantly to record-breaking sales this year give Chevrolet for 1956 its most distinguished new passenger cars.

They will be shown locally at Schneider Brothers' Garage, Inc., Friday, Nov. 4.

The latest models carry increased horsepower, a fleeter, more rugged appearance and are offered in the broadest aray of bodies ever produced by the company.

New in the low-price field is a four-door hardtop sport sedan. This car has no obstructing center pillar in the window area and is fashioned with the same styling zest that made the Chevrolet sport coupe a sensation of the automobile market since 1950. Also introduced for the first time are nine-passenger station wagons, bringing the company's total number of 1956 bodies to 19.

POWER INCREASED

Of prime interest to buyers who appreciate the security of ready acceleration is an increase in horsepower extending from the six-cylinder engine to the pace-setting V8. The new model sixes rate at 140 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire V8 which, in a recent performance test, set a new all-time record at Pikes Peak in September, develops 205 horsepower.

Among outstanding safety features in the 1956 Chevrolet line are the availability of seat belts and shoulder harness; improved, precision-aimed headlights and crash-tested door locks to minimize the possibility of doors being sprung open by shock or collision.

The safety lock was introduced on Chevrolet models last summer. The design includes a flange on the portion of the car which overlaps another flange on the striker mounted on the body pillar. The overlap, or interlock, is designed to prevent disengagement of the two parts in event of a collision.

NEW PAINT HARMONY

Lively paint schemes are offered in accord with the increased color consciousness of car buyers. Choices range from black to a newly developed pigmentation in beige and red. Original two-toning gives each of three price-graduated series an exclusive pattern. Ten solids and 14 two-tone combinations are on the 1956 color chart.

Novel trim ideas, with particular attention to the low-price One-Fifty series, are evident in the interior as well as the exterior treatments. Charcoal shades are new. In a simplification of options, the company announces each series will have a "standard" interior two-tone trim. A wide range of other harmonizing interiors will be available on an optional basis.

In the 1956 Chevrolet, completely new sheet metal complements a more massive grille in all models. The grille is a wider, latticework design and the effect of staunchness and beauty is aided by a heavier chromium header bar. Fender lines at the front and rear are higher and straighter. The hood plane is flatter and extends four inches farther forward before dipping to meet the grille.

GAS INLET CONCEALED

Chromium molding, applied for the first time on the One-Fifty series, sweeps along the sides of the 1956 bodies to increase the low, ground-gripping aspect of the cars. Headlamp visors are more pronounced. Parking lamps are square and set low over the reshaped bumpers. A novelty is the location of the gasoline filler, concealed by the hinged rear left tail lamp.

The following bodies will be available in the 1956 Chevrolet line:

One-Fifty Series — Two- and four-door sedans, utility sedan and two-door six-passenger station wagon.

Two-Ten Series—Two- and four-door sedans, Delray coupe, sport coupe and sedan, two- and four-door six passenger station wagons and four-door, nine-passenger station wagon.

Bel Air Series — Two- and four-door sedans, sport coupe and sport sedan, convertible, Nomad station wagon and four-door, nine-passenger station wagon.

These 19 models compare with 14 available at the start of 1955 production.

In place of the two sixes of different horsepower that were present in the 1955 line, six-cylinder output will be concentrated on one 140-horsepower engine with an 8 to 1 compression ration. This engine may be coupled with either the Powerglide automatic transmission or the manual shift.

MILEAGE IMPROVED

Of traditional economical, valve-in-head design, the new six is equipped with a high lift camshaft, hydraulic valve lifters and extra alloy exhaust valves which are aldipped to minimize the build-up of deposits. The new engine provides even better performance than its predecessors, particularly for highway passing. Gasoline mileage has also been improved.

In addition to sixes, the 1956 Chevrolets may be powered by a variety V8s a aype of engine which totaled almost a million in the company's 1955 model production. One develops 162 horsepower and is installed in cars with the standard shift. The second is designed for Powerglide and produces 170 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire with four barrel carburetor furnishes 205 horsepower. Fitted with a new head, the compression ratio of the Super is at an all-time Chevrolet high of 9.25 to 1.

V8 refinements include a new high lift camshaft which results in more power for the regular Turbo-Fire Powerglide engine and the Super. Hydraulic valve lifters are standard on all eights.

FULL FLOW FILTER

Another high spot is a full-flow oil filter as an optional item. The filter is attached to the block and assures full filtering of lubricant to cylinder walls, bearings and other moving parts of the engine. Should flow through the system be restricted for any reason, the oil is by-passed around the filter. Accomplishments are reduced engine wear and longer life for moving parts.

With a sport sedan to join an illustrious sport coupe and six station wagons, Chevrolet will be in a position to take full advantage of the so-called "suburban market." Like the coupe, the sedan in the Bel Air series will receive luxury treatment. The upholstery features pattern cloth contrasting or blending with leather grain vinyl. Light tone perforated vinyl is used for the head-lining, while dark-tone carpet covers compartment floors, front and rear.

The nine-passenger station wagons are built for complete use of the cargo area when the seating capacity is not required. In the body the third of three rows of seats is removable. The second row, with a divided hinged seat to afford easy access to the rear, can be folded into the floor. It is thus possible to utilize all of the space back of the driver's seat for load.

OVERDRIVE AMONG OPTIONS

Optional equipment that scored high favor in the 1955 line again is offered by Chevrolet. These include the gas-saving overdrive, power steering, power brakes and push-button control of seat adjustment and window lifts. Compact air conditioning mechanism that fits under the hood and tinted glass are other optional items on the list.

A host of mechanical improvements promise even more trouble-free service than previous models of the company. Rear engine mounts have been reformed for isolation of noise and vibration. An electric water temperature gauge replaces the former tube type. Enlarged exhaust cross-over passages will make for quicker warm-up in cold wather. Dual exhausts are extended to station wagons where the Super Turbo-Fire V8 is specified. New sealed beam headlamps give better illumination of roadside ditches and are standard on all cars. A precision headlamp aiming device is exclusive in Chevrolet's field.

Directional signals, formerly an extra cost item, are now standard equipment. The 12-volt ignition pioneered by Chevrolet in the low-price field has been improved. Batteries carry a 36-month warranty instead of 21. Spark plugs have ribbed porcelain insulators that offer 25 per cent greater resistance to flash-over. A new and longer neoprene boot supplies greater protection to six-cylinder engine plugs.

SEAT BELTS AVAILABLE

Arrangements to offer special kits containing factory-approved seat belts and shoulder harness components were announced by Chevrolet several weeks ago. The development followed an extensive review by company engineers of quality, strength of webbing, buckles and attachments. The approved devices, said Chevrolet, will exceed the specification of the Civil Aeronautics Authority for aircraft seat belts.

A new method of mounting V8 generators reduces vibration and noise. To guard against water and foreign matter, the starting motor plunger is shielded by a neoprene boot. Wiring harness is divided into two sections which connect at the dash panel to facilitate assembly and servicing. A shroud on the air cleaners makes for quieter operation. A woven asbestos composition clutch facing provides smoother operation for V8s. A high capacity clutch of coil spring design replaces the diaphragm spring clutch on Super Turbo-Fire V8 models.

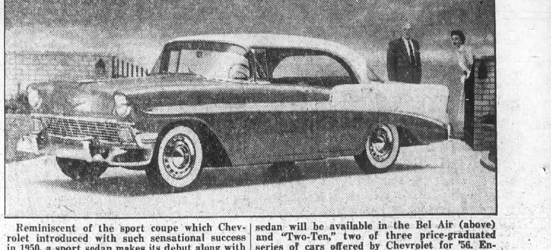
Sport Sedan Makes Bow with 1956 Chevrolets



Reminiscent of the sport coupe which Chevrolet introduced with such sensational success in 1950, a sport sedan makes its debut along with the company's other new models. Elimination of the center pillar in the window area adds smartness as well as unexcelled visibility. The hardtop sedan will be available in the Bel Air (above) and "Two-Ten," two of three price-graduated series of cars offered by Chevrolet for '56. Engine choices include two more powerful V8's and one 6. The "Super Turbo-Fire V8" develops 205 h.p.

A very preceptible seismic disturbance was felt by residents in varous parts of the village yesterday (Oct. 31) morning shortly after 5 o'clock. Very little rumbling was heard but the peculiar vibration that shook the earth and everything upon it was easily recognized as the quake of a genuine case of terrestial ague. The morning papers report the disturbance to have been noticed at about the same time and manner in the cities of Illinois, Ohio, Iowa, Missouri and Tennessee. The most serious consequence reported was the rude awakening of peaceful citizens at that unseemly hour. A similar shock was experienced here eleven years ago on the afternoon of Sept. 19, 1884.

Schneider Shows New Buick This Friday

The new 1956 Buick will make its bow Friday.

Locally the new cars will be shown by Schneider Brothers' Garage, Inc.

The 1956 Buick is called the "best Buick yet" by Louis Schneider.

He said this about the new Buick:

This is fine car motoring beyond the usual — for it starts with the advances that only the volume manufacture of all Buicks can provide — and moves on to its own pinnacle.

This is fashion distinguished throughout a thoroughbred Series — in a suave new 4-Door Riviera — 2-Door Riveria — Sedan and Convertible.

This is master power and performance — this is luxurious ride and powered handling — each impossible to compare with what's gone before — because each sets a new measure of fine car excellence in 1956.

Additional Roadmaster features for 1956 included as standard equipment: Variable Pitch Dynaflow, Dual Exhausts, 4-Barrel Airpower, Carburetor, Buick Safety Power Steering, automatic windshield washer, Wide-angle windshield wiper, back-up lights, glareproof rear-view mirror, parking brake warning light, electric clock, deluxe wheel covers, double-depth foam rubber seat cushions, foam rubber backed carpeting, foam rubber backed instrument panel cover and the new sealed beam headlights. In Convertible and Rivieras, electrically operated windows plus powered horizontal seat adjustment and outside rear-view mirrors.

THE SUPER IS SUPER

You will find that in pure spaciousness and great performance, the 1956 Super is the big buy of the middle price range. Four models bear this abundantly sized Series' name — a new 4-Door Riviera — a 2-Door Riviera, a Sedan and Convertible.

In each, styling takes its theme from the sky-borne.

In each power advances to a new high of 255. Performance keeps stride with the new pickup and gas savings of Variable Pitch Dynaflow — now yours in the Super Series at no extra cost.

And the ride of these wide-gaited beauties is the finest ever, with the new deep oil-cushioning of the direct-acting rear shock absorbers, a new over-all riding smoothness, and a more responsive Safety Power Steering.

Additional Super features for 1956 included as standard equipment: Variable Pitch Dynaflow, Buick Safety Power Steering, 4-Barrel Airpower Carburetor, foam rubber seat cushions, automatic trunk light, electric clock and the new sealed beam headlights. In Convertible, electrically operated windows plus powered horizontal seat adjustment and outside rear-view mirrors.

THE CENTURY

Drive the 1956 Century and you command thrills that set the pulse of even sportscar enthusiasts to pounding.

You command 255 horsepower, Buick's mightiest engine, built to Buick's compact and agile 122-inch wheelbase.

You command the dazzling new pickup and gas savings of Variable Pitch Dynaflow, now is every Century at no extra cost.

You command low and rakish styling with Buick's new compatible color schemes in all four models — 2 and 4-Door Rivieras. Convertible, and all-steel Estate Wagon.

You command a new Buick ride of velvet luxury on a chassis made stronger than ever — you steer with new ease and responsiveness.

Best of all, you command the Century for just a step over Buick's lowest prices. And that means — literally — it's America's biggest horsepower-per-dollar buy, bar none.

THE SPECIAL

In all 1956 Specials — Sedans, Rivieras, Convertible and new low-price Estate Wagon, you enjoy a brand-new experience in big car ride. A ride oil-cushioned with Buick's new direct-acting rear shock absorbers — made even easier handling with Buick's new steering linkage — made even safer with bigger brakes, a more rugged frame, a stronger rear-end assembly.

In each model, you have your choice of Buick's many fine options, such as Variable Pitch Dynaflow, Power Brakes, improved Safety Power Steering and the new Buick 4-Season Airconditioner.

And, as you see by the panel at right, every 1956 Buick Special brings you a long list of features — wanted features which generally cost extra, if available at all, in other low-priced cars.

Additional features in all 1956 Buicks included as standard equipment: 2- or 4-Barrel Carburetor; 322-cu. in. V8 Engine; direction signals, front and rear; side armrests, front and rear; sliding sunshades; cigarette lighter; automatic glove compartment light; map light; outside rear-view mirrors on Convertible; dual horns; oil filter — full-flow design; oil-bath air cleaner and silencer; StepOn self-locking parking brake; heavy insulation against heat and sound; Horizontal Redliner Speedometer; trip mileage indicator and the new sealed beam headlights.

Heart of the great Buick performance which wings you along your way with such sparkle and dash in 1956 in a 322-cubic-inch V8 engine, Buick engineered and Buick built. The complete adaptability of this compact power plant's basic design to take on new advances, as Buick engineers perfect them, may be seen more clearly this year than ever before. For here, Buick engineers have brought new life and lift with a host of improvements. Among the more important of these you'll find —

All-Time-High Compression Ratios — 9.5 to 1 in the 255-horsepower Roadmaster, Super and Century engines with 4-Barrel Airpower Carburetors.

8.9 to 1 in the 220-horsepower Special engine with 2-Barrel Carburetor.

New Combustion Chamber Design — Increases flow of fuel-air mixture into cylinder and exhaust gas out of cylinder — increases power output.

New Double "Y" Exhaust Manifolds — Increase power output considerably by relieving each cylinder of its exhaust gases through separated manifold branches. New dual-exhaust system, standard on Roadmaster and optional on other Series.

More Rugged High-Alloy Forged Steel Crankshaft and Connecting Rods.

Plus — Smoother engine warm-up with Built-in Carburetor De-Icer — Powerful 12-Volt Electrical System — Buick-originated Vertical Valves — Exclusive leakproof, extra-quiet Ball Joint Exhaust System.

Buick's ride is the envy of the industry. Everywhere you probe it, you'll find Buick's engineers have been hard at work for 1956. And when you take the wheel you will find the pay-off of this hard work is pure luxury.

For here is new handling ease — surer cornering — more responsiveness from a new Buick steering geometry. Here is a steadier ride to hold firm and true on the roughest road you travel. Here is new deep-cushioned comfort from Buick's new direct-action rear shock absorbers.

In short, here is the best Buick ride yet.

1 322-Cubic-Inch V8 Engine — Light, compact, perfectly balanced with record-high horsepower and compression ratios.

2 New Variable Pitch Dynaflow — Instant pickup in the economy range with liquid smoothness, dazzling breakaway in performance range.

3 Hi-Poised Engine Mounts — Reduce engine vibration to minimum.

4 X-Braced frame with Sturdier Front and Rear Cross Members — For maximum frame rigidity.

5 New Heavier Side Rails — In Century and Special models for greater strength.

6 Front-End Suspension — With verticle shock absorbers, rides bumps gently without transmitting shock to car body.

7 New Steering Gear Linkage and Higher Ratio — Increases Buick's sure-footed cornering ability, makes turning easier, more responsive.

8 New Safety Power Steering — More solid "feel" of the wheel, less road shock.

9 Larger Brakes on Special Series — Better stopping, longer life.

10 New Direct-Acting Rear Shock Absorbers — Level the ride with deep oil-cushioned luxury.

11 Giant Coil Springs — On all 4 wheels for unmatched comfort.

12 New Full-Length Torque-Tube Design — For smoother riding, transmits power directly to rear wheels — not through springs.

13 Longer Radius Rod — Reduces lateral movement of road jolts, holds to the road better under all conditions.

14 New Huskier Rear Axle — Takes the thrust of the mightiest power in Buick history with new quietness and smoothness.

Other optional equipment at extra cost are new permimeter heating system and the new Buick air conditioner.

Mayflower Pilgrimage

BY MRS. HOYT WHELAN

DIDN'T RUN THEM

Our buses met us and took us to our hotels through heavy traffic which included hundreds of bicycles of returning workers; so many that I felt sure we should run them down and I held my breath at times, but nothing happened, and all went through safely. Holland has 10,000,000 people, and these people have 5,000,000 bicycles. All of them seemed to be in the road. Later we saw family parties out for pleasure rides, on bicycles. I saw one group, with a child riding on a seat behind the mother, and a child on a seat behind the father and one on the handlebars of his, also. The boys take other boys, astride, behind theirs; and if a young man wants to take his young lady out she rides side-saddle on the seat behind him. Mothers go shopping with the baby in a comfortable seat, with a back and arms, behind them.

Our hotel, the des Pays Bas, was centrally located, near the large canal where pleasure riding boats operate each evening in summer, but the season had closed, and anyway there was not near enough time to do all the things we wished to do. Marion and I are good walkers, and each evening and morning hurried out to walk fast and see all we could before some of the slow ones got around. Our buses (four of them in Holland, and five of them in England) set the time the night before for the start in the morning and as we had such an extensive tour planned there was not much time for slipping off to see extra places. We had a very lovely, large room on the second floor here. All the way through our rooms were very nice, mostly on the second floor, but one morning I counted 73 steps as I came down to breakfast — no elevator. It was not just one stairway, but wandered around various halls and floor levels. I am not just sure where this was, but think it was in Plymouth, England.

BOMBS HAD HIT

Plymouth was badly bombed, nearly leveled, in the war, so I suppose it was fortunate to have a hotel at all. The room was pleasant and comfortable, and the food was excellent. In our hotel in Amsterdam we had a very large, well furnished room, with beautiful, heavy wool blankets on the bed that were "just out of this world." We also had a walk-out balcony where we could look up and down the street for some distance, and in the morning watched them washing down the streets. We were awakened in the morning by the sound of scrubbing. Women were on their hands and knees scrubbing white marble steps with soapsuds and scrubbing brushes.

The food was very fine, well cooked, and plentiful — more than we needed. The waiters wore dress suits, even at breakfast.

Our buses took us on a tour of the city. The Queen's Palace, the church where she was crowned; the market place; the Mint; the Weeping Tower which was the place from which Henry Hudson sailed to discover the river which bears his name; the Ryks museum, where the Night Watch and other famous paintings are displayed, some of which were hidden in the sand dunes in the north of Holland, after being taken from their frames, to keep them from the German invaders. Later they were cleaned and replaced.

Amsterdam, is on the Amstel river, and there are over 400 bridges. There are large dry docks here, and even the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth are able to dock here as the depth is forty feet. A ship may go from here and down the Rhine in Germany.

We visited the Dutch Reformed Church, where the Pilgrims attended while living in Amsterdam, and John Robinson preached here. Mr. Allen, Governor General of the society, told us here that on this tour are 104 actual descendants of the Pilgrims, while there were only 100 and two of the Pilgrims who landed on Plymouth Rock. The other 55 in the party are husbands and wives of the actual descendants. We thought this a very good representation.

The Lord Mayor of Amsterdam gave a reception in the city hall for the group, and served refreshments with speaking. On the way there we were so fortunate as to come upon a wedding party, in all its finery, and had a good look at them while they stopped at the city hall for the civil ceremony which is required as well as the religious ceremony. The bride and bridesmaids were lovely in their beautiful gowns. The automobiles were very shiny and polished to the "Nth" degree, and decorated with flowers all around the inside.

WEAR DUTCH COSTUMES

In the afternoon we went to Vollendam, by bus, stopping at a cheese farm on the way. Vollendam is a fishing village, and the people wear the colorful old time Dutch costume, with wooden shoes, long skirts, aprons, and the men the baggy trousers and picturesque caps. Not all of the buses went to Vollendam, as some preferred to go shopping, or for a pleasure boat ride on the canal. The sunshine was bright and added to the enjoyment.

On our ride to Vollendam, after crossing the canal by ferry (bridge so narrow that our long bus could not make the turns necessary) we drove through the part of Amsterdam which is alloted to the workers; no family with less than three children allowed to live here in these government subsidized homes, which rent for $15 per month. Each home has three rooms besides a kitchen. The little front yards are all fenced, with a gate which they keep closed, and are filled with flowers and perhaps a few vegetables. There are no SLUMS in Holland. All over Holland the homes have little front yards, carefully fenced with a hedge or a board or picket fence and a gate that is kept closed. An incredible number of flowers is grown in these little yards, sometimes not as large as a small room, and usually the front walk is paved with brick or stone. Farther out from the cities the yards may be larger, but all are as neat and as carefully fenced. These workers' homes are built in large blocks.

WE ENJOYED MEALS

Our lunch that day was: salad of cooked vegetables, sliced tomatoes, fish, pickled sardines and Halibut livers, with either plain mayonnaise or mayonnaise with relish, hard boiled egg, hash brown potatoes, and green beans, with a choice of orange, banana or apple for dessert. (You see we did not go hungry. All meals were as generous).

Their price for coffee is $1.20 per pound. Their salaries are about $20 per week. Our guide, when questioned closely, admitted being very hungry during the war; living on boiled tulip bulbs and beets, with one slice of bread a day. When asked what they had for Christmas he admitted paying $16 for a pound of horse meat and $15 for a loaf of bread for Christmas, in 1944. Regarding their usual Christmas dinner, he said they had rabbit. Turkeys do not do well in Holland as the land is too wet. When a man he had guided around Holland sent him a turkey from Texas for Christmas they enjoyed it immensely. People there suffer from both mosquitoes and rheumatism, because of the dampness.

MAY DRAIN ZEE

Plans are under way to drain the Zuyder Zee, which will add 500,000 acres to the tillable land, and will take about 10 years to finish.

They expect that the rains will gradually wash the salt left by the sea away. The North Sea formerly came down as far as the "Weeping Tower" and that place was a seaport at the time that Henry Hudson sailed from there. As you know, much of Holland is land reclaimed from the sea, and is below sea level. In a great part of Holland there are no fences, but the drainage ditches are used for that purpose. In the section near Germany there are some fences and more trees. The cattle do not cross the ditches, but stay in their own lot. Why, I cannot imagine, unless the ditch sides are cut straight down and deep so that when they reach out for footing they do not find any. I cannot imagine our Michigan cows being daunted by a ditch.

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

It comes upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it on every score.

In shimmering steel and solid sinew, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobile.

You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in the sweep-ahead styling of it—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its canted rear profile.

You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there—in the decorator fabrics and décors—in the jewel-like finish of the fittings—in the precisely shaped steering wheel and controls—in the rich new instrument panel with soft-padded top and glowing dials that detail your progress in changing colors.

But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it.

Performance Without Parallel

A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflow* goes airplanes one better—steps up your getaway in normal driving without switching the pitch. But when you need that extra surge, it's there, instantly—and in extra abundance.

The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—ROADMASTER, SUPER, CENTURY, and the bedrock-priced SPECIAL. Yet this is such high-compression power, such dynamic driving power, such completely usable power at the rear wheels—the whole rear end has been endowed with extra brawn and heft and solidity to handle it.

We could spread before you an acre of blueprints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956.

We could tell you about a new double-Y manifolding of the engine for more usable power. And about a brilliant new front-end geometry that adds a whole new "sense of direction" to the car's travel. And about massive new direct-action shock absorbers that move three times more oil to cushion your all-coil-spring ride that much more buoyantly.

But you can get the full story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buicks yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Water Problem Jeopardizes Tecumseh's Future Growth

State Health Dept. Refuses Extensions

Will Tecumseh continue to grow or it will it wither on the vine and die because of a lack of water? This question faces the city council.

Consulting engineers of McNamee, Porter and Seeley of Ann Arbor told councilmen Monday night that the minimum requirements necessary for water department improvements would cost $220,000.

John Seeley of the engineering firm explained the water situation to councilmen at the request of Ed Nelson, city manager. In his report to the council the city manager explained that the Michigan Department of Health will not approve any more water main extensions until the city does something about getting extra volume and more standpipe reserve.

The State Health Department has refused to approve water line extensions to Brookmeade subdivision, Tecumseh's newest addition off Ternes road.

The department claims that Tecumseh's water lines are over extended and in case of an emergency present users of city water might not be taken care of properly.

SURVEY MADE

The Ann Arbor engineering firm has been making a survey of Tecumseh's needs and Mr. Seeley told councilmen that three points made in the overall survey should be given immediate consideration to meet State Health Department requirements.

These improvements and their estimated costs are:

1. Addition to source of supply — test drilling, one 14" producing well 100 feet deep, well house, well pump, electrical work, piping and valves — $20,000.

2. Elevated steep storage tank, 300,000 gallon capacity — $70,000.

3. A 12" feeder main connecting wells to elevated tank (Maumee from Chicago boulevard, north to north of River Acres Subdivision, then west to proposed wells) — $97,200.

The total construction costs of the immediate requirements would be $187,200. Contingencies and engineering would add another $32,000, bringing the total to $220-000.

EXPLAINS FINANCING

Explaining the financing of the water department improvements, Mr. Seeley said if revenue bonds were issued bearing three and one-half per cent and were retired in equal installments over a 20-year period, the annual cost would be $15,500. To this 40 per cent would have to be added for coverage in order to have saleable bonds. This would total $6,200.

This would make the total annual amount needed to finance a $220,000 revenue bond issue $21,-700.

Present water rates, he pointed out, yield a total of $42,000. So water rates would have to be increased 50 per cent to finance these improvements.

The city manager said Tecumseh now has the lowest water rate of 41 cities of comparable size.

Mr. Seeley said the immediate necessary improvements would provide the water needs for a community of 7000.

Councilmen authorized Mr. Seeley to contact the State Health department to see if it would approve Tecumseh's immediate water department improvements as worked out by the engineer. He is to report to the council at its next meeting.

Service

Tecumseh's annual Thanksgiving Union service will be held this year at St. Peter's Episcopal church at 7:30 p.m. Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 23.

The Rev. Horace James will preach the Thanksgiving sermon and will be assisted by other members of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association.

A special feature of the service will be music by the chorus of the Tecumseh Music Club.

C of C Gets Free Rent for One Year

C. F. ("Bill") Sage who owns the building named for him has granted the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce a year's free rent for office space in the Sage Building.

Meanwhile, plans are in progress for the special window card promotion that the chamber will sponsor in connection with the Christmas shopping season.

Tickets for the promotion will be handed out Monday and all merchants taking part in the special promotion will be named in next week's HERALD when further details of the promotion will be announced.

Board Seeks Guidance in Using Fund

Tecumseh Community Fund board members report they will "welcome any and all suggestions" on how the board should spend its emergency fund.

In a statement approved by George Green, president; Frank Rice, vice-president; Mrs. Richard Preston, corresponding secretary; the Rev. Edward Escolme, treasurer; and trustees John Thompson and Owen Partridge, the board said "we recognize we are servants of the community. We have no desire to be arbitrary or dictatorial. However, we feel we have a moral obligation to reserve the money for the purpose for which it was raised, at least until we are otherwise instructed."

The Tecumseh Community Fund is over the top. Chairman Jack Osburn reported Tuesday collections in the fund total $11,-946.66. The goal this year was $11,234.

Mrs. Frank Smith, another trustee, was out of town and did not see the statement. The statement further clarified the purpose of the emergency fund and explained how the fund was started:

ORGANIZED 12 YEARS

"On Sept. 15, 1955, the date of the last financial statement, the total funds of the Tecumseh Community Fund, Inc., were $15,116.-27. Of this amount $14,922.36 was in the emergency fund.

"The Tecumseh Community Fund, Inc., was organized Oct. 19, 1943.

"Records show that the annual campaign in 1945 included an item of $3,480 for this fund. Over a period of years, varying amounts — three years in a row it was $2,500 each year, followed by one year at $1,500 — such funds have been earmarked in the annual drive for the emergency fund. The last time such an item appeared was in 1952 when the amount so earmarked was $1,000. These amounts total $13,480.

"In addition to the above, throughout the 12 year period all receipts above expenditures have been placed in the emergency fund, excepting a fund sufficient to meet current demands.

EXPENSES LISTED

"Major expenditures from the emergency fund have been as follows: Aug. 5, 1953, to the Central School playground improvement fund $1,200; Nov. 9, 1954, Tecumseh Civilian Defense $1,304.74; April 11, 1955, Mr. George Kilbourn, Civil Defense director, for emergency vehicle $1,825.

Numerous allocations of funds have been made by the board of trustees in the periods between annual campaigns. As examples, Nov. 9, 1954, the Lenawee County Humane Society received $300, and Aug. 22, 1955, $200 was granted as aid to migrant workers.

"In some instances, the amount granted to an organization as stated in the campaign budget has been increased subsequent to the campaign. All such details are a matter of record, and of course, all the records are available for inspection at all times.

"In one instance where funds were requested, for which provision had not been previously made, the trustees felt they could not grant such a request, although merited and in order to keep faith with the public, money for this particular request was raised from public spirited corporations and individuals.

NO SEPARATE DRIVES

"By having an emergency fund available the board is in a position to eliminate the necessity for separate drives for any of the worthy causes that may claim the attention of the board between annual drives.

"The trustees know that it would be a very simple matter immediately to spend the entire amount in the emergency fund for any one of several worthwhile projects."

PLEADS GUILTY TO B-E CHARGE

Robert G. Metcalf, 26, Route 4, Adrian, pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the Tecumseh Country Club office when he appeared in circuit court Friday.

Metcalf, free on a $500 bond, was released awaiting pre-sentence investigation.

A former employee, he stole $228.

Dance

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a name band for Tecumseh.

Jaycees have lined up Ralph Marteris's band for a Friday, Dec. 30, dance. Present plans call for a New Year's eve dance a day earlier than the regular Dec. 31 party.

To be held in the high school gym, the dance's proceeds will go into the Jaycee's permanent bleachers fund.

FFA Holds Annual Banquet

The Future Farmers of America annual parent and son banquet was held at the Tecumseh Grange Monday night. FFA mothers cooked and served the chicken dinner. The boys raised the chicken.

Supt. James McDowell explained the present plan of possibly annexing 16 districts to the Tecumseh Public Schools.

FFA members Roger Finnegan, Darrel Lowery, Lawrence Riechenbough, Melvin Scheffler, Edwin Lewis and Bill Spreeman reported on various activities of the club.

Paul Burns made brief remarks and introduced implement dealers who were guests and the mothers who prepared the dinner.

He also introduced Dr. H. Paul Sweany of Michigan State University who spoke on the vocational agriculture program in a local high school and he also told of his experiences as a teacher.

He said: "Farmers of today are being called on more and more to support our nation and the challenge of farming is going to be just as great as always."

DEMANDS EXAM

James H. McGuire, 46, of Tecumseh stood mute and an examination was demanded for him by Justice John K. Lowe Friday.

McGuire is charged with failure to stop after being involved in a four-car accident in Franklin township Nov. 1, in which two persons were injured.

The examination was scheduled for today (Thursday). Bail was set at $1,000.

PROMOTED

Dr. Ferris G. Hodge, former Tecumseh dentist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hodge of Morenci, has been promoted to the rank of captain in the United States Navy. Captain Hodge is now currently stationed in Yokosuka, Japan.

School Board Okays Type of Bleacher

The board of education Tuesday night agreed with members of the recreation board as to the number and type of permanent bleachers that should be built on the recreation field.

Meeting with the board of education were Ed Nelson, Fay Whelan, Don Purkey and Jack Osburn.

The board of education, after listening to the city manager explain how permanent bleachers could be built in the natural bank at the field, agreed with the recreation board that, depending on cost, about 1200 to 1500 bleachers should be constructed at first. The type of material for the bleachers would depend on cost and on how much money could be raised.

So far the Exchange Club and the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce have ear-marked funds for permanent bleachers for the field.

City Passes New Ordinance

Effective Jan. 1, 1956, the city will license all pin ball machines and all "nickelodeons" or mechanical musical devices "operated for a consideration, monetary or otherwise."

The fee will be $15 per year. Applications for the licenses must be approved by the chief of police.

Patterson P.T.A. Attended by 100

The Patterson school PTA fun night last Thursday was attended by 100 persons. Mixer and activity games were played.

The next meeting will be a musical program presented by students under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Smith. The date, some time in Dec., will be announced later.

FINED BY JUSTICE

Michael Jurkowski, 43, of Tecumseh, paid $58.60 in fine and costs after pleading guilty before Justice John K. Lowe Friday afternoon to driving with a revoked operator's license.

He was ordered to pay court costs of $8.60 or spend five days in jail on a second charge of leaving the scene of property damage accident, Wed., Nov. 2.

Although he failed to stop after the accident, he did make a report on it later at the sheriff's department.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Tecumseh office of the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association will be closed all day Friday because of Veterans' Day.

The sale will be held from 2 to 9 p.m. each day. Objectives of the sale, Mrs. Fosbender reports, are to stimulate the reading habits of young people; to increase the use of the library; to draw attention to new books; and to provide the chance to buy books for the home. All the books are new and they are of all types. Date for the book sale coincides with national book week and its slogan of "Let's Read More."

The Tecumseh Public Schools will be host to the Michigan Education Association's program of action Saturday, Nov. 12.

Coffee hour beginning at 9 a.m. will precede the welcome by James McDowell, superintendent of schools.

Speakers will be Robert Hurley, chairman of the professional unification committee, and Dr. John English, president of the MEA.

How to solve problems will be discussed by panels and services of the MEA and NEA will be explained.

A luncheon at the Tecumseh County Club will be served at noon.

DRIVER FINED

A Nashville, Michigan, driver who was involved in an accident near Tecumseh May 28 has been fined $100 and assessed costs of $8.60 on the charge of reckless driving.

Allen Riddle, 24, paid the fine and costs in Justice L. J. VanDeusen's court.

The accident, a mile east of Birdsall, injured five persons. Driver of the other car was Wayne Kaiser of Clinton. He and his son Richard were among those injured. Riddle also was injured.

BANK OPEN FRIDAY

For the convenience of its customers, the United Savings bank will maintain its usual banking hours Veterans' Day, Friday, Nov. 11.

Supt. Explains Library Tax Rate Operations

Supt. James McDowell explains the public library millage rate and how the library fund operates in his third article dealing with the overall operations of the Tecumseh Public Schools.

The articles are geared to explain the local system to 16 other districts now thinking about annexing to the Tecumseh Public Schools.

Supt. McDowell reports:

"The public library is supervised by the local board of education and because there is no longer a voted tax for its operation one mill was requested of the board of supervisors so that it might be operated as is in the past.

"The public library account is a separate account and audited as such by Collins and Buri of Deroit at the same time as the school district accounts.

USED FOR LIBRARY

"No portion of the one mill assessment in local equalized valuations is used for the public schools for any purpose. All of the money is used for the public library.

"This year $1.00 per thousand of local valuation is being levied for the library as in the past but it is included in the 6.3 mills of school levy on state equalized valuations as set up by the board of supervisors for the entire school district, Tecumseh Public Schools, District No. 11.

"We, county Supt. Milton Porter, city assessor John Saling and myself agree that the school and library tax should appear on the local tax rolls as $5.90 per thousand state equalized or $13.30 local equalized for operation of the schools.

"For school debt retirement the rate is $6.00 per thousand state equalized or $13.60 per thousand local equalized. For the public library 40c per thousand state equalized or $1.00 per thousand local equalized.

Supt. McDowell also explained: "Mr. Porter, having read the article on taxes last week telephoned to report that a third county high school has a $5.00 per thousand operational rate.

REQUEST IS CHANGED

"Mr. Porter explained that subsequent to the report from his office which was sent to all county superintendents and used by me in an article last week that Mr. Bodell, superintendent of Clinton Schools, had changed their request from $7.00 per thousand for operation to $5.00 per thousand and from $10.60 per thousand for debt retirement to $6.00 per thousand.

"This request was made prior to the final meeting of the board of supervisors and was not incorporated in the report sent to local superintendents.

"Mr. Porter also pointed out that there was an error in the Adrian operation tax which is $8.85 instead of $8.55 as reported and that Hudson has no debt retirement fund or bonded indebtedness."

WILL SELL TREES

A sale of Christmas trees planned by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce will begin about Dec. 1. Proceeds from the sale will go into the club's permanent bleachers fund.

DRUNK FINED

James L. Hurst, 26 years old, of Toledo, appeared before Justice Robert L. French Monday and pleaded guilty to drunkenness.

Hurst, arrested by Tecumseh police at 1 a.m. Sunday, paid a $15 fine and $8.60 costs rather than spend 30 days in jail.

The Silver Lining

CHUCK O'NEILL, WHO recently returned to the west coast as a member of the U.S. Navy stationed at Treasure Island, Calif., wrote his mother Mrs. Ruth O'Neill that the island had been struck by a minor earthquake. Chuck said for a moment he thought he was going "off his rocker" before he realized what was happening.

"YOU CAN'T STOP A town from growing any more than you can put a tight suit on a boy to stop him from growing." This comment was made by Mayor Hanna Monday night when councilmen faced the problem of improving the city water department or stopping city growth.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR Gordon A. Sabine, head of the school of journalism at Michigan State University who dropped in Friday, has a simple rule for success. He says "work hard and live cleanly." After talking with Prof. Sabine about the fine apprentice program for young journalists at MSU, we discovered that success in journalism is not quite this simple.

PERCY F. SLAYTON of Whittier, Calif., writes: "Enclosed is $4 check for another year of the paper. Have been away many years, 44 in fact, but still enjoy the paper." Bless him.

AN ARTICLE FROM the HERALD appears on the fly leaf of the annual report of Quaker Oats Co. which is circulated nationally. The article was about Taffy, the dog who saved its three-year-old master from drowning.

AS A BOY I REMEMBER reading the book "From Tent to White House" and now comes even a better yarn.

Harold Peterson is a parks ranger at Tahquamenon Falls state park. He lives at the nearby town of Paradise.

Before his move to the Upper Peninsula park, Peterson was a ranger at Pinckney recreation area. He lived near the town of Hell.

Peterson's move from Hell to Paradise was made because he was such a good ranger. He received an increase in pay and position, too.

So he really is in Paradise.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: Get into the habit of looking for the silver lining of the cloud, and, when you have found it, continue to look at it, rather than at the leaden gray in the middle. It will help you over many hard places. — A. A. Willitts

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

A FAREWELL TO PROSPECT HILL

To do something—almost anything—for the last time is apt to tug at the emotions. When that something has been a happy part of one's life the tug is pretty strong. So it was with mixed feelings that four of us recently trudged to the top of Prospect Hill for what might well be our last view of the lake country in autumn from that magnificent vantage point.

For "Prospect" is now closed to the public.

It has always been privately owned but until recently the road to the peak has been maintained by a small fee charged the public. Now vandalism on the part of a few has caused the owner to bar everyone. Probably now there are not very many to whom this announcement will bring a pang of regret. To the average motorist of today, driving up a narrow, steep trail just to look at a view holds little appeal. So much else has been made so easily accessible.

To those who have enjoyed Prospect all their lives it comes as a surprise to have so many ask, "What is Prospect Hill and where is it?" To answer the last part of the question first, it is situated almost equidistant between Cambridge Junction and the north end of Devils Lake—as the crow flies. But no crow laid out the roads that lead to it. Like any mountain peak, Prespect has foot hills and the roads curve and dip through and over them to the delight of the leisurely motorist.

As to what it is, Prospect is part of the Irish Hill range and with the exception of Bundy is the highest point in southern Michigan. It is approximately 1100 feet above sea level to Bundy's 1200 and many who know both consider its view is much superior. Before US-112 cut through the Irish Hills is was better known than any of the other peaks. In fact its original name was "Michigan Heights" and its beauty was widely known and enjoyed.

We have a tendency to think of our forebears as pretty dour folk, so engrossed in material things as to have little time for beauty. But one wonders if a 1955 Lenawee could stage a successful, county-wide Fourth of July celebration at the top of an 1100 foot hill with no other attractions than scenery and orations. Lenawee did hold such a celebration in 1846 and there is an original handbill to prove it. F. S. Dewey of Detroit (of the Cambridge Junction Deweys) owned the poster and told the story.

The farm at the foot of "The Heights" was then owned by a Henry Gaston, of "New England colonial descent"; the "Marshalls of the Day" were William Blackmar and Hiram Smith while the committee included C. H. Dewey and S. Walker—all good old Irish Hills names. But the country in general was represented also. The "Tecumseh Troop" was scheduled to be present "with cannon," and the orator of the day was none other than Tecumseh's Dr. M. A. Patterson who was a speaker of note. The procession was to form at Mr. Gaston's and march up the hill (not, we hope, carrying the cannon) where the ceremonies would take place. These would be followed by a picnic dinner served "under a bower erected for the purpose," charge 25c to anyone who did not furnish provisions.

The handbill also stated that "it is intended to build a tower on the 'Heights' so all may have a more extended view of the beauties of the distant scenery" and according to Mr. Dewey this was done before the celebration. He calls it a huge structure (and draws a sketch to prove it), made of logs cut from the hill itself. The men of the country side formed a "bee" and worked four days to complete the tower—quite a project for "austere New Englanders" just to provide a "more extended view" of beauty.

Mr. Dewey gives another glimpse of the expansive hospitality of the day. Of course, there could be no well on such a height so "Mr. Gaston's water barrels, his stone boat and oxen struck the trail all day" to bring water from the spring three-quarters of a mile away at the foot of the hill.

There is no record of how long the log tower stood but those who frequented the hill about 1890 remember another tower which stood beside the landmark oak on the south brow of the hill. Faye Anderson says it was called a "government tower." Perhaps another reader will be able to tell us why.

A "powerful preacher" exhorted his congregation on Prospect at an early day, there have been other religious services there since and at least one political rally. A few years ago there was an attempt to use it as a ski-run. Now, unless someday it may become part of a state park, it will return to the squirrels and the hawks.

Diabetes

Among the five leading causes of death in Michigan, diabetes is the only disease with a Michigan death rate which is higher than the rate for the country as a whole, the Michigan Department of Health said today.

Health authorities said that Michigan's diabetes death rate in 1954 was 20.9 deaths per 100,000 population. considerably higher than the estimated rate for the nation which stood at 15.4.

Reporting 1,469 diabetes deaths in Michigan last year, the department pointed to excessive thirst, loss of weight, continual hunger and frequent unination as most common symptoms of the disease.

Health officials cautioned that you are more likely to develop the condition if there is a history of diabetes in your family. Studies cited also show that the disease occurs more often among overweight persons and among people over 40 years of age.

Urging more emphasis on early detection of diabetes, the department noted that "the disease often can be found even before symptoms occur through tests of the blood and urine which can be made by your doctor."

Goodwill

"Nearly $90,000 has been paid by handicapped workers at Goodwill Industries in income and social security taxes during the first three-quarters of 1955," Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary, said today.

During this period Goodwill workers earned $645,000. Total income was $850,000.

"Everything indicates at this time," said McKinnon, "that Goodwill Industries will gross well over a million dollars during the year of which over three-fourths of a million dollars will be paid out in wages."

"The largest portion of our income is from the sale of discards and from contracts with private industry. This program gives us the opportunity to offer jobs to over 400 handicapped people, who instead of relying on charity, either private or public, are able to earn a living and pay an estimated $100,000 in taxes annually. This saving to the community is one that makes Goodwill Industries a leader in its field in the United States," he said.

VFW Auxiliary Gives $50 to Community Fund

The Nov. 2 meeting of the V.F.W. auxiliary held at the post home was an inspection meeting with Mrs. Wyman Campbell of Milan as the inspecting officer.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Warren Filter it was voted to give $50 to the Community Fund and to serve dinner for the Lenawee County Nurses Association Nov. 17.

Mrs. Harlan Boyes reported on the recent Pow Wow held at Benton Harbor and Mrs. Bert Warren, patriotic chairman, urged all members to display the American flag Nov. 11. A moment of silence was maintained honoring the memory of the dead of the World Wars.

It was announced that the auxiliary would go to Morenci, Nov. 13 to help institute an auxiliary to the Wolverine-Buckeye post. Announcement was also made of a box social to be held jointly with the post Wednesday evening, Nov. 30.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Yale Kerby, Mrs. Gertrude Eisenminger and Mrs. Howard Luce.

The next meeting on Nov. 16 will be a social evening and will feature a Chinese auction.

Mayflower Pilgrimage

BY MRS. HOYT WHELAN

Windmills are still used in some places for grinding corn and sawing wood, but much electricity is used, and some gasoline engines. The fuel they use for heating houses is hard coal. Asked what is done with the flowers from tulip bulbs that are grown for sale, the guide said they are mown off and fed to cows, and "The cows just love them." Perhaps that is the reason the butter in Holland tastes so good.

From Amsterdam we went to the Hague where the peace talks were held. A large, very beautiful building, with extensive, landscaped grounds.

Then on to Leyden, where we attended service at St. Peter's church at whcih the pilgrims worshipped while they were living there. The 157 of us filled quite a space in the church, which had been reserved for us. Part of the service was in Dutch and part in English. The church is large and very beautiful, and they told us is just as it was when the Pilgrims worshipped there. Then on to Delfthaven, which now is part of Rotterdam, where the Pilgrims held their last service before sailing in the Speedwell for England to begin the preparations there for their perilous journey across the ocean. Here a short service was held, and the Dutch pastor offered prayer, in English, for General Eisenhower, of whose illness we had just heard. One of the stained glass windows of the church represents an oldfashioned ship in full sail, with "Speedwell, 22 July, 1620," the date the Pilgrims left Holland.

GROUP SERENADED

Delfthaven is the second largest city in Holland; population 850,000. We had our dinner in Rotterdam, all 157 of us, with the guides and bus drivers also, and a very jolly meal it was with a young Dutchman at the piano, playing "The Stars and Stripes Forever" as we came in, and following it with "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Darling Nellie Gray," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "Rose Marie," "Yellow Rose of Texas," etc. Everyone joined in singing as he played. The food was wonderful, also.

After the meal we went on to the Hook of Holland, where we took the night boat across the North Sea and landed the next morning at Harwich, England, having had no rain yet, as we were promised, except that at Leyden it was misty, with a few drops occasionally, and no sun at all that day.

Harwich is on the western edge of England and here the Mayflower was built although it was registered from London. From there we went to Ipswich, a larger city, not far inland. In the fields men were pulling and topping sugar beets. From Ipswich to Bury St. Edmond and visited the church of St. James. The town named for St. Edmond who was killed by the Danes. Streets were narrow, turns short, and our five big buses had difficulty in getting through to the church. We placed a wreath here on the monument in front of the church, erected in 1904, to the memory of Elias Thacker and John Copping, members of this church, who were executed after being in prison for seven years. Their crime was "disseminating the principal of independency," and they were executed June 4, 1583. This community was the center of spreading the propaganda of religious freedom and influenced Brewster and Thacker in Peter House College in Cambridge.

Next to Cambridge, and a tour of its famous colleges. Peter House, the oldest, formed in 1284 by Bishop of Ely was attended by William Brewster in 1580. He paid his own way. Roger Williams also attended Peter House (St. Peter's College), but of course not at the same time as Brewster. The poet, Thomas Gray, attended here at one time.

There are 17 colleges in Cambridge, including three women's colleges. We went on across the street to Corpus Christi, which is associated with memories of John Robinson and Christopher Marlow. From Corpus Christi College we went to Kings College, near by. Harvey, the discoverer of the circulation of the blood, attended Kings College.

VIEW CATHEDRAL

Then on to Ely and its wonderful cathedral, the oldest in England, which began to be built in 1083. We were priviledged to view the interior. Then on to Peterborough for the night. Saw a great many brick kilns as we entered the city. This used to be their principay industry, but now they have principally engineering and manufacturing, they told us.

Then on to the town of Boston population 80,000. St. Botolph's church, the foundation laid in 1309. is one of the oldest cathedrals in England. It is large, very ornate, and beautiful. It was in this church that John Cotton preached for some time, and a chapel in one side of the church is called "The John Cotton Chapel." His pulpit in the sanctuary is of Jacobean carving, and has been in continual use. The third Sunday in July is known as American Sunday. Special services are held, and an American minister preaches the sermon, in recognition of all that American have done for this Boston of old England. American money restored the tower and recast the bells in 1934. We visited the Guild Hall here, where early court was held, and where prisoners were confined. We saw the cell in which William Brewster spent considerable time after being arrested because of his activities against the Church of England and his spreading of literature of that nature among the people.

The Sunday we were in Leyden, Holland, we placed a marker at the site of the printing press which he operated there at one time in his efforts to win others to the cause of the Separatist Movement. The cell in which he was confined in the Guild Hall is very small, with no window, and only a hard bench by way of furniture. The cell next to Brewster's was just the same and was occupied at one time by William Bradford, imprisoned because of his activity in the Separatist movement. Over the doors to the cells is this inscription, "In these cells William Bradford and William Brewster and others afterward known as The Pilgrim Fathers were imprisoned on the 23 September, 1607 after attempting to escape to religious freedom." Size of cells about 10 by 9 by 6 feet. The Guild Hall was built in 1450, and has not been changed much. We unveiled a plaque there to commemorate the Pilgrim Fathers who had suffered so much in that place.

After the Guild Hall a tea was given for the group in the Municipal Hall. This was a very pretentious affair. The stairways were banked with flowers and ivy. They had on display the Charter of Incorporation of the city, dated 1585, and signed by Henry the Eighth. It was written in Latin, and was four pages long. "Old Glory" flies regularly in this room, along with the British flag, in recognition of the close association between the American Boston and this British Boston.

SEE HISTORIC SITES

The next two nights were spent in Lincoln. Our bus was loaded at The White Hart hotel, but they could not accommodate all of us so the others were quartered at other hotels. This hotel is not more than a block and a half from the Lincoln Cathedral and the castle of William the Conqueror. These are on a very high hill, and can be seen for some distance. The Castle is not open until 10 o'clock, so we got only a look at the outside and the very high wall around it, and the large, well kept lawn, through a small door in the wall.

The cathedral is the second oldest in England; was begun by William the Conqueror not long after the battle of Hastings, which was in 1066. Two years later he made extensive additions to it. Many of the men who came to England with him had made pilgrimages to the Holy Land and they wanted a church which would be finer than any they had seen. It is wonderful, and beyond any description that I am able to write, very large and imposing. Here is exhibited the Lincoln copy of the Magna Carta, the best of four surviving originals. In days before newspapers or printing, important measures like this would be engrossed a number of times and to each copy would be affixed the royal seal. Its real importance lies in the fact that its acceptance established the rule of law rather than that of transient whims and fancy.

FOR JOB PRINTING

The long-running and popular stage play, "Mr. Roberts," has been brought to the screen bigger and better than ever before in color and CinemaScope. It stars Henry Fonda in the title role, shown here with William Powell and Jack Lemon.

SEE STARS IN NOV.

Star gazers will have a heyday in Nov., says a University of Michigan astronomer.

"Along with the frost and cold come added brilliance and splendor to the stars," according to Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh, who points out that some of the most beautiful stars of the whole sky light up the heavens during this month and through the winter.

And with the shortening days—only nine hours by the end of the month—you'll have plenty of time to see them.

Rising in the far northeast just about as the Sun sets is the bright star Capella in the five-sided figure of the constellation Auriga, dominating the eastern sky in the early evening.

SEE THE BULL

Toward the south and coming up after Auriga is Taurus, the Bull. Part of this constellation, the little cluster known as the Pleiades, rises around sunset and about an hour later the rest of the constellation, a large 'V' on its side, comes into view. At the end of the lower prong is the well-known orange star Aldebaran.

Another familiar constellation to catch your eye is Cassiopeia which appears high in the northeast, says Professor Losh, adding that many star gazers see its figuration as a chair, thus its popular name, "Cassiopeia's Chair."

For anyone who's always wanted to see an eclipsing binary now's the time. The star Algol in the constellation Perseus is just such a one. And for anyone who's always wondered what an eclipsing binary is: "It's a double star in which the two stars revolve around each other," says the professor. In Algol the dimmer star eclipses the brighter one every three days.

PICK IT OUT

One of our closest stellar neighbors, the bright star Fomalhaut, appears in the southern sky this month. Because Fomalhaut is by far the brightest object in that area you shouldn't have trouble picking it out, says Professor Losh. This star is the farthest south of all the bright stars that can be seen from the northern latitudes and is located, 23 light years away, in a constellation called the Southern Fish.

The Milky Way extends from the northeast to the southwest with Cygnus, the Northern Cross, practically overhead. And just a little below Cygnus to the west lies Lyra with its bright star Vega, second brightest star from this latitude.

There's still another bright star at which to point your telescope in Nov. Altair, in the constellation Aquila, shines in the southwest and can be easily identified because it is the middle, bright star in a distant row of three.

And if some of the stars fall while you're gazing, don't be surprised. There are two meteor — shooting star — showers scheduled for the middle of the month, coming from the directions of Leo and Andromeda, the professor concludes.

FIRST GRADE—WEST BRANCH

Miss Steinhoff

Thanksgiving comes
With November weather
For parents and teachers
We give thanks together.

All of us are now reading about Dick and Jane. We hope it won't take us long to do our three little pre-primers.

In science we are studying how animals get food from their environment. We learned that the brown bear likes honey, berries, fish and vegetables. Our teacher showed us the filmstripes entitled "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" and "The Animal Musicians." We liked them very much.

We are learning the positions of numbers from 1 to 5. One day we learned how to use a checkroom and we played checkroom.

Recent visitors in our room were Mrs. Robert Starkey and Mrs. Kenneth Hooten.

Mrs. Frederick Cooley and Mrs. Kenneth Pieh helped us with our Holloween party. We enjoyed candy, popcorn balls, and Kool Aid.

Now Halloween is over and we have taken down our picket fence, black cats, and pumpkins.

BROWNVILLE

Miss Bugbee

We have lots of news to tell you this time. Many things have happened since you last heard from us. We are a group of "eager beavers" always ready to do the new and exciting things of kindergarten.

October was a busy month for us. Fire Prevention Week we learned about the work of the firemen. We pretended we were fire engines and read a story about a fire engine that was too little. We decided we would like to help prevent fires. We made boats for Columbus Day.

We hardly knew each other at our Halloween party. Everyone was dressed so funny. We played some new games. Our room mothers Mrs. Rinehart, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Andrews, and Mrs. Oberlin served us nice refreshments.

We have collected many pretty leaves, and learned to tell different kinds. We tried to make some that looked just like them.

Those who had October birthdays were Meryl Eaton, Debbie Goldsberry, and Susan Ford.

Johnnie Kotts was absent from school several days when he had his tonsils out.

Beth Frownfelder brought us a picture of our flag to use in our room. Chuck Gillies brought us a plaque about Little Boy Blue.

We are learning many things about Indian life now. We made our own Indian hats, moccasins, beads and tepees. We have brought Indian dolls, totem poles, trays, bows and arrows, arrow heads and drums to show. We have learned Indian rhymes and songs, and have read stories about them. It is fun to play Indian.

We were happy to hear that forty-seven of our mothers attended the last Mothers Club meeting. We hope that everyone will be at the next one which is Novmber 22.

We now have a policeman on our corner to help us cross the street.

Visitors this month have been Mrs. Ernest Hammack, Mrs. Ben Hammack, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Goldsberry, Mrs. Oberlin, Mrs. Rinehart, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Frederick Butler, Mrs. Damon, Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Prettyman, Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. Glauser, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Hoekstra, Mrs. Foote, and Mrs. Bagby. We like to have our mothers visit us.

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. VanValkenburg

Our Halloween party was a "howling success." We enjoyed the beatuiful costumes as well as the funny ones. The boys furnished the refreshments for this party.

We have had two new pupils since school started, Carol Lynn Aldrich from Marshall and Lynette Miller from Adrian. We have had two birthdays this past month, Carmen Fergus and Rickie Link who brought a birthday surprise for us. We are glad that Deborah Rumpf, Jeffrey Barritt, and Howard Miller, who have been sick with the chicken pox, are able to be back in school.

We have finished reading our first reading book, "We Look and See." We are enjoying reading from two supplementary books, "Guess Who," and "Happy Days With Our Friends" besides our basic reader, "We Come and Go."

Most of us can write and recognize our numbers from one to eight.

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Neitling

October was a big month, two birthday treats, and a Halloween party. We certainly enjoyed parading in our funny costumes.

This month a new family has moved into our "blackboard house." It is the teen family and we are learning to say the names and write them.

We are reading in our second pre-primer. We have also learned five of the initial consonants. We work on rhyming words nearly every day, too.

Merton and Bonnie are back with us again. Merton has been in the hospital with a bad tooth and Bonnie had eleven stitches taken in her face and head. She was bitten by a dog.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The kindergarten children are busy making paper mache fruit to put in their big Horn of Plenty basket. When it is finished, we will put it in our little show case. The mailman will soon bring us a real Gingerbread House. There will be little candy children on the green frosting grass. Candy ducks and chickens will be playing around, and the roof and chimney will be good enough to eat. After we enjoy seeing it, we will take it to the little sick children at the hospital.

The first grade had a nice time at their Halloween party. Everyone dressed so funny, that they had a hard time guessing who each one was. We all had fun in the big parade to all of the rooms in our school. The best of all were the treats of popcorn, candy, and cookies.

There were many spooks and goblins in the third grade. Prizes for games and costumes were won by Sue Hammack, Gregg Schultz and Jeff Noe. The boys furnished the refreshments. Nancy Mead had a birthday, and her treat was enjoyed by all of the third grade.

The fourth grade now has 36 children, as Joyce Randolph has moved to Walled Lake. She says that she will write and tell us about her new school. The fourth grade was very happy to have the P.T.A. attendance award to put in their display case. They won it last month as they had the largest percentage of parents joining the P.T.A. at the firsth meeting this year. They will try very hard to keep the award again this month.

Ronald and Donald Hill have moved away from our school and are now living near Britton.

Our school pictures are back. We enjoy exchanging pictures with our friends. They make nice Christmas presents, too.

Mrs. Whelan Tells Wit and Wisdom of Recent Trip

It was "Mayflower" night at the Nov. meeting of the Wit and Wisdom Club Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw. Mrs. Laidlaw, who was in charge of the program gave a concise summary of Pilgrim history and called on Delmar Finch to read the Mayflower Compact, the beginning of representative government in America and the list of its signers.

She then introduced Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, telling of the tour arranged by the Mayflower Society which made it possible for her as a Mayflower descendant to visit those places in England and Holland which were associated with the pilgrims.

Mrs. Whelan then told of her trip in more detail showing many excellent pictures which gave her audience glimpses of the interesting places she had visited. Impressive views of Stone Henge closed the lecture.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg it was decided to have the Dec. committee arrange a Christmas dinner meeting in place of the Methodist concert which they had been scheduled to attend and whose date had been changed.

Study Class Has Family Night

The Study Class on Indian Americans of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, which had met at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Collins sponsored a family night at the Methodist church last Thursday.

Indian American puzzlemats marked each place and colorful napkins, pictures on which represented historical phases of life of United States Indians were used. Totem poles centered the tables.

A potluck supper was served to 50 guests after which an interesting program was enjoyed. An Indian version of the Twenty-third Psalm was read. A vocal solo, "Land of the Sky Blue Water" by Cadman was sung by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney accompanied by Mrs. Kenton Hunt, after which Mrs. Wilfred Waldron played a piano solo "The Dagger Dance", from the opera "Natoma" by Victor Herbert.

"Ceremony of Wearing of the Moccassins" was enjoyed by all. Each guest was given a pair of tiny tan suede moccassins and was reminded of the Indian prayer, "O Thou Great Spirit, Maker of Men, forbid that I judge any man until I have walked two moons in his moccasins".

A short introduction of the importance of the prayer and the fact that white people have rarely put themselves into the Indians' moccasins was stressed. The leader, Mrs. Robert Bonner, continued the ceremony by asking each one to put on the moccasins of understanding and each one fastened the moccasins on himself as a symbol.

The filmstrip, "Stangers in Their Own Land" was shown. It showed how an Indian family makes the transition from a home on the reservation to a home off the reservation as so many of them are now doing.

The culmination of the study was the sending of a box of useful gifts to the Navajo Methodist Mission School at Farmington, New Mexico.

Recruit Team of State Police to Meet Applicants

A Michigan State Police recruiting team will visit Tecumseh next Wednesday, Nov. 16, and Saturday, Nov. 19 to interview applicants in connection with the current drive to obtain 200 additional troopers authorized by the special session of the legislature.

The team will be located at the fire hall from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Its members will be troopers Dan Comrie and George Catton of the Clinton Post.

Of particular interest to young men is a new salary increase approved by the State Civil Service Commission. Training school pay has been raised to equal that received the first year by a full fledged trooper and there is also a general increase covering all brackets.

The range is $151 every two weeks, beginning with training school, up to a maximum of $192 in the trooper ranks. Likewise, the maximum is attained at the end of four years, or a year less than formerly. In the past, training school pay has been $116.

In addition to salaries, troopers receive approximately $75 a month for subsistence. They also are given their uniforms and traveling expenses and two paid vacations a year.

To be eligible, a candidate must be between 21 and 29 years of age, inclusive, not less than five feet, nine inches in height and in good physical condition. He must be of good character and have a high school education or its equivalent. Married as well as single men are accepted.

"The visit of the recruiting team has been especially arranged so that young men may learn at first hand what a real opportunity this is to join a career service," said Sgt. Fred O'Donnell, commander of the Clinton Post.

"They may also inquire at any State Police Post or talk to any State Police officer. But the recruiting team visit is for their convenience."

Applications must be in by Nov. 30. If sent by mail to the Civil Service Commission in Lansing and postmarked by midnight of that date, they will still be accepted.

The recruits will be trained and put into service as quickly as possible. The legislature authorized more State Police manpower to combat the highway accident rate through increased traffic law enforcement.

What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?—(Micah 6:8.)

The bride's home was at Route 1, Tipton, while the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ball live on Rankin Road, Britton.

MRS. BENJAMIN BALL

Autumn colors predominated in the church. The altar vases were filled with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and the same flowers were used in the large baskets which, with lighted candelabra decorated the chancel and in the bouquets which marked the pews.

Mrs. Kenneth Adams and Harry Bammer of Brooklyn, both cousins of the bride furnished the music for the wedding, Mr. Bammer singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Adams, who also played traditional music before and during the ceremony.

The bridal couple was attended by Miss Sandra Simmons of Tipton and Miss Mary Lou Partridge of Tecumseh as maid of honor and bridesmaid and by Allan Barrett of Britton as best man. The ushers were the bride's brother John Dewey and Gene Bruce, who is a cousin of the bridegroom.

Miss Dewey wore white lace over taffeta made ballerina length, the fullness accented by pleated inserts of nylon tulle. Her veil was of French illusion bordered with Chantilly lace and held by a sequined cap. Her long lace mitts were pointed over the hands and she carried a white orchid tied with a shower of satin ribbon and white rosebuds on a white Bible, which was a gift of the groom.

Miss Simmons' dress was toast colored tulle in ballerina length with matching stole and head band of leaves trimmed in pearls. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of yellow pompoms. Miss Partridge wore yellow tulle over taffeta made in similar fashion and she carried bronze pompoms in a cascade. Both wore pearl chokers and earrings, gifts of the bride.

Mrs. Dewey chose a brown suit dress for her daughter's wedding and wore brown accessories while Mrs. Ball's dress was powder blue as were her accessories. Both had orchid corsages. There were four grandmothers attending the service and all wore corsages of pink and white flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brix of Brooklyn acted as hosts for the reception which followed the ceremony in the Episcopal Parish House. Others assisting were Mrs. Howard Dewey, aunt of the bride, who cut the three-tiered wedding cake; Mrs. Byron Pilbeam, sister of the groom, who served the groom's cake and Mrs. Lester Munger and Miss Rea Brix, who served coffee and punch.

The Misses Marisia, Patricia and Patience Pierce, all cousins of the bride from Detroit were in charge of the guest book and the gifts, respectively. The Lyster League of the church furnished the refreshments for the 100 guests.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a sheer wool dress in navy blue with red accessories and topper. She wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Ball will make their home on Rankin road, Britton where the groom is engaged in farming with his father. He graduated from Britton high school in 1954, while the bride, a member of the 1956 class of Tecumseh high plans to complete her schooling.

Indians Recover Poise, But Lose to Hillsdale, 14-6

Playing a finer brand of ball than they had in their past two games, the Tecumseh high school Indians Friday night held the Hillsdale Hornets to a 14-6 score. The loss gave the Indians a Southeastern League record of 1-2-1 with a win over Bedford, losses to Monroe Catholic Central and to Hillsdale and a tie game with Airport Community.

Beating Monroe Catholic Central 7-6 Friday, Bedford tied for the league crown.

Fundamentally, Tecumseh was a much better team than the team that was racked up by Hudson and Blissfield in two previous games.

Hillsdale scored twice in the first half and then held on for its second league win. The Hornets completed their season with a 2-2 record in league play.

Midway in the first quarter Davis went 65 yards for a td but an illegal procedure penalty called the play back. Moments later John McElroy passed to John O'Meara that carried the ball to the 25 yard line. McElroy faded again and hit his end Dale Boyse with a picture pass good for the six points. O'Meare ran the extra point.

In the waning moments of the second quarter after both teams had failed to penetrate, Hillsdale scored again. McElroy hit his other end Bill Barron with a 30-yard pass play and O'Meare galloped to the 15.

Expecting a pass, the Indians were not set for McElroy's skirting his end for the score. Time ran out as he crossed the goal. Again O'Meara scored the extra point.

Tecumseh and Hillsdale were not the same teams in the second half. The Hornets were without the services of their best quarterback McElroy. He suffered a head injury when he made the last Hornet touchdown and he did not return to the field.

And Tecumseh was fired up. They took immediate charge and with Yoakum clicking on passes to Spangler and with Marsh's running the Indians worked to the 15 before a holding penalty pushed them back. On the next play Tecumseh fumbled and the Hornets recovered.

Both teams battled the flags during the second half with the officials playing drop the handkerchief.

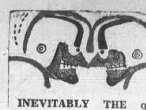
The Indians' chief weapons in the second half were the effective screen passes and the running of Gary Marsh who played the finest game of his career.

Val Spangler recovered a Hillsdale fumble on the 30. Al Dickinson picked up a first down in two carries, placing the ball on the 20. Al completed a pass to Spangler on the 8 but a holding penalty brought the ball back to the 35.

The Hornets held and took over but went no where. They punted to Dickinson who streaked back 31 yards to place the ball on the 18. In four plays Gary Marsh behind the best blocking all year, banged over for the td. The try for extra point from placement was mussed up when Al Dickinson could not handle the pass from center.

SCORE BY QUARTERS:

Hillsdale	7	7	0	0	14
Tecumseh	0	0	0	6	6



THE MIDDLE GUARD

by LES BINGAMAN

INEVITABLY THE question arises, "what's wrong with the Lions?"

I'm asked that question all the time, and I wish I knew the answer. This is a wish shared by Coach Buddy Parker and his staff, General Manager Nick Kerbaway, Lions President Edwin J. Anderson and the entire board of directors.

Everyone knows that all's not well with the Lions but no one knows exactly why. Parker shakes his head in silent misery. I feel equally as bad.

Probably the best answer to the $64,000 question is that a combination of factors has contributed to our decline. Not among them, however, is the theory that the Lions are an aging team.

Despite possessing several veterans, Detroit is essentially a young team. Even such "greybeards" as Bobby Layne, Doak Walker and Leon Hart are 28, 27, and 26, respectively.

More valid is the suggestion that a combination of breaks, the player draft and difficulty in integrating offense and defense is responsible for our current plight.

The breaks were going our way when we were on top but the ball is bouncing in the other direction this season. The law of averages has caught up with us. If we had been lucky, we might now possess at least a .500 average.

That great leveler, the player draft, has been as devastating to the Lions as it has been to all the other teams that once stood on top. Because we finished first, we've had last pick of the best collegiate players every winter for three years. It has hampered us in obtaining needed replacements.

For some strange reason, the offensive and defensive teams have been unable to mesh on the same Sunday. When the defense has been hot, the offense has been cold, and vice versa.

Probably our greatest difficulty has been in our line play offensively and our backfield performance defensively.

The offensive line has had its headaches giving the backs room to operate, and a backfield is only as good as its line. The defensive backs have encountered trouble on pass defense, particularly on key third downs when one more incomplete pass would have forced the opposition to kick.

Put them all together and it spells ulcers, in capital letters. It is about as good an explanation as I can offer.

But let's not forget we've been on top a long time, and there's a law of gravity that says what goes up must sometime come down. And so we have.

But the Lions will be back up there again, just wait and see. We have too many good players and too good a coaching staff and management to be down for long.

Junior High Beats Rinky Dinks

Last Thursday afternoon the combined talents of two junior high heavyweight teams defeated a Jayvee Rinky Dink team, 8-0.

In the second period Steve Kruger threw a pass to Dick Solarski for the score. The play covered five yards.

In the final quarter Jim Curth, tackled a Rinky Dink runner behind his goal for a safety and two points.

The Rinky Dinks scored a td but it was nullified by a holding penalty.

Some good players on the junior high team were Kruger for his signal calling and punting; and Neitling, Curth, Solarski, Baird, Rucker, Nichols, Underwood and Dotson.

Britton Loses to Ida, 19-13

The Ida Blue Streaks scored 19 points in the first half Friday then fought off a valiant Britton-Macon 11 to win 19-13 and tie for the leadership in the Little Six league. Ida and Onsted are tied with 4-1 records. Britton-Macon is tied for last place with Sand Creek with 1-4 records.

Dick Horvath went 19 yards for the first Ida td and Geiger went one yard for the second one. He also scored from the five. Monaghan passed to Miller for the extra point.

Larry Patterson scooted 20 yards for Britton-Macon in the third period to place the ball on the 10. Fred Barnoske scored from a foot out and Merle Sanch kicked the extra point. Barnoske scored again late in the quarter.

Britton threatened twice more but the Streaks kept them from tying.

Boysville Beats Addison, 21-6

Boysville's Fighting Knights beat Addison 21-6 in a non-league game Friday night.

Addison's Panthers scored first when Jim McLaughlin bolted 80 yards with the kickoff for a score. That was it for the Panthers. For the remainder of the game they never got past the 50.

The Knights scored but it was nullified on a penalty. They penetrated to the 1 later and lost the ball on a fumble.

The Knights struck with a 60 yard pass play in the third with Paul Carry tossing and Tony Mata catching. The play carried to the one and John Murray scored.

In the final quarter the Knights scored twice. Recovering a fumble on the 40, they worked to the four where Murray again scored.

Vern Tourangeau scampered 27 yards for the last td.

Bob Temerowski kicked three extra points.

Commenting on the Passing Scene

THE SO-CALLED SERVICE rendered by the county sheriff's department on the accident west of town a week ago Tuesday was the poorest we have seen.

The department was called early Wednesday morning following the four-car pile up and a spokesman said he could not give any information on the accident until the report was written. This was almost 15 hours after the accident.

He further said that he could not even tell us if Tecumseh residents were involved because the report had not been written. But, he said, he would call us when the report was completed.

He never called; so it could be assumed that the report still has not been written.

From this lack of service one would gather that the sheriff's department thinks the daily is the only paper in the county.

As it turned out a Tecumseh man was involved and the HERALD was not able to report on the accident before going to press.

This lack of service is difficult for us to understand. We hope it will not occur again.

ACCORDING TO OUR files 20 years ago in 1935 a representative of the Michigan State Highway Department told Rotarians that the department plans to render all possible aid in beautifying the trunk line roads and will purchase shrubs and flowers to improve the boulevard on Chicago.

The boulevard, what is left of it, still is not planted. It's true there used to be larger islands on the boulevard; but we still have enough left for a planting and beautification project.

This might be a worthy project for the Tecumseh Garden Club to consider.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE Exchange Club and to the Jaycees for at least getting the ball rolling on a fund for permanent bleachers for the recreation field.

Sure, they will meet with opposition. Their detractors already have pointed out that the cost of the bleachers is too much money to pay for a project "that will be used only about six times a year;" and that "there are worthier projects in which to put community funds."

This may be true. The city could certainly use a community center with a nice auditorium. But if you think bleachers cost a lot of money, price an auditorium.

Actually, the city needs both projects and one day we may have both.

My Favorite Prayer

SUBMITTED TO THE LAYMENS' NATIONAL COMMITTEE

BY RICHARD M. NIXON
Vice President of the United States

Our Father, with so much bitterness abroad in the world—this poor bleeding world, stumbling from blunder to blunder, hollow with graves, hard with hate — may we who own the name of Christ shed abroad Thy love.

We pray for a broader vision of the needs of all mankind, and a deeper compassion to fill those needs, for a planting of the seeds of concern for all humanity in our hearts; for a tapping of the wells of generosity.

Help us to live together as people who have been forgiven a great debt. Help us to be gentle, walking softly with one another. Help us to be understanding, lest we shall add to the world's sorrow or cause to flow one needless tear. Help us to stand for what is right, not because it may yield dividends later but because it is right now.

Help us to be as anxious that the rights of others shall be recognized as we are that our own shall be established. Help us to be as eager to forgive others as we are to seek forgiveness. Help us to know no barriers of creed or race, that our love may be like Thine — a love that sees all men as Thy children and our brothers.

God, help us all to be ministers of mercy and ambassadors of kindness for Jesus' sake. (Reverend Peter Marshall, Former Chaplain of the U. S. Senate).

New Pink Light Bulbs Are Pleasing

New pastel pink colored light bulbs have been announced by three major light bulb manufacturers.

These new bulbs are available in sizes the same as other bulbs, explains Jessie Marion, extension home furnishings specialist at Michigan State University. These wattage numbers include, 60, 75, 150, 50-100-150, and 100-200-300.

Miss Marion says the pink bulbs are good for many uses. They provide a soft light, reduce glare and shadow, flatter complexions and produce a pleasing atmosphere for comfortable living.

Pink bulbs will enhance warm colors in fabrics, foods and furnishings. But she warns, do not use them in reading lamps, because of the lower output of light due to the pink color.

Do not use them for sewing, because of the lower output of light and because color in fabrics may be distorted. Another "don't" to remember in using pink light bulbs is when applying make up. Miss Marion says that under white light, there will be less chance of misapplying cosmetics.

Miss Marion says red-orange and yellow-orange colors are enhanced or enlivened by pink bulbs. These colors, in home furnishings, take on a fresh look, she comments. With cool colors such as greens and blues, the pink bulb tends to subdue and gray.

"You asked me what our most important business asset was," I remarked to a friend across the dinner table. "I'll give you a clue. It's something money alone can't buy. Yet it has required years of investment."

The friend smiled. "It couldn't be your office furnishings or current stock of good listings. It must be your business reputation."

"You've hit it," I replied. "It's the goodwill our office has built up in the community."

"How would you define goodwill?" the friend queried.

I grinned. "I was ready for that question. No less an authority than the United States Supreme Court says:

'Goodwill is the disposition of a pleased customer to return to the place where he has been well treated.'

"Frankly, our business depends on satisfied buyers and sellers. They recommend our office to friends. And, if the occasion arises when they want to buy or sell a property they return and give us an assignment."

Our "goodwill" asset is one we constantly try to build up. Since it starts with a "pleased customer" may we have the opportunity of pleasing you with our Personalized Real Estate Service?

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

Michigan's mysterious deer killer—believed to be a virus disease—appears to have died off itself after taking a toll of several hundred whitetails.

Game specialists said the deaths apparently reached their peak in early Sept. and only a few have been reported this month.

About 110 dead or dying deer were reported in a five-county area, with Manistee county as the hub of the area. Another 20 deaths were reported in Midland and Saginaw counties.

The known number of dead deer indicated the losses numbered several hundred.

Officials spiked rumors that the danger of the disease might cause a ban on deer hunting in the affected regions.

No evidence has been found that the disease affects humans and no restriction on hunting has been considered.

The state veterinarian's office said no reports have been received that livestock or other domestic animals were affected by the malady.

Death came almost immediately to deer which contracted the disease, lessening any possibility that hunters might shoot a sick deer during the firearm hunting season.

Examination of dead deer indicated a virus infection probably caused the deaths. Earlier reports that deer had been poisoned by eating wilting cherry leaves were discounted by tests conducted at the Houghton Lake wildlife station.

An outbreak of deer deaths in the state of New Jersey last month reportedly reached several hundred and was diagnosed as a "virus infection" by authorities at the Rockefeller Institute of medical research.

A similar problem cropped up in Michigan two years ago when hundreds of deer died mysteriously.

The state authorized payment of $20,210 in bounty fees on coyotes, foxes and bobcats during the month of Sept.

Hunters and trappers bountied 907 coyotes, 685 foxes and 167 bobcats during the month.

The total bounty compares with $20,850 paid to hunters and trappers for Sept., 1954.

All the bobcats and all but 25 of the coyotes bountied during Sept. were taken in the upper peninsula. Foxes were taken generally throughout the state.

Bobcats became legal game animals in the lower peninsula Oct. 15 and are protected except during the Dec. 15—March 15 as provided by the state legislature. Bobcats still are bountied as predators in the upper peninsula.

A blind deer that wandered in a field near Rogers City for three days started a wildlife mystery that ended several days later on a tragic and disturbing note.

A farmer first reported the animal and called conservation officer Ned Curtis. Curtis called for help from Houghton Lake wildlife station biologists.

The field workers captured the animal and took it to a fenced area near Houghton Lake for study. At first, they thought it diseased and were baffled by its blindness. The animal showed no external signs of trouble. Slowly however, it weakened and soon for a final mercy, the biologists killed it.

Autopsy showed the deer had internal injuries and pneumonia.

The cause? A charge of birdshot had hit the deer in the face, probably two weeks previous. Pellets caused the blindness and by penetrating the chest, started the pneumonia.

From the mountain streams of Vermont this year are coming 200,000 eggs from wild brown trout, a gift of that state to the people of Michigan.

The eggs are part of nearly 4,000,000 slated for processing at hatcheries this fall.

This year's total includes 1,400,000 brook trout, 355,000 brown trout and 2,225,000 rainbows.

Last year, 4,275,000 trout eggs were processed at state hatcheries, including 1,775,000 brooks, 425,000 browns and 2,075,000 rainbows. A holdover inventory of young fish from last year caused the somewhat smaller total this year.

County Writers Are Guests of Historical Society

Those from Tecumseh who attended the Lenawee county Historical Society in Clayton last Tuesday were Miss Beth Satterthwaite, Miss Edythe Shull, Mrs. Jeanie Satterlee, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. James Artman and Allan Seager.

Mr. Seager was one of the speakers of the afternoon, the subject being writers of Lenawee county. Because of a previous engagement, he was able to speak only briefly of his work, saying that many of the characters of his three novels had their origin in Lenawee county. He also commented on his pleasure in reading the articles of Mrs. Irene Kendrick of Blissfeld, who previously wrote in the Adrian Telegram.

Others taking part in the program were E. D. Kerr of Clayton, who read excerpts from his two books of poems, Mrs. Amos Carlson who read an interesting article on Will Carleton and Elmer Pocklington of Britton, reading some of his own poems.

Other local authors and poets mentioned were Layman Wetherbee, Albert DeGreen of Addison, Mrs. Belle Plummer of Tecumseh, the late B. E. Tobias and Ella Flatt Keller.

The meeting was held in the Clayton Community rooms with dinner served by the ladies of the O.E.S. and L. C. Coffin of Clayton extended an address of welcome which was responded to by Mrs. Guy Pocklington.

During the business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. W. W. Cook, Mrs. Eugene Ryan was appointed to act with the county chapters of the D.A.R. in regard to an historical museum.

The meeting was closed with group singing accompanied by Mrs. W. G. Waldron. The next meeting will be at the Horton farm west of Adrian to which the society was invited by Willard Cornelius.

Good Season Seen for Game Birds

Although our hot, dry summer was rough on humans, Michigan's game birds thrived on it and now abound for outdoorsmen, be they hunters with gun or camera.

Along about the time they're full grown and legal for hunters they're also in full plummage and best shots for the camera fan, according to University of Michigan professor of Wildlife Management, Warren W. Chase. And the time is now.

Woodcock, partridge and pheasant will be in their heyday, and although there won't be as many grouse — "they're approaching a low in their ten-year cycle" — there'll still be plenty to pot at.

GET OUT EARLY

The best time for hunting by gun or camera is in the early morning, says Professor Chase. The birds are feeding then and less easily disturbed.

Michigan is an especially good place for woodcock hunters, this wildlife expert points out. "We have many low, marshp swampy areas with the thick cover favored by the woodcock," he explains, adding that the Canadian woodcock will migrate through Michigan southward within the next few weeks so hunters will have a good shot.

HUNT WITH CAMERA

Hunting and good eating attract a lot of sportsmen to the birds, but even more people go out to see the brilliant plummage says the professor, who urges color film for shutter-bugs.

Some of the birds are popular because their feathers make chic ornaments for ladies' hats. There was a time when the egret and heron were in danger of extinction because of overzealous hat hunters, Professor Chase relates. More stringent hunting laws have solved this problem, and he cautions hunters to check with local conservation officers on hunting seasons and limits on bag.

MPSC Okays Phone Rates

General Telephone Company of Michigan was advised that the Michigan Public Service Commission has approved rates which correspond to those applied for in 1952 by the utility.

The company has been collecting a portion of its charges for telephone service under a decree of the court pending release of this final order by the commission. This order affirms the rates which have been collected under the courts decree and no changes will take place in present rates.

L. H. Meyer, company president, stated that the order makes it possible for the utility to continue to move forward on its multi-million dollar program of improvement and expansion of telephone facilities for its 107,000 subscribers throughout Michigan.

New Sweep-ahead styling
New Sizzle to match

The 1956 Buick SUPER 4-Door Rivie

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and from the gleam of that "V" grille to the sassy slant of the tail fins, you can see it has no equal for gorgeous good looks.

But what you see from the curb is more than matched by what you feel at the wheel—and that's gospel.

For this Buick gets its zoom from a mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

What's new in the '56 Dynaflow is this: in the first inch of pedal travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick moves from standstill to cruise with silk-smooth, instant and certain getaway.

But comes a sudden need for safety-surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired transmission. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

There's a lot more we could tell you about these great new Buicks—about brilliant new interiors, a superb new ride with a safer "sense of direction," and new safety features everywhere you look.

But the best way to get the whole story of the best Buick yet is right at the wheel of one of these '56 beauties. So drop in this week and do just that.

Best Buick yet

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

Rome, Italy
Feb. 4, 1955
Friday, 10 p.m.

The odor of fresh yellow mimosa blossoms greets us as we open our room at the Excelsior Hotel. "You buy it!" remarked an American coming up on the elevator, as I comented on the huge gold room key his wife was dangling from her fingers. We have yet to hear that bad news.

Daddy and I have just returned from dinner at "Passitos," renowned for his cuisine. The first course, Pizza pie, was delicious, but the pheasant in orange sauce — like sticking your tongue out of the window; the strawberries from Naples—superb. Daddy relishes "Expresso" coffee, a thick black liquid, but I've learned that Nescafe is the thing for me to order. We presented our huge bottle of red wine to a group of young Canadian fellows in the room who courteously accepted it as additional spirit to their already spirited evening.

SPEND DAY IN ROME

Our first day in Rome? We very foolishly, but unconsciously, slept until 10 a.m.

Our room in European style is huge, 20 by 18 plus hall and large bathroom. Ceilings 11 feet high, lounge chairs and a fireplace that yields no heat. Our balcony looks out on the American Embassy.

We spent a wonderful day—one I shall never forget as one is apt to all the Museum pieces. We left the hotel at noon in a horse and carriage, and leisurely went cloppity clop over the cobble stones and pavements until sundown; through the parks listening to the warblers; observing all the strolling couples, heads together bent affectionately; the smell of the fish markets, the beef or veal carcasses hanging in the open; smelled the pungent coffee bean, the something stronger from the street latrines, and the sweaty back of our carriage driver. He was a dear. Spoke no English, but whenever we came to an important spot, he turned around and with gesticulations, tried his very best in Italian to make us undrestand. I frantically turned the pages of my "New Guide to Rome" until I found a resemblance in pictures. He shouted "Si, si!" and I read the historical facts to Jens. Soon a regular camaraderie developed between us.

All is on such a grand scale — we're wondering why all the walls had to be so high. Marble everywhere—our films can paint a better picture.

PLAY MICHIGAN SONG

Our two Italians who were to meet us were out of town. The doctor's secretary met us at the plane and we took her out to dinner last night at "Alfredos, the Noodle King," a spot visited by all Americans. The strolling musicians were very attentive (everyone is looking for a tip) and even played Michigan's "Victor Song."

In America the Italians are more Italian than here. Majority are handsome blondes and very friendly.

Daddy is quoting Swahili from his bed, and I know I'm far behind.

Have done no shopping yet. Tomorrow is our last day. Leave Sunday for Africa. No berths on that plane either.

Break: More Swahili from the bed, but I hate to leave you. It is almost spring. Many women are wearing fur coats, but more for the effect than necessity. The Iris are ready to blossom; the fruit trees are in bloom and spring is in the air.

It must have been my red coat, not the carriage, because we received nods, stares, and smiles as we reigned through the crowded shopping areas.

This is the city for young people and lovers—romance is in the air.

OVER AFRICA

Feb. 6, 1955
Sunday

Dear Ones:

Somewhere over Africa. It's dark now—the plane (South African Air lines) filled with 40 passengers is buzzing with conversation and the droning from the engine. Dinner has been served (still waiting for coffee); each passenger has by this time overcome his inhibitions and is cosily visiting with his seat partner. Daddy is just across the aisle (we sit together at Cairo) and I've been (no inhibitions) having a very interesting conversation with my seat partner, a 300 pound man whose home is in Johannsburg now. Was born in Wales; is a fur trader, or rather buyer; goes to Russia too. During the war he directed the troops into darkest Africa, directed the cutting of lumber. He says that Tanganyika is the most beautiful spot in the world. You can shoot elephants from over your shoulder. Has advised me to never put my bare feet on the ground because of the Jigger Flea. Can remember looking that up in the "World Book." The Africans speak no English, but I don't have to worry about my lack of Swahili. Never realized before there were people called the "Afrikaanse." Their language is similar to the Dutch and on their paper money appears both the English and the Afrikaanse language.

Cairo — all out for an hour — waiters in tunics serving orange juice and I'm so tired, am ready to say "so what."

MEN'S CLUB HAS CHARTER NIGHT

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian church observed charter night last Wednesday evening. They enjoyed dinner at the fall festival served by the ladies of the church in Fellowship Center and then adjourned to the sanctuary where they were addressed by Jesse R. Bacallis, counselor at law from Detroit.

The fall festival, an annual event of the women's societies, was an outstanding success this year in spite of the very inclement weather.

There was a cooperative church dinner at 1 p.m. and the Rev. E. C. Dickin of St. Peter's Episcopal church spoke at the service which followed. During the afternoon a picture, "The Head of Christ," which was a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kuster of Adrian was dedicated as was new carpeting given by the Women's Society. The young peoples choir provided special music.

The ladies of the church expressed their appreciation for the help given them by the members of the Tecumseh church during their very successful rummage and bake sale held last week in the Youth House.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

WONDERING ABOUT WHAT to give that favorite nephew or niece or grandma for Christmas. The solution to part of your Christmas shopping problem may be found at the pubuic library which is selling new books by the armful. The sale continues until Friday night of this week. If you have not been down there to browse, you've been missing something mighty fine.

SPEAKING OF BOOKS, wouldn't it be wonderful to be able to go to school again and to use all those beautiful books that students today have? If comments along this line were made by one person at the high school open house last week they were made by dozens and well they might have been. Art work in today's school books is beautiful.

IF HE HAS NOT claimed it already a steak or chicken dinner is all set for Gary Marsh at the Top Hat. Gary, Tecumseh high senior won the long tail contest sponsored by the restaurant. His winning pheasant tail feathers measured 24 inches. Second place was won by J. C. Heflin of Tecumseh and third place went to Dean Collins of Macon. The 11 entries in the big tail contest came from all over. Tails ranged from 18 to 24 inches in length.

A LADY CALLING MRS. NINA HEATH on the phone had an interesting experience. Mrs. Heath's grandchild answered the call and, turning to Mrs. Heath the child asked: "Grandma, are you Mrs. Heath?"

A LESSON IN SALES psychology was learned in a small Oakland County grocery store last weekend. A sign on a large box said: "Take one while they last." A fairly large woman bustled herself over to the box and you should have seen the look on her face when she saw the contents of that box. In it "free while they lasted" were three of the softest and cutest kittens you ever saw.

A MAN WHO SPENT a quarter century in the composing room of the Traverse City Record-Eagle dropped in Monday. Talmadge E. Berry first went to the north country from Virginia in 1921 to go fishing. "But I ran out of money so I just stayed there," he said. And now all the ham and candied yams in Old Virginny could not carry him back. Now retired as mechanical superintendent of the Traverse City daily, he was visiting relatives in this area and he dropped in to see where the Palman's historical house was located. Talmadge is very proud of his six children he has raised in the north country, three of which are his neighbors in Traverse City.

THE ROSCOE SMITHS northeast of town know the meaning of a helping hand. Mr. Smith, working on his barn, fell and fractured his back. His corn was not harvested so neighbors, including young boys, chipped in and did the job on the corn. It was just like an old-fashioned husking bee. Mrs. Smith overwhelmed by the help sincerely thanks all those who left their own work to give their neighbor aid.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Oftentimes opportunity is missed because we are broadcasting when we should be tuning in."

SIGN OF THE TIMES: For many years the Lapeer County Press at Lapeer published the names of those who bought deer licenses in town. But, and for a good reason, too, the paper no longer publishes the names. Some of those who were off their jobs "home sick" actually made the trek to the woods and their bosses could see this vital information in print. So hunters began to get their deer hunting licenses elsewhere. The County Press, being community minded, stopped the policy of publishing the names "because it was driving business out of town."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: One of the mistakes in the conduct of human life is to suppose that other men's opinions are to make us happy. — Richard Burton

Water Rates Are Same 21 Years

City manager Ed Nelson this week reported that city water rates have not been changed for 21 years. In fact, today water users can get a slightly better deal than they did in 1934.

He said in 1934 when the city was a village of 2800, 3,500,000 gallons of water per month were pumped from village wells.

Today, he continued, the city has a population close to 6000 and 60,000,000 gallons of water per month are pumped.

The minimum charge in 1934 was $10 for 30,000 gallons of water. Today a water user gets 40,000 gallons of water for $10.

City officials currently are considering raising water rates by 50 per cent to finance a revenue bond that will be used to improve the city water system. Cost of the immediate needs as outlined by engineers will be $220,000.

The Michigan Department of Health has ruled that the city can not extend its water lines until these minimum requirements are met.

Because of Thanksgiving the HERALD will be published early next week. It will be published on Tuesday so the postal deliveries can be made Wednesday morning.

Your cooperation will be sincerely appreciated.

Chief George Kilbourn of the police department urges parents to keep their dogs from following children to school. He said unless something is done to curb this practice the situation could get out of hand and some child may be bitten while playing on school grounds.

TB Seal Sale Begins Here

A boy and girl with rosy cheeks and happy smiles convey a happy mood of Christmas giving on the 1955 tuberculosis Christmas Seals, which went on sale here Wednesday.

This marks the 49th year that Christmas Seals have sparked the voluntary campaign against TB, an official of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association said today.

This year's seals come in pairs. On one is a little boy with a gift in one hand and a sprig of mistletoe in the other. The companion seal features a little girl carrying a gift. These are our children as we like them—healthy, secure, bursting with joy and eager to share it, as Jean Simpson, this year's seals designer, explained.

"And behind each child stands the red, double-barred cross, as a promise of protection," added Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary of the state Christmas Seal organization.

"Tuberculosis still strikes more than 5,000 of our Michigan neighbors each year," Werle pointed out. "It still kills an average of 10 persons each week in our state. Christmas Seal dollars are vitally needed to continue the relentless war against tuberculosis."

Christmas Seals represent the age-old tradition of giving presents at Christmas time, Werle emphasized. The seals also represent a newer tradition—that of individual giving for the welfare of the entire community.

"These little seals do a big job fighting TB all year long by telling the TB story to people in Michigan, by helping find unknown cases of the disease, by carrying on research studies, and in many other ways," Werle added.

The Christmas Seal campaign lasts through Dec.

He brings to his new post 19 years of experience in selling used and new cars.

C. O. (Chuck) Butler, owner and manager of Butler Motor Sales said: "The acquisition of Mr. Wagner's services is part of our overall expansion program due to the larger volume of business that we are enjoying."

He referred to the recently expanded show room, new service equipment and the enlarged used car operations as parts of the company's future expansion program.

FINE DOG OWNER

Game

A window game during the Christmas shopping season will be held by Tecumseh merchants. The game is sponsored by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

Six prizes will be awarded each week.

This is the way the game will work:

Shoppers are given tickets in the stores taking part. Numbers calling for the prizes will be printed on a card in the merchant's window.

Any winning number not claimed by the following Tuesday will be phoned to the chamber of commerce office and then published the following Thursday.

A list of merchants taking part in the window game may be found on page four. Any of these merchants can give additional information on how to play the window game.

Arraigned before Justice John Lowe Monday on the charge of careless use of firearms, Michael George, 47, of Detroit paid a fine and costs of $58.60. He pleaded guilty. If the fine is not paid he will serve 30 days in jail.

New Car Plates Go on Sale

J. M. Artman, manager of the Tecumseh branch of the Secretary of State's office reports that about 60 1956 car license plates were sold during the first two days of this week.

Those being sold at present have the letters UR.

A special feature of the service will be music by the chorus of the Tecumseh Music Club.

This information about the junior chamber of commerce, its objectives and goals, was submitted by Merlyn Downing, chairman of the membership committee:

The Jaycees Are Not:

1. A chamber of commerce (although they often work together.
2. A political organization — although many members as individuals become active in political parties and affairs.
3. Restricted on types of projects, nor required to conduct specific ones.
4. Eat, meet and go home club.
5. A business men's group, a fraternal club, or organized for any selfish motive.

What Do You Get Out of the Jaycees?

1. Association with other young men in your community.
2. Leadership development through active participation.
3. The opportunity to improve your community.
4. Knowledge of public affairs and community problems.
5. A chance to be a leader in your community.

8. A good time.
9. Activities "for your kids and mine."
10. Formal leadership training programs such as public speaking courses.
11. Learn to give and take orders, learn to lead and learn to follow.
12. Practical knowledge of parliamentary procedure, budgets, finance, and public relations.
13. An opportunity to have a voice in the affairs of your community, state and nation.
14. Self satisfaction—the greatest reward of all.

What Are Your Obligations as a Jaycee:

1. Not just paying your dues.
2. Attend a majority of general meetings.
3. Participate in a minimum of two or three projects each year.
4. Take an active part in meetings.
5. Remember, you only get out of it what you put in it.

Members of the Tecumseh Business and Professional Women will begin next week to solicit census information for a new Tecumseh directory which will be published by the George Robinson Co. of Hillsdale. Proceeds from the women's work will go toward the permanent bleachers fund.

PATTERSON

The fifth grade won the P.T.A. attendance plaque for this month, because they had the highest percentage of parents attending the November meeting. Although the other grades did not win the award for the month, we are sure everyone had a good time. It was our first fun night and every parent that came joined our teachers in games and had a good time.

Our P.T.A. meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at 8 00 p.m. in our auditorium. The December meeting will be a music program directed by Mrs. Smith. We hope each parent will try hard to help make our P.T.A. successful.

These fourth graders had a perfect score in their Self-Testing Drill, No. 3:

Nancy Hooten, Stephen Freckleton, Maxine Fuller, John Mensing, Lettie Ringman, Allison Derby, Gene Manwaring.

The third grade are very proud of their twenty-two stars on the Fridays speeling test. In arithmetic they are learing to add and subtract two place numbers. They think it is lots of fun. Linda Spooner had a birthday. She had a treat for her classmates which they enjoyed very much.

Most of our first graders have finished two reading books. We are very proud of the way we can read and print all of the big and little letters. In numbers we are working on number groups of ten.

The kindergarten are enjoying playing about the Pilgrims. They have a table that makes a fine Mayflower.

In the large case in the hall the first graders have a scene showing the Pilgrims here in America in 1620.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. VanWinkle

Mrs. VanWinkle has been telling and reading stories to us about the early settlers of our country, and how they hoped for a better life in a new land. We have wondered how we would feel if our families decided to move to a far away land. Would we feel sad to leave our friends and all the things we know so well? We would be excited, too. We think we would ask these questions: What is it like? How far is it? Where will we live? Will I go to school? How will we talk? We think these people called Pilgrims were very brave and we are happy that they picked America for their new home.

We have some new alphabet cards and have arranged them across the front of our room to look like a long train. The engine is pulling all the A, B, C's and at the end we have a bright red caboose. Right now our cars are filled with fall fruits, vegetables, and Thanksgiving turkeys.

We have been having birthday and other treats, sent by our mothers. We enjoy these very much and would like to thank them for thinking about us.

We were sorry to have Paul Covell move to Britton last week.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Callihan

This is such a busy time of the year! We are beginning to have stories and pictures of Thanksgiving. We made our own calendars and found it was hard to get the right number of days and weeks on it.

Several of us have had colds and have been out of school for a few days. We hope John Wirick will return soon after his illness in the hospital and at home.

Cherie Flowers had a birthday treat for us all. Cathy Merx has a birthday this month.

Reading is getting to be fun now that we know many more new words. Our new reading chairs are helping us hear our groups easer.

We are glad to have so many parents visit our room. We would like to see the rest sometime this year if they could come.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Puffer

November seems to be birthday month in our Second Grade! First came Pamela Brooks, then Catherine Maples, Gordon Haviland, and Timmie Rodgers. Darryl and Doris Richardson, our twins, celebrate their birthday on Thangsgiving Day this year.

This is a good time of year to learn more about seeds. In our Science books we discovered that seeds travel in different ways. Some fly through the air, some are carried, while others, such as burrs, are hitchhikers. We have been busy collecting as many examples of each type as we can find and arranging them in a display in our room. It was a surprise to see how many kinds we use for food.

We have planned a Thanksgiving surprise for the other Second Grades in our building but we are trying hard to keep it a secret until November 23!

SECOND GRADE—WEST BRANCH
Miss LaPointe

We wish to thank the mothers who made candy or popped corn for our Halloween party. All the children seemed to have an enjoyable time, but of course the refreshments were the best part of the party.

Glenn Barton reported that he had visited a coal mine in Illinois recently. He brought a piece of coal from the mine he visited.

Ricky Brighton added to our collection of Pilgrim and Indian pictures, by bringing a small plastic model of the Mayflower. He also brought some very good imitations of Pilgrims in wax.

Sanda Smith, a member of our class who has been in the hospital for the past six weeks with rheumatic fever has gone back to her home where she is gradually improving. We hope she will soon be able to return to school.

Mothers who have visited us during Education Week are: Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. Richard Eggleston, Mrs. John Gurth, Mrs. Richard Beemer, Mrs. Norman Sisty, Mrs. James Barton, Mrs. LeRoy Titley, Mrs. Robert Glascock, Mrs. Robert Wood, Mrs. Richard Brighton, and Mrs. Keith Barron.

Mrs. Donald Brazee visited us a few weeks ago. We are always glad to have visitors and want them to feel welcome to come at any time.

The following had birthdays in November: David Osburn, Pamela Williams, Theresa Mann, and Raymond Schmidt.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Schwartz

We now have twenty boys and seventeen girls in our room.

Walter Zarnoch, Tom Elliott, and Russell Blanden brought squaw corn to help decorate for Thanksgiving. We have drawn pictures with turkeys and are planning to make Pilgrim figures with clothespins.

We enjoy the game period we have in the gymnasium on Fridays. Some of the games we like are Club Snatch, Witches and Goblins, Three Deep, and Squirrels in Trees.

We each wrote a report for language. It was more fun than we expected it to be. Some of us read our reports to the class.

We have covered 100 pages in our arithmetic books. We think this a good start.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Thomas

When you open the door of Room 300, you will see thirty-five happy faces. We are happy about our new books, we like our big lockers, and its fun being on the third floor.

In September we had six birth days, Fran Cooper, Joan Forrester, Karen Miller, David Randolph Timmy Rinehart, and Doug Wilcox. Shirley Fielder and Larry Merx were both eight years old in October. Larry Hartwig had a birthday in November, and Randy Work's is this week.

In our Science book we are learning about animals. We are making an animal scrapbood.

We have a Spelling Club. We hope everybody will be able ot be a member½ To be a member, we must get an A on a unit test. Our best record so far is twenty-six A's on Unit Eight. Good luck to all!

During our language class, we wrote letters. William Bartenslager wrote to President Eisenhower saying that he hoped the President felt better. Mrs. Eisenhower sent Bill an answer to his letter. How wonderful!

We had our pictures taken. It is nice to have pictures of your family and friends.

Our Halloween party was fun. Some of us looked funny, some beautiful, some we did not recognize at all. We did stunts and had cider and glazed doughnuts.

Have you read the book Wanted: Two Bikes? We have enjoyed it very much.

We are proud that we are learning to take care of ourselves. We have a chairman, a secretary, bathroom and hall monitors, and other room helpers. We are doing a good job.

Come and see our pretty Thanksgiving bulletin board.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from The Bible

Call unto Me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not.—(Jeremiah 33,3.)

It is the Lord God Almighty, creator and ruler of the vast universe, who invites us mortals, His children, to call upon Him in our despair and distress. He, ever merciful, ever loving, will answer us—such is His promise, the greatest and mightiest of all the things in the world, the hope of all mankind.

7,000,000 men and women—who live and work in the 48 states—will join in America's biggest birthday party Nov. 13-19.

That's the week the nation's trucking industry will mark Truck Transportation Week being sponsored again by the Independent Advisory Committee to the Trucking Industry (ACT).

Trucking has come a long way since that day in 1900 in Detroit when a man whose name has been forgotten by history hooked a wagon to the back of a Model T and went off ou his business.

Today more than 10 million trucks and trailers—big, little, middle sized—serve the nation.

Seven million men and women work in trucking—a working force second only to agriculture in national totals.

MOTOR EXPRESS

Every hamlet and farm is served by trucks—and cities have grown and spread out because outlying factories, stores, supermarkets and neighborhoods can get fast, daily deliveries of supplies.

Trucks do other jobs, too. They're essential equipment of fire, police and sanitation departments everywhere. They are the basic tools of crews that maintain telephone, gas and power lines. They are used in exploring and drilling for oil, in mining and in farming.

If anyone needed any more proof of the indispensability of highway transportation in general—and the trucking industry in particular — the recent floods in the Eastern U. S. was an excellent example. Trucks did everything — greatest of all in saving lives.

Monday Club Visits Maple Lane Manor

Mrs. Ralph Westgate opened her home for the potluck dinner meeting of the Monday Club this week due to a death in the family of Mrs. W. G. Waldron, where it was originally scheduled. Thirty-eight met for the noon meal and for the short business meeting conducted immediately after.

Additional members increased the number to 45 when they left for an afternoon visit to Maple Lane Manor in Adrian. There the group was assembled in the dining room of the institution and gave an informal program for the patients. Mrs. George Green Sr. was in charge of the numbers and with Mrs. C. A. Staulter at the piano and Mrs. Thomas O'Hara as leader, songs and hymns were sung, many at the request of the patients.

Mrs. Fred Sheldon gave one of her always enjoyed readings, "A Country Woman's Thankgiving" and Leo Kilbourne of the manor sang several selections to the accompaniment of his guitar.

Little John Jeffries of Tipton gave accordion solos and Mrs. Staulter played some spirited and popular piano selections after which all joined in singing, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go." Mrs. D. F. Wright was co-chairman of the program.

The club president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy and the hostesses, Mrs. Westgate, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Miss Vera Gilbert then distributed souvenirs to the manor audience, small plants for the women and handkerchiefs and candy bars for the men.

There are now 59 women and 34 men at the manor of whom 30 are bed patients. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foreman are the new superintendents in charge.

The Dec. 12 meeting of the club will be a "Holly and Tinsel" breakfast at the Methodist church.

State Project Winners to Attend 4-H Club Congress

STATE-WIDE recognition awards of expense-paid trips to Chicago have come to three Michigan 4-H Club members who excelled in projects of safety, field crops and tractor maintenance.

The winners are Mary Jane Bombard, St. Clair county; Russel Bauerle, Clinton county; and Ernest Canniff, Cass county. Along with 24 other delegates they will travel to Chicago in late November to attend the National 4-H Club Congress.

Through earnings accumulated in his 4-H project work, Ernest Canniff, 18, has bought a tractor, combine, baler, drill, mower, rake, plow, drag, elevator and accessory equipment. He is the son of Mrs. Louise Canniff, R. 1, Dowagiac, and before buying this equipment, he and his mother worked their 185 - acre farm with a horse. Much of his money was earned by doing custom work. He is a senior in Dowagiac high school and is president of the county tractor program which is not connected with 4-H Club work. He has won a medal for safety in the county tractor program and many blue ribbons at the State 4-H Club show and the Detroit State fair for vegetable baskets. Ernest's trip is sponsored by the American Oil Co.; General Petroleum Corp.; Pan-Am Southern Corp.; Standard Oil Foundation, Inc., Chicago; Standard Oil Co. (Ky.); Standard Oil Co. (Ohio); Stanolind Foundation Inc., Tulsa, Okla.; and the Utah Oil Refining Co. The twelve national winners will receive $300 scholarships.

Ernest Canniff

Mary Jane, 19, received her award for outstanding work in automobile safety. In her club automobile safety program she supported the county crusade for safety and obtained over 200 signers for pledges. Her group won in achievement for driver's safety, and she was selected for the county honor roll. Mary Jane, daughter of Raymond Bombard, R. 1, Smiths Creek, has been in 4-H Club work eight years and has taken part in projects from clothing to ducks, dairy and insects. Her Chicago trip is sponsored by General Motors, Detroit. Eight state winners will be named in Chicago as national winners to receive $300 scholarships.

Mary Jane Bombard

Renting 160 acres of the neighbor's farm on which to raise his crops, Russel Bauerle, 19, won state honors in field crops. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bauerle, R. 1, DeWitt. Russel attended the James Couzens Agricultural school and was very active in all activities of his local 4-H Club. In 1954 he won the State Farmer degree with the silver award and is in the Michigan National Guard. In telling of his field crops achievement, he said: "I feel a great satisfaction in seeing a freshly plowed field or one that has just been tilled. It makes you feel like you've accomplished something." Sponsor of his award trip is the Nitrogen Division of Allied Chemical and Dye Corp., New York. Six national winners will be chosen to receive $300 scholarships.

General Phone Plans Huge Plant Expansion

General Telephone Company of Michigan today announced another major project in its multi-million dollar program of service improvement and expansion.

To provide improved service for its subscribers, the company has ordered immediate construction of a new plant and stores building. The site of the present Muskegon poleyard on Jarman Street is the location for the new structure, with a portion of the present warehouse building to be incorporated into the new development.

At an estimated cost of $150,000, the new facilities will house instrument, equipment, paint, and carpentry shops. Providing 12,470 square feet of space, the structure will be one story high with overall dimensions being 86 x 145 feet. Cement footings, steel framing, and exterior walls of concrete masonry are specified in the plans.

Scheduled for completion in May, 1956, the building will also serve as a reporting center for installation and service crews. L. H. Meyer, President of General Telephone Company of Michigan, stated that more efficient service and maintenance will be provided with the completion of this project which will facilitate repair and service for the 107,000 subscribers located in 29 of the state's counties. This Muskegon addition represents a local phase of the planned improvement program to affect operational exchanges throughout Michigan.

The Strom Company, local construction firm, has been awarded the building contract, with work scheduled to begin immediately.

Christian Science Services Listed

What purposeful living and intelligent consecration to God can mean for mankind will be explained at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon "Soul and Body" will include the following from I Peter (1:22, 23): "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeighed love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently; Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be among those read (428:15-19): "We should consecrate existence, not 'to the unknown God' whom we 'ignorantly worship,' but to the eternal builder, the everlasting Father, to the Life which mortal sense cannot impair nor mortal belief destroy."

Altar Society Has New Members

Three new members were presented to St. Elizabeth Altar Society at last Wednesday's meeting. They are Mrs. Joe Horvath, Mrs. Dan Coleman and Mrs. E. J. Crawford.

Mrs. Roy Whiting presided at the business meeting when plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Nov. 18 and 19 at the Ford garage. There will also be a bake sale on Nov. 18. Mrs. Wallace Whiting reported on the children's collection for UNICEF at Halloween and Mrs. Ted Golat and Mrs. R. W. Dixon were appointed to represent the society for the March of Dimes.

The group also planned for an open house to be held from 7 to 9 p m. at the school the evening of Nov. 16 when a pantry shower will be given for the nuns. The president appointed Mrs. C. F. Sage, Mrs. Wallace Whiting and Mrs. Ralph Hodges as this month's committee for cleaning the church.

The children of the school, 102 of them, provided the entertainment for the evening. The first grade presented a song about cooking, dressed in chef's costumes. The second and third grades sang, "An Umbrella Built for Two", wearing raincoats, hats and galoshes and the fourth grade danced and sang "Take Me Out to the Ball Game". They wore baseball caps.

A verse, "Where Everybody's Happy" was recited by the fifth and sixth grades, who also sang "Lord Make Me an Instrument of Thy Peace". The seventh and eighth grades closed the program with the "Hail Mary". Each child was given a candy bar by the committee.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Mueller and Mrs. Harry Weakly and their committee. There were 55 members present.

Teen Club Has Hay Ride

The Teen Club viewed the rural country-side north of Tecumseh Saturday evening from the vantage point of a hay ride. Thirty young people were transported on two tractor-drawn wagons furnished by Al Merz. Mr. Merz had arranged special safety lighting for the wagons and Albert Tonneberger furnished straw for the hay ride.

The entertainment was sponsored by the Jaycees and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Muray and John Hamilton were chaperones. When the party arrived back in Tecumseh refreshments were served in the Presbyterian Fellowship Center.

Harpsichord Shows Early Musical Trends States Wayne U. Humanities Professor

Dr. Henry Herrmann of the Wayne University College of Education gives a lesson on a recently acquired harpsichord to Donald Foster, vocal music education student. The harpsichord was imported from Germany for use in humanities classes.

A harpsichord is making a humanities class popular to students this year at Wayne University in Detroit.

Dr. Henry Herrmann, professor of education at the University had the newly-built instrument imported from Neurnberg, Germany.

His students are gaining first hand musical experience of the late medieval, Rennaissance, Baroque periods as well as jazz.

"We show students how to put humanities (study of art, literature, and music) in an industrial society and the value of the arts in the modern scene," Dr. Herrmann said.

Modern trend in music circles, showing jazz-minded Wayne students the tie between old and new music, is the use of the harpsichord in today's popular songs and orchestrations.

The soft toned harpsichord, an instrument out of the Napoleonic era, is used by orchestra leader Stan Freeman in his musical arrangements and a few years ago was featured in the hit recording of Saroyan's "Come on to my House" sung by Rosemary Clooney.

The newly-built harpsichord was imported from the Neuport Company, Neurnberg, Germany. From the 16th to the 18th centuries, the harpsichord, clavichord and recorder were the most popular musical instruments in Europe. Compositions by Bach popularized the harpsichords.

Predating the piano by two centuries, the harpsichord is a soft-toned instrument and must be tuned each time it is played.

Mozart and Beethoven played and composed music for the harpsichord until the end of the 18th century. The piano replaced it because of more voluminous quality needed in symphony orchestra performances.

The piano continues to be the household favorite because of its versatility of tones and quality.

The harpsichord resembles a grand piano in miniature, with a four and one-half octave keyboard. Keyboard coloration is in reverse of the piano or clavichord. Keys that are ivory on the piano are black on the harpsichord and black keys on the piano are ivory on the harpsichord.

Playlet Presented at WSCS Meet

Mrs. Edward Leighton conducted both the program and devotions at the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church last Wednesday afternoon.

The topic was "Woman and the church throughout the centuries" and it was developed by a skit given by Mrs. Leighton, Mrs. Edward Harper and Mrs. Horace James. Music for the play was provided by Mrs. W. G. Waldron.

Mrs Waldron, who is chairman of literature and publications, reported on the conference meeting held in Romeo Oct. 28. Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, secretary of the status of women, talked on the United Nations, stating that church societies should keep religion and missionary work always before the world.

Mrs. Horace James announced a series of ten study classes for children to be held Saturday afternoons at the church. The study subject will be Indians American and the date of the first class will be announced later.

Announcement was also made of a musical, Christmas Tree Lane Tea Dec. 3.

Tecumseh, Britton Get Highway Funds

Net receipts of the state motor vehicle highway fund for the third quarter of the calendar year 1955 amounted to $29,531,317.11, and this money is now being distributed to the State Highway Department, counties, and cities and incorporated villages of the state as provided for in Act 51, Section 12, of the Public Acts of 1951 as amended, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announces.

Net receipts of the motor vehicle highway fund for the third quarter of 1954 were $26,906,379.84, representing an increase of $2,624,937.27 for the third quarter this year, compared to the same period in 1954.

Gross collections for the third quarter amounted to $31,039,738.11, from which was deducted the secretary of state's collection costs amounting to $1,008,421. Also deducted was $500,000 in snow removel funds disbursed in Oct. to counties which had a snowfall of 60 or more inches last winter, as provided for in Act 265 of the Public Acts of 1955.

The current distribution does not include any funds collected under Act 87, Public Acts of 1955, which increased the gas tax from four and one-half to six cents, and provided 75 per cent of this money go to the State Highway Department for use on certain designated trunklines, and the other 25 per cent to cities, counties and incorporated villages.

The distribution of Act 87 funds will be announced in the next few days.

All state gasoline, weight and diesel fuel taxes and a small amount of miscellaneous fees collected under the 1951 Act, are deposited in the state motor vehicle highway fund, which was created by the act. After deductions for non-highway uses and collections costs, the rest of the money is divided as follows: 44 per cent to the State Highway Department for expenditure on state trunkline highways in both rural and urban areas; 37 per cent to the counties for expenditure on county roads, and 19 per cent to the cities and incorporated villages for expenditure on their roads and streets.

Under the above distribution formula, the State Highway Department will receive $12,993,779.3 as its share of the third quarter of 1955 motor vehicle fund collections; the counties' share is $10,923,587.33 and the cities' and incorporated villages' share is $5,310,950.25.

The Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections during the third quarter came from the following sources: State gasoline tax, diesel fuel tax, liquified petroleum gas tax, weight tax (resident), weight tax (non-resident), and miscellaneous.

The sum of $250,000 is being deducted from the counties' share of the third quarter motor vehicle fund collections as a part payment of the $5,000,000 advanced from the State's general fund under Act 50 of the 1948 legislature, which was a measure to help the counties during the serious financial situation they were in prior to the enactment of the gas ta increase in 1951.

That act provided that the counties would repay the money to the state at the rate of $250,000 a quarter, if gas or weight taxes ever should be increased. The present deduction is the 17th payment on the loan, leaving $750,000 still to be paid back by the counties.

The deduction of the $250,000 to be applied on the counties' loan reduces the total of the 83 counties' payments from the third quarter motor vehicle highway fund to $10,676,587,33.

Lenawee county will get $139,030,14. Tecumseh will get $7,102.75. And Britton will get $796.29.

One of these hunters bagged this big buck last fall. He and his partner, dragging it out on deep upper peninsula snow, remind Michigan sportsmen that deer season, November 15-30, inclusive, is close on the calendar. An estimated 425,000 hunters will bag about 60,000 bucks this fall in the state's wilderness areas.

State 4-H Club Girls Win Chicago Trip

EXPENSE-PAID trips to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago have been awarded to three Michigan 4-H Club members for outstanding work in clothing, home improvement and girl's record. Ann Marie Sheppard, Chippewa county; Marilyn Sharpe, Oakland county; and Lana Dart, Ingham county, will represent Michigan in their respective projects at the national event in late November.

Marilyn, 18, was awarded the trip for her work in the home improvement project. Daughter of Mrs. Celia Sharpe, 44107 Grand River, Novi, she has been in 4-H Club work three years. According to John Worthington, Oakland county 4-H Club agent, "Marilyn has, in the short time that she has been in 4-H Club work, accomplished more than many do in twice the length of time." Graduating from Northville high school last spring, Marilyn is now enrolled as a freshman in home economics at Michigan State University. Her trip to Chicago is sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Chicago. Eight national winners will be selected in the home improvement project and each will receive a $300 scholarship.

Marilyn Sharpe

Also a freshman at Michigan State University is Lana Dart, who was selected as the outstanding Michigan participant in the girl's record project. Lana, 18, is the daughter of Mrs. L. Jeanette Dart, R. 3, Dart Road, Mason. Valedictorian of last spring's graduating class from Mason high school, she has been active in community and school activities and a 4-H Club member for eight years. She is a member of Ingham county club and has received many county and state awards for her clothing and home improvement projects. Montgomery Ward, Chicago, is the sponsor of her trip to Club Congress. Six national finalists will be selected there and will be awarded a $300 scholarship.

Lana Dart

A ten-year veteran of 4-H Club work is Ann Marie Sheppard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Sheppard, R. 2, Sault Ste. Marie. Also studying home economics at Michigan State University, Ann graduated from Sault Ste. Marie high school and received a scholarship to further her education. She has received the Danforth Leadership award and has participated in 4-H Club projects such as dairy, clothing and food preparation. A model in the State 4-H Club style revue for many years, Ann also took part in the J. C. Penny 4-H Style revues in 1950-55. In speaking of her clothing award, Ann declared, "I plan to go on sewing so that I can be well dressed on a moderate budget." Her trip sponsor is Coats and Clark Inc., Educational Bureau, New York. Twelve state winners in clothing will be selected as national winners and will receive $300 scholarships.

Rice is offered in the grocery stores in many forms. Regular polished white rice has the hull, bran and germ removed. Brown rice has a nutty flavor and more nutrients than white rice. With only the hull removed, brown rice doesnt keep as well and needs longer cooking time. Converted rice is regular white rice with B vitamins and minerals retained. Precooked rice is partially cooked before packaging, thus saving home cooking time.

Indians End Best Football Season in Years

Boysville Tied in Last Half Minute

St. Mary's of Boysville came through in the last half minute to gain a tie with Boysville Friday night, 19-19, in a non-league game.

Leading 7-6 going into the final quarter, Boysville had scored in the first period when John Murray went 35 yards for a touchdown.

St. Mary's scored in the second period on a 25-yard pass play.

Neither team scored in the third period but both exploded in the final quarter. Climaxing a 60-yard drive Vern Tourangeau scampered 18 yards for the td. Bob Temerowski's try for the extra point was blocked.

St. Mary's again scored on a 30-yard pass play. Bob Temerowski blocked the extra point try.

John Murray raced 80 yards for another Boysville touchdown but the play was nullified by a penalty. Moments later Tourangeau scored from the one and he ran the extra point to put the Knights in the lead, 19-13.

With 30 seconds remaining, St. Mary's Miller connected on a long pass to his left end who gathered the ball in on the 25 and scored.

Again Temerowski blocked the extra point try.

Boysville completed their season with a 6-2-1 record. They had wins over Deerfield, Hartland, South Lyon, Pinckney, Wayne St. Mary's and Addison. Their only losses came from Manchester and Dexter; and they were tied by Jackson St. Mary's.

Milan Win Nets Record of 3-4-1

With a 20-13 win over Milan in a non-league football game Friday night, the Tecumseh high school Indians completed their most successful season in years with a 3-4-1 record.

The Indians had win over Addison, Bedford and Milan. They tied Airport Community and they lost to Monroe Catholic Central, Hillsdale, Hudson and Blissfield.

Given a break, the Indians might have won the Monroe, Hillsdale and Airport games. They lost to Monroe and Hillsdale by only one touchdown.
